Comments on Concatenations.

Vicegerent J. E. Marrs' concatenation at Wichita, Kan., November 29, was one of the finest meetings ever held in the "Sunflower State." The following excellent write-up of the concatenation accompanied the formal report:

"Wichita, Kan., November 29, 1902.—In the presence of Grand Snark W. H. Norris, who journeyed from Houston, Texas, to Wichita especially to be present at this ceremonial, the first concatenation of Hoo-Hoo under the charge of Vicegerent Snark J. E. Marrs, of Winfield, Kan., was held here to-night. It is agreed that this was one of the most successful and enjoyable concatenations that has ever been held in this section. The work was done with smoothness and dispatch, and the working Nine was highly complimented by Snark Norris in the manner in which the initiation was conducted. There were about seventy-five Hoo-Hoo present, and a class of thirty was initiated. As the Wichita lumbermen had prepared a fine banquet for the occasion, which was to take place at 10 o'clock, it was necessary to start early, and accordingly the meeting opened promptly at 7 o'clock. After the first obligation was given, twelve of the kittens were picked out for the full initiation, and were, in turn, handed over to the tender mercies of the Junior Hoo-Hoo, Harry A. Gorsuch. As the time was limited, the candidates were given their degrees in double-quick order; but all agreed that they received everything that was coming to them, and were well satisfied that they had not been slighted. At the conclusion of the ceremony Snark Norris made a few remarks, in which he said that this was one of the best initiations he has ever attended.

J. E. MARRS, Vicegerent for Kansas.

"The officers were as follows: Snark, J. E. Marrs, Winfield, Kan.; Senior Hoo-Hoo, T. H. Rogers, Oklahoma City, O. T.; Junior Hoo-Hoo, Harry A. Gorsuch, Kansas City, Mo.; Bojum, J. F. Bennett, Wichita, Kan.; Scrivenoter, H. E. Comley, Wichita, Kan.; Jabberwock, F. W. Oliver, Wichita, Kan.; Custocatian, W. C. McCune, Perry, O. T.; Arcanoper, J. S. Waite, Jr., Parsons, Kan.; Gurdon, F. E. Cragin, Tonkawa, O. T.

"The initiates were as follows: C. A. Paddock, Wichita, Kan.; J. K. Adams, Wichita, Kan.; T. W. Rosborough, Wichita, Kan.; J. H. Engstrom, Wichita, Kan.; C. A. Schwartz, Wichita, Kan.; S. T. Tuttle, Wichita, Kan.; O. V. Stevens, Caney, Kan.; G. F. Washburn, Norwich, Kan.; M. G. Kootz, Niotaze, Kan.; S. B. Davis, Sedan, Kan.; H. E. Davis, Tonkawa, O. T.; T. J. Grimes, Wellington, Kan.; Lewis Conwell, Hamilton, Kan.; E. A. Humphrey, Kingman, Kan.; W. T. Brown, Mayfield, Kan.; W. E. Pond, Wichita, Kan.; W. B. Throckmorton, Wichita, Kan.; T. M. Deal, Wichita, Kan.; G. W. Utch, Wichita, Kan.; W. E. Doughty, Wichita, Kan.; C. A. Truskett, Caney, Kan.; W. C. Maxey, Arkansas City, Kan.; J. M. Nichols, Newkirk, O. T.; W. W. Davis, Arta, O. T.; J. F. Thomson, Belle Plain, Kan.; L. O. Allen, Peckham, O. T.; Ed. Crans, Eureka, Kan.; R. P. Baughman, Ponca City, O. T.; J. Olinger, Newton, Kan.; J. F. Candler, Houston, Texas.

"After the concatenation, the Hoo-Hoo marched to the Hamilton Hotel for the banquet. The large dining room was tastefully decorated, and plates were laid for 100. After the feasters had done full justice to the menu, during which time Mariager's Orchestra rendered a number of enlivening selections, H. W. Darling, the toastmaster, called on Mayor Ben. McLean, who made the address of welcome. The Mayor stated that the boys could have the town while there, and that as he was a lumberman and a Hoo-Hoo, he would see that the police did not interfere. Following the Mayor's address, Snark Norris; Rev. Sargent, of the Plymouth Church, Wichita; Rev. Ritchey, of Wichita; and Secretary H. A. Gorsuch, of the Lumber Dealers' Association, were called on and responded to informal toasts. During the evening Nels Darling, of Oklahoma City, was induced to tell one or two of his stories, and, as usual, made the hit of the occasion. The entertainment afforded the Hoo-Hoo by the wholesale and retail lumbermen of Wichita did full justice to that enterprising city and to the reputation of its lumbermen for cordiality and hospitality, and the local papers say that the banquet was one of the best ever given in Wichita.

