A Message from the Snark

HOO-HOO, the Lumbermen's Organization, having in mind its mission of Friendship, Confidence and Education, thereby enabling its members to secure Health, Happiness and Long Life, extends personal invitations to all members and to Lumbermen at large to attend the Annual meeting at Detroit, September 7th, 8th and 9th.

The same hold that this Organization has upon its Organizers and those who have devoted their energies to its progress is sufficient indication to all Lumbermen that its great mission can be fulfilled, and that it has work to accomplish in bringing together lumbermen in all branches of the industry as no other one Organization possesses.

BE SURE TO COME.

THINGS TO FORGET.

Forget the slander you have heard;
Forget the hasty, unkind word;
Forget the quarrel, and the cause.
Forget the whole affair, because
Forgetting is the only way.
Forget the storms of yesterday;
Forget the chap whose sour face
Forgets the smile in any place;
Forget the trials you have had;
Forget the weather, if it's bad;
Forget the "knocker"—he's a freak—
Forget him seven days a week;
Forget the home team lost the game,
Forget the pitcher was to blame,
Forget the coffee when it's cold;
Forget the kick, forget the scold;
Forget the plumber's awful charge;
Forget the iceman's bill is large;
Forget the coal man and his ways;
Forget the frost in winter days;
Forget, wherever you may roam;
Forget the guy who wrote this poem,
Forget that he, in social bliss,
Forgot himself when he wrote this;
Forget you ever get the blues,
But DON'T forget to pay your dues.
—[Exchange.]

TAKE OFF THE LID.

Take off the lid on your think-tank. Uncover your cranium hatchway. Open up a hole in the top of your head and take a look in your brain. What do you see? Is it a liver, or is it a fapper? What one thing occupies the most of your mind? Do you see yourself studying and preparing for some greater responsibility, or do you see yourself on a rock wishing, but not fishing?

Do you see in your head a great, big, question mark like this:

Whatever you find in your brain, after you take off the lid, will tell exactly where they will find you next year and in years to come.

Pattern your life so men swear by you, not at you.—[Roosevelt.]

LADIES! LADIES! LADIES!

There will be something doing every minute of your stay in Detroit:

Luncheons.
Theatre Parties.
Auto Rides to points of interest.
Entertainment at the Detroit Boat Club.
ENTERTAINMENT GALORE.
And THEN, ALTOGETHER,
Dinners and Dances.

WON'T THERE BE FUN!

MESSAGE FROM SECRETARY-TREASURER.

Brother Hoo-Hoo:

Another Hoo-Hoo year is drawing to a close. It has seen the Order make giant strides forward in securing proper recognition, in adding to its membership, and in securing reinstatements.

Get a line on the true condition and plans of the Order by attending the greatest of all Hoo-Hoo Annuals, at Detroit, September 7-8-9. If you can't possible attend, remember your duty to write or wire the Secretary stating your whereabouts, so it may be read at the convention.

This duty is set forth in the by-laws under article 47.

With the moral support of our members and prompt payment of dues, we can, and will, make 1923 the greatest year in the history of the Order. Therefore, I am making a special appeal to members to remit promptly for the coming year. Prompt remittance reduces expenses—increases benefits.

May I ask you, at this time, to pledge yourself for at least one new member during the coming year. Let us begin at once to make 1923 the greatest in our history of the Order, and let your answer be "It Shall Be Done."

On behalf of the Supreme Nine, and personally as Secretary-Treasurer, I want to thank you for your splendid support and co-operation during the past year. The successful work accomplished during the year could not have been done without your aid. We are, therefore, looking forward with every confidence to an even greater measure of co-operation during the coming year.

Yours for better and greater Hoo-Hoo.
H. R. ISHERWOOD, 29516,
Secretary-Treasurer.

Let's all pull together to make the 31st Hoo-Hoo Annual the greatest of all time. Detroit, September 7, 8, 9.

REDUCED RATES FOR MEMBERS ATTENDING ANNUAL.

The concession granted is one and one-half fare on a certificate plan, providing 250 attend with certificates. We submit the following directions for your guidance:

1. Tickets at the regular one-way tariff fare for the going journey may be obtained on any of the following dates, (but not on any other date) September 4-9. Be sure that, when purchasing your time ask for and obtain a certificate to the place of meeting.

4. Immediately on your arrival at the meeting present your certificate to the endorsing officer, H. R. Isherwood, as the reduced fare for the return journey will not apply unless you are properly identified as provided for by the certificate.

5. Arrangements have been made for validation of certificates by a special agent of the carriers on September 7-9, if the required minimum of 250 certificates is presented.

6. No refund of fare will be made on account of failure to either obtain a proper certificate nor on account of failure to have the certificate validated.

7. So as to prevent disappointment, it must be understood that the reduction on the return journey is not guaranteed, but is contingent on an attendance of not less than 250 members of the organization at the meeting and dependent members of their families, holding regularly issued certificates obtained from ticket agents at starting points, showing payment of regular one-way tariff fare of not less than sixty-seven cents on going journey.

8. If the necessary minimum of 250 certificates is presented to the special agent as above explained, and your certificate is duly validated, you will be entitled to, up to and including September 13, a return ticket via the same route over which you made the going journey, at one-half of the regular one-way tariff fare from the place of the meeting to the point at which your certificate was issued.

9. Return ticket issued at the reduced fare will not be good on any limited train on which such reduced fare transportation is not honored.

Hoo-Hoo says: If you are going to Earn more, you must Learn more.

"C'MON OVER"

Say Detroit Hoo Hoo and Lumbermen

"Welcome is written all over Detroit's doorstep," say the Hoo Hoo and lumbermen of Michigan's metropolis, in a telegram received at National Hoo Hoo headquarters, and it is written in letters so bold that all may read, "We have unlocked the door, swung it wide open and tossed the key away." They say further, and with a sincerity that can be detected even on paper, "Tell the boys to come on over."

The program and series of entertainments just completed bodes well for those who have determined to be "among those present" at the greatest of all Hoo Hoo annuals.

"If you haven't made up your mind to attend take a hunch from headquarters and go. Detroit lumbermen will be surprised at the great number of loyal Hoo Hoo who will respond to their invitation to "come on over."

going ticket, you request a certificate. Do not make the mistake of asking for a "receipt."

2. Present yourself at the railroad station for ticket and certificate at least thirty minutes before departure of train on which you will begin your journey.

3. Certificates are not kept at all stations. If you inquire at your home station, you can ascertain whether certificates and through tickets can be obtained to place of meeting. If not obtainable at your home station, the agent will inform you at what station they can be obtained.

You can in such case purchase a local ticket to the station, which has certificates in stock, where you can purchase a through ticket and at the same

"Woodbilt"

SIMPLIFYING
MAGNIFYING
DIGNIFYING

The Lumber Product in Construction

The above term is one which has developed through the efforts of the National Retail Lumber Dealers Association of Chicago. It is a term to be applied to the product of the forest the best used in construction there has never been used a term which fulfills in a dignified manner the construction of a home or building from entirely of wood.

The National Retail Lumber Dealers Association is justified in having the support and cooperation of the industry in its entirety in the movement to adopt a popular and proper term for wood construction. It simply means a method of boosting the wood product.

In our opinion there is an idea that offers the opportunity through the adoption of the term "Woodbilt" as a slogan, which will immediately carry the idea of wood as a construction material.

Now, then, if every member of the industry used that slogan, "Woodbilt," a constant repetition of a catch-slogan by the entire lumber industry is bound to make it popular and impress it upon the minds of the people.

The term, or slogan, "Woodbilt," has received most serious consideration by the leading lumbermen of the country. Suggestions were made such as "Lumberbilt," "Timberbilt," but the opinion is almost unanimously in favor of "Woodbilt." Perhaps you have something better in mind; if so, do not wait but send in your idea to the National Retail Lumber Dealers Association, Chicago.

We, as a fraternal Order, are deeply interested in all ideas such as these and such as will be helpful and beneficial to our great industry and its products.

This is a very worthy cause—one which means much to the industry.

