

27368—Herbert Paterson, 502 Huron & Erie Bldg., Winnipeg, Man., Canada.
13066—Richard W. Lockhart, 412 McIntyre Bldg., Winnipeg, Man., Canada.

HOO-HOO CLUBS

- No. 1.—Atlanta Hoo Hoo Club, of Atlanta, Ga.—president, J. E. Adams; secretary-treasurer, C. B. Harman.
- No. 2.—Hoo-Hoo Club of Los Angeles, Calif. President—Herman S. Rosenberg; Secretary-Treasurer—C. J. Laughlin.
- No. 3.—Hoo-Hoo Club of San Diego, Calif. President—A. A. Frost; Secretary-Treasurer—Frank Benz.
- No. 4.—Hoo Hoo Club of Beaumont, Tex.—president, Leroy W. King; secretary-treasurer, R. D. Naylor.
- No. 5.—Hoo Hoo Club of Oklahoma City, Okla.—president, C. J. Jennings; vice-president, C. J. Eskridge; secretary-treasurer, W. B. Campbell.
- No. 6.—Hoo-Hoo Club at St. Louis, Mo.—president, Hal Ball; Secretary-Treasurer John Larsen.
- No. 7.—Hoo Hoo Club of El Paso, Tex.—president, Fred Woodworth; secretary-treasurer, Miera C. Johnson.
- No. 8.—Hoo Hoo Club of Amarillo, Tex.—president, C. D. Whitall; secretary-treasurer, U. N. Oliver.
- No. 9.—Hoo-Hoo Club of San Francisco, Calif. President—R. A. Hiscox; Vice-President—J. W. Kelloy; Secretary-Treasurer—J. C. McCaba.
- No. 10.—Grand Rapids, Michigan, Hoo Hoo Club—president, William Verhey; secretary, Frank H. Wagner; treasurer, A. M. Manning.
- No. 11.—Hoo Hoo Club of Cairo, Ill.—president, J. A. Bebbles; secretary-treasurer, L. S. Johnson.
- No. 12.—Hoo Hoo Club of Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minn.—president, A. S. Bliss; secretary-treasurer, Doc Watson.
- No. 13.—Harry L. Folsom Hoo Hoo Club of Boston, Mass.—president, R. M. Davenport; secretary-treasurer, H. E. Lewis.
- No. 14.—Hoo Hoo Club of Duluth, Minn.—president, Charles A. Mattson; secretary-treasurer, H. S. Robb.
- No. 15.—Hoo-Hoo Club of Warren, Ark. President—E. C. Morgan; Vice-President—J. C. Moore; Secretary-Treasurer—J. C. Anthony.
- No. 16.—Hoo Hoo Club of Spokane, Wash.—president, R. L. Bayne; secretary-treasurer, E. F. Wales.
- No. 17.—Hoo-Hoo Club of Lansing, Michigan—president, B. F. Hall, Jr., Vice-President, Wm. Kraus; Secretary-Treasurer, Norman B. Covo.
- No. 18.—Hoo-Hoo Club of Waco, Texas. President—Walter Gregg; Vice-President—W. S. Morrow; Secretary—Bob Nalley.

- No. 19.—Hoo-Hoo Club of Saginaw, Michigan—president, Herman W. Zahnow.
- No. 20.—Hoo-Hoo Club of San Antonio, Texas—president, N. L. Patrick; vice-president, William H. Hearne; secretary-treasurer, John A. Mitchell.
- No. 21.—Hoo-Hoo Club of Fort Wayne, Indiana—president, John Suelzer, Jr. Indianapolis, Ind.Soverin Hotel

HOO-HOO HOMES

- Akron, Ohio.....Portage Hotel
- Alexandria, La.....Bentley Hotel
- Atlanta, Ga.....Ansley Hotel
- Bend, Ore.....Pilot Butte Inn
- Beaumont, Texas.....Beaumont Hotel
- Birmingham, Ala.....Tutwiler Hotel
- Boise, Idaho.....Owyhee Hotel
- Boulder, Colo.....Boulderado Hotel
- Butte, Mont.....Thornton Hotel
- Cairo, Ill.....Halday Hotel
- Canon City, Colo.....Stratmore Hotel
- Centralia, Wash.....Centralia Hotel
- Chicago, Ill.....La Salle Hotel
- Cincinnati, Ohio.....Gibson Hotel
- Colorado Springs, Colo.....Alamo Hotel
- Columbia, S. C.....Jefferson Hotel
- Columbus, Ohio.....Deshler Hotel
- Corinth, Miss.....Waldron Hotel
- Denver, Colo.....Brown Palace
- Detroit, Mich.....Statler Hotel
- Duluth, Minn.....Spalding Hotel
- Elkins, W. Va.....City Hotel
- Fort Collins, Colo.....Northern Hotel
- Fort Morgan, Colo.....Curry Hotel
- Fresno, Calif.....Fresno Hotel
- Glenwood Springs, Colo.....Denver Hotel
- Grand Rapids, Mich.....Pantlind Hotel
- Grand Junction, Colo.....La Court Hotel
- Greeley, Colo.....Camfield Hotel
- Jacksonville, Fla.....Mason Hotel
- Kansas City, Mo.....Muehlebach Hotel
- Lake Charles, La.....Majestic Hotel
- Longmont, Colo.....Imperial Hotel
- Loveland, Colo.....Lincoln Hotel
- Los Angeles, Calif.....Hayward Hotel
- Macon, Ga.....Dempsy Hotel
- Memphis, Tenn.....Chilca Hotel
- Milwaukee, Wis.....Wisconsin Hotel
- Minneapolis, Minn.....Andrews Hotel
- Mobile, Ala.....Battie Hotel
- Montgomery, Ala.....The Exchange Hotel
- New Orleans, La.....Gruncwald Hotel
- New York, N. Y.....McAlpin Hotel
- Portland, Ore.....Portland Hotel
- Pueblo, Colo.....Vall Hotel
- Phoenix, Ariz.....Adams Hotel
- St. Louis, Mo.....Statler Hotel
- Salt Lake City, Utah.....Utah Hotel
- San Diego, Calif.....San Diego Hotel
- San Francisco, Calif.....Ramona Hotel
- Seattle, Wash.....Washington Hotel
- Springfield, Ohio.....Bancroft Hotel

Sterling, Colo.....Cole Hotel
St. Paul, Minn.....St. Paul Hotel
Tampa, Fla.....Hillsboro Hotel
Toledo, Ohio.....Secor Hotel
Trinidad, Colo.....Columbia Hotel
Tuscaloosa, Ala.....McLaster Hotel
Winnipeg, Canada.....Marlborough Hotel

—HOO-HOO—

When Visiting Any of these Places—Stop at The Hoo-Hoo Home—You'll be treated right and be made welcome

SPARKS "PEPS UP" CANADA FOR WINNIPEG CONCAT.

Canadian lumberdom is all set to give to the big, Black Cat of Hoo-Hoo a reception his nibs will never forget, and the cat is preening himself for the big event, January 24.

The call of the cat for a gathering of his disciples and a big Concatenation was sounded far and wide throughout Western Canada by the popular and energetic Theodore Sparks of the T. A. Burrows Lumber Company, Vicegerent Snark for the Province of Manitoba.

Not a stone was left unturned by the enthusiastic vicegerent, and he well merits the confidence placed in him by Supreme Scrivenoter Ted T. Jones, who appointed him. He has circularized every old cat in Western Canada and has received numerous pledges that the old cats will rally to the call. He has appointed committees in every center west of Winnipeg to further spread the word.

Word comes from Scrivenoter Jones that a large delegation of cats will cross the border from Minneapolis and Duluth for the big Concatenation, which will be staged in the evening of January 24, which was courteously set aside by the Western Retail Lumbermen's Association as a feature of their convention program.

Secretary-Treasurer Isherwood also will make the journey. He has been invited by the association to speak before the convention at 2:30 p. m. on the 24th. His subject will be "The Value of Lumbermen's Associations."

PEP JONES.

(Continued from page 17.)

he started in motion the movement to awaken the somewhat sleepy Hoo-Hoo Cat.

While the credit for the actual work which is being done under the banner of the cat is due to the popular and capable Theodore Sparks, and the enthusiastic Fred Ritter, much credit must be given the scrivenoter for appointing such men as Sparks and Ritter to the positions of Vicegerent Snark and Counselor, respectively.

The scrivenoter doesn't intend to throw upon the shoulders of these two Canadian cats all of the burden, however. He is going from his home in Minneapolis to the big Concat in Winnipeg January 24, to lend them his enthusiastic support. He's been hard at work on this side of the line and a large delegation from Minneapolis and Duluth will accompany him to Winnipeg.

Atta boy, Ted!

Friendship Confidence Education

Health Happiness
Long Life

THE BULLETIN

Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo

Vol. XXXIII

February, 1924

No. 263

January Enlistments in the Cat's Army

Concat	Kittens	Reinstatements
Minneapolis	77	8
Winnipeg, Canada	64	64
Fresno	41	2
Oakland	37	10
Alexandria, La.	25	5
Kansas City	25	3
St. Paul	16	1
Lansing	14	6
Marshfield, Ore.	13	3
Denver	12	—
Salt Lake City	12	2
Indianapolis	10	1
Cincinnati	9	5
Saginaw	5	—
Davenport	2	—
Total, 362		110

Published monthly at Mount Morris, Illinois; Editorial office, St. Louis, Mo. Entered as second-class matter, July 20, 1901, at the post office at Mount Morris, Ill., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO TELL IT—THEY KNOW IT

You don't have to tell how you live each day,
You don't have to say if you work or you play;
A tried, true barometer serves in the place—
However you live, it will show in your face.
The false, the deceit, that you bear in your heart
Will not stay inside where it first got the start;
For sinew and blood are thin veil of lace—
What you wear in your heart you wear in your face.
If you have gambled and won in the great game of life,
If you feel you have conquered the sorrow and strife,
If you've played the game fair and you stand on first base—
You don't have to say so, it shows on your face.
If your life is unselfish, and for others you live,
For not what you get, but how much you can give;
If you live close to God in his infinite grace—
You don't have to tell it, it shows in your face.

THE BULLETIN

Published Monthly by
Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo

Publication Office, Mount Morris, Illinois
International Headquarters and Editorial Offices, Arcade Bldg., St. Louis, Mo.
H. R. ISHERWOOD, Editor P. A. SIMPKIN, Associate Editor

Volume XXXIII

FEBRUARY, 1924

Number 263

Squibs by the Editor

Real Fiction in Facts

Facts argue stronger than fiction. The helping hand of Hoo-Hoo had to be denied two families during January because of the failure of husband and father to keep up membership in the order. The tragedy was enhanced in one case by the fact that a wife and little brood remained to mourn—up against it financially.

Verily, thoughtlessness may not possess the ugliness of willful malice, but its effects are none the less far-reaching.

Another Job for A. A. Hood; Heads Salesmen's Body

The Mississippi Valley Lumber, Sash & Door Salesmen's Association likes cats.

This is evident from the selection of its officers. A loyal and enthusiastic old cat, Charles Espey, retiring as president of the organization after a fruitful year, was succeeded by that ardent disciple of the doctrines of Hoo Hoo, State Counselor A. A. Hood of Minnesota.

That's not all. The new vice-president is W. E. Sears, No. 9997, of the Curtis-Yale-Holland Lumber Company of Minneapolis; the treasurer is T. M. Partridge, No. 250, of the T. M. Partridge Lumber Company, and the new secretary is J. E. Hayden, No. 1980.

J. A. Gray and Roy Thompson, vicegerent snark of Hoo Hoo, for the Minneapolis District, are the members of the executive committee. The election took place at the West Hotel. Arrangements were made with the Twin Cities

Hoo Hoo Club to provide entertainment at four association meetings during the year.

The retiring president was the principal speaker. He stressed the value to the association of co-operation with the Hoo Hoo Club. Following this, fifty new members were voted upon and accepted by the association, and the following membership committee was elected: W. E. Sears, chairman; M. L. Jordan, Charles Espey, J. A. Gray and F. T. Phillips.

Taps for a Loyal Hoo Hoo

The final great shadow which eventually will eclipse the sunlight of all our lives, has crossed the path of a beloved and devoted Hoo-Hoo—William Atkinson Coulson, No. 2627.

Bedridden for eighteen months prior to his death, January 12, Brother Coulson adhered until the end to the principles of Hoo-Hoo which he had embraced at a Concatenation in Mobile, Ala., January 9, 1895.

Twenty-nine years and three days of loyal devotion to these principles had won for Brother Coulson the admiration and affection of all Hoo-Hoo and the lumbermen of his district. He was Vicegerent Snark in his home State, Mississippi, in 1895. He was 60 years old.

He passed on in New Orleans. The funeral was held in his home town, Moss Point, Miss. Prominent lumbermen from the district were on hand. Brother Coulson had been identified with lumberdom since his youth, including 16 years he spent in Nicaragua and other tropical countries. His widow, two children, and two brothers survive him.

Driving Their Message Home —Our Message, Too

Good results unquestionably will come of the national advertising campaign of the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association.

Running under the head of "Lumber Facts," this series is providing the public with valuable knowledge concerning lumber and the lumber industry, and the part both play in the lives of every citizen. Five advertisements have appeared so far, each being a short, informative article relating only facts. "Use Lumber" is the slogan of the campaign. This appears at the bottom of each advertisement, and below, in small type, is the name of the association.

"More than four-fifths of all American homes are lumber-built—a substantial proof of the economy and lasting satisfaction of good lumber construction," read the first. "The average total cost of erecting a lumber-built home today is thirty-five per cent less than in 1920," was No. 2. "Eight hundred thousand men labor daily in forest and mill to provide America with lumber. Behind them are thirty thousand saw mills and ten billions of invested capital," read No. 3. "One-fifth of the nation's area will grow trees and nothing else. Keep the fires out of the forest lands and America will always have enough trees to provide lumber at reasonable cost," and "The only 'permanent' structures are tombs. The only fire-proof buildings are jails. Who wants to live in either? Lumber builds homes for human comfort and human enjoyment and lasts a lifetime," were No. 4 and 5, respectively.

Minneapolis—1924.

The Great Black Cat and Lumbermen

(What LUMBER, the weekly trade paper, thinks of Hoo-Hoo. This editorial appeared in the issue of LUMBER, January 25)

Being a fraternal organization of lumbermen, the Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo is betimes associated in the outsider's mind only with the relaxing frivolities of the trade. Possibly the emblem of the order contributes to the result, through the power of suggestion; for, while the cat was sacred and, in a sense, deified in ancient Egypt, it has come to be regarded, in these days of lessened reverence and larger levity, as a nocturnal reveler whose vocal delight is to wake up the neighborhood.

It may be, too, that for quite a while in the history of the order, when membership qualifications were much broader than they are now and numerical growth was rapid, the finer purposes and ideals of the organization's founders were frequently misunderstood by members themselves, and even by officers in charge of concatenations. There used to be, undeniably, wider and looser play in funmaking at the expense of candidates for membership than is now permissible in keeping with the spirit and the customs of the times and by easy gravitation to the freedom which then obtained in such matters in other secret societies. Beyond a doubt, this worked an injustice to the real and nobler aims of the order, through processes of reaction. Many desirable members—men of representative high standing in the lumber trade—fell out of the ranks. The results were also unfortunate in other respects.

But we may well draw the mantle of charity over this page of Hoo-Hoo's splendid history. Mistakes are too much the lot of fallible humanity to be remembered, save with dispensation and forgiveness, from the corrected viewpoint. As has been immortally said, "to err is human, to forgive divine."

It better befits the occasion to speak of the order as it stands today, revealed in spirit and in the character of its work, than to further indulge unprofitable reminiscence. There is opportunity as well as inspiration here for a thesis of great moral and spiritual awakening power. Editorial comment, with its restrictions of space—to say nothing of other limitations—cannot take the measure of the subject. It can compass only beaten ground. The pointing and the interpretation of the finely elevating aims of the order are quite outside the province, if not the capabilities of the busy work-a-day writer.

Its code of ethics, setting forth nine governing principles for Hoo-Hoo conduct, is a book of uplifting moral and spiritual revelations in itself. Everybody would be the better for its reading, seeing that it applies the philosophy and the sentiment of the Golden Rule to the relations of men with each other—business, social and civic.

"Aim" 9 thereof is directed, with definite expression, to the practicalities of trade and production as they present themselves in forms of co-operative effort. It reads:

"To recognize the abiding power of co-operation and organization and so to act as individuals that the Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo shall ever be regarded with honor as a source of community benefit and good will."