"The hosts were as follows:
 "Wholesalers and Manufacturers—United Sash and Door Company, Crescent Sash and Door Company, Radford Sash and Door Company, W. B. Throckmorton Lumber Company, Deal & Trent, Louisiana Red Cypress Company, Trekell & Rounds Lumber Company, Arkansas Valley Lumber Company, Jackson-Walker Coal and Material Company; B. L. Stevenson, Long-Bell Lumber Company; Charles S. Marshall, Crossett Lumber Company; R. T. Darling, Crescent Lumber Company.
 "Retailers—Davidson & Case, B. F. McLean, Caldwell & Hoffman, Pratt Lumber Company, W. M. Pond & Co., Schwartz Lumber Company, Rock Island Lumber and Manufacturing Company."

The following is the menu served at the banquet:

Consommé Royal	Oyster Cocktail	Hot Chicken Tamale
Celery	Olives	Pickles
	Sauterne Wine
Spring Turkey, Gelantine, Aspic Jelly
Sweet Breads in Cases, Toulouse
Mashed Potatoes, au Gratin	French Peas
	Roman Punch
Mallard Ducks, Braized, Chasseur
Fruit Cake	Neapolitan Ice Cream	Angel Cake
	Caramel Cake
	Coffee

In a letter to this office Snark Norris took occasion to pay the following compliment to the brothers who held the Wichita meeting:

"I attended a concatenation at Wichita, Kan., on November 29, and it was one of the best concatenations I ever attended. Everything went off smoothly and nicely, everybody had a good time, and there was no roughness. The lumbermen of Wichita gave a banquet of about 200 plates, and had some of the best citizens of the town to make speeches, which did a great deal to improve the standing of the Order."

Memphis, Tenn.

Vicegerent John W. Dickson held his second concatenation at Memphis, Tenn., November 29, at which a class of fifteen was initiated.

Pine Bluff, Ark.

Vicegerent George H. Adams, at his concatenation at Pine Bluff, Ark., November 29, initiated an even dozen men into the mysteries. The boys insisted upon having a parade through the streets, but everything was conducted in a most orderly manner, and everybody was pleased.

"At Lafayette Hall the initiatory ceremonies were conducted, after which the party of Hoo-Hoo repaired to Mivalaz's Merchants' Café, where a banquet was served of such excellence as to please the most critical connoisseur. The black cat, emblematic of the Order of Hoo-Hoo, was everywhere in evidence on the long row of tables where the banquet spread was served. Joe Dillon, Will Scott, and an assistant furnished music for the occasion, and at intervals an electric banjo lent its merriment. The class of kittens was composed of the following lumbermen and suppliers: George Mitchell, J. H. Stone, J. C. Wilson, W. M. Taylor, of Thornton; J. B. Trescott, J. P. Harper, E. C. Strube, H. C. Black, J. A. Paulette, T. Anders, J. E. Cavanaugh, O. F. Brewster."

Winnfield La.

Vicegerent F. G. Snyder's concatenation at Winnfield, La., November 29, was unique in more than one respect. In the first place, it took Brother Snyder nine hours to go to Winnfield from Shreveport, a distance of forty-five miles. Fortunately, he started the day before, or otherwise he would have arrived the day after. In a letter to this office Brother Snyder says:

"I found only one Hoo-Hoo at Winnfield. I put that fellow to work—and got some good work out of him, too. It rained all day long. Our candidates could not come. Only four showed up; we had expected sixteen. There were eleven Hoo-Hoo present, all told, at the meeting. Those poor fellows that we initiated—I have sat up nights since then and wept over their fate. There were only four of them, and we had to get just as much fun out of them as if there were twenty; and so everything that was in the book, and a whole lot that was not, was fixed up for them. They are satisfied that they got the worth of their money. We had enough lunch to feed an army, and among other good things was a wild turkey. I took five meals and one lunch in Winnfield, and we had wild turkey every meal. You can run your hand up and down my back right now and find pin-feathers starting."