Do not permit the use and abuse of the term "Woodbilt" or any other term that may be suggested, in the slogan to cover the subject matter. "Boost" "Boost" "Boost!"

"Detroit Invites You"

The CONCATENATED ORDER OF HOO-HOO will soon be before our gates. On behalf of the City of Detroit let it be known to all members and friends of this body of citizens, representatives of the lumber interests of America, that in this city a cordial and universal welcome awaits them.

The State of Michigan has been in the past the scene of broad operations of the members of your Order, and their efforts have contributed largely to the wealth of our State and City.

It is consistent and fitting that your code of ethics should emphasize solidarity and integrity, and in Detroit you will find a congenial atmosphere for those cardinal points of character mark the people of this Peninsula.

As your craft was the earliest known to man, so your members will learn of and see much in Detroit which is first of its kind in the world of material things, while they will be made to feel that though the spirit of energy and achievement pervades all things here, there is a warm interest in the stranger and a cordiality in the welcome accorded them.

Detroit bids the Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo, thrice welcome.

Detroit Convention and Tourist Bureau

E. L. DIXON,
Secretary-Treasurer.

DETROIT LAYS PLANS FOR ROU-
ING RECEPTION, HOO-HOO
THIRTY-FIRST ANNUAL.

At a meeting arranged by George H. Hovenden, Secretary of the Retail Lumber Dealers Association for Wednesday, July 26, at the office of the Association to meet with Secretary Isherwood for the purpose of appointing committees and discussing plans for the coming Hoo-Hoo Annual to be held in Detroit, September 7, 8, and 9. A good group of retailers and manufacturers representatives were in attendance. The following committees were appointed:

Reception and Entertainment Committee: R. C. Resnick, Chairman; Charles Ashton, William P. Nyman, Harry Jessup, J. Tilson Leitch, H. A. Webster, J. A. McCaul, C. E. Buretta, C. I. Lemmon, M. A. Hayward, P. A. Gordie, R. Horne, C. L. Weeks, A. D. Kidder.

Finance Committee: Robert Haskins, Chairman; Walter M. Webb, John Shaw, Edward Weeks, J. A. Braun.

Membership Committee: C. L. Weeks, Chairman; A. T. Allan, Chas. Ashton, J. A. Braun, Bert Hanna, H. T. Jones, W. A. Hadley.

John H. Jenks was elected as Chairman of the General Promotion Committee, which will be composed of the Reception and Entertainment, Finance and Membership Committees.

Detroit's reputation for hospitality in lumber circles was responsible for its choice for the 31st Hoo-Hoo Annual meeting at Fresno last September, and with this splendid committee Detroit will sustain its reputation and a rousing reception, and most enjoyable time is assured every member attending.

The Detroit Retail Lumber Dealers Association has placed the services of its office staff at the disposal of the committees, together with its unanimous support for the coming annual, which assures one of the most successful annuals in the history of the Order.

A special drive will be put on by the Membership Committee to obtain new members and reinstatement of old for the entire State of Michigan. It is anticipated to break all records in the number of candidates and reinstatements.

CONCATENATION
NEWS AND OTHERWISE

ARIZONA

CONCATENATION ARIZONA STATE FAIR.

John C. Light of the Norman Light Lumber Company, of Miami, Arizona, State Counselor, advises National Headquarters Supreme Areadoper LeNaster and Supreme Chaplain Parson Simpkin have brought home to the members and lumbermen of the state of Arizona through the recent meeting at Douglas the real importance and benefits to be derived through the support to Hoo-Hoo and it is a real awakening of real interest in Hoo-Hoo.

As a result we are going to pull off one of the greatest concatenations in the history of the state of Phoenix during the state fair in October.

Mr. Light states Arizona has some wonderful timber and it is being cut up, manufactured and sold by the finest bunch of lumbermen on earth, so we have the material that creates good Kittens into Hoo-Hoo.

State Counselor Light has sent out announcement to the Vicegerents of his state requesting that they get busy at once in making preparations for the big concatenation and to secure candidates for the opportune occasion.

Parson Simpkin and Mr. LeMaster will participate in this concatenation and their presence in the state is looked forward to with great interest and pleasure and the call has been sent out to make this one of the greatest ever; to make it clean, good and snappy. Hoo-Hoo may be assured with the spirit behind the movement that success and action is assured for the State of Arizona.

CALIFORNIA

SAN DIEGO HOO-HOO CLUB HELPING.

G. F. Hoff, Attorney and Secretary, San Diego Lumbermen's Club, San Diego, Calif., writes under date of May 23:

"Hoo-Hoo is moving right along with us. Will have another concatenation next month. Our Hoo-Hoo Club has its regular monthly meetings and the weekly luncheons are well attended—from ten to twenty each week. The organization has been a decidedly material factor in maintaining harmonious relations between the lumber companies. The boys have learned to know and respect each other, and, therefore, have confidence in the business integrity of each other. As a purely business proposition, measured in dollars and cents, every lumber and building material concern in the city could well afford to pay all the expense entailed in keeping every employe in good standing in Hoo-Hoo. No part of its investment would pay better dividends."

CLUB MEETING, JULY 6.

Vicegerent David Woodhead, of the Woodhead Lumber Company, of Los Angeles, writes:

"At our June 29 meeting of Hoo-Hoo Club in the City Club rooms, Mr. Curtis Williams was Chairman of the day and Major Parkin, scholar, fighter and soldier, gave us a short account of his experiences in German prisons during the war.

"The Chairman is changed each week. In addition to the short addresses, we have been receiving special telegrams summarizing the condition of the lumber market and these have formed a basis for a discussion of price tendencies.

"A Worthy Cause"

"We have taken on another activity which you may be interested in. There is a very fine hospital for crippled children here and we have undertaken to furnish and endow one cot in this hospital. The Chairman usually finds some excuse or other to fine members for various offenses and all of the fines go to this fund, the Treasurer of which is Mr. A. L. Hoover of the Pacific Lumber Company.

"The club met at luncheon yesterday and I was elected to preside at the meeting. The initial number of Jack Dionne's new paper, The California Lumber Merchant, was the subject of discussion. The members, in a good-natured way, tried to pick flaws in the magazine, after which Jack Dionne, known to all lumbermen in the West and South, spoke for ten minutes on the general topic of salesmanship and of the policy of his paper. We had a good attendance. At this meeting it was decided that the officers of the local Hoo-Hoo should form an Executive Committee for the conduct of the business of Hoo-Hoo, to arrange for the next concatenation and for forthcoming entertainments."

The Hoo-Hoo Club of Los Angeles is the pride of the Golden State, and holds its meetings regularly every two weeks. All meetings are well attended and their programs are always interesting and instructive. Timely topics are discussed and the next meeting is looked forward to with great interest.

SAN FRANCISCO'S ENTHUSIASTIC HOO-HOO MEETING AND CONCATENATION.

H. B. Maris, Vicegerent of the San Francisco district, advises National Headquarters that their concatenation National Hoo-Hoo Day, August 9, was a grand success. More than one hundred were in attendance at dinner and the concatenation.

Twelve candidates were initiated. Ex-Snark Julius Feidel was guest of honor and delivered an inspiring and instructive address on the development of Hoo-Hoo, which was greatly enjoyed and appreciated.

Slides and reels showing the Redwood Forest and the proposed home of Hoo-Hoo to be known as Hoo-Hoo Memorial Grove, were shown and created a great interest in the idea now being promoted for the Hoo-Hoo of the country.

Secretary Hamzlett of the California Redwood Association delivered a very interesting address on the shingle referendum, a topic which was of great interest to all lumbermen of the state.

Jack Dionne of the California Lumber Merchant was the life of the evening. He told some of his best stories, putting the desired life and pep into the evening event such as makes them interesting, entertaining and successful.

Supreme Arcanoper, C. D. LeMaster, of Fresno, was present. Lee now has attended every concatenation in his jurisdiction since his election. This is real loyalty to Hoo-Hoo and a record he can well feel proud of. California Hoo-Hoo have every reason to feel proud of their leader.