Under this section of the code, the order has become a factor of increasing potency for the upbuilding of trade organization along lines of approved correctness and ethical merit. Its co-operative service, developing with opportunity and the need, has been very helpful also to the work of other agencies in advancing the cause of forestry, on esthetic grounds only—by encouraging the planting of trees by children and householders for the definite purpose of beautifying the home surroundings. Likewise it has done much, in observance both of the spirit and the language of "aims" 2, 5 and 6 of the code, to promote home building—which, it is no doubt selfish to remark, spells benefits to the lumber industry. Hoo-Hoo headquarters in St. Louis is prolific of clever home building literature, and is versed in the propagandist's art of "getting it into the papers" at the right places and under favoring conditions of psychology.

The Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo is a living and achieving reality, not less than an expression of high purpose.

with which he had been associated many years.

The first venture of Mr. Bliss into the lumber industry was with the John B. Ransome Lumber Company, of Nashville, Tenn. Later he was with the Hatton Lumber Company of New London, Wis. About twenty years ago he went to Minneapolis and shortly after joined the Payson Smith Company. His knowledge of the hardwood lumber trade is extensive, and he has many friends among lumbermen throughout the United States. He formerly was president of the Northwestern Hardwood Lumbermen's Association.

Associations Appreciate Hoo-Hoo Circular

Hoo-Hoo has given a new slant to the old slogan, "It Pays to Advertise."

"It Pays to Advertise the Other Fellow" is a suggestion for a new slogan, resulting from the effort of the order to assist the retail lumbermen's associations throughout the land by the publication of a circular enumerating the advantages of associations. The secretary of one of the leading retailers' associations in the United States said, "The circular is certainly a corker; nothing better has been gotten out in this line, to my knowledge, in the past century." The circular is being copied by many associations.

The frontispiece of the four-page argument was a cartoon showing the benefits of co-operation. The inside was devoted to argument as to the lumberman's duties to the public and the advantages of his association, together with a list of the various association departments and how they serve the member and the public. Another argument for the associations was presented by Hoo-Hoo in an individual cartoon, which also met with much favor.

New Edition, "Lumber and Its Uses"

A revised edition of that very interesting volume, "Lumber and Its Uses," is just off the press and has been put into circulation by the U. P. C. Book Company, Inc., 239 West Thirty-ninth street, New York City.

The thorough work of that far-sighted and deep-thinking student of the industry R. S. Kellogg, and the intelligent and painstaking effort of the reviser Franklin H. Smith, are apparent in the new work, which is the third edition. The first was written in 1914.

The latest volume is replete with interesting matter relating to lumber in all of its phases, from the seedling to the time when it has found its place in the construction of modern buildings. The interesting facts are supplemented by illustrations and charts which help to convey the information desired.

HOO-HOO IN CANADA

The Pick of Canadian Lumbermen are Cats

An idea of the caliber of some of the men who pledged themselves to the ideals of Hoo-Hoo at the big Winnipeg Concatenation, may best be judged by the fact that 830 yards—virtually all of the yards in western Canada—are under their management.

R. J. Gourley, general manager of the Beaver Lumber Company, Winnipeg, controls 101 yards. A. K. Godfrey, general manager of the Monarch Lumber Company, directs ninety. Eighty yards are under the control of W. Thorn, general manager of the Imperial Lumber Yards, Moose Jaw.

W. E. Kirsch, general manager of the Security Lumber Company, Moose Jaw; F. E. Sine, general manager of the Alberta Lumber Company, Calgary; and F. W. Hess, general manager of the Atlas Lumber Company, Calgary, each control seventy-five yards.

Other prominent neophytes and the number of yards under their control were: M. C. Walston, general manager of the Empire Lumber Company, Winnipeg, 52 yards; A. L. Jones, general manager of the Rogers Lumber Yards, Moose Jaw, 43; C. J. Lee, general manager North American Lumber & Supply Company, Winnipeg, 53; Theodore A. Burrows, president T. A. Burrows Lumber Company, 27; G. E. Hayward, general manager Hayward Lumber Company, Edmonton, 18; N. S. Stoltz, general manager Pioneer Lumber Company, Lethbridge, Alta., 20; C. W. Stacey, general manager Stacey Lumber Company, Lethbridge, Alta., 15; A. Malstead, general manager North Star Lumber Company, Birch Hills, Sask., 10; W. D. Galvin, general manager Galvin Lumber Yards, Winnipeg, 23; G. O. Fuller, general manager Reliance Lumber Company, Saskatoon, 29; W. P. Dutton, general manager Dutton-Wall Lumber Company, Winnipeg, 7; George Barr, general manager Barr Lumber Company, Shaunavan, 7; I. E. Frost, general manager Corona Lumber Company, Winnipeg, 7; R. Skov, new president of the W. R. L. A., High River, Alta., 3; C. Dure, general manager McDonald Dure Lumber Company, Winnipeg, 2

Ritter a Real Worker

Fred Ritter, Manitoba Counselor and secretary of the Western Retail Lumbermen's Association, never toots his own horn. He lets his achievements speak for themselves. The valuable assistance he gave Vicegerent Sparks in putting on the Winnipeg Concat shows that he "knows his stuff" and is willing to do it.

Col. Webb Makes Cats Feel at Home in His Hotel

"All the comforts of home" is a slogan which well could be adopted by the Marlborough Hotel, of Winnipeg, at least as far as Hoo-Hoo visitors are concerned. The genial proprietor, Col. R. H. Webb, himself a loyal old cat, had the "welcome" out for all Hoo-Hoo, and he certainly impressed them with the warmth of his hospitality.

Sparks a Dandy Toastmaster

In a contest to decide whether Theodore Sparks shines best as a toastmaster or as vicegerent, the result probably would be a dead heat. His work in arranging the big Winnipeg Concat was wonderful. He made a dandy toastmaster at the big Hoo-Hoo dinner.

Old Cats Big Help at Winnipeg

A bunch of enthusiastic old cats gave their best efforts to Vicegerent Sparks in making the Winnipeg event a real accomplishment. There wasn't a thing they were not ready to do. Co. Webb, D. B. Sprague, R. P. Wescott, Warren Scoville, F. H. Mitchell, E. C. Carter and a lot of other old cats did their bit.

Old Association Head Reinstated—President-Elect a Kitten

The wonderful support which the Western Retail Lumbermen's Association gave to Hoo-Hoo may be indicated by the fact that the retiring president, Mr. Dutton, was among those reinstated, and the president-elect, Mr. Skov, was a kitten.

Association Cordial

The Western Retail Lumbermen's Association wasn't a bit selfish. Every officer and member of the association had a good word for Hoo-Hoo and did their best to make the visiting cats and kittens welcome.

Piped in Canada

There's a suggestion of "homey" comfort and genuine camaraderie about an old corncob or clay pipe which a dignified cigar hardly could create.

With this in mind, the Western Retail Lumbermen's Association didn't have anything to puff on at their big smoker in Winnipeg except corncob and clay pipes. Sets of these, with the finest imported tobaccos right at hand, were on all tables.

There must be a lot of sound psychology in the Indians' peace pipe ceremony.

We're Working for You

Remember the old slogan, "If we please you, tell others; if we don't, tell us?"

Keep that in mind in your relationships with international headquarters of the Order. If your copy of the Bulletin fails to reach you; if your membership card or some other article you've requested of us has not been delivered, don't tell it to somebody in your own neighborhood, who cannot rectify the matter. Tell us!

International headquarters is maintained for the benefit of the Order as a whole, and for your individual benefit. Delays sometimes occur—mistakes, too, which are beyond our power to prevent, but which we can and gladly will correct. Thanks!

Bliss Gets Into the Game for Himself

Hoo Hoo and lumbermen will be delighted to know that A. A. Bliss, the popular president of the Twin Cities Hoo Hoo Club, has undertaken to paddle his own business canoe.

He embarked recently with headquarters at 1029 Lumber Exchange, Minneapolis, after disposing of his interests and resigning as secretary of the Payson Smith Lumber Company,

Winnipeg Welcomes Cat With Great Event

"The Cat's Conquest of Canada" would be an ideal title for a glowing chapter which Canadian lumberdom has just written into the records of Hoo-Hoo.

Led by the enthusiastic and devoted Vicegerent Snark of the Province of Manitoba, Theodore Sparks, the cat has captured the affections of the industry north of the line, and has been wholeheartedly adopted as a symbol of all that is good for the industry.

Vicegerent Sparks brought the cat back to life during the big annual convention of the Western Retail Lumbermen's Association in Winnipeg, with a concert in the Fort Garry Hotel the evening of January 24 which ushered sixty-four kittens into Canada. Sixty-four old cats took advantage of the occasion to return to the fold.

Splendid types, they were—every one a representative Canadian business man. They recognized in the principles of Hoo-Hoo the influence which alone could unite lumberdom on both sides of the line into one great industry, striving for its own betterment and for a greater and better public service.

Big Banquet.

A splendid banquet in the ballroom of the Fort Garry was the opening gun of the Hoo-Hoo celebration. At 5:59 p. m. 250 had breasted the festive board. Among the many humorous and "pep" creating things which featured this function was a novel menu printed on beaver board, and containing such delicacies as "Saw Filings; New Mountain Grade Knots; By-Product of No. 3 W. P. Rules;" "Hot Pond; Interior Trim 90% Clear;" "Dressed Stock; Baked Kitten Smothered in Log Pond Water;" "Timbers; Log Run Culls Out;" "Blow Pipe Screened Sawdust; Catnip Tea; Kittens' Milk;" and "Cigars; Rejected by the Straw Boss."

Vicegerent Sparks delivered an address of welcome. Then came several excellent vocal numbers by Mrs. Ernest Mills and R. T. Halliley, both of Winnipeg. Secretary-Treasurer Isherwood then outlined the history of the order and explained what it is doing today and what the future holds. Supreme Scrivenoter Ted T. Jones also made a short address.

Some Cat!

Vicegerent Snark Theodore Sparks, Sketched by a Kitten at the Winnipeg Concat.

A number of applications were submitted immediately after the speeches, and the assembly united in singing inspirational songs, with Ralph Duncan as the song leader.

The old cats repaired to the gardens at 9:00 p. m. and began laying the scenes for the big event—the concat. And what a concat it was! Sixty-four kittens gamboling in the onion patch, with a still greater number of old cats urging them on—and all of them outstanding men in the lumber industry of Canada.

Jones, the Junior.

Supreme Scrivenoter Jones served as Junior Hoo-Hoo and he certainly made a good job of it. It was snappy, interesting and entertaining throughout, and afforded enjoyment to both the kittens and the old-timers who beheld the spectacle.

But Canada wasn't through with the cat when the concat ended. Several Canadians made short talks. So did Harry Partridge of the Twin Cities Hoo-Hoo Club. The benefits of a Hoo-Hoo Club were explained and it was agreed then and there that steps should be taken at once to give Canada its first Hoo-Hoo Club.

To this end, Vicegerent Sparks appointed a committee of six to arrange for a meeting in the very near future, at which details will be worked out for the formation of the club. Vicegerent Sparks was ably aided throughout by such loyal cats as Messrs. Westcott, Mitchell and Sprague, and Fred Ritter, Dominion Counselor, did his share. Hoo wiped out the border line? Hoo-Hoo!

Winnipeg's Way

From the opening curtain to the grand climax there wasn't a dull moment during the convention of the Western Retail Lumbermen's Association in Winnipeg. The character of entertainment presented—amusement of the highest class—indicated that much time, thought and money was expended in preparing.

The manner in which the association does things can best be illustrated by a full description of the grand ball and banquet which was the closing event. More than 700 persons—the bosses and their families and the employees and their families—joined in a great celebration. It was wonderful, to say the least.

(Continued on page 12.)

THE ONION PATCH

5 Enter Garden at Saginaw

Five eager, purring kittens made their way through the onion beds under the guidance of Vicegerent Snark H. W. Zahnow, at an excellent concat in Saginaw, Mich., the evening of January 24.

A lot of old cats were on hand to help the vicegerent put the neophytes through, and the affair was tremendously successful. The mysteries of the cat estate were imparted in an impressive and interesting manner, and the work of the team was commendable.

Very Much Alive — This Toombs!

R. A. Toombs, president of the R. A. Toombs Sash & Door Company of Fort Worth, Texas, has taken up the reins of Vicegerent Snark for the Dallas and Fort Worth district.

By appointing Brother Toombs, Supreme Jabberwock, J. H. Kurth, Jr., completed the roster of Vicegerent Snarks for Texas. The roster for Louisiana was completed recently. D. E. Chipps of the D. E. Chipps Lumber Company, and Walter Sloan, of the Sloan Lumber Company, have pledged themselves to lend their best efforts to the new vicegerent.

Brother Toombs is well-known and affectionately esteemed by the lumbermen of his district, and it is certain to make a good job of the business of Vicegerent Snarking.

9 at Cincinnati—Hager and Thatcher Help

The yowling of old cats mingled with the purring of kittens in Hotel Gibson, Cincinnati, the evening of January 23, as nine Hoo-Hoo neophytes had their eyes opened and their tails twisted. Five old cats awoke from their slumbers and returned to the fold of the cat.

Credit for this wonderful event goes to Supreme Junior Hoo-Hoo A. J. Hager and Vicegerent Snark Bert S. Thatcher of the Lansing, Mich., district, both of whom went from their homes in Lansing to make the event a success.

State Counselor Walter L. Whitacre also labored hard, and these energetic old cats made it easy for Vicegerent Snark Harry A. Hollowell to put the kittens through. The line-up of the team was as follows: C. A. Dawson, snark; I. McCauley, senior hoo-hoo; Walter L. Whitacre, junior hoo-hoo; Albert C. Benson, bojum; A. H. Engler, scrivener; E. G. Dillow, jabberwock; J. C. Pattison, custodian; H. A. Hollowell, arcanoper, and Bert S. Thatcher, gurdon.

14 at Creston, Iowa; Demand for Club

It takes more than a blizzard to dampen the enthusiasm of the Hoo-Hoo Cat and Parson Simpkin.

The parson struck a blizzard in Creston, Iowa, but when the storm had cleared he had bagged fourteen kittens and eight reinstatements, and had planted the seed for an enthusiastic Hoo-Hoo Club.

The concat was staged in connection with the convention of the Southwestern Iowa Retail Lumbermen's Association, at the Iowanna Hotel. The parson was on the job from the time he arrived, speaking the first time before the Kiwanians February 5. His subject was the late President Harding and his ideals.

Wednesday morning he spoke to the convention on "The Value of Organization." At noon he addressed a luncheon of ladies, and at 2 p. m., conducted a memorial service for the late President Wilson. Then he spoke before the convention for an hour.

Only four kittens had been signed up when the parson started to speak. Ten more followed immediately. W. S. Richardson, secretary of the dealers' association; Ed Rose, of Shenandoah, Iowa, and Messrs. Parker, a kitten; Thurman, who was reinstated, and Harry B. Huston, of Omaha, gave their best efforts to putting the concat over.

The enthusiasm for Hoo-Hoo had only begun when the concat was over. Those present urged the appointment of Brother Richardson as vicegerent snark for the Southwest Iowa District.

Then came the matter of forming a club, which had been earnestly proposed. A committee composed of Richardson, Henry Hoffman, Jr., of Manning, Iowa; Ed Rose, W. T. Shepherd, of Harlan, and C. H. Shevlin, of Omaha, was appointed to start at once the club movement.

Delegates to the convention showed extreme friendliness to Hoo-Hoo and indications point to a healthy progress for the order in the district. Before departing the parson addressed the American Legion boys. He discussed the late President Harding, to whom he referred as "Our late Commander-in-Chief."

No Sleep for Frisco Cats—Wastell Won't Let 'em

It may be the rule that cats sleep with one eye open, but the San Francisco cats have both open all the time.

Vicegerent Snark A. B. Wastell of the San Francisco Bay district, intends to keep them open, too, as his schedule of events will indicate. The cats have decided to let their tabbies in for part of the fun, a Valentine party the evening of February 16 having been designated ladies' night.

A big concat will be staged March 15, as a St. Patrick's Day event, and will be designated "Marin and Sonoma County Hoo-Hoo Day." Kittens will come principally from these two counties.

A joint concat for the San Francisco and Santa Cruz districts is being arranged for a later date, with Vicegerents Wastell and Griffin co-operating. This will be staged in the Vendome Hotel, Santa Cruz, with kittens coming from the territory south from Oakland and San Francisco to San Jose, and the territory south of San Jose.

All of the Northern California districts will participate in a big concat which will be staged at the Calaveras Grove of Big Trees, during the summer.

This big program has been enthusiastically endorsed by San Francisco Club, No. 9.

DON'T LET HIM GET AWAY

41 Kittens See Light as Snark Watches

Only because it ill befits the dignity of the Snark of the Universe to cavort like a kitten did Snark Le Master restrain himself as he watched the onion bed journey of forty-one kittens in his home town, Fresno, Calif., January 19.

Vicegerent Snark H. E. Verble of the San Joaquin Valley District had labored hard and long to marshal a big class of kittens for the trip into catland under the eye of the Biggest Cat of All, and he made a real job of it.