From this sprightly account of the meeting we infer that everybody had a good time, despite the weather and other drawbacks. The one solitary Hoo-Hoo discovered by Brother Snyder upon his arrival at Winnfield was Brother S. R. Cloud (No. 6181), formerly of Ruston, La. Brother Cloud is a host within himself, and has on many previous occasions rendered valuable and efficient service. In the Scrivenoter's official report at the last Annual Meeting, Brother Cloud was referred to as the "First Private of Hoo-Hoo," in recognition of his good work as a lay member.

Terrell, Tex.

Vicegerent T. W. Griffiths, Jr., held his first concatenation at Terrell, Texas, December 6. He was assisted by Snark of the Universe W. H. Norris and other prominent Texas brethren. Thirteen men were initiated, and the affair was altogether a most enjoyable one.

Shreveport, La.

Vicegerent F. G. Snyder had a class of nine at his concatenation at Shreveport, December 9. We have not very full particulars of this meeting, but in a private letter to the Scrivenoter one of the new kittens states that the candidates are not kicking at the inadequacy of the initiation, it being their opinion that what they received was a plenty. From his letter we judge that the occasion was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Lawton, O. T.

Oklahoma Territory is making a fine record this year. At Lawton there was held a fine concatenation December 13, making the second big meeting in the Territory this Hoo-Hoo year, the first one having occurred at Oklahoma City, November 22, at which a class of fifty-seven was initiated. At Lawton twenty-one initiates lined up to be inducted into the mysteries. Vicegerent T. E. Rogers, in reporting the meeting, says:

"We had a splendid concatenation. The Hoo-Hoo of that section simply turned themselves loose and gave the visiting Hoo-Hoo a royal good time. Everything went off fine, and all voted that it was one of the most successful and pleasant concatenations they ever attended."

The following is the menu served at the "Session on the Roof:"

Approaching Concatenations.

Vicegerent Paul Terhune is making preparations to initiate a large class at Pittsburgh, Pa., during the session of the Union Association of Lumber Dealers, which will occur in that city January 20, 21, and 22. The concatenation will be held on the night of the 20th. This meeting will be a tri-State affair, and will be participated in by Vicegerent F. M. Smith, of the Central District of Ohio, and Vicegerent H. A. Hollowell, of West Virginia. The prospects are good for a very fine meeting.

Vicegerent W. B. Tomlinson will hold a concatenation at Minneapolis, Minn., January 13. The Northwestern Retail Dealers' Association meets in Minneapolis January 13, 14, and 15, and the prospects are that a large number of visiting lumbermen will be present at the concatenation. This concatenation was first announced for the 15th, but has now been definitely fixed for the night of January 13.

Vicegerent Hamilton Love is working up a concatenation to occur at Nashville, Tenn., some time in January. The exact date has not yet been fixed.

Vicegerent Karl Isburgh will hold a concatenation at Boston, Mass., February 7. Brother Isburgh is very popular among the lumbermen throughout his section, and doubtless will succeed in rounding up a good class for this meeting. It is highly desirable that the East shall show up well at the Buffalo Annual Meeting, and it is a source of gratification to the Supreme Nine that unusual interest in Hoo-Hoo matters is being manifested in all the Eastern Vicegerencies.

All Hoo-Hoo jewelry is guaranteed. Money will be refunded if the article is not satisfactory and if it is returned to us promptly. We cannot, of course, refund the price of a pin that has been worn for months.

Notes and Comments.

Among the numerous Christmas souvenirs received at this office, there is a little folder from Brother H. Rentsch (No. 2891), whose address is Selukive, Matebeleland, via Bulawayo, South Africa. Into the folder is neatly pasted a photograph of Brother Rentsch, surrounded by a group of Kaffirs. In looking at this picture, a great light seems to dawn on us. We have repeatedly requested Brother Rentsch to write us a communication for "The Bulletin," setting forth what he thinks of South Africa, what he is doing over there, and describing any interesting adventures he may have had. He has, however, paid no attention to these requests, and has preserved a mysterious silence as to the nature of his business. But this picture gives it away—Brother Rentsch is undoubtedly in the slave trade. At any rate, this is our opinion. If he isn't in that business, it is up to him to write us what he is doing.