As Mr. Maris states, it was not only a successful meeting and concatenation but an evening that was greatly enjoyed by all. Brother Maris and his co-workers are to be congratulated on this successful concatenation.

CONNECTICUT

N. B. RICHARDS, SOUTH MANCHESTER, CONNECTICUT, IS HONORED.

National Headquarters has just received advice from Supreme Custodian, J. A. Hunter, of New York, of the appointment of N. B. Richards, Treasurer and General Manager of the Manchester Lumber Company, Inc., as Vicegerent Snark for the State of Connecticut. Mr. Richards is one of the live, wide-awake lumbermen of his city. His popularity throughout the state and being a real, loyal Hoo-Hoo assures support, action and growth for the Order of Hoo-Hoo in the State of Connecticut.

Brother Richards is working on plans with Secretary James Cray of the Lumber

It is anticipated that a delegation, headed by Supreme Custodian J. A. Hunter of New York, will join Vicegerent Richards and stage a big concatenation on the evening of August 30.

GEORGIA

ANOTHER CONCATENATION FOR ATLANTA.

Vicegerent Snark, Geo. W. West of Atlanta, advises National Headquarters that plans and arrangements have already been made for a concatenation to be staged in his city for August 26 at the Peacock Cafe, Corner Peachtree Street and Edgewood Avenue at 6:00 p. m. A large class is already assured.

This being the last concatenation before the end of the Hoo-Hoo year and prior to the annual, a large attendance of old members is assured and big plans are being made by all Atlanta members to attend the coming Hoo-Hoo annual at Detroit, September 7, 8, 9.

Brother West assures that all his efforts will be put forth to make this a record-breaker and that Atlanta fully intends to hold its enviable reputation and place in the ranks of Hoo-Hoo.

ATLANTA HOO-HOO BARBECUE GENUINE SUCCESS—400 ARE PRESENT.

Atlanta, Ga.—Members of the Hoo-Hoo Club of Atlanta dispelled all thought of business Saturday noon, July 15, and entertained their families at a big barbecue in the grove of the Soldiers' Home. There were 400 in attendance.

All varieties of barbecued meats, Brunswick stew and the "fixings" were included in the menu. The best grade of beer available, under present restrictions, was served.

Retailers Wallop Wholesalers.

After those in attendance lost their appetites, they repaired to a neighboring baseball diamond, where a team, representing the retailers, defeated the wholesalers' team 13 to 2. A. A. LaVaque was umpire. Patton pitched for the winning team, and Flotsinger was the catcher. Starr and Patterson were the wholesalers' battery.

Officers of the Hoo-Hoo Club, who are Roy C. Morrison, President, J. E. Adams, Vice President, C. B. Harman, Secretary-Treasurer, were elated over the grand success of this barbecue and all in attendance, not only owe a debt of gratitude to them but to the Barbecue Committee, which consists of H. J. West, Dan Klein, T. B. Hightower, A. J. Krebs. They certainly did their job well.

The Atlanta Journal had their radio truck on the grounds and put on several special numbers for the benefit of the gathering and the West Lumber Company brought in a truck-load of negroes, who entertained with some real Negro singing. These two features were surely enjoyed by all, and the officers and committee in charge feel highly elated over the success of the occasion in bringing together the large number of retailers, wholesalers and their families.

MASSACHUSETTS

BOSTON STRONG FOR HOO-HOO:

Through arrangements made by Vicegerent Snark, U. M. Carlton, of Boston, for a meeting of the lumbermen, Monday evening, the 14th, the big idea of the occasion was an address by Parson Simpkin, Supreme Chaplain of the Order of Hoo-Hoo, and a concatenation to follow.

There was a large attendance and following the address of Parson Simpkin eighteen applications were received for membership in the Order and two reinstatements of old members. The degrees were conferred upon the new members in the most impressive manner, together with plenty of mirth and humor injected into the occasion made it one that was most entertaining and enjoyable.

This was splendid response on the part of Boston lumbermen and a great credit to Vicegerent Carlson, as this was his first concatenation since his appointment. With this splendid class the success of Hoo-Hoo is assured in the Boston district.

Immediately following the concatenation Parson Simpkin left directly for Knoxville, Tenn., where he will address the Southern Sash, Door and Millwork Association, on Wednesday afternoon, which will be followed by a concatenation.

TENNESSEE

CONCATENATION, SAGINAW, MICHIGAN.

Parson Simpkin, Supreme Chaplain of the Order of Hoo-Hoo, was given a real surprise at Saginaw, Michigan, on the afternoon of August 10, when he delivered an address to the lumbermen of that district and a meeting arranged for by the Secretary-Manager, Mr. Barelay, of the Michigan Lumber Dealers Association.

Following his address, eleven of those present made application for membership in the Order and a concatenation immediately followed. It was a most enjoyable affair and one which was filled with enthusiasm. Several of the old-timers reinstated.

There were more than fifty in attendance at the meeting and a number of these who could not participate in the concatenation following the meeting pledged their application for the coming annual at Detroit.

"Round Table Session"

One of the interesting features of our program will be the Round Table Session, Saturday noon, September 10th.

As the membership of HOO-HOO embraces all branches of the Lumber Industry advantage will be taken of the occasion to have representative members of the various branches discuss matters that affect and have to do with the entire Industry and its products, such as will enable all to better serve the public and further the interest of Lumber and Timber conservation.

We have received many suggestions for topics to be discussed at this particular session. Tentatively, the following subjects have been selected for discussion:—

- Associations and benefits to the consuming public.
- Relationship of Hoo-Hoo to the Industry.
- Promoting the use of low grade lumber.
- Promoting the use of short lengths.
- Merchandising of the Wood Shingle.

Suggestions are being made by some of the foremost men of America, in the different branches of the Industry and who will be present and will participate in the discussion.

This is a session in which all of those that have to do directly with Association activities and individuals in its different branches will find interesting, instructive and beneficial. It is a session that concerns the Industry in its entirety. You can't afford to miss it. Take advantage of the opportunity—participate in the discussion. You and all will benefit.

MICHIGAN

GRAND RAPIDS HOO-HOO CONCATENATION.

National Headquarters received a telegraphic report of the splendid concatenation held at Grand Rapids, Michigan, Monday evening, August 7, at the Pantlind Hotel.

This meeting and Concatenation was arranged by W. J. Barelay, Secretary of the Michigan Retail Lumber Dealers Association, and a large number of lumbermen from Grand Rapids and the surrounding territory were present and were greatly inspired by the message delivered by Parson Simpkin, Supreme Chaplain of the Order. Much enthusiasm was created for the coming annual at Detroit and a large delegation will go from Grand Rapids. Nine candidates were initiated into the Order and a merry time was had by all.

SOME KICK IN THIS.

A friend of ours has a new recipe for concocting the latest home-brew, which may be of interest to you. Here it is:

Chase a bull-frog three miles, then gather up the hops, add ten gallons of tan bark, half a pint of shellac and a bar of home-made soap, boil the combination thirty-six hours and strain through an I. W. W. hat to prevent working, then bottle, after putting a grasshopper in each pint to give it a kick. When dishing out the above concoction we use the following wet measure:

2 pints	=	1 quart
2 quarts	=	1 light
1 light	=	2 cops
2 cops	=	1 judge
1 judge	=	30 days

No man was ever born a dentist. No man was ever born a salesman. It takes time and study to learn how to extract molars and money painlessly.

MISSOURI

CHAR. EDWARD NEUENHAHN
Some Kitten Is No. 206674

Charles Edward Neuenhahn is some kitten. He is only 17 months old but he has all the earmarks of a full-fledged Hoo-Hoo. Note how well the old familiar black cut eye rests on his well-formed head, and his well-developed idea of patriotism—one of the important fundamentals of the Order.

Doubtless, as you see, Charles Edward here, he's trying to walk in the footsteps of his father who is none other than Chas. A. Neuenhahn, Vicegerent Snark for the Southeastern District of Missouri. While he has got to step some to keep up with his daddy when it comes to loyal, enthusiastic service for Hoo-Hoo, he bids fair to be one of the real Black Cat workers of future years. At any rate, we know he is getting the right start.