It was a day of celebration for Fresno Catland society. Snark Le Master, George M. Cornwall, J. B. Ferger, Joseph Martin, Gus Russel and Parson Simpkin were speakers at a luncheon of the San Joaquin Valley Lumber Club at the Hughes Hotel, which was attended by eighty lumbermen.

The afternoon was spent in business session and the annual election of the club's officers. Then, at 6:30 p. m., 130 sat down to a big Hoo-Hoo banquet in the New California Hotel. Vicegerent Verble had arranged a dandy program of vocal and instrumental music. Snark Le Master was called upon.

Says the Snark.

"Hoo-Hoo is going forward as never before," he said. "A new spirit has been born, or rather, the old one regenerated. Brothers, without boasting, my pride is still touched for your sake that it was the 1921 Annual held in Fresno, with its progressive legislation, that gave us the springs of regeneration.

"It was here, under the shadows of the giant Sequoia that we made Hoo-Hoo an institution primarily for lumbermen; here that we adopted the Code of Ethics which is acknowledged by captains of industry to be the finest table of business standards ever drafted by any industry. Fresno made in 1921 these contributions to a great cause, and Fresno in the annals of Hoo-Hoo will be long and well remembered.

"And, now, as looking to the future, dreaming of advance in strength and influence for our order that it may more richly serve the social mass, may the pledge of my heart come to you and all Hoo-Hoo. It is that the simple, unselfish best of my life shall be given. For our order, with its fun and frolic, its business and brotherhoods, its ethics and highest aims, all my energy and thought shall be given.

Stay With It.

"We shall not do it all in the coming year, but how glad the world will be for our lives if, through the service of the Great, Black Cat and its scattered sons, humanity shall be lifted by even a handsbreadth of space up above the selfish fogs toward the golden sunlight of real brotherhood in industry.

"May the chain of friendship binding our industry be welded link by link with worthy deed to the end that health, happiness and long life shall be ours."

George M. Cornwall and R. L. Bayne, Vicegerent Snark of the Spokane District, and president of the Spokane Club, made short addresses. J. E. Ferger read the address of the Seer which was delivered at Gurdon, "Thoughts are Things." Parson Simpkin followed with an inspirational talk, "The Brotherhood of Life."

The concert followed, and it went through without a hitch. Vicegerent Verble was ably assisted by the following team: E. M. Prescott, Senior Hoo-Hoo; A. J. Lucas, Junior Hoo-Hoo; P. N. Nordstrom, Bojum; E. L. Smith, Scrivenoter; Martin D. Johnson, Jabberwock; Cecil W. Bingham, Custocatian; R. W. Bagby, Gurdon.

Gaines Made St. Louis Vicegerent; to Stage Concert February 29 Two at Davenport Put Through by Parson Hollis and Chase

The somewhat sleepy St. Louis Hoo-Hoo Cat has been awakened and brought to his feet by an injection of "pep" supplied by cats who are eager for action.

Harry D. Gaines, part owner and sales manager of the Thomas E. Powe Lumber Company, has been appointed Vicegerent Snark of the Southeast Missouri District, which includes St. Louis, by Supreme Bojum James H. Allen.

A big concert has been arranged for the evening of February 29, at the American Annex Hotel, and Vicegerent Gaines already has his team at work for the event, which has been designated "the Leap Year Day Concert." A dinner and entertainment will precede the concert.

The appointment of Vicegerent Gaines took place at a meeting February 2, which was attended by Carl Anderson, of the Gideon-Anderson Lumber Company, Supreme Bojum Allen, Charles Neuenhahn and other live-wire cats. Both Anderson and Neuenhahn are past vicegerents of the district.

Vicegerent Gaines selected his team at once. The lineup is as follows: Snark, Harry D. Gaines; senior hoo-hoo, Harry Willhite; junior hoo-hoo, Carl Anderson; bojum, Charles Neuenhahn; jabberwock, J. A. Demeke; scrivenoter, V. A. Kelly; custocatian, V. N. Cornelius; arcanoper, M. L. Fitzgibbons; gurdon, Leonard B. Thompson.

Each member of the team was designated as a kitten collector and instructed to appoint two or three assistants to aid in the obtaining of candidates. Arrangements are being made to introduce concatenation features which have never been used in St. Louis.

Harry D. Gaines, No. 31331

The garden gates could have been opened with no more alacrity to admit an army of kittens than was shown when two little ones purred for entrance in Davenport, Iowa, the evening of January 30.

And their welcome could not have been surpassed, for within the gardens were the Parson, Willard Giles Hollis, No. 49, and Brother Frank Chase, No. 10718, waiting to escort the neophytes into the stately presence of the great cat.

Ernest Gordon Cox, manager of the Tisdale Lumber Company, of Keosauqua, Iowa, and Winfield Reed Norton, manager of the Brighton Lumber Company, Brighton, Iowa, were the kittens. The concert was staged in connection with the convention of the Southwestern Iowa Retail Lumber Dealers' Association.

Parson Simpkin spoke to the convention. He pleaded for the brotherhood and human understanding that would enable men to better understand each other and to more efficiently serve the communities in which they live. He offered Hoo-Hoo as an ideal.

The inspiration to give real service comes quickly to us if we but take a slant at ourselves through the eyes of the fellow we're trying to serve.

Kansas City's Pretty Kitties

25 for Jones at Kansas City; Not Skidoo—Kittens!

With catland dignitaries and a host of veteran cats standing by, Vicegerent Snark Alfred L. Jones put his first class of kittens—twenty-five of them—through the onion patch, in Kansas City, the evening of January 23.

Supreme Bojum James H. Allen, of St. Louis, and Past Snark of the Universe W. S. Dickason, of Kansas City, were on hand and aided the new vicegerent and his capable team by giving the neophytes the final instructions.

Vicegerent Jones had had little time to line up kittens and prepare for the event, but with the loyal assistance of his team, Past Snark Dickason and other enthusiastic cats, he put the affair over with a bang. Besides the kittens there were three prodigal cats returned to the fold.

The concatenation was designated "The Dan G. Saunders Concatenation," in honor of Dan G. Saunders, No. 12, of Kansas City, a devoted Hoo-Hoo. It was the principal feature of the first night's entertainment of the convention of the Southwestern Retail Lumbermen's Association, and was staged in Kansas City's big Convention Hall.

State Counselor E. E. Woods of Oklahoma was the Senior Hoo-Hoo, and he did a masterful job. It would be difficult to surpass A. L. Wilson as Junior Hoo-Hoo, and Snark Jones and the other members of the team gave the impression that there's nothing they do better than concatenate.

The remainder of the team was made up of Claude Sowers, bojum; C. W. Myers, jabberwock; P. J. Igoe, custocatian; E. G. McLean, scrivenoter; Claude Nelson, arcanoper, and Ralph E. Hill, gurdon.

Rehearsal for the concert properly conditioned the team for the work, and there was not a hitch from the time the kittens first entered the garden gates until they walked out as proud cats.

Garden Party Feb. 23 in Atlanta, Ga. Big Cats See 10 Kittens Pass at Indianapolis

The business of kitten collecting is on in earnest in Atlanta, Ga.

Vicegerent Snark J. M. Burekel has arranged for a big concert at the Standard Club the evening of February 23, and has offered a dandy prize to the cat who brings in the most kittens. They're hard at it.

The following team will be in charge of the onion patch party: Snark, Rayall C. Morrison; senior hoo-hoo, James E. Cochran; junior hoo-hoo, J. Ray Pattillo, assisted by H. J. West; bojum, W. B. Willingham, Jr.; arcanoper, B. A. Creel; jabberwock, Edward W. Smith, assisted by Bob Roberts and Harold Jenkins; scrivenoter, C. H. Dudley, Jr.; custocatian, Harry W. Mills; gurdon, Joseph S. Gatewood.

Supreme Custodian C. B. Harman is chairman of the membership committee. The other members are C. A. Matthews and A. O. Marbutt.

Although he had scarcely taken over the job of Vicegerent Snark of the Indianapolis District, O. E. Crawford stepped right out and proved he's no mean kitten collector.

His first concert, staged in the Claypool Hotel the evening of January 16, saw ten glossy little kittens hit the trail across the onion bed, and two old cats who had strayed from the hearth returned and were made welcome.

The event was held under decidedly auspicious circumstances, and such Catland dignitaries as Supreme Junior Hoo-Hoo A. J. Hager, of Lansing, Mich.; Past Snark of the Universe Julius Seidel, of St. Louis; State Counselor Lühring, of Evansville; Vicegerent Snark John Suelzer, Jr., who put Fort Wayne, Ind., on the Hoo-Hoo map; William Charles Pulse, No. 212, of Greensburg, Ind., and Secretary-Treasurer Isherwood, being on hand and giving the benefits of their experience in brief talks.

Vicegerent Crawford was aided in putting on the event by these and by other Indiana Cats, including the energetic O. D. Haskett, former Indiana State Counselor. Fifty were present for the dinner and sixty for the concert.

Gangway for Jones!

When it comes to getting up steam, the famous Casey Jones isn't in it with Alfred L. Jones, who has been appointed vicegerent snark of the Northwestern Missouri District.

He demonstrated that he's a live wire with his first concert, in Kansas City, January 23, at which twenty-three kittens had their eyes opened. Brother Jones is manager of the Lumber Sales Company of Kansas City, and is No. 31723. He takes the place of Ed. G. McLean of the Buschow Lumber Company, who made an enviable record while he held the job.

37 Kitties Cavort at Oakland; Snark There

Dignitaries of the San Francisco Bay District Catland Society—including Snark Le Master—were hosts to thirty-seven kittens at a great "coming out" staged by Vicegerent Snark A. B. Wastell, in Oakland, Calif., January 26.

A most gratifying feature of the event was the fact that twenty-five of the initiates were lumber executives, and the remaining twelve held responsible positions. Ten were reinstated.

The Oakland Hotel was the scene of the concat and the subsequent session on the roof. "Passports" admitted 150 cats and kittens for the event, including George Cornwall of Oregon, Brother Mussulman, of Idaho; Earl White, of Polson, and A. J. Lucens, Junior Hoo-Hoo of the San Joaquin Valley District.

The vicegerent was ably assisted by the following team mates: William M. Beebe, Senior Hoo-Hoo; Milton Hendrickson, Junior Hoo-Hoo; J. E. Martin, Bojum; R. G. Hiscox, Scrivenoter; Robert Grant, Jabberwock; R. P. Hammatt, Custocatian; Fred Hamlin, Arcanoper; J. P. Muller, Gurdon.

From the Snark.

Snark Le Master gave the kittens the final work and the Code for the Vicegerent. Milton Hendrickson couldn't be surpassed as junior, and Rod Hendrickson took a prominent part in the fun, and his work at the piano lent celerity to the feet of the neophytes.

The session on the roof opened with a buffet feed. Feminine vaudeville entertainers, with a fine show of novelties, including a bag-pipe parade, followed.

A rousing Hoo-Hoo cheer was given F. L. Parker, general chairman; Vere W. Hunter and Nils Quist, Jr., members of the finance committee; George Phillips, publicity; Milt Hendrickson and Ernest Blackman, members of the entertainment committee; George C. Troth and Captain P. C. Hansen, who had charge of collecting kittens; Vicegerent Wastell and R. G. Hiscox, scrivenoter.

An excellent system of collecting the names of those attending, for the scrivenoter's record was evolved in a card, designated "passport," with a stub attached. The ticket entitled the bearer to admission to the concat, and this was taken by the scrivenoter. On the face was written the name and address of the person attending. The stub served as an admission ticket to the feed, and was turned in to the hotel. The "passports" were so printed that they can be used at any concatenation.

Then They Talked.

The applications of kittens were placed in the hands of Rod Hendrickson, E. L. Fifield and Robert McArthur, who gave them the "once-over" and then turned them over to Snark Le Master, who scrutinized each one.

Vicegerent Wastell announced plans for the big Valentine party the evening of February 16, a St. Patrick's day concatenation in March, and an outdoor concatenation during the summer which would be participated in by all of the California jurisdictions. C. G. Bird of Stockton, who is sponsoring this outing, announced that the Calaveras Grove of Big Trees would be the site.

Frank Trower issued an invitation to all Hoo-Hoo to attend the luncheons of San Francisco Hoo-Hoo Club No. 9, which meets the second and fourth Thursdays of each month at the Palace Hotel. He announced the noted Chinese editor, Dr. Ng Poon Chew, as the speaker for the next meeting.

An interesting feature of the concat was the work of Boy Scouts, wearing their full regalia with the exception of caps—and these were Hoo-Hoo caps—as ushers. The clubs presented $10 to Scoutmaster Milton Hendrickson in appreciation of the boys' work.

A Regiment of Kittens for Big L. A. Concat

The balmy climate of the Golden West doesn't sap the pep of the cats of Los Angeles.

Right now they're on their toes, striving to collect a class of from 100 to 150 kittens for one of the greatest concat in Hoo-Hoo history. This will be staged in connection with the meeting of the Western Retail Lumber Dealers' Association, February 19.

Seven teams of five men each are competing for a prize, which will go to the team collecting the greatest number of kittens. The prize was offered by Vicegerent Snark Herman S. Rosenberg. His refusal to divulge what the prize will be has added zest to the contest.

Vicegerent Rosenberg has almost forgotten the fact that he owes at least part of his time to the Hipolito Screen & Sash Company, while State Counselor David Woodhead, Scrivenoter C. J. Laughlin and all of the old cats of the district are devoting much time and strenuous effort to the work of kitten collecting.

Big delegations of cats from other California jurisdictions will be on hand for the event. The kittens will be treated to a rare ceremony, which the team has kept under cover for several months in anticipation of making this an outstanding event in interest as well as numbers.

Cromer Utah Vicegerent

H. L. Cromer of Morrison-Merrill & Company, Salt Lake City, has been elected vicegerent snark of the state of Utah, succeeding that enthusiastic and energetic apostle of the doctrines of the cat, P. A. Shaver, of the Sugar House Lumber Company.

Brother Shaver gave a demonstration of how the job should be done by staging a concat in Salt Lake City January 17, at which twelve kittens had their eyes opened and their tails twisted. Brother Cromer was his right hand man in putting on this event, and with knowledge thus gained and his past Hoo-Hoo experiences, assures the order of continued growth in Utah.

Big Concat for Port Arthur, Texas, February 23

The hinges on the garden gates have been oiled and fresh seed planted in the onion beds at Port Arthur, Texas, in anticipation of the welcome to a big class of kittens the evening of February 23.

Vicegerent Snark Preston P. Butler, of the Beaumont, Texas, District, aided by State Counselor Rex Browne and W. Q. Wells, of the Wells Lumber Company, Port Arthur, who is scrivenoter, has arranged for a big concat which will be preceded by a lot of novel stunts.

A class of twenty-five kittens will be put through. Vicegerent Butler has visited Port Arthur and felt out the sentiment of the lumbermen of the district, which he found to be strongly Hoo-Hoo. A lot of old cats from neighboring districts will be on hand for the event.

4-Leaf Clover Not in It With 13 Black Cats

If there's anything luckier than one black cat, it's thirteen of them.

That's the way the popular Billy Mack, Vicegerent Snark of the Coos Bay District, figured when he staged a Concatenation, January 12, at Marshfield, Oregon.

Thirteen glossy little kittens purred their way into catland at an exceedingly fine concat in the Elks Lodge Temple. The Vicegerent had an able team in Andy P. Davis, as Senior Hoo-Hoo; H. A. Buserude, Junior Hoo-Hoo; S. J. Hartman, Bojum; Frank A. Rowe, Scrivenoter; S. F. Muirhead, Arcanoper; C. S. Kinneer, Custocatian; C. G. Bock, Gurdon, and A. T. Lagerstrom, Jabberwock.

Supper and several short talks by old cats followed.

A Regiment of Kittens Thompson's Recruits

"Right by squads!"

This, or some such command was almost necessary to manipulate the regiment of kittens which Vicegerent Snark Roy Thompson of the Minneapolis District had lined up for his tremendously successful concat the evening of January 16.

Seventy-seven kittens made their way charily through the onion beds which a lot of enthusiastic old cats had prepared for them in the Shrine room of the Masonic Temple. Eight prodigal cats returned from darkness to the light by way of reinstatement. Twenty-five country dealers were among the initiates.

Vicegerent Thompson had a lot of veteran cats on hand to help usher his regiment into the presence of the Great, Black Cat. Supreme Scrivenoter Ted T. Jones and State Counselor A. A. Hood lent their usual enthusiastic support.

Some Team!

A good team was lined up with Vicegerent Thompson, including such loyal old cats as State Counselor Hood, as Senior Hoo-Hoo; Tom Partridge, Junior Hoo-Hoo; Lester McCoy, Bojum; Harry Partridge, Jabberwock; Roy Norbeck, Scrivenoter; Bob Hasslen, Custocatian; Ira Levesconte, Arcanoper, and Tom Youngblood, Gurdon.