We acknowledge receipt of a "Christmas greeting" from Brother John H. Barrickman (No. 8672), contracting freight agent of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, who makes his headquarters at Louisville, Ky.

Brother Frank Russell, of Clay City, Ky., sent us a small "souvenir" bottle of Kentucky sour mash for a Christmas gift, and from one of the Vicegerents we received a beautiful Mexican fan. Both these presents hit us just right. The fan is a marvel of loveliness, and, besides, will come in handy to hold before our face while we take a nip from the souvenir bottle.

Frazier, Mo., December 10, 1902.—Dear Baird: I enjoyed the last "Bulletin" so very much. You are certainly doing a fine work in them, and will build up our Order by your efforts. I hope all enjoy the paper as much as I do.

Inclosed please find price of a Hoo-Hoo stick pin. Look out! Something doing in this patch of clearing soon—or a cold trail. NO. _____

"Loveland, Col., December 13, 1902.—Send me one Hoo-Hoo souvenir spoon. This is for a birthday present to a blushing young school-teacher to whom this bashful young kitten has been paying attention. If you have a piece of poetry that would be appropriate for the occasion, send it.

"Thanking you in advance for your valued and prompt reply, I am, Fraternally, NO. _____"

We always like to accommodate a good brother, and we made a desperate effort to comply with the foregoing request for a piece of poetry. We like to feel that this office is equal to any emergency and able to supply all demands. It is a great source of mortification to us to fall down on a thing of this sort. We have read nearly every poem that ever was written, from the Song of Solomon to the verses of Omar; but when we tried to think of something suitable to send this brother (would you believe it?), the only thing we could drag forth from memory's innermost recesses was this fool jingle which we learned in childhood:

"Sure as the vine grows round the stump,
I'll take you for my honey lump."

On the level, now, we are afraid we are getting old.

Mount Vernon, Wash., November 22, 1902.—Inclosed please find my ante in the jackpot for the Imminent Dis-truss Fund, and I hope there may be few Hoo-Hoo who hold openers, but those that do are certainly welcome.

GEORGE F. HARDY (No. 8482).

Chicago, Ill., December 20, 1902.—Mr. J. H. Baird, Scrivenor, Nashville, Tenn.—Dear Sir and Brother: Will you kindly mail me a statement of my dues, etc., that I owe the Order of Hoo-Hoo? I will send you a draft for the amount. I have been laid up for several months on account of an accident while on the road, but expect to be all right again by the first of the year. They thought for a while I would be on the list of deceased members, but good luck and the best of care have brought me around.

Thanking you in advance and wishing you a merry Christmas, I am, Yours sincerely, W. S. KERR (No. 8270).

Lester, Wash., November 21, 1902.—Mr. J. H. Baird—

Dear Sir: Inclosed find check for $2. Please credit one year's dues and send me a Hoo-Hoo grip tag.

Hoo-Hoo has used me well the past year. Say, your September "Bulletin" was a dandy. Well, we of this corner of the earth can read about the Annual, even if we have not the dimes to be with you. Yours very truly,

D. F. THOMSON.

Wilmington, Ark., November 21, 1902.—Dear Scrivenor: Find inclosed $1, which I hope will bring me to life again. The oversight is due to the fact that I travel so fast that my mail hardly ever catches up with me.

Hoo-Hoo is worth something to me; and when I don't wear my cat, I don't wear my coat.

Fraternally yours, BEN. F. TATUM (No. 7404).

Oklahoma City, O. T., December 8, 1902.—J. H. Baird, Scrivenor, Nashville, Tenn.—Dear Sir and Brother: I am in receipt of your registered package this A.M. I wish to state that it has pleased me well. I found the button inclosed, No. 9697. I assure you that the same has been placed in the correct location, and will see that it stays there. The old fellow seems to like the place, and holds his kinky tail in the same stately manner.

Thanking you for your kindness and wishing you a successful New Year, as well as a merry Christmas, I am,

Yours as ever, E. L. ERWIN (No. 9697).