NEW YORK

ROCHESTER, NEW YORK, RALLIES TO SUPPORT OF HOO-HOO.

We just received a brief report of the meeting held at Rochester, N. Y., Friday evening, August 11.

This meeting was arranged by Paul S. Collier, Secretary-Manager, of the Northeast Retail Lumber Dealers Association. They had a nice attendance and a very interesting meeting. The address delivered by Parson Simpkin, Supreme Chaplain of the Order, was the inspiration of the evening and one which the lumbermen enjoyed and benefited from.

Following the meeting the concatenation was staged. Four candidates rallied to the call and four of the old members reinstated. A good start was made in the Rochester district for Hoo-Hoo in the future.

William Pattison, of Penn Yann,

N. Y., attended the meeting at Rochester and assisted in the concatenation. Brother Pattison is a most loyal Hoo-Hoo and one who has taken a great interest in the Order in the past. He is also one of the popular lumbermen of the district and as a result was unanimously elected Vicegerent for the Rochester district.

Mr. Pattison and Mr. Collier are already making their plans for arranging "concats" for two or three points in Mr. Pattison's district during the latter part of October and the early part of November, and Hoo-Hoo is assured of action and progress in the Rochester district.

OKLAHOMA

HOO-HOO-CLUB ORGANIZED OKLAHOMA CITY.

W. B. Campbell, Vicegerent Snark of the Oklahoma City District, advises National Headquarters, they held their first meeting for their local organization

Registration Fee For Members Attending Annual

The following resolution was unanimously adopted at the 30th Annual, Fresno, Calif., September 9, 1921:

Whereas, The raising of the entertainment expense incidental to holding a Hoo-Hoo Annual has always in the past devolved on the city in which it is held, and realizing that this imposes an unfair burden upon a few unselfish members, and recognizing this fact with a view to its correction,

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That at each succeeding annual a five-dollar registration fee be assessed by the local committee upon all persons registering, and in this manner more equitably distribute the cost, which we feel would be cheerfully borne by those in attendance.

at the Huckins Hotel, Oklahoma City, on Thursday, July 20. Twenty-five members were in attendance. This being their first meeting they had no special program, just a real, get-acquainted gathering and plans were discussed and completed for organizing a Hoo-Hoo Club, which resulted in the election of: C. J. Jennings, Sales Agent for the Peavy-Burns Lumber Company, Oklahoma City, as President; C. J. Eskridge, Sales Agent for the Frost-Johnson Lumber Co., Oklahoma City, as Vice President; and W. B. Campbell, of the Geo. C. Vaughan and Sons Lumber Co., Oklahoma City, as Secretary-Treasurer.

The next meeting will be at a luncheon at the Huckins Hotel, August 3, and regular meetings will be held every other Thursday at the above-named hotel between the hours of twelve and one. A large attendance is anticipated at the next meeting and an interesting program is being prepared. Brother Campbell advises prospects are for a large number of reinstatements for Hoo-Hoo as well as applications for membership, and a concatenation is being planned for the near future.

OREGON

IN THE NORTHWEST.

Portland.—On June 29, the Supreme Arcanoper, C. D. LeMaster, the Chaplain and George Cornwall accompanied the Snark of the Universe to Portland and a class of nine was initiated. Vicegerent Olson had prepared very well for the occasion and at a dinner preceding the Concat the Snark, Arcanoper and Chaplain spoke and vocal and instrumental music lent pleasure to the diners. It was a jolly Concatenation and was a fine start in the work of Vicegerent Olson in this important district.

The next day the Supreme officers and Brother Cornwall autoed to Gray's Harbor, where, at the request of the Snark, Mr. Thorpe Babcock had gathered many of the leading men of the Gray's Harbor district. A delightful dinner was enjoyed and then the Snark and his officers presented the present importance of Hoo-Hoo as a factor in fraternal and ethical business.

Some fifteen present promised to reinstate or join the Order and arrangements were made for a concatenation about July 21.

Brothers Cornwall, LeMaster and Simpkin drove into Portland next morning. In the afternoon at 3:00 the Arcanoper and Chaplain left Portland and finished the 1,100-mile drive to Fresno on Monday evening at 9:30—a 3-day drive.

WASHINGTON

Aberdeen.—On the 20th of July the Parson went North and reported to the Snark. On the night of the 25th a great concatenation was held in the Elks' Hall at Aberdeen and many leaders in the Grays Harbor District were initiated or reinstated. The evening added eleven new members, six reinstatements. George Cornwall was on hand to help. To Neal Cooney and Billy Mack and Alex Polson much praise is due. Neal had the officers for dinner as his guests. Following the concatenation a fine luncheon was served at the Washington Hotel. Here the Snark and the Hon. Jos. Fordney, author of the new Tariff Bill, were the speakers. It was a notable event in the Gray's Harbor District.

Seattle.—On the 27th a good concatenation was held in the Lumbermen's Club, the Metropolitan of Seattle, following a dinner at which some thirty-five were present. Don Clark, the energetic Vicegerent, assisted by Brothers Lou Fifer, Bevan, Gray and other earnest Hoo-Hoo had bagged nine Kittens and three old, strayed cats and a fine concat-

Snark of The Universe Breaks All Records

The big event took place on August 2nd, following the meeting of the West Coast Lumbermen's Association.

The Lumbermen's Club of Tacoma had pledged itself to get behind a Concat, and it did. Brother Ripley and Wagner led the van with Parson Simpkin and it was decided to make "The Everett G. Griggs Concat" a memorable one. Following the Snark's lead old timers like Frank B. Cole, No. 1996, John W. Bonner, Nettleton, Harry Stuehell and others joined the procession of old cats coming home to the milk and meat and 40 of them were reinstated.

Just look over the names in the Concat proceedings. Bob Allen of the West Coast lent his valued aid. Geo. Osgood and other friends of the Colonel joined in. Don Clark and a dozen live wires from Seattle were down. Notably Lou Fifer and the consequence was that when the Concat opened at 5:00, 68 kittens were waiting for an eye-opener. They got it. The Snark of the Universe presided and it was some Concat. Frank Paramina from San Francisco was there, Frank Beckmann from Spokane, George Cornwall from Portland and old cats from all over Washington. Clark made the Junior work snappy and clever. The only thing that hindered the joy was the fact that the boards had to be cleared for 6:45 to make way for the big banquet.

The Concat was held at the beautiful Scottish Rite Cathedral. It definitely put Hoo-Hoo, the new Hoo-Hoo, with all the old fun and fellowship and all the clearer purpose to put ethical and constructive work into the whole Lumber trade, on the map in the Northwest.

We quote from the AMERICAN LUMBERMAN, August 5th edition, from its report covering the meeting of the West Coast Lumbermen's Association, of August 2nd, parts referring to Hoo-Hoo and the Concatenation:

Major E. G. Griggs, of the St. Paul & Tacoma Lumber Co., Snark of the Universe, reminded the audience that shortly after 5 o'clock would occur one of the greatest Concatenations in history, stating that this was now a Hoo-Hoo organization, resuscitated. He referred to the fact that some of the leaders in the lumber industry were advancing in years, and said it was advisable for them to cultivate the youngsters who were coming on to take their places.

The session was brought to a fitting close by a dramatic speech by Parson Simpkin, who referred in feeling terms to the benefits of Hoo-Hoo.

Not in seventeen years has there been such a Concatenation as that which took place shortly after 5 o'clock under the personal direction of Major Griggs, Snark of the Universe. There were sixty-eight kittens in the class. So numerous were they that they crowded the hall to the utmost, and gave the officiating team all it wanted to do in performing the ceremonial. There was much sport connected with the impressive ritual. Owing to the importance of the event, and the personal interest shown by the presiding officer, the aggregation of kittens was termed the Everett G. Grigg's Concatenation, as a compliment to the distinguished Snark of the Universe.