The team was ably assisted by such veterans as Harry Squier, Gene Mitchell, Bill Sears, Howard Cosler, Chet Moe, Cliff Sawyer, Archie Gray, Grant Gray, Frank Ashton, Paul Carlson and others. They helped facilitate the onion bed journey.

Vicegerent Thompson asserted following the concatenation that Hoo-Hoo enthusiasm has reached such a point that it would have been possible to have staged another concat the following evening with at least fifty candidates ready to enlist.

Following the big event there was a dandy buffet lunch and an hour of vaudeville entertainment.

Watch This Vicegerent!

Introducing O. E. Crawford, the new vicegerent snark of the Indianapolis District!

While the first concat he staged, the evening of January 16, serves as an introduction to the Hoo-Hoo "pep" and vigor of Brother Crawford, it is fitting that some further mention be made of the history and standing of this energetic officer.

He is connected with the G. C. Goss Lumber Company of Indianapolis, and was initiated at a concatenation in Chicago, February 14, 1912. He is well suited to take over the work of Brother H. L. Wilson, whom he succeeds, and who made an excellent record in the promotion of the cat's ideals.

Foote Opens Eyes of 23 Kittens at Alexandria

There's no more invigorating eye-opener for Vicegerent Snark Henry D. Foote, of the Alexandria, La., district, than a kitten eyeopener.

He staged one in Alexandria the evening of January 26, in connection with a meeting of the Alexandria District Lumbermen's Exchange, that was a humdinger. Twenty-five unsophisticated little kittens made their way through the onion beds at the direction of the vicegerent and a lot of other loyal old cats.

Supreme Jabberwock Joseph H. Kurth, Jr., Vicegerent Snark J. Walter Michel of the New Orleans District, and Vicegerent Jack Griffith of the Houston, Texas, District, were among those on hand to help Vicegerent Foote. The banquet hall of the Bentley Hotel was the scene.

Vicegerent Griffith made a stirring address on the aims of Hoo-Hoo and what the order is accomplishing for lumberdom. He told of the recently organized Hoo-Hoo Club in Houston. Previous to the concat there was a lively parade; afterward a buffet luncheon was served.

The old cats present, including the Supreme Jabberwock, commended Vicegerent Foote for his work. The latter formerly was a member of the Supreme Nine and is a life member of Hoo-Hoo.

A resolution was adopted to petition the Supreme Nine to authorize the organization of a Junior Hoo-Hoo Auxiliary, and Charles B. Monday, Jr., ten years old, son of Charles B. Monday of Lake Charles, a loyal follower of the Great Black Cat was nominated and recommended as Junior Hoo-Hoo, No. 1.

Chappell Ushers in 12 At Denver Concat

Vicegerent Snark Alfred S. Chappell of the Denver District, aided by a first-class team of old cats, converted twelve purring kittens into an even dozen yowling cats, at an excellent concat in Denver the evening of January 16.

The event took place in connection with the convention of the Mountain States Lumber Dealers' Association, in the Magnolia room of the Albany Hotel. The Vicegerent was assisted by Burt Coldren, as senior Hoo-Hoo; William R. McFarland, junior Hoo-Hoo; E. B. Humphreys, bojum; R. D. Mundell, scrivenoter; I. C. Hall, jabberwock; R. E. Ellwanger, custocatian; J. E. McPhee, arcaneper; W. D. Reading, gurdon.

The initiation started at 5:00 p. m. and was over at 7 p. m. A big feed and a lot of excellent entertainment followed.

What Does It Mean to You?

When the buyer says he'll
Send the order next week,
It doesn't mean anything.
When the girl promises
You the date you seek,
It doesn't mean anything.

When the farmer says he'll Pay you right away,
It doesn't mean anything.
When your foreman says
He'll work for lower pay
It doesn't mean anything.

When the boss insists that
You rest a month or two,
It doesn't mean anything.
Just the same as when
He suggests a raise for you—
It doesn't mean anything.

When a man says that
Hoo-Hoo's a lot of bunk
It doesn't mean anything.
Or they'll make of you
A pile of junk
It doesn't mean anything.

For when the pains and Aches are healing,
It doesn't mean anything.
And the blisters have Quit peeling,
It doesn't mean anything.

But when you've learned
The creed of Hoo-Hoo
It may mean anything
For then the test is
Up to you,
Do you mean anything?

A. L. Blythe, of 8921 Kimberly Court, Detroit, Mich., wrote this excellent verse in his hotel room shortly after he had been initiated into Hoo-Hoo at Grand Rapids, Mich., the evening of February 6.

Hager and Thatcher Let 14 in at Lansing

Fourteen kittens purred at the Garden Gate in Lansing, Mich., the evening of January 12, and were admitted.

Vicegerent Snark Bert S. Thatcher led the neophytes across the portals at a wonderful concat in the Kerns Hotel, which was participated in by many catland dignitaries.

Supreme Junior Hoo-Hoo A. J. Hager, whose home is in Lansing, and Secretary-Treasurer Isherwood, who had made the journey from international headquarters in St. Louis, spoke at the banquet which was staged in connection with the concat. They gave the kittens some excellent advice concerning their venture into the Land of the Cat.

B. F. Hall, Jr., president of the Lansing Club, presided. He also gave the kittens a few words about the benefits which come of a full-fledged cathood. William Verhey, president of the Grand Rapids Club, and A. M. Manning, vicegerent of the Grand Rapids district, headed a delegation of cats from their home town.

Look What Villume Did!

St. Paul's Hoo-Hoo cat was well on his way toward making Rip Van Winkle and his famous record look sick when—

Along came Jules Villume.

A few vociferous prods from the energetic Vicegerent Snark of the St. Paul District, a few rousing yowls from other wide-awake cats, and the lazy old cat was up and doing. He meandered over to the Ryan Hotel the evening of January 7 and welcomed into the fold the first family of kittens to be initiated in St. Paul in more than twenty years—sixteen of them.

A special car brought fifty cats over from Minneapolis for the big family affair, and such distinguished Hoo-Hoo as Supreme Scrivenoter Ted T. Jones, State Counselor A. A. Hood of Minneapolis, and Vicegerent Snark Roy Thompson of the Minneapolis District, lent a hand in the doings.

Before the onion bed party started there was a banquet at which there was great revelry, some cat chatter and music by the Hoo-Hoo orchestra of the Twin Cities. A. C. Jefferson, H. P. Partridge, O. M. Anderson, Scrivenoter Jones and Vicegerent Thompson made short talks, while Brother Willard Giles Hollis, No. 49, gave the cats and kittens his ideas of Hoo-Hoo.

Vicegerent Villume and Junior Hoo-Hoo O. M. Anderson explained to the kittens the path they were about to take through the onion bed, and State Counselor Hood said some nice things about Vicegerent Villume and the cats who helped wake up the lethargic Rip.

The kittens were D. H. Bartlette, A. T. Burquist, R. V. Clute, E. R. Erickson, W. R. Gray, C. L. Hamilton, A. Ingvolstad, R. J. Kain, Oscar Lamp-land, H. Lampert, A. G. Moosebrugger, M. R. Parrish, L. W. Rydell, J. R. Stanton, H. D. Zimmerman and J. S. Thompson. Lester Earl Ellingwood was reinstated.

They Crossed the Desert

A lively concert in Salt Lake City, Utah, the afternoon of January 17, at which twelve kittens charily tread the paths through the onion beds, was a fitting event to mark the retirement of P. A. Shaver, of the Sugar House Lumber Company, as Vicegerent Snark for the state of Utah.

The concert was staged in connection with the regional meeting of the Western Retail Lumbermen's Association, with the Salt Lake City Lumbermen's Club acting as host to the visitors. Parson Peter A. Simpkin was very much on the job, speaking before the convention at luncheon and also at the afternoon session which immediately preceded the concert.

The Vicegerent and his team, aided by the parson and other old cats, curled the tails of the neophytes in a very interesting and enjoyable concert which lasted two hours.

Wood You Eat This?

YE LIST OF VICTUALS
Imperial Feast of the Great Black Cat "Hoo-Hoo" with the Playful Kittens on the Borderland and other Loyal Subjects, as well as those considering the taking out of their domestication papers.

Fort Garry Hotel, Winnipeg,
 January 24th, 1924, at 5.59 p.m.

SAW FILINGS
 New Mountain Grade Knots.
 By-Product of No. 3 W.P. Rules.

HOT POND
 Interior Trim 90% Clear.

DRESSED STOCK
 Baked Kitten Smothered in Log Pond Water.

TIMBERS
 Log Run Culls Out.

SPECIAL
 Blow Pipe Screened Sawdust.
 Catnip Tea. Kittens' Milk

CIGARS
 Rejected by the Straw Boss.

Genuine Beaver Board
 Look for the RED Border!

"PUBLIC PRESS are the Lumbermen's Printers and Advertising Producers of Western Canada."

This menu, printed on beaver board and containing on the other side the program for the Hoo-Hoo banquet, was a novel feature of the Winnipeg event. It was sent through the mail in advance of the Concert.

Winnipeg's Way

(Continued from page 6.)

The spirit of the whole affair indicated that the Canadian lumbermen have learned the secret of enjoying life—by providing the opportunity to get together and form real friendships.

178 Attend Dinner

The big dinner which preceded the concert was attended by 178 cats and kittens. The beautiful, big dining room of the Fort Garry hotel was an ideal place for the affair, and the feed could not have been surpassed.

Not all the help in all the land,
 Nor all the proffered pelf,
 Can help a fellow to succeed,
 If he won't help himself.

But just the same—
 You can be a little helper now and then,
 Not alone to yourself but to your fellow men.

CLUB CHATTER

On Your Toes, Hoo-Hoo Clubs!

As an incentive to club officials and members throughout the land to strive for greater attendance at meetings and luncheons, Past Snark of the Universe Frank Trower, of San Francisco, will place in competition, through the San Francisco Club, a beautiful Redwood burl gavel.

He will present the gavel to the club of Frisco, and the latter organization will offer it as a prize to be competed for by all the clubs. The gavel and a beautiful Redwood box and base almost ready, after months of painstaking effort to make them really beautiful appurtenances of any club.

Past Snark Trower has suggested that the gavel be competed for by all the clubs, and that the club winning it first hold it either for a period of six months or a year, or until challenged by another club for another contest.

He further suggests that a contest of two months duration, March and April, if possible, determine the winner. The basis for judging would be the best average percentage of attendance.

A silver or copper plate will adorn the gavel, on which will be inscribed the name of the San Francisco Club and the purpose for which the gavel is awarded. Get busy, Hoo-Hoo Clubs Friendly Cats—These!

Residents of Los Angeles and San Francisco spend much of their time debating the various advantages of their respective communities, but on these things the cat colonies of the two commonwealths are mum.

For, they're friends, and not the least bit jealous of each other, despite the fact that each boasts its Hoo-Hoo Club. Ted Lurch, prominent Bay District lumberman, had luncheon with the Los Angeles crowd recently, and was made to feel very much at home.

He made a speech concerning the Frisco Club, and not a dissenting voice was heard as he proudly enumerated its accomplishments. Parson Simpkin was there, too, and he put in a good word for both clubs, for all Hoo-Hoo Clubs, in fact.

After Brother Lurch had explained that Frisco isn't such a bad place, H. J. Stonier, executive secretary of the University of California, told the cats that the United States isn't such a bad place either, and that Henry Ford did his bit toward keeping it from getting worse by remaining out of the presidential race. He added that the turmoil which might result from an exciting election would cause a business depression.

Jack Kegley entertained with several piano and vocal selections. H. W. Swafford, vice-president of E. J. Stanton & Son, presided.

If You Call Me "Mister," I'll—, Well, ——!

Twin Cities Cats Are Wise Old Owls

The Twin Cities Hoo-Hoo are friendly with everybody—even the police.

Chief of Police Brunskill was the speaker at a recent luncheon of the Hoo-Hoo Club of the Twin Cities, which was attended by one hundred fourteen. He brought along a bodyguard of the five officers of the department ranking immediately under him.

It was an ambitious program the chief outlined for the cats, and they gave him their whole-hearted support. Norman Wood won a belt and buckle, and Carl Forberg a gold penknife, as attendance prizes. These were donated by Lester Drake of Brooks Brothers. Martin Jordan led the singing.

Scratch Your Head

Supreme Scrivenoter Ted T. Jones has offered a cash prize of $10 to the Twin Cities Hoo-Hoo who suggests the best slogan to induce attendance at the annual in Minneapolis, September 8, 9 and 10.

The word "Mister" and the stilted etiquette of the formal introduction are about to go the way of the horse, the hoopskirt and other things redolent of the provincial, as far as Hoo-Hoo is concerned.

The Twin Cities Hoo-Hoo Club took a big step in the right direction by adopting a medallion on which was inscribed the name of the club, the name of the wearer, his business and his abbreviated first name. William, became "Bill," Thomas was cut to "Tom," and similar improvements were made in all other given names. A picture of the medallion appeared in the January Bulletin.

The idea suggested another to Secretary-Treasurer Isherwood, who has had drawn a suggestion for a medallion for all Hoo-Hoo clubs, should they choose to use it.

What do you think of it? Speak up!

Blarney Keeps Cats of Frisco Young

"A little humor now and then is relished by the best of men."

It is on this theory that the luncheons of the San Francisco Hoo-Hoo Club, No. 9, are conducted, and their popularity is attested by the attendance of eighty cats at the meeting of January 10.

President R. A. Hiscox was on the job. He appointed Tom Potter as sergeant-at-arms, with the title of tom cat, and posted him at the door to collect ten cents a head from late-comers. The attendance prize, donated by C. J. Hendry & Company, went to Edward Tietjen of the Hill & Morton Company.

Vicegerent Snark A. B. Wastell announced that, the time being propitious, resolutions had been sent in by prominent lumbermen in response to a questionnaire mailed to them by the club. Some of the resolutions were:

Resolved, That we will forthwith drop our slogan—"From Treo Coatumer," as we received an order the other day for a suit of fig leaves.

SUNSET LUMBER COMPANY.

Resolved, That in the new year I shall quit bragging about my corps of 300,000 silent partners, as I found this corps as silent as a corpse. I'm going to use a bass drum for future propaganda of the WOOD EVER-LASTING.

REDWOOD H. HAMMATT.

Resolved, That henceforth and forever I shall not handle any more consignments of fir lumber, as I find that this practice is hurting the industry by disrupting the market, and even though this means a loss of many thousands of dollars to me annually, I am glad to lose it for the good of the trade and hereafter, I lie for others instead of upon others.

FRANK PARAMINO.

By our unworthy president R. A. Hiscox: Resolved, That no matter how in the future my modest HART-WOOD bent, I shall refrain from being so solemnly and shall try and be joyful and let a little sunshine into the drab lives about me.

R. A. HISCOX.

Here's Where We Come In!

When a fellow urges the reduction of taxes on incomes exceeding $300,000 a year, he'll find at least 150 ready supporters in the Hoo-Hoo of Lansing, Mich.

Not that all of them earn that sum annually, but after they had listened to a speech by former Congressman Pat Kelley, January 9, they were convinced that they had almost as much interest in the income of the men who go over that mark, as the latter have themselves.

For the congressman pointed out that the Federal taxation on incomes in excess of $300,000 is so great that it is forcing these big taxpayers to put their money into tax exempt securities, thus greatly reducing the amount for progressive investments.

Mayor Al Doughty told the cats and guests who attended the big banquet held in the Kerns Hotel, that he is relying on them to make Lansing one of the greatest cities of homes in the country. He outlined the attitude of the city administration on home building.

A red-hot boxing bout, several short talks by guests from Detroit and Grand Rapids, and musical selections by the Curtis-Jacobs orchestra concluded the excellent program.

Resolved, That TRANSIT CARS are the bane of the lumber industry and that the mills are primarily to blame for furnishing stock, and thus making this practice possible, but the retailer is also pure criminia, for buying the transit stock, and for the new year I am resolved not to buy any more transit cars—unless I can get them for five dollars per thousand under the market.

(Signed) CHARLES GLADSTONE BIRD, of Stockton the Hub. Dictated but not read by Reddy Servus.

Resolved, That more lumber yards are urgently needed! The good offices of the press are hereby invoked, to let every retail lumberman in the United States know that Oakland has finally awakened, is growing fast and if he wants to start a yard East Fourteenth Street still has a few blocks without a lumber yard and offers a great opportunity to serve the public; if not pleased with Oakland we will direct him to San Leandro and Hayward where a few vacant lots are also available. THERE IS ALWAYS ROOM AT THE TOP!

OAKLAND BUILDERS EXCHANGE, By E. M. TILDEN, President.

Resolved, That I shall discontinue making speeches and giving Chautauqu lectures in the new year and shall seek out the great silence for which I pine on the links; and furthermore, if I find that business interferes with my golf, why I shall drop the business!

CALIFORNIA STOWELL SMITH.