New Orleans, La., November 28, 1902.—I inclose post office money order for $2, of which please consider $1 as dues and $1 as a contribution to the Imminent Distress Fund. I am strongly in favor of every member putting up $1 at each death; and if it is agreed on, I am willing to deposit with our honorable Scrivenor in advance to obviate the necessity of waiting to hear from each member.

J. J. INNERARITY (No. 4623).

STRICTLY ELIGIBLE.

Vicegerents are requested to hold down hard on the matter of eligibility, and the Scrivenor is instructed to withhold the book and button from any initiate who is found to be ineligible, returning his fee to him. Also any Vicegerent who willfully and knowingly initiates a man who is not strictly eligible will be deposed and another Vicegerent appointed in his place. This administration is making every effort to uphold the standard of Hoo-Hoo and to impress upon Vicegerents and lay members the fact that quality counts far more than numbers. We do not want any man who is not strictly eligible. Vicegerents are supplied with booklets and other literature setting forth plainly just what constitutes eligibility, and they are admonished to hew to the line.

Vicegerents are also requested to bear in mind that the biggest concatenation is not necessarily the best concatenation. Eight or nine candidates is a good class for effective work.

This administration is setting its face squarely against all rough horse play in the initiatory ceremonies. Sometimes it is difficult for the Vicegerent to hold the boys down in these matters, and occasionally a complaint reaches the Scrivenor's office along this line. We believe, however, that the Vicegerents are anxious to cooperate with the Supreme Nine in an effort to abolish all objectionable features from the initiations.

The following clipping from the "Mississippi Valley Lumberman" will be of interest to the friends of Brother Robert J. Menz (No. 4805) and Brother L. L. Hill (No. 3864):

"The Menz-Hill Lumber Company" is the name of a new concern which will enter the wholesale field at Minneapolis, Minn., soon after January 1. The company will incorporate under the State laws of Minnesota, with an authorized capital of $100,000, $50,000 of which has already been paid in. They will engage extensively in the handling of West Coast products, and will also handle white and yellow pine and hemlock lumber and white cedar posts and poles. The active members of the company will be: Messrs. Robert J. Menz, George W. Dulaney, Jr., and L. L. Hill. All of these gentlemen are of experience and well known in the lumber trade of Minneapolis and the Northwest."

Montgomery, Ala., November 28, 1902.—It is a matter of impossibility to get genuine buckwheat down here. It is all adulterated, and good buckwheat cakes are something I am especially fond of. I want to ask a personal favor of you, for I feel that it will give you pleasure to do anything for me—I'm not conceited, am I? If your grocery merchant has it for sale or you know any one in Nashville who has genuine buckwheat, I wish you would order fifty pounds sent me at once.

C. H. BEALE (No. 400)."

Immediately upon receipt of this pathetic epistle we hustled out and ordered the buckwheat. If we cannot write poetry, we can at least buy buckwheat—with other people's money. We trust this brother will enjoy his breakfast cakes. Buckwheat is a wholesome food, and is said to be good for the complexion. We should hate to see Cad Beale lose his good looks, and maybe his figure, through an enforced diet of patent breakfast foods made of hay and sawdust.

Note carefully the supplement to this copy of "The Bulletin." Fill out and return the slip, no matter how many other slips you have sent in. We are anxious to get you down right in the handbook.

Do not forget that 1903 dues are payable.

Vicegerent Ramsey Was on Deck.

In the write-up of the very excellent meeting at Valdosta, Ga., Nov. 4, which appeared in the last issue of The Bulletin, it was stated that the Vicegerent, A. M. Ramsey, was absent on account of illness. Since then we have learned that the Vicegerent, though really ill, was present all the same, his enthusiasm for Hoo-Hoo having overcome his physical indisposition. The mistake made in The Bulletin was due to a misapprehension on part of the editor. In the letter which accompanied the formal report the acting Scrivenor stated that Vicegerent Ramsey was confined to his bed with malaria fever, and this, together with the fact that Mr. Ramsey's name did not appear in the list of officers, gave us the idea that he was not present. We regret the mistake, but are pleased to know that Bro. Ramsey was able to take part in the concatenation and that he has now about recovered. The Valdosta meeting was one of the best that has been held anywhere in the country, and the initiatory ceremonies were carried through with unusual smoothness and dispatch.