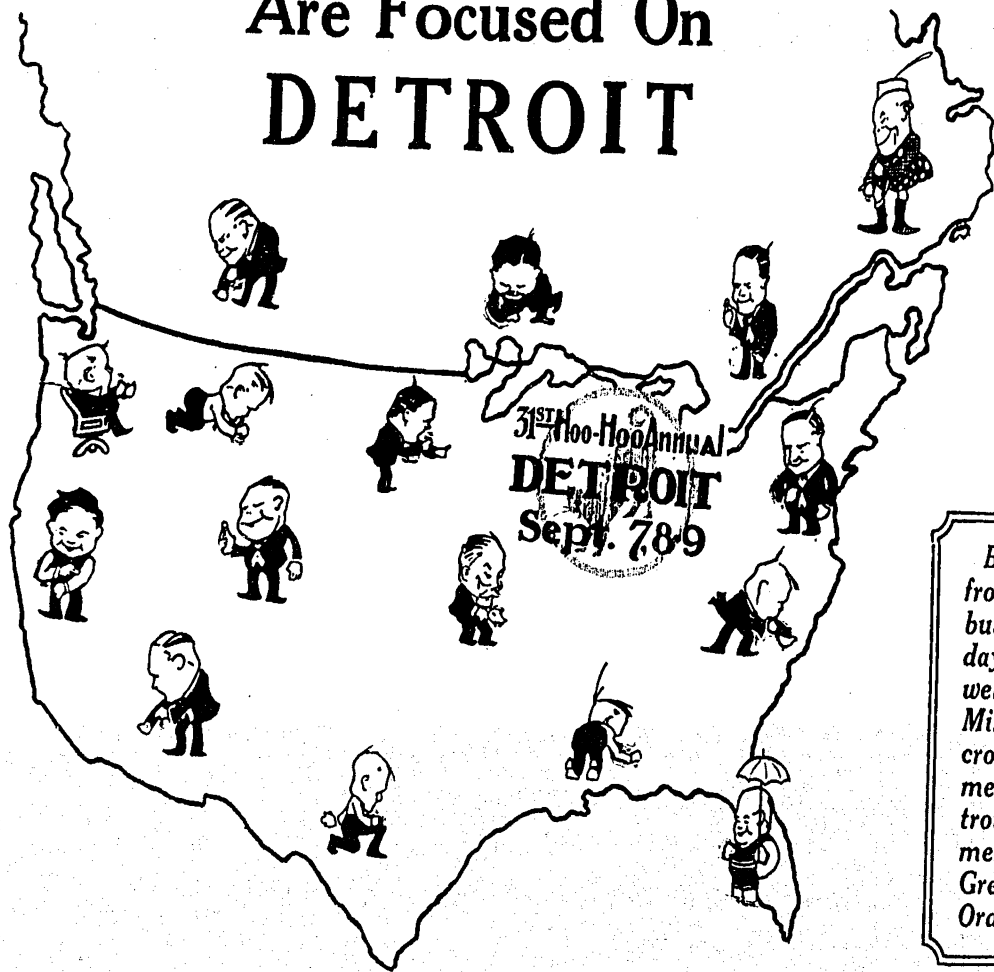

Hats off—and a Hoo-Hoo yell, for Snark Griggs and his record-breaking class

The River Front Skyline of Detroit

Grand Circus Park at Detroit

Besides the business you will be able to attend to and the great benefits to be derived from the unusual program planned, there are other reasons why you will find it profitable to be in Detroit during the 31st Annual of Hoo Hoo. Here are some things Detroit—the Convention City—offers to the visitors within her gates:

Belle Isle, the famous island park, owned by the people of Detroit, has no equal in the world for beauty and refined, attractive, educational features.

Detroit has the greatest fleet of fresh water passenger vessels in the world. Boats running to St. Clair Flats and other Island Resorts have orchestra on board and splendid floors for dancing, which is free.

Detroit is located on a river of great beauty. Lake and river trips may be taken lasting from half an hour to one day at trifling cost. There are 5,173 inland lakes, 207 over a mile square, in Michigan, ten of them within an hour's ride of Detroit.

Detroit is the leading manufacturing city of the world. It has 3,300 manufacturing plants and 900 industries large enough to require private railroad sidings.

Industry in Detroit is widely diversified. The city has many different classes of manufacturing concerns that produce hundreds of commodities of world-wide use.

Of all the automobiles made in the United States, 65% are manufactured in Detroit and vicinity. Detroit is the largest producer of trucks in America.

Detroit is noted for its many magnificent hotels, and it is an established rule of the hotels to maintain a fair rate and not increase the prices during the tourist and convention season.

Casino and Lagoon on Belle Isle

enation was staged following an address by Parson Simpkin.

Spokane.—On the 20th the Parson addressed the Spokane lumbermen and carried a message of the vitality and service of the brotherhood to them. Brothers Beckmann, Al Parker and George Duffy got together a fine crowd, even if it was Saturday, and the way was paved for a concatenation soon at this important point.

Everett.—At Everett on the 31st Don Clark and a dozen loyal Hoo-Hoo accompanied the Parson to Everett. The Snark was detained by pressing business at the last moment and he was sorely missed.

Brother Manning had arranged a dinner and gotten out a goodly representation of the Everett operators. Brother Clark and the Parson addressed them. Several old cats reinstated and a dozen of the younger men expressed their willingness to join when the older men led the way. To Brother Manning many thanks are due from the Order for his good work. Brother Cottrell of Fresno was present and spoke a valued tribute to Hoo-Hoo.

SPECIAL LUNCHEON FOR PARSON.

Spokane, Wash., July 29.—A special luncheon of Elkad Elko, the local lumbermen's club, was held this noon at the Elks Temple in honor of "Parson" Peter A. Simpkin, of Salt Lake City, Supreme Chaplain of the Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo. "Parson" Simpkin leaves tonight for Everett where he is to put on a concatenation the first of the week and on Wednesday he will address the West Coast Lumbermen's Association convention at Tacoma. So far this year he has traveled more than 40,000 miles and delivered over sixty addresses and lectures before lumber organizations.

He was introduced this noon by Frank H. Beckmann, Vice President of the National Builders' Bureau and the new benedict of the club, though the members were unaware of the fact. George W. Duffy, of the Duffy-Hamacker Lumber Co. and Elkad Elko, Vice President, acted as Chairman in the absence of the President, I. N. Tate, who with Mrs. Tate and son Richard motored to Seaside, Ore., this week to spend a couple weeks' vacation.

Probably the most pertinent statement made by Parson Simpkin in the course of his address was as follows:

"The lumberman must make himself intelligent in regard to his own problems. Government is going to supervise business more than it ever has before. There is a new consciousness in the mind of the man at the bottom that the men running the business must take into consideration this man at the bottom."—American Lumberman.

Believing in people is just as essential as believing in our product or in ourselves.

TEXAS

WM. E. BLACK, 12527
Vicegerent Snark, Northern Texas, Dallas,
Texas

The wisecracks in the publicity field tell us that a good picture tells a better story than a hundred lines of cold type. We agree with them occasionally on this point, and do so, particularly, in the case of Wm. E. Black, hustling Vicegerent Snark who holds sway over the Northern District of the Lone Star state.

That's Bill, No. 12527, you see sitting serenely at the head of this stickful of type. And any one with only medium sight can see that Bill is a power, particularly in his old home state; his eyes speak determination and his jaw, while resting easy here, sets firm when there's real work to do.

Hoo-Hoo has been particularly fortunate in picking its Vicegerents and other officers. It was unusually fortunate in picking Bill for the big job of rousing the cats in Northern Texas, and we're proud and happy to record that he has rejuvenated the Order down in his bailiwick.

Those who keep abreast of Black Cat doings will recall his good work in adding twenty-seven new members to the ever-growing roster and reinstating thirty-five old members at the Fort Worth meeting of the Texas Retail Lumbermen's Association in April.

Bill said, when asked if Hoo-Hoo was to again be a mighty force in Texas, "It shall be done." It's being did and nobly, too.

CONCATENATION FOR BEAUMONT, TEXAS.