Frank Harris, of the Van Arsdale-Harris Lumber Company, presented his talented daughter, who rendered several excellent violin numbers. Matt Yalava Davidoff, Finnish forestry expert, who now resides in Frisco, spoke on the forest resources of his native land and of Sweden, Norway and Russia.

Joseph Marr Gwin, San Francisco's new superintendent of schools, gave a very informative talk on what is being done in the public schools to educate physically defective children, by grouping them in classes according to their defects, and eliminating contact between them and the normal children.

country. He outlined the attitude of the city administration on home building.

A red-hot boxing bout, several short talks by guests from Detroit and Grand Rapids, and musical selections by the Curtis-Jacobs orchestra concluded the excellent program.

Drawing a Crowd

The attendance at luncheons of the Los Angeles Club increases each week as a result of the adoption of a policy of having members bring their friends, as suggested by Vicegerent Herman S. Rosenberg, who also is president of the club.

The luncheon of January 31 was attended by fifty-two, of whom thirty-eight were members. G. L. Dartnell representative of the Northwestern Mutual Fire Association of Seattle, was chairman. The speaker of the day was Dartnell's chief, F. J. Martin, president of the association. He gave an excellent talk on "Mutuality," not only in insurance, but in general business.

Cats With an Eye to the Future

The old saying that "the early bird catches the worm" also applies to cats, contends the Spokane Hoo Hoo Club.

With this in mind, the club already has appointed its "On to Minneapolis Committee," with instructions to recruit a big delegation of Spokane Hoo Hoo for the annual next September, and another committee designated "Spokane in 1923," which will devote its efforts to bringing the next annual to Spokane.

The committees were appointed at a meeting January 4, which was attended by thirty-five cats. After hearing an excellent address by N. W. Durham of the Spokane Spokesman-Review, those present were convinced that California and the Garden of Eden wouldn't make an attractive back yard for the Spokane country.

The personnel of the two committees, as announced by President R. L. Bayne, is as follows: "On to Minneapolis Committee": A. Grantham, H. L. Acomb, C. C. Cowin, C. E. Soderberg, and C. A. Weiss; "Spokane in 1925 Committee": J. M. Brown, H. L. Masterson, L. G. Carr, E. C. Wert and C. A. Platt.

Twin Cities Cats Point for Fight

The Twin Cities cats have their tails up and their backs arched. They're going to fight.

Not one of those knock-down and drag out affairs, but a real fight, nevertheless—a fight for a $25 prize offered by the Executive Committee for an attendance contest.

The membership will be divided into ten teams. They will go into action February 21 and keep at it hammer and tongs until August. The prize will go to the team which brings the most members assigned them to the club's luncheons.

Captains will be chosen. They will select lieutenants. Each team will be named. Each team will be matched with each of the other nine, and each will be given an equal number of those members who regularly attend and those who do not. It's their job to bring them out.

A Field for Hoo-Hoo Clubs

Beaumont, Tex., Hoo-Hoo Club, No. 4, has won a place in the hearts of the kids of that city.

The club recently appointed a committee to meet with city officials and decide what wooden equipment was necessary for the playgrounds of Beaumont. The club will present the devices. At the meeting at which the committee was appointed, E. C. Braeken, secretary of the Beaumont Chamber of Commerce, gave an interesting talk concerning the port of Beaumont.

Heimbach Heads Duluth Club; a Live Wire

The destinies of the Duluth, Minn., Hoo-Hoo Club for 1924 have been entrusted to that loyal old cat, William Heimbach.

He was elected president of the organization at a luncheon in the Holland Hotel, January 28, although he was out of the city at the time. He takes the place of Charles A. Mattson, local manager of the Virginia & Rainy Lake Company, who gave the club a year of his best.

Peter Berke, head of the Zenith Box & Lumber Company, was elected vice-president, and Joseph Nelson, secretary of the Northern Lumber & Coal Company, was named secretary.

Walter H. Borgen, county auditor, was the principal speaker at the luncheon. He gave the cats some advice concerning the election laws of the State.

President Heimbach has a host of friends among the lumbermen of the district. He is connected with the Endion Lumber Company, of Duluth.

Rodolf's Duluth Rivals

Live Cat Club Formed in Houston, Texas

The formation of Hoo-Hoo Club, No. 23, in Houston, Tex., is the first evidence that Vicegerent Snark J. E. Griffith was not merely "sounding off" when he issued a challenge to the rest of the Cat Domain.

The first luncheon of the club at the Rice Hotel, January 8, could not be surpassed in the way of "pep" by anything—except the second meeting, which was held in the Brazos Hotel, January 22. The first meeting brought out thirty-eight enthusiastic cats and the second had an attendance of forty-eight.

Brother J. C. Dionne took charge of the first meeting when the speaker, Harry Kendall, was called out of town. He discussed the advantages of the Cat Club, and a round-table discussion followed. It was agreed that nothing should be left undone to make Houston one of the brightest spots on the Hoo-Hoo map.

Dionne Presides.

The second meeting also was in charge of Brother Dionne, and this time Brother Kendall, who is general sales manager for the Kirby Lumber Company, was on hand. He spoke of the benefits of personal association at Hoo-Hoo meetings. Past Snark of the Universe J. S. Bonner urged the adoption of a worth-while charity program for the club. S. F. Carter, president of the Second National Bank, spoke on the meaning of Hoo-Hoo, while J. M. Rockwell, president of Rockwell Brothers Company, urged the close adherence to all Hoo-Hoo principles.

The membership committee, appointed at the first meeting, nominated the degree team for 1924, and their slate, as follows, was adopted:

Senior Hoo-Hoo, Woodson S. Thornton, sales manager, Vaughan Lumber Company; Junior Hoo-Hoo, Virgil Shepherd, general manager, Southern Sash & Door Company; Bojum, A. E. Hickerson, superintendent, Central Coal & Lumber Company, Conroe, Tex.; Scrivenoter, Dallas Tourtellot, Gulf Coast Lumberman; Jabberwock, W. T. Hancock, Kirby Lumber Company; Custocatian, S. J. Hart, Inurance Company; Arcanoper, T. P. Weir, vice-president, R. W. Weir Lumber Company; Gurdon, Frank Wherritt, Sabine Lumber Company.

Mr. Carter was appointed treasurer of the organization. He will have charge of the fines collected, etc., which will be devoted to charity. Frank Womack was named chairman of the Benevolence Committee, which will designate the charities to be contributed to during the year.

Hell's Bells!

"The Bells of Hell" was designated as the club's official song, to be sung at each luncheon and meeting. The words are:

"The Bells of Hell go ting-a-ling-ling,
"But not for Old Hoo-Hoo,
"For us the angels sing-a-ling-ling,
"They'll do the same for you.
"Oh, Death, where is thy sting-a-ling-ling?"

"Oh, Grave, why art thou blue?
"When the bells of hell go ting-a-ling-ling,
"But not for old Hoo-Hoo."

Iron for Health of City— And Pig Iron, at That!

If Los Angeles is to maintain its present rate of healthy growth it must be given an injection of iron—pig iron, at that.

Fifty-six cats who sat in for the luncheon of the Los Angeles Hoo-Hoo Club, January 24, got this direct from a man who has his fingers on the financial pulse of the city, Leo Chandler, vice president of the California Bank. After Fred Golding of the Fred Golding Lumber Company, as chairman, had pictured for the Hoo-Hoo the many things which could have been built of the 2,500,000,000 feet of lumber which was shipped into Southern California in 1923, he presented Mr. Chandler as the speaker of the day.

The latter gazed off toward the Great Northwest, his expression doleful. He proceeded to explain that conditions in that country among the wheat farmers are of such serious nature as to threaten the continued growth of Los Angeles, unless something is done.

His panacea lies in the whole hearted co-operation of all industries, he explained, and the establishment in Los Angeles of rolling mills in which pig iron from Utah manufactories could be converted into steel and sold in California. This would provide employment for many of the from 75,000 to 100,000 persons who visit Los Angeles annually, and would make permanent residents of them. Besides, he said, steel could be sold at a much lower price than is charged for that shipped from the east.

Andy Gump Wasn't the Only One Fooled

San Francisco Hoo-Hoo have learned to keep their noses out of other people's business, particularly where said business directly concerns one Andy Gump.

Out of the goodness of great hearts, the club appointed a committee recently to go into the matter of the collapse of the Combination Hair Brush & Mirror Company, with instructions not only to offer the sympathy of the members to the long-suffering Andy and his family, but to endeavor to apprehend the despicable culprit, J. Ambrose Hopwing, who had wrought the disaster.

Then the boomerang—direct from Australia, too. Uncle Bim Gump comes to the rescue and reveals that it was all a great hoax planned by him, and that the Gump fortune is unimpaired. So the committee, of which Gus Russell was chairman, had to report at the meeting of January 23, the changed aspect of the case.

But the investigation was not wholly fruitless. The committee found much significance in the hurried departure for the land of boomerangs of Uncle Bim, and advanced the theory that he had gone there to circumvent an attempt by American bootleggers to impress the kangaroo into the liquor transportation business. A plan had been evolved, the committee reported, by which the kangaroo would transport the liquor in its generous pouches.

Watch Uncle Bim!

The committee felt that this would be a serious menace to the stable conduct of the institution of American bootleggers, as it offered the possibility of throwing out of work the minions now engaged, and who could not work for the meager wages the unassuming kangaroo would require.

Elmore W. King, of the King Lumber Company, Bakersfield; "Buzz" Chamberlin, of the W. R. Chamberlin Company, Frisco, and Chairman Russell comprised the committee which investigated the matter. Their report was referred to Vicegerent Snark A. B. Wastell, for any further action which might be deemed advisable.

R. E. Conahan of the G. E. Bennett Lumber Company, drew the attendance prize. Roll call revealed that the oldest cat present was William Auerbach, No. 6092, of Everett, Wash.; the newest was H. J. Kavalege of the Trower Lumber Company, No. 33804. President Hiseox was presented with a bound volume of the Congressional Record of 1914, which he promised to peruse earnestly during his impending tour of Southern California.

Milton Hendrickson called on Rod Hendrickson for a solo on the French horn, announcement was made of a Valentine party to be given by the Club February 16, and the meeting was turned over to the speaker of the day, Harry H. Caldwell, criminal identification expert of the Oakland Police Department, who gave a very interesting narrative of the history of finger-print identification in criminology.

A Tip For Knockers—Start Pushing!

An electric push-button has replaced the old-fashioned knocker on the door of opportunity, and a fellow must push instead of knock if he would enter.

This was part of a wonderful inspirational message imparted by F. D. Van Amburgh, editor and manager of "The Silent Partner," at a luncheon staged in Hotel Statler, January 9, by St. Louis Hoo-Hoo Club, No. 6.

There were 200 present, including members of the Rotary, Kiwanis and Optimists clubs, who had been especially invited by the Hoo-Hoo Club. Hal Ball, president of the Hoo-Hoo Club, presided and introduced the speaker.

The speaker described himself as "the world's champion light-weight mistake-maker." He enumerated many business ventures he had undertaken, all of which proved to be failures.

Stay Where You Are.

"Hit the trail and go looking for opportunity and you'll always fail," Van Amburgh said. "Opportunity is right under your own hat; all you have to do is to learn that. Luck may carry a man to the very pinnacle of success, but he'll never stay there without honesty, loyalty, and tenacity of purpose."

Hoo-Hoo has the right slant on life, the speaker said, and all who embrace its teachings and adhere strictly to them will gain the right perspective. Co-operation, he said, is a whole lot like cross-cut sawing. "You push when it's your turn and you don't ride back," he explained.

"The main points on a man's compass should be honesty, punctuality, courage, loyalty and enthusiasm," he said. "Enthusiasm should be more properly described as 'business itch.'"

Directing the audience to declare in unison, "It's My Move," Van Amburgh explained that the will be greater harmony and fellowship among men when this is adopted as a slogan.

"The biggest man is the one who can walk up to his competitor or to a man with whom he has been more or less distant, extend his hand and lay the foundation for co-operation and friendship," he said. "If you adopt the slogan, 'It's My Move,' you'll find it not at all difficult or disagreeable to do this."

The Parson Gets Called!

When a preacher gets a "call" it generally means that he's being asked to domicile himself elsewhere and there to minister to the spiritual wants of a congregation. In the lives of most preachers a "call" comes but once or twice.

But it's different with the parson. He gets them with the regularity of a bluffer in a poker game. One of his latest was to Susanville, Calif., where one of his inspirational Hoo-Hoo messages was much desired by the employes of the Fruit Growers' Supply Company, a co-operative company supplying the lumber needs of the farmers and fruit growers of the state.

General Manager L. M. Bump made a dandy talk at a dinner in the company's beautiful recreation building. Then the parson took the stump. He took the crowd, too, and after discussing the Hoo-Hoo Club as a center for welfare work, took fourteen pledges for a February concert. The Lassen operation and Westwood will provide a great many others for this event.

Later the chaplain spoke to the American Legion boys and received a hearty welcome. The following day he looked over the big box factory and other equipment of the company. Messrs. Jessup, Stonehouse and Schoonover made the visit of the parson a decidedly pleasant one.

Seeking Buried Gold—Right After Lunch

Fifty-five Los Angeles Hoo-Hoo traveled by steamer, wagon and mule recently in search of buried treasure—without leaving the luncheon of the Hoo-Hoo Club of their home town.

L. M. Rosenberg took them on the expedition and brought them back—without the treasure. He sat in as chairman of the meeting, at which the principal speaker failed to appear, and the journey for the hidden wealth was but the narrative of his own experience sixteen years ago.

It was so realistic, however, and so fraught with the perils of the Lower California of those days, that the imagination of the cats would easily follow the picture Mr. Rosenberg conjured for them. He is an experienced mining engineer and the trip he took was in search of a mine which had been reported by shipwrecked sailors.

The fact that the supposed bonanza was a fizzle didn't detract any from the interest in Mr. Rosenberg's narrative.

Forget the reward and keep your mind's eye on service; the reward will come as a result of your service, and it will be measured by your service.

Don't Forget Minnie Apples!
Sept. 8, 9 and 10

Oregon Gets First Cat Club; Coos Bay Does It

Coos Bay has fallen to the forces of the Big, Black Cat.

Hoo-Hoo Club, No. 22, the first to be established in the state of Oregon, is already organized and preparing to make cat history for the Great Northwest. Coos Bay Hoo-Hoo Club, No. 22 is the official title.

The importance of the wonderful achievement is enhanced by the fact that lumbermen of the district had intended organizing the club as the Coos Bay Lumbermen's Club. Steps had already been taken to make this club possible when the cats got busy.

They caught the parson on the fly, urged him to hurry to Marshfield, Ore., and lend a hand. He did. A speech by the parson and there were a lot of converts to Hoo-Hoo. Those already converted stepped out more inspired than ever.

A committee was appointed. Franke A. Rowe was named temporary chairman. Instructions were given the committee to begin formulating plans for making the club No. 22 on the Hoo-Hoo roster. Another meeting. The committee reported, recommending the Hoo-Hoo Club.

Directors Appointed.

This was December 28, and at this meeting the Hoo-Hoo Constitution and by-laws were adopted. Five live wire directors were appointed, as follows: A. H. Powers, Andy P. Davis, William W. Stout, B. B. Ostlund and Harry J. Leaf.

The directors then appointed A. H. Powers, president; William W. Stout, vice-president, and Frank A. Rowe, secretary-treasurer. The officers and directors immediately began planning a real Hoo-Hoo program for the Coos Bay District in 1924.

Maj. F. T. Maginnis spoke at the organization meeting on the subject of the tax levy and budget of the Port of Coos Bay. Several others made short speeches concerning the formation of the club and the possibilities it held for the unification and progress of the industry of the district.

Vicegerent Snark Billy Mack, who, although appointed only recently, has made wonderful progress in his district, announced that it will be the policy of the club to stage concerts at frequent intervals, probably once a month, and that efforts will be directed toward getting not more than a half dozen kittens for each such event.

"To Grow—Co-operate" Is Tip to Twin Cities Cats

Co-operative effort, along the lines which have made a success of the business association idea, would greatly facilitate the growth of the Twin Cities as industrial centers.

This was the statement of H. H. Bigelow, president of the Bigelow & Brown Company of St. Paul, at a luncheon of the Twin Cities Hoo-Hoo Club in the West Hotel, Minneapolis, January 3. He pointed out the various stages through which great commonwealths passed from the time they were villages or towns, remarking that none of them achieved great industrial growth until the population has reached the neighborhood of the million mark.

The aggregate populations of the Twin Cities would be about 1,000,000 and would furnish the working basis for the establishment of a great industrial center if the efforts of the two communities were co-ordinated, he said.

Following the address, President A. S. Bliss presented the attendance prizes, a deck of cards and a letter opener, to Vern Malloy and Harry Partridge, respectively. Both had been donated by the Strimling Lumber Company. Ted T. Jones, supreme scribe-noter, made a short talk, and there was a suggestion from Albert Melone that the Hoo-Hoo Club lend its support to the effort to have Congress pass the Coulter Bill, which provides an appropriation for putting the farmers of the great Northwest into the business of raising live stock on a large scale.