Supreme Jabberwock, J. G. Simpson, of Lake Charles advises National Headquarters arrangements are under way for a big concatenation at Beaumont, Saturday, August 26.

In the absence of Vicegerent Milch, W. A. Nichols and Rex H. Browne will be in charge of arrangements, which fact assures that this will be one of the big events of the year and a successful meeting and concatenation.

Parson Simpkin, Supreme Chaplain of the Order, will be the principal speaker of the evening and the Hoo-Hoo and lumbermen of Beaumont district are looking forward with great pleasure and interest to hearing the address of the Parson who has many warm friends in the good, old State of Texas. Secretary-Treasurer Isherwood is also arranging to attend this meeting and concatenation. Beaumont is the home of many loyal Hoo-Hoo who will lend their aid and support in making this meeting and concatenation a grand success. There will be many in attendance from other points in the state.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM HOO-HOO, NO. 150, WHO MADE LONGEST TRIP TO JOIN HOO-HOO.

Dear Brother Isherwood:

It has been so long since I have attended a concatenation or Hoo-Hoo gathering of any kind, that I wanted to be at Boston, and I am sorry that I did not get there.

You may not recall, but if you will look it up you will find that my number in Hoo-Hoo is No. 150, so there were only 149 ahead of me.

About all that I have ever done, you might say, is to keep my dues paid. I believe I have always done that, and I believe I have done so cheerfully.

I recall going to Cleveland at the time when Mr. Gladding, my friend, was elected to a high office, and I helped to land him. I was the only Hoo-Hoo from Massachusetts. I have never had many opportunities to meet with them, anyway, as not much has ever been done by the Order in this part of the country.

I went from here to Denver when I joined. Before I went there I was in Chicago, but I was obliged to come back East before I could go to Denver. Another old friend of mine, now gone West—Willis Hoyt—wanted me to come right back to Chicago and go to Denver and join the Hoo-Hoo.

So I have always claimed and I believe that I took the longest ride to join the Hoo-Hoo of anybody who ever became a member. I left Chicago and came here to Lowell, and stayed over only a day or two, and went immediately back to Chicago and met my friend there the same day, and we went from there to Denver, and if we didn't have a fine time it was our own fault.

With kind regards, and hoping to meet you and other members of our Order some time, anyway,

ELWYN W. LOVEJOY, No. 150.
P. S. It may interest you, perhaps, to know that the firm of D. Lovejoy & Son is the oldest exclusive machine knife plant in the United States, being established in 1848. At that time practically all lumber and woodworking activity was east of the Allegheny Mountains. There are a vast number of Hoo-Hoo on our list of customers, some of whom we have served continuously since they engaged in the lumber or wood-working fields.

THE OSIRIAN CLOISTER

ELIGIBILITY RULES FOR OSIRIAN CLOISTER

Members and past members of the Supreme Nine, Vicegerent Snarks and Past Vicegerent Snarks shall be eligible Ex-officio. Each Osirian shall be entitled to annually present to the Assembly the name of one civilian member, either honorary or active who is now and has been in good standing for two years or more in the Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo who have given their time and interest for the upbuilding of Hoo-Hoo.

One of the important features of the Annual is the Cloister meeting at which a limited number of candidates is received by initiation into the Cloister.

Perhaps many will be interested in the origin of the Order and a little of the Egyptian background from which it was taken.

When the Seer of the House of Ancients first established the custom of honoring Past Officers it was done by assigning the various officers to numbered cells in a superstitious structure. Later to lend dignity and meaning to the passing of these officers, just as the embalming of the Snark evolved, so the thought of the Cloister degree took shape.

A ritual was prepared whose officers for initiative purposes were named for the Aeneid, or the Cycle of the Nine gods and goddesses worshipped at the Temple of On. The ritual is based on the dramatic scene of the soul-weighing in the Hall of Osiris in Amcutis and its heart is built about the most beautiful chapter in the Egyptian Book of the Dead, the Bible of Ancient Egypt, Upper and Lower.

When the degree was developed with its gorgeous robes, its temple porticos and themes, the setting was wonderful and the degree most dramatic.

The giving of the degree away from St. Louis where the heavy properties are kept robs it of some of its setting, but in the Cloister meetings held away, the hierophants who come for initiation find the degree impressive and beautiful.

The whole of the Ancient Egyptian civilization and religion was based on the faith of the Egyptian in a life beyond this. The whole of their ingenuity was given to preserving the body at death so that when the gods should will the reuniting of soul and body, the body should not be missing.

Some of the sublime conceptions of the Christian religion had rootings in this remote old religion of Egypt. Their priests, besides being the teachers of the philosophy of man and God and their relations, were all specialists in embalming.

The mingling of animal, reptile, insect and fish worship with the lofty visions of immortal God may seem strange to modern minds. The vast cemeteries of embalmed cats, crocodiles, cows and ibises, even pike and apes, witness at least to their faith in the persistence of life after earth's death.

Perhaps the commonest of their symbols of immortality is the Scarabeus. This beetle was copied in clay and lapis-lazuli, in gold and silver, in gems and enamels. Its habit of leaving its eggs in small balls of manure and stable to lie through the winter and be hatched in the spring floods and warmth led the Egyptian, who observed the young Scarabeus creeping about on the drying mud that followed the overflow of the Nile Banks, to the belief that the Scarabeus could renew like the Phoenix its own life. So it became an emblem of life immortal.

During the coming year we shall publish a series of studies on the ancient Egyptian life and belief. Hoo-Hoo has drawn both its black cat and its Osirian teachings from this interesting old period of human development. It is hoped to induct a large class at the Detroit meeting. The Osirian button has the Black Cat, the head of Osiris, the Eye of Ankhon Ra, the Orrhikan, or Magie Wand of Isis, the lopes green set within two circles of gold.

Origin of Cloister Degree.

The Seer of the House of Ancients issued from his abode in 1896 a humorous proclamation of assignment. In the early days of the Order the Vicegerents were often dubbed with the name of an Egyptian Deity or Priest.

The Seer pointed out that there were not enough deities to go around the circle. To find a way to give honor to Past Vicegerents he conceived the idea of "The Chamber of Horrors."

On January 9, 1896, the Seer issued a humorously pompous proclamation and allocated cells in a mythical Chamber of Horrors to 38 Past Vicegerent Snarks. No. 1 was awarded to J. L. Lane of Indiana; No. 4, to McConnell of Missouri; No. 11, to M. S. Hayward of Detroit; No. 12, to Jim Baird; No. 14, to dear old Woodworth of Texas, still living, as are the Seer and Brother Hayward, the latter resident in Detroit.

The Seer said in part:

"There are not enough (names of Deities and Priests) to go around. It would not do to mix terms and make one kitten a king, another a Prince and another a Priest, so you simply get a Call, built of the roughest masonry, damp enough to engender all the malaria and ill health you deserve and quite bullet-proof enough to make anyone proud of his position in these troublesome times."

"Kitten W. I. Ewart of Gurdon, Ark., is created Priest of Osiris, Kitten J. L. Lane, of Kansas City, Priest of Anubus, and Kitten W. H. Ellis, of Chicago, Priest of Thoth.

"And be it known in all the waving greenness of the Gardens Right and Left that these cells are erected in a circle 342 feet in circumference and that each cell is 9 feet square, and these cells are the foundation of the Chamber of Horrors and their Occupants shall be known as the 38 immortals."

"And be it known that before the 9th minute of the ninth hour of the ninth day of the ninth month, 1896, you will receive from the House of Ancients an Egyptian Papyrus lease for life to your various apartments."

The proclamation stirred up much interest and amusement among Hoo-Hoo. The thought was that the Immortals and their successors would attend the Annual and see that the passing of the Snark of the Universe from the high place of leadership to his embalming was duly and amply done.

What is most notable about this old document however is the fact that it was the real beginning of the Cloister Degree. In this time when the Cloister is having an attraction for many influential Hoo-Hoo, it is worth while to note the story of its development.

The Nashville Annual of 1896 furthered the work by its outlining of the duty and privileges of the House of Ancients. It also recognized "The Book of the Seer" and "The Book of the Dead" as official parts of the Order's archives.

"IF I KNEW YOU AND YOU KNEW ME."

If I knew you and you knew me,
'Tis seldom we would disagree;
But, never having yet clasped hands,
Both often fail to understand
That each intends to do what's right,
And treat each other "honor bright,"
How little to complain there'd be
If I knew you and you knew me!

When'er we ship you by mistake,
Or, in your bill some error make,
From irritation you'd be free
If I knew you and you knew me.
Or, when your cheek don't come on time,
And you omit to drop a line,
We'd wait without anxiety
If I knew you and you knew me.

Or, when some products you "fire back,"
Or, make a "kick" on this or that,
We'd take it in good part, you see,
If I knew you and you knew me.
With customers ten thousand strong,
Occasionally things will turn out wrong—
Sometimes our fault, sometimes theirs—
But forbearance would decrease all errors,
Kind friend, how pleasant things would be
If I knew you and you knew me.

Then let no doubting thoughts abide,
Of firm good faith on either side;
Confidence to each other give,
Living ourselves, let others live;
But any time you come this way,
That you will call we hope and pray,
Then face to face we each shall see,
And I'll know you and you'll know me.

Sit in "Round Table Session" Detroit.

A FEW THOUGHTS FROM THE OLD TIMER.

The old-timer sits in the sun beside the lumber yard office, whittling on a star-shingle and "chewing on his fine-cut," he says:

"Say, young feller, just take it from me that this is the time to dust off the brain machine and shoo nout all the flittermice. Shure as all git aout the proverb for 1922 is this 'God helps those 'at helps theirselves' and God help those who don't."

"And don't forgit, son, that its election year and there'll be an awful heap of fellers round, honest an' clever. They'll acknowledge it theirselves if you axes 'em. Just size 'em up, same as you would if they wanted a $1,000 bill of lumber. Remember he'll cost you and the other fellers a dern sight more 'n that while he's on the job. Size up these fellers 'fore November 'stid after. They'll get into your over-head anyhow."

"I heard the Dominic say talking to the club at lunch yistaddy that the ladder of success is fairly yawning for climbers. Guess that's so, the pity is that so many of us get swell-headed and giddy on about the second or third raound and come dawn. It takes a dern sight steadier head to stand a boom than a calamity. Ain't it the truth, no feller is so admired as the chap that can get on without ballooning his nut."

"What's that son? 'The man that has no children brings them up well, yes, that's a good proverb, but it don't prove much. I never was a hen but I know more about eggs than any old Plymouth Rock biddy in California."

"Do I think business kin be square? Why surely son, just as easy as water can be made clear. Gold Almighty clears the brown streams in His runways in the creeks 'n rivers. There's only one difference,—dirty water 'll clear itself if you give it a chance. Business that's dirty has to be cleaned an' it takes hard work to keep business square. Its just as simple as Old Fox dealing a hand when everybody in the game is just playing fair. One fiddle out o' time 'll spoil a orchestra."

"And son, 'fore you run off let me say just one word more. Teddy Roosevelt left a good many marks 'round the world, most of 'em was remarks. Naow that I can't go to the woods or do much at the yard but just watch the wheels o' businness torrin', I think a lot more. Teddy said, 'Fear God. Take your own purt and use a big stick.' Didn't he write a book about it? Well son, that's good advice for the feller in the lumber business. Most of 'em is clever as fresh sawdust."

"But every chap needs to get back once in a while to fixt things. I judge lots of the fellers I know was brought up bottle babies—Ha!

"Son, I'm not one O' the old fools that thinks all the goodness was in the old days. The human is much the same dawn the long road whether he was called Jacob, Judas or Jim."

I WANT YOU TO JOIN ME FOR LUNCH TODAY!

You have heard this expression put in this same identical way. I am merely putting it to you to demonstrate a point, and that is, when I have asked you to join me I have accepted your company personally and for others that may be in my party.

A member of our Order drops in the office of a lumberman. He is engaged in a Hoo-Hoo membership drive of his own. His first remark to the lumberman is: "I want you to join Hoo-Hoo." It is quite evident to the prospective member that his membership is greatly desired, and he infers from the member-getter that he has been accepted as a member if he will but say "yes." See the point: You are begging for his membership. You have placed Hoo-Hoo in what is called the "joiner's type" of organization.

We Are No Longer in the Joiner's Class

We have placed our Order on a higher plane. Impress upon your prospect that it is deemed a great privilege to become affiliated with Hoo-Hoo. Ever remember the dignity and prestige of our Order, and you will not employ the word "join," but rather say: "We would like to have your application for membership in Hoo-Hoo." Think it over!

"But I sure find a lot of 'em who seem to think God has nothing to do with the game till they read the truth in the doctors' face. The old day had some tough nuts I rec'lect but most o' the folk I knew were wise enough to fear God a bit and they didn't fear nobody else and were ready to scrap their own fight."

"Right now is a good time for that, son. Every bit o' right the lumberman has he should scrap for. Good American, good citizen, keepin' the law, he should remember that it is his right to stand up for himself an' his own."

"It is important every man should see that if he doesn't stand for his own nobody else will, son."

"I jist wish you would play a bit less and read a bit more. Your great-grandfather fit not for any dim and shadowy dream of soft-headed communism or mushy socialism that wants to be generous with everythin' and everybody at the expense of the fellers that have somethin'."

"No, son. He fit for the privilege of havin' his chance and what was rightly his own and then he rested secure in feelin' that nobody would confiscate it or could."

"But son, they will do it under yer nose if ye don't watch out. And so, if ye must go out, think a bit what I said, for it is not the courts, but the Aldermen and Legislators and Congressmen who are to be selected this year. Watch 'em son! Goo! Day! See ye again? I should hope so."

Feminine Finance.

"Dear," said Mrs. Newliwed, "I needed a new hat, so I just wrote a check for fifty dollars on the First National to save you expense."

"Great Gosh," gasped her husband, "I haven't a nickel in that bank."

"I know it, dear, but that will be all right. They won't mind. Their advertisement says: 'Our Resources are One Million Dollars.'—[American Legion Weekly.

CUCKOO COLUMN.

The shades of night were falling fast
As into town a traveler passed,
Who at the hotel bought a bed
And, as he hit the mattress said—
"Excelsior!"

—[Butler Eagle.

Who to the dining table went,
Ere his money he had spent;
Selected string beans, pork and kraut;
When he arrived he gave a shout—
"Excelsior!"

—[Sample Case.

Who took a taxi to the station,
Having told the driver his destination,
Bang! A collision—they hit the ground,
And in the driver's head they found—
"Excelsior!"

—[The Knight's Day.

The latest advertising slogan of the Ford Motor Company is: "Buy a Ford, and spend the difference." We add to the slogan these two words—"for upkeep."—[The Knight's Day.

One of the disappointments of this life is to receive a letter addressed in a charming feminine hand, and find that it contains a bill from the plumber. —[Catholic Forester.

Life itself, it seems is a paradox, for undertakers die, physicians become ill, barbers grow bald.—[The Knight's Day.

HOW'S BUSINESS TOMORROW?

The question, "How's business today?"—this is a small and ingrowing inventory.

"How's business tomorrow?"—this is the big building thought.

The immediate present is past before you can speak of it. The immediate present is a time for making friends, and the friends you make today are the people who will make your success possible tomorrow.

Have you paid your 1923 Dues?

NUMBER NINE.