Ft. Wayne Club Off to a Flying Start

Although in its infancy, the Fort Wayne, Ind., Hoo-Hoo Club already is under a full head of steam.

Meeting January 9, the club elected Fred Wehrenberg, president; E. C. Miller, vice-president, and C. H. Bowlby, secretary-treasurer. The Hoo-Hoo Constitution and by-laws were adopted, and the suggestion was made that members of the club get together at daily luncheons in one of the leading hotels. There would be a special table for them, designated the Hoo-Hoo Round Table, where the lumbermen could discuss various subjects of interest to the trade.

The club also elected Melvin Beaver and E. W. J. Yergens as members of the Board of Directors. Vicegerent Snark John Suelzer, Jr., whose devoted and untiring efforts led to the formation of the club, made a brief talk in which he outlined the club's future activities.

Aged in the Wood

The spirit of Hoo-Hoo in Spokane, Wash., improves with age.

Each week the luncheons of the Hoo-Hoo Club have a larger attendance and a greater degree of enthusiasm upon the part of the members. Interest is maintained by giving a different program every week.

Mr. Stedman, vice president of the Celotex Company; R. P. Kelloy, vice president of the Pacific Coast Section of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, and W. J. Weisman, traffic manager for the Weyerhaeuser Sales company, were speakers at a recent meeting.

George Hong read a letter of thanks from Miss Margarita Howard, queen of the Hoo-Hoo Concert last summer, for the pin sent her by the club. Frank N. McCarthy, who resigned as local manager of the Hilgard Lumber Company and departed Spokane, bade farewell to the cats.

No Rheumatic Cats Here

St. Louis cats shake a wicked hoof—and their tabbies, too!

They demonstrated this at an informal dinner-dance in the new Coronado Hotel, given by St. Louis Hoo-Hoo Club No. 6, the evening of January 6. The attendance was 101, but there isn't a cat to be found who'll admit he was all by himself.

Harry D. Gaines, the new vicegerent snark for the Southeast Missouri district, was introduced by H. C. Ball, president of the club. He announced the concert to be staged in the American Annex Hotel the evening of February 29.

A handsome bouquet of roses and orchids was awarded Mrs. C. H. Fein, when she and her partner, Leon Herriek, Crystal City, Mo., lumberman, won the prize fox trot. A lavalliere and a box of candy were given as attendance prizes.

Good-will is planted in service; in value received, in courtesy and fellowship. It grows slowly; indefinitely slow. It must be fed with the sun of common decency and fair dealing.

Have Your Wife Meet Mine at Minneapolis, Sept. 8, 9 and 10

FOREST LIFE

French Naval Stores Plan a Model for U. S.

If the southern pine belt of the United States is to maintain its position as the leading naval stores producing area of the world, an intelligent policy of replenishing and maintaining the sources of supply must be adopted.

This was the statement of W. B. Greeley, chief of the United States Forest Service, before the Southern Forestry Congress, in Savannah, Ga., the evening of January 29.

Holding up the French system in the Landes region as an excellent pattern, Greeley urged the naval stores industry of the United States to begin taking stock and preparing for the establishment of a policy which would insure a continuous and stable production of naval stores.

Contrasting the industry of the United States with that of the Landes region of France, an area of less than 2,000,000 acres, Greeley said that the southern pine belt of America is dotted with deserted turpentine camps, whereas the French district is a permanent site for the production of naval stores.

Profits Steady.

The French, by intelligently planning the future growth of timber in their comparatively small area, have made the business of producing naval stores a stable and profitable one. The district for more than 100 years has maintained a great population of workers by the as-urance of continuous employment. The source of supply, the maritime pine, is not as good a producer of gum, nor nearly so valuable for saw timber as long leaf and slash pine, Greeley said.

Timber production rather than timber mining was the basis for the establishment of the French system. Despite a comparatively poor soil, which had to be reclaimed, and which the naval stores operators knew must be the center of their industry for all time, the Landes region has been built into a great, dense forest, covered with full growth and seedlings.

A great chain of railroads and miles of paved roads intersect the district, while all of the buildings are of permanent construction. There are several towns of 20,000 to 30,000 inhabitants, and the turpentine still is the heart of each.

The French proceed on the theory that production comes first; that there must be a continuous growth. Each operating unit is put on a basis of continuous yield of gum as well as lumber and wood products by a grouping, by acreage, of each stage of forest from seedlings to full-grown trees.

Century of Experiment.

It is this system, rather than any detail of cupping or chipping or manufacture that marks the fundamental difference between the American practices of the past, when we thought our supply of pine inexhaustible, and that of the French, who realized more than a century ago that their supply was far from inexhaustible.

The French have their units divided so that it is possible to work the older trees while the new crop is growing. After cupping one unit for a four-years' period, the operators move on to another stand which has had a four-years' rest. The tracts under twenty years are gone over at regular intervals and thinned out, but the trees removed are turpintined before being cut for saw timber. At thirty years the trees are sturdy and ready for "hard work."

When the trees reach seventy years they generally are felled and milled. Most of the new growths are the result of natural seeding, it being necessary to resort to planting only when a fire devastates any unit. In chipping, the French are extremely careful not to damage the tree or seriously retard its growth, making a narrow face that permits of rapid healing.

By this process of management and chipping, the still receives a steady income of gum, the sawmill a steady supply of sawlogs, and the wood yard a steady supply of mine timbers, poles, posts, ties, fuel wood and charcoal, and at the same time the worked out lots are being reforested.

Kids Learn to Distinguish Their Friends—the Trees

A "tree guessing contest," participated in by 600 children, was an interesting and educational feature of the Southern Forestry Congress, in Savannah, Ga., January 30.

Children of the senior, two junior and the fifth and sixth grades of the elementary schools participated. Prizes were awarded the winners in the various groups. The idea of the contest was not to produce child prodigies, but to interest the youngsters in tree life.

Trees common to the southeastern section of the United States were shown in pictures by S. J. Holmes, and with each he gave a description. Blossoms and fruit of some trees were shown separately. After the youngsters had had an opportunity to view the various characteristics of the trees, they were instructed to write down the answers, according to numbered cards furnished them.

When the examination had been concluded, Bonnell Stone, president of the Forestry Congress, delivered a short address in which he stressed the value of tree knowledge.

Tree Butchers—Don't be One!

"No Boy Scout wants to be a tree butcher," says the Spokane, Wash., Scoutmaster's bulletin to his boys. "The mutilation and destruction of growing trees in this season of the year is something that every real Scout will do all within his power to prevent."

"No tree should be cut on private property without permission of the owner. No trees in the city parks or along the highways should be cut. Keep this in mind and use your persuasive powers to have other boys do likewise."

The Lumber-Jacks War Romance

"How the American lumberjack, used to the methods of getting out timber, was able to adapt himself to the technical requirements of the French Forestry Service, was one of the romances of the war." Dr. Hugh P. Baker, executive secretary of the American Paper & Pulp Association, said at a luncheon of the City Club Post of the American Legion, in New York City, January 8.

Forests Rechristened

The name of the Oregon National Forest has been changed to the Mount Hood National Forest, and the name of the Washington National Forest to Mount Baker National Forest. The changes were effected in an executive order signed by President Coolidge, upon the recommendation of District Forester Cecil of the North Pacific district.

New Kentucky Substation

The Appalachian Forest Experiment Station, in conjunction with the University of Kentucky, has established a substation at Berea, Ky., for forestry experiments.

Sturdy Little Ones

Western Yellow Pine seedlings on out-over lands grow more rapidly in stump patches than in competition with grass and weeds or older stands, says the Fort Valley Forest Experiment Station.

Washington and Lincoln

ABRAHAM LINCOLN
Born February 12, 1808

GEORGE WASHINGTON
Born February 22, 1732

As silhouettes upon a printed page
Stand out in bold and unrestrained display,
So faces in each stirring, pulsing age
Rise clear above the turmoil of their day.

How good it is that ever-searching youth
Finds men like these, upstanding in their time!
Men dedicated to the cause of Truth,
In faith serene, and in their deeds sublime.

—E. C. F., in American Youth.

THE GREATNESS OF LINCOLN

LINCOLN was great as a common citizen among the common people. His humanitarian heart, ready wit, genuine honesty, and practical common sense commanded their confidence and esteem. He loved the common people, believed in them, and was proud to be reckoned as one of them.

2. Lincoln was great in his magnanimity and patriotism. In evidence of this the words of President Roosevelt are to the point. He said: "In reading his works and speeches, his addresses, one is struck by the fact that as he went higher and higher all personal bitterness seemed to die out of him. In the Lincoln-Douglas debates one can still catch now and then a note of personal antagonism. The man was in the arena, and as the blows were given you could see now and then that he had a feeling against his antagonist. When he became President and faced the crises that he had to face, from that time on I do not think that you can find an expression, a speech of Lincoln's, a word of Lincoln's, written or spoken, in which bitterness is shown to any man."

3. Lincoln was great in his firm conviction that God rules in the kingdoms of men, and that in the great crisis which come to nations he interposes and directs to certain results in vindication of truth and righteousness.

4. Lincoln was great as a master in the simple, eloquent use of the English language. In this respect his addresses and state papers commanded the plaudits of the best critics.

5. Lincoln was great as President. Of his ability as such, James Ford Rhodes puts the case admirably as follows: "Lincoln was the ideal President, in that he led public sentiment, represented it, and followed it. 'I claim not to have controlled events,' he said, 'but confess plainly that events have controlled me.' During his term of office he was one day called 'very weak,' and the next 'a tyrant'; and when his whole work was done, a careful survey of it could bring one only to the conclusion that he knew when to follow and when to lead. He was in complete touch with popular sentiment, and divined with nicety when he could take a step in advance. He made an effort to keep on good terms with Congress, and he differed with that body reluctantly, although, when necessity came, decisively.

The good and the great, the patriotic and the God-fearing still cherish, and will ever continue to cherish his memory and esteem his character as long as men love liberty, truth and honesty and the great republic he saved holds its place among the nations of the earth.—Ex.

THE LIVING WASHINGTON

THE birthday of Washington ought never to pass without the reverent mention of his name. Not every nation has such a name as his at the head of its roll of honor. Well was it said of him, "Providence left him childless, that the nation might call him father."

Washington is not dead. He has risen to greater influence and higher service and by his life will influence thousands for their good.

Washington is invisible, yet potent, and stands today behind Senators and Representatives. His words are uttered in legislative halls and his thoughts are voiced with emphasis in many public addresses amid the turbulence of political campaigns.

1. As a man, pure and simple, he was many-sided, not without faults but was richly endowed in the intellectual grasp of great questions and possessed rare ability for the solution of difficult problems.

2. As a patriot he combined enthusiasm with sagacity. The flame of his enthusiasm burned with ever increasing light upon the altar of his heart. He was not impatient with old things and he was not headstrong concerning new ideas.

3. As a statesman he possessed rare executive ability. To handle men is a great gift but he marshalled his forces with remarkable skill. The combination of dignity and intimacy that prevailed in his attitude toward his followers won for him their highest regard and affection, gave him a high quality of leadership which made him intrepid in the face of the greatest dangers and enabled him to lead where few would dare to follow.

4. As a soldier he met the best tests. He was never rash, but always brave. He was considerate but energetic. He never drew a sword except in defense of liberty and independence and he never sheathed it in the presence of tyranny.

5. As a Christian he was a happy combination. He united morality and piety. He recognized the Christian sources of inspiration and guidance and believed in being a faithful and loyal disciple of the meek and lowly Nazarene, and an earnest and efficient follower of the great Captain of our Salvation.—Ex.

Officers of the Order

They're Playing the Game—Are You?

The Supreme Nine

SNARK OF THE UNIVERSE—C. D. LeMaster (20727), Pres. Western Planing Mill & Woodworkers' Association, Fresno, Calif.
 SENIOR HOO-HOO—Geo. J. Osgood (32106), Pres. Wheeler-Osgood Co., Tacoma, Wash.
 JUNIOR HOO-HOO—A. J. Hager (32140), Pres. Hager Lumber Co., Lansing, Mich.
 BOJUM—J. H. Allen (30827), Pres. Sterling Lbr. Co., St. Louis, Mo.
 SCRIVENOTER—T. T. Jones (32133), Mgr. Ted T. Jones Lbr. Co., Minneapolis, Minn.
 ARCANOPER—J. A. Mahlstedt (32819), Roosevelt Sq., New Rochelle, N. Y.
 CUSTOCIAN—C. B. Harman (30978), Sec. Mgr. Southern Sash, Door & Millwork Assn., Atlanta, Ga.
 JABBERWOCK—J. Kurth, Jr. (11067), Vernon Parish Lbr. Co., Kurthwood, La.
 GURDON—G. C. Hemenway (2781), Pres. & Mgr. The El Paso Lumber Co., Colorado Springs, Colo.

State Counselors

ALABAMA—W. L. Shepherd (13443), 610 Bell Bldg., Montgomery, Ala.
 ARIZONA—John L. Halloran (31981), Halloran Bennett Lumber Co., Phoenix, Ariz.
 ARKANSAS—Everette C. Nowlin (15236), Nowlin Lumber Co., 907 W. Seventh St., Little Rock, Ark.
 CALIFORNIA—David Woodhead (30590), Woodhead Lumber Co., Los Angeles, Calif.
 COLORADO—Isaac P. Downer (3083), 1330 Columbine, Denver, Colo.
 FLORIDA—A. D. Holly (23888), Aycock-Holly Lbr. Co., Jacksonville, Fla.
 SOUTHERN ILLINOIS—P. T. Langan (2400), P. T. Langan Lbr. Co., Cairo, Ill.
 NORTHERN ILLINOIS—F. M. Baker (21576), Hardwood Lbr. Mills Co., Chicago, Ill.
 INDIANA—Elmer Lühring (17034), Lühring Lbr. Co., Evansville, Ind.
 IOWA—Geo. A. Jewett (3301), Jewett Lbr. Co., Des Moines, Ia.
 KANSAS—L. N. Powell (26702), R. N. Powell Lbr. Co., Hutchinson, Kan.
 KENTUCKY—W. K. Hall (14314), W. K. Hall Lbr. Co., Fulton, Ky.
 LOUISIANA—Philip Lanier (16799) Philip Lanier Lumber Co., New Orleans, La.
 MASSACHUSETTS—Walter P. White (18181), Geo. J. Barker Lbr. Co., Waltham, Mass.
 MICHIGAN—C. L. Weeks (2095), Hunton-Weeks Lbr. Co., Detroit, Mich.
 MISSOURI—Jos. M. Bernardin (152), 420 Keith & Perry Bldg., Kansas City.
 MINNESOTA—Arthur A. Hood (32511), Thompson Lumber Co., Minneapolis, Minn.
 NEBRASKA—DeForest E. Greene (2142), Earle-Chapin Lbr. Co., Lincoln, Neb.
 NEW MEXICO—E. H. Humphrey (9801), Eaton Lbr. & Mfg. Co., Raton, N. Mex.
 NEW MEXICO—Charles Proebstel (31665), Santa Fe Builders Supply Co., Santa Fe, New Mexico.
 NEW YORK—G. W. Whitbread (29397), Broadway Lbr. Co., New York City, N. Y.
 NORTH DAKOTA—Harry T. Alop (4238), Interior Lumber Co., Fargo, N. Dak.
 OHIO—W. J. Whitacre (1076), Whitacre Lbr. Co., Columbus, Ohio.
 OKLAHOMA—W. B. Campbell (29691), 830 American Nat. Bank Bldg., Oklahoma City, Okla.
 OREGON—H. E. McLeer (26445), G. W. Gates & Co., Portland, Ore.
 SOUTH CAROLINA—C. C. Campbell (30978), Colton Cypress Co., Columbia, S. C.
 TENNESSEE—W. L. Evans (20951), Bradley Lbr. Co., Memphis, Tenn.
 UTAH—Alden E. Payne (11381), Morrison-Merrill Lumber Co., Salt Lake City, Utah.
 VIRGINIA—P. T. Conway (32169), Danville Lbr. & Mfg. Co., Danville, Va.
 WISCONSIN—Harry E. Beckwith (31219), Chetek Lbr. & Supply Co., Chetek, Wisconsin.

The Jurisdictions

JURISDICTION No. 1—Snark of the Universe, C. D. LeMaster, Fresno, California, California, Arizona, Utah, Nevada, All Canada except British Columbia, Manitoba and Saskatchewan, Mexico, and all other foreign countries.
 JURISDICTION No. 2—Senior Hoo-Hoo—Geo. J. Osgood, Tacoma, Washington, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, and British Columbia.
 JURISDICTION No. 3—Junior Hoo-Hoo—A. J. Hager, Lansing, Michigan, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio and Northern Illinois.
 JURISDICTION No. 4—Bojum, J. H. Allen, St. Louis, Mo., Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Kentucky, Tennessee and Southern Illinois.
 JURISDICTION No. 5—Scrivenoter, T. T. Jones, Minneapolis, Minn., Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, North and South Dakota, Manitoba and Saskatchewan, Canada.
 JURISDICTION No. 6—Jabberwock, J. Kurth, Jr., Kurthwood, Louisiana, Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas.
 JURISDICTION No. 7—Custocian, C. B. Harman, Atlanta, Georgia, Georgia, North and South Carolina, Florida, Virginia, West Virginia and Alabama.
 JURISDICTION No. 8—Arcanoper, J. Albert Mahlstedt, New Rochelle, N. Y., New York, Delaware, New Jersey, District of Columbia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, and New England States.
 JURISDICTION No. 9—Gurdon, G. C. Hemenway, Colorado Springs, Colorado, Colorado, Wyoming, Nebraska and New Mexico.

The House of Ancients

Rameses 1 BOLLING ARTHUR JOHNSON (2), Lumber World Review, Chicago.
 Rameses 2 W. E. BAINS (3), (Deceased).
 Rameses 3 J. E. DEFEAUGH (6), (Deceased).
 Rameses 4 N. H. HEMENWAY (184), (Deceased).
 Rameses 5 A. A. WHITE (162), (Deceased).
 Rameses 6 N. A. GLADDING (99), E. C. Atkins & Co., Indianapolis, Ind.
 Rameses 7 GEO. W. LOCK (82), (Deceased).
 Rameses 8 W. B. STILLWELL (3953), Southern Pine Co., of Ga., Savannah, Ga.
 Rameses 9 A. H. WEIR (2605), (Deceased).
 Rameses 10 WM. H. NORRIS (1660), (Deceased).
 Rameses 11 ED. M. VEITMEIER (2714), (Deceased).
 Rameses 12 C. D. ROURKE (421), (Deceased).
 Rameses 13 R. D. INMAN (2186), (Deceased).
 Rameses 14 A. C. RAMSEY (233), Terrell Bldg. & Loan Assn., Terrell, Tex.
 Rameses 15 J. S. HONNER (5294), Humble Oil Refining Co., Houston, Texas.
 Rameses 16 PLATT B. WALKER (48), Editor, Mississippi Valley Lumberman, Minneapolis.
 Rameses 17 W. A. HADLEY (11586), (Deceased).
 Rameses 18 H. J. MILLER (3466), H. J. Miller Lbr. Co., Seattle, Wash.
 Rameses 19 E. STRINGER BOGGESS (7197), Clarksburg, W. Va.
 Rameses 20 FRANK W. TROWER (12835), Trower Lbr. Co., San Francisco, Calif.
 Rameses 21 JOHN H. KIRBY (7778), Kirby Lbr. Co., Houston, Texas.
 Rameses 22 E. D. TENNANT (13070), Los Angeles Lumbermen's Club, Los Angeles.
 Rameses 23 JULIUS SEIDEL (3229), Julius Seidel Lbr. Co., St. Louis, Mo.
 Rameses 24 W. A. PRIDDIE (129), Beaumont Lbr. Co., Beaumont, Texas.
 Rameses 25 R. A. HISCOX (14423), Western States Lbr. Co., San Francisco, Calif.
 Rameses 26 L. M. TULLY (21849), L. M. Tully Lbr. Co., St. Louis, Mo.
 Rameses 27 E. G. GRIGGS (2284), St. Paul & Tacoma Lbr. Co., Tacoma, Wash.
 Rameses 28 W. S. DICKASON (2800), Dickason-Goodman Lbr. Co., Kansas City, Mo.

Osirian Cloister

HIGH PRIEST OF OSIRIS—W. S. Dickason (2300), Dickason Goodman Lbr. Co., Kansas City, Mo.
 HIGH PRIEST OF PTAH—J. R. Neylan (13897), Booth Kelly Lumber Co., San Francisco, Calif.
 HIGH PRIEST OF RA—M. M. Elledge (26427), M. M. Elledge Lbr. Co., Corinth, Miss.
 HIGH PRIEST OF ISIS—J. F. Judd (94), Hall-Brown Woodworking Machine Co., St. Louis, Mo.
 HIGH PRIEST OF SHU—J. R. L. Kilgore (30968), J. A. Bel Lumber Co., Lake Charles, La.
 HIGH PRIEST OF THOTH—R. W. Neizbor (7316), E. C. Atkins & Co., Portland, Ore.
 HIGH PRIEST OF HATHOR—A. A. Hood (32511), Thompson Lumber Co., Minneapolis, Minn.
 HIGH PRIEST OF SED—P. T. Langan (2400), P. T. Langan Lumber Co., Cairo, Ill.
 HIGH PRIEST OF ANUBIS—D. S. Montgomery (30285), Wisconsin Retail Lbr. Dealers' Ass'n., Milwaukee, Wis.

Vicegerent Snarks

ALABAMA—(Western District) R. V. Elledge (29942) Tuscaloosa, Ala.
 ALABAMA—(Birmingham District) W. A. Currie (9751), Moore-Handley Hdwe. Co., Birmingham, Ala.
 ALBAMA—(Montgomery District) C. E. Hink (29704), 417 Alabama St., Montgomery, Ala.
 ALBERTA, CAN.—(Southern District) John M. Nelson (13875), Cuddy & Nelson, Calgary, Alta., Can.
 ARIZONA—(Border District) Albert W. Stacy (12718), Bassett Lbr. Co., Douglas, Ariz.
 ARIZONA—(Valley District) P. I. Merithew (31988), E. K. Wood Lumber Co., Phoenix, Ariz.
 ARKANSAS—(Pine Bluff District) Frederick C. Abbott (9077) 809 W. 2nd Ave., Pine Bluff, Ark.
 ARKANSAS—(Southeastern District) M. B. McLeod (33084), Southern Lbr. Co., Warren, Ark.
 ARKANSAS—(Southwestern District) S. Talbot Feld (26721), Hope Lbr. Co., Hope, Ark.
 BRITISH COLUMBIA—(Coast District) W. H. Crowe (29083), Sales Mgr., Federal Lbr. Co., Vancouver, B. C.
 CALIFORNIA—(San Joaquin Valley District) Henry E. Verbiel (19276) Valley Lumber Co., Fresno, Calif.
 CALIFORNIA—(Sacramento Valley District) David A. Williamson (210) T. S. Ferguson Lumber Co., Galt, Calif.
 CALIFORNIA—(Northern District) P. T. Brown (31356), Eureka, Calif.
 CALIFORNIA—(San Francisco Bay District) A. B. Wastell (20064), California Retail Lumbermen's Association, San Francisco, Calif.
 CALIFORNIA—(Los Angeles District) Herman S. Rosenberg (31295), Hipolito Screen & Sash Co., Los Angeles, Calif.
 CALIFORNIA—(San Diego District) Al. Frost (30688), Frost Hardwood & San Diego Lbr. Co., San Diego, Calif.
 CALIFORNIA—(Orange District) O. H. Barr (9315), Barr Lumber Co., Santa Ana, Calif.
 CALIFORNIA—(Coast Counties District) Charles H. Griffen, Jr., (31361) Homer T. Hayward Lumber Co., Santa Cruz, Calif.
 COLORADO—(State of Colorado) A. S. Chappell (29126), McPhee & McGinnity Co., Denver, Colo.
 CONNECTICUT—(State of Connecticut) N. B. Richards (31751), Manchester Lbr. Co., Inc., S. Manchester, Conn.
 ENGLAND—(Southern District) Edwin Haynes, Timber Trades Journal, London, E. C. Eng.

New Members Added

January 9 to February 1, 1924.

CONCATENATION No. 2364, GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., NOV. 9, 1923.
 Candidates.
 33024—Ralph L. Renculer, Sec.-Treas.—Greenville Lumber Co., Greenville, Mich.
 33025—Alvin Stocking Dimmick, Sec.-Treas.—Helding Lumber Co., Helding, Mich.
 33026—Henry W. Dimmick, Asst. Mgr.—Helding Lumber Co., Helding, Mich.
 33027—Henry O'Brien Mechen, Salesman—Sawyer Goodman Co., Grand Rapids, Mich.
 33028—Harry D. Rosenberg, Mgr.—Oakdale Lumber Co., Grand Rapids, Mich.
 33029—Orestes William Stark, Salesman & Part Owner—Cole-Stark Lumber Co., Grand Rapids, Mich.
 CONCATENATION No. 2365, ST. PAUL, MINN., JAN. 7, 1924.
 Candidates.
 33030—David H. Bartlett, Service Mgr.—Weyerhaeuser Forest Products, St. Paul, Minn.
 33031—Albert T. Berquist, Mgr.—A. Ingvald Lumber Co., St. Paul, Minn.
 33032—Ray V. Clute, Dist. Sales Mgr.—Weyerhaeuser Sales Co., Spokane, Wash., 2004 University Ave., St. Paul, Minn.
 33033—Michael J. Culligan, Salesman—Brooks Bros. Inc., St. Paul, Minn.
 33034—Edgar H. Erickson, Sec.—Capital City Lumber Co., St. Paul, Minn.
 33035—Walter R. Gray, Salesman—Brooks Bros., St. Paul, Minn.
 33036—Carl L. Hamilton, Adv. Mgr.—Weyerhaeuser Forest Products, St. Paul, Minn.
 33037—Arthur Ingvald, Ingvald Lumber Co., St. Paul, Minn.
 33038—Richard J. Kain, Mgr.—Yari-Consumers Lumber Co., St. Paul, Minn.
 33039—Horace H. Lampert, Vice-President—Capital City Lumber Co., St. Paul, Minn.
 33040—Oscar Lampland, President—Capital City Lumber Co., St. Paul, Minn.
 33041—Albert G. Mosbrugger, Sec.—The Villamere Box Lumber Co., St. Paul, Minn.
 33042—Milton R. Parrish, Sec.—Twin City Lumber Co., Minneapolis, Minn.
 33043—Lester W. Rydell, Clerk—Northwestern Hardwood Co., St. Paul, Minn.
 33044—Harold D. Siverman, Salesman—Twin City Hardwood Lumber Co., St. Paul, Minn.
 33045—Harry J. Simons, Sec. (not indicated)—Brooks Bros., Inc., St. Paul, Minn.
 33046—Joseph R. Stanton, Sec.—W. C. Stanton Lumber Co., St. Paul, Minn.
 33047—James L. Thompson, Salesman—Twin City Hardwood Lumber Co., St. Paul, Minn.
 CONCATENATION No. 2366, MARSHFIELD, OREGON, JAN. 12, 1924.
 Candidates.
 33048—Peter Simond Dainard, Supt. Sida Plant—Coos Bay Lumber Co., Marshfield, Ore.
 33049—Reuben Albert Elliott, Gen. Supt. Mill A—The Stout Lumber Co., North Bend, Ore.
 33050—Erick Bruno Gerlke, Owner—Gerlke Company, Marshfield, Ore.
 33051—Everett Elsworth Johnson, Owner—Johnson Lumber Company, Coquille, Ore.
 33052—Philip Everett Johnson, Asst. Mgr.—E. E. Johnson Lumber Co., Coquille, Ore.
 33053—Walter Harrison Leedom, Pur. Agt.—Coos Bay Lumber Co., Marshfield, Ore.
 33054—George William Moore, Jr., Mgr.—Moore Mill & Lumber Co., Bandon, Ore.
 33055—William H. Perkins, Publisher—Timber Topics, Coos Bay, Ore.
 33056—Paul Temple Ramsey, Mill Foreman—E. E. Johnson Lbr. Co., Coquille, Ore.
 33057—Theodore Andrea Reed, Sales Mgr.—The Stout Lumber Co., North Bend, Ore.
 33058—Charles Edward Ridenour, Asst. Sales Mgr.—Stout Lumber Company, North Bend, Ore.
 33059—William Patrick Sweeney, Accountant—Stout Lumber Company, North Bend, Ore.
 33060—Henry Spud Wieder, President—Englewood White Cedar Co., Marshfield, Ore.
 CONCATENATION No. 2367, INDIANAPOLIS, IND., JAN. 16, 1924.
 Candidates.
 33061—Thomas A. Carroll, Adv. & Sales Promotion Mgr.—E. C. Atkins & Co., Indianapolis, Ind.
 33062—Harry J. Colman, Contract Mgr.—Wolf & Company, Chicago, Ill.
 33063—James R. Goelchens, Clerk—Allen A. Wilkinson Lbr. Co., Indianapolis, Ind.
 33064—Arthur J. Hallon, Salesman—H. E. Heiny & Sons, Inc., Indianapolis, Ind.
 33065—Roy Metzger, Metzger Lumber Co., Gibson, Ind.
 33066—Frederick H. Nitzel, Yard Foreman—O. D. Haskett Lumber Co., Indianapolis, Ind.
 33067—J. Fred Nutter, Salesman—Weyerhaeuser Sales Co., Spokane, Wash.
 33068—Robert C. Williams, Sec.—Forbes-Hubbard Lbr. Co., Indianapolis, Ind.