There is much discussion among teachers regarding some of the odd powers of No. 9, such as are being used to teach short cuts in arithmetic. A writer recently presented this:

"The interest I wish to speak of is in the character of the number nine itself. It might be said to be almost uncanny. It is unlike any other digit. It seems to have a consciousness of its own like certain crystals whose identity is lost in the solution, but whose original character returns with the evaporation of the solvent. Its peculiarity, or at least one of its peculiarities, is that it cannot hide itself. If it is a multiple of any number this peculiarity may be demonstrated. To show that this is not the case with all digits let us first take other digits than nine. For instance, 5; 5 times 5 equals 25, the digits added equal 7; 6 times 8 equals 48, equal 12, equal 3; 4 times 7 equal 28, equal 10. But 9 times 9 equal 81, equal 9; 9 times 8 equal 72, equal 9; 9 times 2 equal 18, equal 9; 9 times 35 equal 315, equal 9. Nine times 9 and the product 81 times 81 equals 6561; these digits added equal 18, equal 9. It is said by F. C. B. that the "ninth power of nine" as meant in the magazine is 387,420,489. These digits added give 45, whose digits equal 9."

Undoubtedly, the Ancients of Babylon, Egypt and Rome knew the strange power of Nine, the square of three. The great Arneids of Delities conform so generally to Nine that one is compelled to find an ancient, common knowledge of this number to reproduce new combinations without losing itself.

"RUBBING IT IN."

I hastened in to a barber's shop the other day and asked if I could be shaved in five minutes. "Yep!" was the reply. The barber quickly applied the soap. He began lathering and kept on lathering until I felt sure I would miss my train. Still he kept on plying his soap brush. I was saying to myself, "Why doesn't he quit this process and get busy with the razor?" That would have been my way of shaving myself in a hurry. When he did finally take up his razor, the job was over in a jiffy. And I caught my train.

The incident, for some reason or other, begot this thought in my mind: Lathering is to shaving very much the same thing that advertising is to selling. If you do enough preliminary work and do it properly, so that groundwork has been thoroughly prepared, then the resistance is very greatly reduced, and it is possible to shave with less trouble or to sell goods with less trouble. A good many business men are as foolish as I would have been in trying to shave myself in a hurry. They don't use enough advertising lather. Is it not so?

The man who isn't in business for his health will probably not have good health nor much business.

HOO-HOO SAYS:

Early to bed and early to rise, work like hell and advertise, makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise.

Money and happiness, the two great objects of life, never have been attained and RETAINED except through rendering useful service.

There is a woman on every dollar. She makes love only to those who wink with system and smile with service.

Ask me a question, which I will find hard to answer, and you will have rendered me a genuinely useful service by causing me to THINK.

Determination without courage is like a slyver without gas.

When we say a man is "dead wrong," we mean that he does not agree with us.

Don't burn your bridges until you get your subway ready.

Many men have been saved by the advice they didn't take.

BASIS FOR SUCCESS IS SERVICE.

In modern business the basis for success is service, and real service is of necessity based upon genuine interest in the other fellow. Every transaction must be mutually profitable—the buyer must be as well satisfied as the seller. This is the ideal and the practice of most business men.—[David Gibson.

Hoo-Hoo says: Boiled down Americanism consists of getting yours and giving the other fellow a decent chance to get his.

A HAND ON YOUR SHOULDER.

When a man ain't got a cent,
And he's feelin' kind of blue,
And the clouds hang dark and heavy
An' won't let the sunshine through;
It's a great thing, Oh, my brethren,
Fer a feller just to lay
His hand upon your shoulder
In a friendly sort o' way.

It makes a man feel queerish,
It makes the teardrops start,
An' you sort o' feel a flutter
In the region of your heart.
You can't look up and meet his eyes;
You don't know what to say
When his hand is on your shoulder
In a friendly sort o' way.

Oh, the world's a curious compound,
With its honey and its gall,
With its cares and bitter crosses—
But a good world, after all.
And a good God must have made it—
Leastwise, that is what I say
When a hand is on your shoulder
In a friendly sort o' way.

—[James Whitcomb Riley.

THE FAULTFINDER.

What an unhappy lot is that of the faultfinder. Nothing can please him! He takes delight in growling and grumbling over everything he meets. Even if a thing is good, he complains because it is not better.

Humanity has no bright side for this grumbler. It looks black, dreary, and hopeless to him.

He overlooks the virtues of an individual and holds up a single fault to judge his character from.

He denounces a party as corrupt because a few rascals in it disgrace themselves by unworthy acts.

The Church is false because a few hypocrites manage to find shelter within it.

The world is on the highroad to destruction, and everything indicates the hopeless depravity of man.

The faultfinder gains nothing for himself nor does he add anything to the progress or the happiness of the world.

A single hopeful heart is worth a regiment of these faultfinders.

Humanity has its bright side—beautiful and attractive to those who seek it.

The world is alive with public and private virtue, and we should be ready at all times to encourage the element of happiness.

Kind memories, fragrant as the breath of flowers,

Add grace and sweetness to the passing hours.

The Little Black Hen

Author Unknown

SAID THE little old red rooster, "Gosh all hemlock, things are tough. Seems that worms are getting scarcer, and I cannot find enough. What's become of all those fat ones is a mystery to me; There were thousands thru that rainy spell—but now, where can they be?"

The old black hen who heard him didn't grumble or complain. She had gone thru lots of dry spells, she had lived thru floods of rain. So she flew up on the grindstone, and she gave her claws a whet. As she said, "I've never seen the time there weren't worms to get."

She picked a new and undug spot; the earth was hard and firm. The little rooster jeered, "Now ground—that's no place for a worm." The old black hen just spread her feet, she dug both fast and free, "I must go to the worms," she said; "the worms won't come to me."

The rooster vainly spent his day, thru habit, by the ways
Where fat round worms had passed in squads back in the rainy days.
When nightfall found him supperless, he growled in accents rough,
"I'm hungry as a fowl can be. Conditions sure are tough."

He turned then to the old black hen and said, "It's worse with you,
For you're not only hungry but you must be tired too.
I rested while I watched for worms, so I feel fairly perk;
But how are you? Without worms too? And after all that work?"

The old black hen hopped to her perch, and dropped her eyes to sleep
And murmured in drowsy tones: "Young man, hear this and weep.
I'm full of worms and happy, for I've dined both long and well.
The worms are there as always—but I had to dig like hell."

Oh, here and there red roosters still are holding good positions.
They cannot do much business now because of poor conditions.
But soon as things get right again they'll sell a hundred firms;
Meanwhile, the old black hens are out and gobbling up the worms.

ALWAYS LADIES PRESENT.

A Lesson for All Lodges and Clubs in General, Taken from Kiwanis Magazine.

An incident and a moral. A vaudeville comedian was to deliver a monologue before a Kiwanis Club. He faced a room filled with laughing, smoking, joshing men. Visualizing a club "smoker" he began with a story which was just a wee bit over the line and the club laughed. Encouraged, he swung into a bar-room story which was an insult to the Kiwanis Club and he was promptly given to understand that this was not what was wanted.

He was deeply humiliated by the criticism and made a manly apology in which he expressed himself as much hurt because he had not been warned what was expected of him.

The man was all right and the club all wrong.

When any man makes such a mistake the fault lies with the club, with the representative who invited him, with the man who brought him in without informing him that there is one invariable rule in Kiwanis, constructively, there are always ladies present.

Professional people of the stage care more for applause than they do for money. The audience is to them like a violin to a maestro. From it they draw their music and sad it is that they are willing to play on any string to get this sweet solace.

The fact that a man can make a living in reputable theatres is evidence sufficient that he does not have to use flth, questionable stories, innuendo, to get applause. If he does these things in private performances, it is because it is what his audience wants.

Warn speakers, particularly professionals, that they are not expected to say in your Kiwanis Club a thing they would not say in the presence of ladies. If you do not warn the speaker the fault is yours, not his.

TO HELP AN ORGANIZATION.

1. Attend the meetings.
2. Be on time—always.
3. It's part of your important business—let nothing keep you away.
4. Encourage officers and workers—show appreciation of their work.
5. Cheerfully accept a place on a committee—it gives you an opportunity to render service.
6. Set a good example by your faithful performance of duty.
7. Wisely and discreetly join in all deliberations and show yourself interested in others' suggestions.
8. Have confidence in your fellow workers—freely give—take—help.
9. Promptly pay your dues—do it gladly. Answer all questions promptly.
10. The stronger the organization the better for you and all. Encourage new members to join.