FLORIDA—(Miami District) W. W. Brock (18568), 318 Townley Bldg., Miami, Fla.
 W. Naylor (5000), Shepard-Morse Lbr. Co., New York City, N. Y.
 GEORGIA—(Atlanta District) J. M. Burckel (31759), Dan Klein & Sons, Atlanta, Ga.
 GEORGIA—(Macon District) H. L. MacEwen (30983), Case-Fowler Lbr. Co., Macon, Ga.
 IDAHO—E. B. Sherman (27446), C. R. Shaw Wholesale Co., Boise, Idaho.
 ILLINOIS—(Southern District) Jesse L. Corn (11860), L. D. Leach & Co., Cairo, Ill.
 INDIANA—(Evansville District) Charles Wolfen (6460), West Side Lbr. Co., Evansville, Ind.
 INDIANA—(Lafayette District) G. M. Munger (10026), Munger Lbr. Co., Lafayette, Ind.
 INDIANA—(South Bend District) G. W. Ziegler (12439), St. Joe Valley Lbr. Co., South Bend, Ind.
 INDIANA—(Pt. Wayne District) John Suelzer (20733), Ft. Wayne Bldgs. & Supp. Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.
 INDIANA—(Indianapolis District) O. E. Crawford (26318), 631 Lemcke Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.
 IOWA—(Eastern District) T. R. Brown (31740), P. O. Box 464, Muscatine, Ia.
 IOWA—(Northwestern District) W. C. Butler (22792), Roach-Musser S. & D. Co., Sioux City, Ia.
 KANSAS—(Hutchinson District) R. N. Powell (26702), R. N. Powell Lbr. Co., Hutchinson, Kans.
 KANSAS—(Southern District) F. O. Brownson (26360), Rock Island Lbr. Co., Wichita, Kansas.
 KENTUCKY—(Eastern District) Bill Combs (9920), E. Main St., Lexington, Ky.
 KENTUCKY—(Western District) W. O. Shankle (30871), Box 177, Fulton, Ky.
 LOUISIANA—(Lake Charles District) John W. Lewis (33184) Long Bell Lumber Co., Lake Charles, La.
 LOUISIANA—(Southeastern District) J. Walter Michel (30156), Lumbermen's Club, New Orleans, La.
 LOUISIANA—(Shreveport District) O. A. Davis (22098), O. A. Davis Lbr. Co., Shreveport, La.
 LOUISIANA—(Alexandria District) Henry D. Foote (Life 13790) Foote-Burt Lumber Co., Alexandria, La.
 MARYLAND—(Eastern District) Geo. R. Johnson (27795), Knickerbocker Bldg., Baltimore, Md.
 MASSACHUSETTS—(State of Massachusetts) Ralph M. Davenport (28899), Davenport-Evans Co., Boston, Mass.
 MICHIGAN—(Grand Rapids District) Arthur Manning (25612), 316 James St., Felger Lumber & Timber Co., Grand Rapids, Mich.
 MICHIGAN—(Saginaw District) Herman W. Zahnow (32162) Booth-Boyd Lumber Co., Saginaw, Michigan.
 MICHIGAN—(State of Michigan except Detroit and Grand Rapids) William J. Barctey, 511 Wilson Bldg., Lansing, Mich.
 MINNESOTA—(Duluth District) H. S. Robb (28803), Newbegin Lumber Co., Duluth, Minn.
 MINNESOTA—(Minneapolis District) Roy Thompson (1899) Thompson Lumber Co., Minneapolis, Minn.
 MINNESOTA—(St. Paul District) J. L. Villalume (33139), Williams Box & Lumber Co., St. Paul, Minn.
 MISSISSIPPI—(Northern District) J. C. Bell (21577), Box 281, Oxford, Miss.
 MISSISSIPPI—(Northern District) H. W. Hynes (24492), Trenton Lbr. Co., Jackson, Miss.
 MISSISSIPPI—(Meridian District) W. W. Meeds (22156), W. W. Meeds Lbr. Co., Meridian, Miss.
 MISSOURI—(Carthage District) H. W. Putnam (6918), Putnam-Jones, Carthage, Mo.
 MISSOURI—(Southern District) Harry D. Gaines (31331), Thos. E. Powe Lumber Co., St. Louis, Mo.
 MISSOURI—(Northwestern District) John H. Costes (31572), J. T. Cross Lbr. Co., Moberly, Mo.
 MISSOURI—(Northwest District) A. L. Jones (31723), 1202 R. A. Long Bldg., Kansas City, Mo.
 MONTANA—(Eastern District) H. M. Yaw (23724), Sturm & Yaw, Great Falls, Mont.
 MONTANA—(Butte District) A. R. Graham (24659), D. W. Hughes Lbr. Co., 855 Washington, Butte, Mont.
 NEBRASKA—(State of Nebraska) Homer W. Gray (13980), Havelock L. & C. Co., Havelock, Neb.
 NEVADA—(State of Nevada) C. C. Bridgman (11128), Verdell Lbr. Co., Reno, Nev.
 NEW MEXICO—(State of New Mexico) Louis G. Hoeselden (32643), Superior Lumber & Mill Co., Box 552, Albuquerque, New Mexico.
 NEW MEXICO—(State of New Mexico) Chas. Proebstel (31665), Santa Fe Bldrs. Supply Co., Santa Fe, N. M.
 NEW YORK—(New York City District) F. W. Naylor (5000), Shepard-Morse Lbr. Co., New York City, N. Y.
 NEW YORK—(Rochester, Geneva & Penn Yan District) Wm. M. Patteson (11977), Luke St., Penn Yan, N. Y.
 NORTH CAROLINA—(Western District) James M. English (18628), J. M. English & Co., Asheville, N. C.
 NORTH DAKOTA—(Grand Forks District) Guy Ireland (22340), Ireland Lumber Yards, Grand Forks, N. Dak.
 OHIO—(Cincinnati District) Harry A. Hollowell (4661), Hollowell & Co., Cincinnati, O.
 OHIO—(Columbus District) C. A. Dawson (3409), H. H. Giesy Co., Columbus, O.
 OHIO—(Cleveland District) A. S. Porter (27260), 412 Marshall Bldg., Cleveland, O.
 OHIO—(Akron District) J. B. Brown (31036), Brown-Graves Lbr. Co., Akron, O.
 OHIO—(Springfield District) Homer Balinger (30756), Clark County Lbr. Co., Springfield, O.
 OHIO—(Marion District) W. G. Lusch (11815), Marion Lbr. Co., Marion, Ohio.
 OKLAHOMA—(Northwest District) Sherman J. Richardson (14053) 424 E. 8th St., Tulsa, Okla.
 OKLAHOMA—(Southeast District) Mat Cook (16790), Choctaw Lbr. Co., Broken Bow, Okla.
 ONTARIO—(Western District) Horace W. Robinson (21155), Pigeon River Lbr. Co., Ft. William, Ont.
 OREGON—(Klamath Falls District) A. J. Vove (26448), Big Lakes Box Co., Klamath Falls, Ore.
 OREGON—(Bend District) H. E. Allen (29339), Brooks-Sealion Lbr. Co., Bend, Ore.
 OREGON—(Western District) C. C. Crow (28386), Crow's Pacific Coast Lumber Index, Northwestern Bank Bldg., Portland, Ore.
 PANAMA—William T. McCormick (29329), Robert White, Ancon, Canal Zone, Panama.
 PHILIPPINE IS.—W. G. Scrim (25682), Kolumbang Lbr. Co., Manila, P. I.
 SASKATCHEWAN—(Northern District) Geo. Silfers (21890), 12th St., Saskatoon, Sask., Can.
 SASKATCHEWAN—(Southern District) W. Wilson (28520), Butley Lbr. Co., Regina, Sask., Can.
 SOUTH CAROLINA—(Greenville District) C. D. Spiegel (30988), Greenville Lbr. Co., Greenville, S. C.
 SOUTH CAROLINA—(Columbia District) C. G. Campbell (30978), Colleton Cypress Lbr. Co., Colleton, S. C.
 SOUTH CAROLINA—(Rock Hill District) Jos. C. Cautchen (32166), Rock Hill Lbr. Co., Rock Hill, S. C.
 TENNESSEE—(Eastern District) W. H. Murray (23866), W. H. Murray & Co., Johnson City, Tenn.
 TENNESSEE—(Memphis, Tenn.) M. D. Eustler (17152), Tallahatchie Lbr. Co., Memphis, Tenn.
 TENNESSEE—(Knoxville District) Malcolm Miller (27668), Walter McCabe, Knoxville, Tenn.
 TEXAS—(Western District) Robert A. Whitlock (21891), El Paso Lbr. Co., El Paso, Tex.
 TEXAS—(San Antonio District) Albert Steves (524), Ed. Steves & Sons, San Antonio, Texas.
 TEXAS—(Houston District) Jack E. Griffith (Life 84) 1109 Carter Bldg., Houston.
 TEXAS—(Northern District) R. A. Toombs (12564), R. A. Toombs Sash & Door Co., Fort Worth, Tex.
 TEXAS—(Fannin District) T. M. Hayes (24563), P. O. Box 255, Amarillo, Tex.
 TEXAS—(Beaumont District) Preston P. Butler (26850) Beaumont Export & Import Co., Beaumont, Texas.
 TEXAS—(Waco District) Elton P. Hunter (9069), Waco Cameron & Co., Inc., Waco, Texas.
 UTAH—(State of Utah) H. K. Cromer (30610), Third West and First North, Salt Lake City, Utah.
 VIRGINIA—(State of Virginia) John M. Gibbs (27086) North Carolina Pine Ass'n., Norfolk, Va.
 WASHINGTON—(Seattle District) Alvin Schwager (32113) 1201 4th Ave., Seattle, Wash.
 WASHINGTON—(Spokane District) R. L. Bayne, (26060) Box 673, Spokane, Washington.
 WASHINGTON—(Tacoma District) George J. Osgood (32106), Wheeler-Osgood Co., Tacoma, Wash.
 WEST VIRGINIA—W. D. Knuffman (14488) Box 564, Hamlet, N. C.
 WEST VIRGINIA—(Northern District) C. E. Gray (23153), Clarksburg, W. Va.
 WISCONSIN—E. A. Elbert (30460), 668 Forty-eighth St., Milwaukee, Wis.
 WYOMING—(Wyoming District) W. R. Grier (2778) W. R. Grier Lbr. Co., Chey-Wyo.

33970-C. A. Wood, President-Kirby Wood, Muncie, Ind.

CONCATENATION No. 2368, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, JAN. 17, 1924.

- Candidates. 33971-Alma Gardner Burton, Salesman-McFarland Lumber Co., Salt Lake City, Utah.

CONCATENATION No. 2369, FRESNO, CALIF., JAN. 19, 1924.

- Candidates. 33983-Edward J. Ballantyne, Co. Trowhitt Shieff Co., Fresno, Calif.

CONCATENATION No. 2371, SAGINAW, MICH., JAN. 25, 1924.

- Candidates. 34019-Archie J. Clark, Sec.-Bad Axe Lumber Co., Bad Axe, Mich.

CONCATENATION No. 2372, DAVENPORT, IOWA, JAN. 31, 1924.

- Candidates. 34051-Ernest C. Cox, Mgr.-Tisdale Lumber Co., Keosauqua, Ia.

CONCATENATION No. 2374, OAKLAND, CALIF., JAN. 26, 1924.

- Candidates. 34065-Charles Frances Allen, President & Manager-Contractors and Builders Supply Co., Oakland, Calif.

CONCATENATION No. 2370, KANSAS CITY, MO., JAN. 24, 1924.

- Candidates. 34024-Frank D. Baird, Asst. Purch. Agent-Forest Lumber Co., Kansas City, Mo.

- Candidates. 34038-James L. Hawkins, Salesman-Dierks Lumber & Coal Co., 700 Gates Building, Kansas City, Mo.

CONCATENATION No. 2375, ALEXANDRIA, LA., JAN. 26, 1924.

- Candidates. 34102-Robert Jefferson Abbott, Vice-President-Darling Lbr. Co., Baton Rouge, La.

CONCATENATION No. 2376, CRESTON, IA., FEB. 6, 1924.

- Candidates. 34127-Francis Marion Chaudler, Owner-Chaudler Lbr. Co., Gravit, Iowa.

CONCATENATION No. 2377, WINNIPEG, CAN., JAN. 24, 1924.

- Candidates. 34141-Clifford M. Ackland, Vice-Pres. and Mgr.-D. Ackland & Son Lumber Co., Winnipeg, Man., Canada.

CONCATENATION No. 2378, ALEXANDRIA, LA., JAN. 26, 1924.

- Candidates. 34102-Robert Jefferson Abbott, Vice-President-Darling Lbr. Co., Baton Rouge, La.

CONCATENATION No. 2379, WINNIPEG, CAN., JAN. 24, 1924.

- Candidates. 34141-Clifford M. Ackland, Vice-Pres. and Mgr.-D. Ackland & Son Lumber Co., Winnipeg, Man., Canada.

CONCATENATION No. 2380, ALEXANDRIA, LA., JAN. 26, 1924.

- Candidates. 34102-Robert Jefferson Abbott, Vice-President-Darling Lbr. Co., Baton Rouge, La.

34122-John Everett Stuckey, Vice-President-R. E. Stuckey & Sons, Alexandria, La.

- 34123-Lee Rawlings Thomas, Salesmanager-H. D. Foote Lbr. Co., Inc., Alexandria, La.

CONCATENATION No. 2376, CRESTON, IA., FEB. 6, 1924.

- Candidates. 34127-Francis Marion Chaudler, Owner-Chaudler Lbr. Co., Gravit, Iowa.

CONCATENATION No. 2377, WINNIPEG, CAN., JAN. 24, 1924.

- Candidates. 34141-Clifford M. Ackland, Vice-Pres. and Mgr.-D. Ackland & Son Lumber Co., Winnipeg, Man., Canada.

CONCATENATION No. 2378, ALEXANDRIA, LA., JAN. 26, 1924.

- Candidates. 34102-Robert Jefferson Abbott, Vice-President-Darling Lbr. Co., Baton Rouge, La.

CONCATENATION No. 2379, WINNIPEG, CAN., JAN. 24, 1924.

- Candidates. 34141-Clifford M. Ackland, Vice-Pres. and Mgr.-D. Ackland & Son Lumber Co., Winnipeg, Man., Canada.

CONCATENATION No. 2380, ALEXANDRIA, LA., JAN. 26, 1924.

- Candidates. 34102-Robert Jefferson Abbott, Vice-President-Darling Lbr. Co., Baton Rouge, La.

34168-Frank Healey, Accountant, Western Retail Lumbermen's Assoc., Winnipeg, Man., Canada.

- 34170-M. G. Hoffman, Sec., J. W. Black Lumber Co., Corning, Ark.

CONCATENATION No. 2376, CRESTON, IA., FEB. 6, 1924.

- Candidates. 34127-Francis Marion Chaudler, Owner-Chaudler Lbr. Co., Gravit, Iowa.

CONCATENATION No. 2377, WINNIPEG, CAN., JAN. 24, 1924.

- Candidates. 34141-Clifford M. Ackland, Vice-Pres. and Mgr.-D. Ackland & Son Lumber Co., Winnipeg, Man., Canada.

CONCATENATION No. 2378, ALEXANDRIA, LA., JAN. 26, 1924.

- Candidates. 34102-Robert Jefferson Abbott, Vice-President-Darling Lbr. Co., Baton Rouge, La.

CONCATENATION No. 2379, WINNIPEG, CAN., JAN. 24, 1924.

- Candidates. 34141-Clifford M. Ackland, Vice-Pres. and Mgr.-D. Ackland & Son Lumber Co., Winnipeg, Man., Canada.

CONCATENATION No. 2380, ALEXANDRIA, LA., JAN. 26, 1924.

- Candidates. 34102-Robert Jefferson Abbott, Vice-President-Darling Lbr. Co., Baton Rouge, La.

29593-Olaf C. Neilsen, Smoot Lumber Co., Payson, Utah.

- 34173-Fredrick W. Hess, Gen. Mgr., Revelstoke Sawmill Co., Ltd., Calgary, Canada.

CONCATENATION No. 2376, CRESTON, IA., FEB. 6, 1924.

- Candidates. 34127-Francis Marion Chaudler, Owner-Chaudler Lbr. Co., Gravit, Iowa.

CONCATENATION No. 2377, WINNIPEG, CAN., JAN. 24, 1924.

- Candidates. 34141-Clifford M. Ackland, Vice-Pres. and Mgr.-D. Ackland & Son Lumber Co., Winnipeg, Man., Canada.

CONCATENATION No. 2378, ALEXANDRIA, LA., JAN. 26, 1924.

- Candidates. 34102-Robert Jefferson Abbott, Vice-President-Darling Lbr. Co., Baton Rouge, La.

CONCATENATION No. 2379, WINNIPEG, CAN., JAN. 24, 1924.

- Candidates. 34141-Clifford M. Ackland, Vice-Pres. and Mgr.-D. Ackland & Son Lumber Co., Winnipeg, Man., Canada.

CONCATENATION No. 2380, ALEXANDRIA, LA., JAN. 26, 1924.

- Candidates. 34102-Robert Jefferson Abbott, Vice-President-Darling Lbr. Co., Baton Rouge, La.

Reinstatements

January 9 to February 9, 1924.

Table with 3 columns: No., Name, Address. Lists reinstatement details for various members.

Table with 3 columns: No., Name, Address. Lists reinstatement details for various members.

- 4650—Wm. B. Golding, Natl. Hdq. Lbr. Assn., New Orleans, La.
- 30212—Andrew A. Sartori, Enterprise Lbr. Co., Alexandria, La.
- 5523—Martin J. Logan, Alexandria Lbr. Co., Alexandria, La.
- 10083—J. Z. Moon, Vernon Parish Lbr. Co., Kurtwood, La.
- 9608—Sebastian J. Bosen, Jackson, Sherry Co., Creton, La.
- 9613—Shelton B. Jackson, Jackson, Serry Co., Creton, La.
- 14353—Robert G. Berry, Green Bay Lumber Co., Shennandoah, Va.
- 11656—Anton D. Collins, Essex Lumber & Fuel Co., Essex, Va.
- 22491—Gates H. Rheam, Nebr. Bridge Supply Omaha, Nebr.
- 16316—Henry Hoffmann, Jr., Hoffman & Son, Manning, Ia.
- 11665—Guy W. Thurman, Ridgway & Thurman, Blanchard, Ia.
- 5664—C. M. Catecourt, Stokely Yards, Inc., Nolin, In.
- 12307—Alvin K. Godfrey, The Monarch Lbr. Co., Ltd., Winnipeg, Can.
- 24152—Roy G. Roberts, The Monarch Lbr. Co., Ltd., Winnipeg, Canada.
- 27538—Clifford K. Leslie, Dutton Wall Lbr. Co., Ltd., Winnipeg, Man.
- 22729—Charles J. Lee, North Ave. Lbr. & Supply Co., Winnipeg, Canada.
- 23371—Harry D. Beers, Dominion Lbr. & Fuel Co., Winnipeg, Can.
- 18881—William Stubbs, J. C. Graham Co., Ltd., Winnipeg, Canada.
- 22732—Harry C. McWilliams, Monarch Lbr. Co., Winnipeg, Man., Can.
- 24130—John S. McDermid, Notre Dame Ave., Winnipeg, Man., Canada.
- 13004—William P. Dutton, Dutton Wall Lbr. Co., Ltd., Winnipeg, Canada.
- 27335—J. J. Dagg, Theo. A. Burrows Lbr. Co., Ltd., Winnipeg, Canada.
- 18868—Douglas McNeel, Beaver Lbr. Co., Winnipeg, Man., Canada.
- 21805—George A. Tompfe, 601 McIntyre Bldg., Winnipeg, Man., Canada.
- 16381—Joan A. Teller, Dutton-Wall Lumber Co., Winnipeg, Man., Canada.

MY ROAD

If I could find a little road,
A happy little, winding road,
Away up in the hills,
With hemlock trees o'ershadowing it,
And flecks of sunlight gladdening it,
And clear, brown, chuckling rills,
I'd give my very life to it,
The joyous, luring thrill of it,
Clean swept with fragrant air,
I'd break my bread with humble souls,
My creed the gypsy's glowing coals,
The evening star my prayer.

—Ruth Bradway in New York Sun

HOO-HOO CLUBS

- No. 1.—Atlanta Hoo Hoo Club, of Atlanta, Ga.—president, J. E. Adams; secretary-treasurer, C. B. Harman.
- No. 2.—Hoo-Hoo Club of Los Angeles, Calif. President—Herman S. Rosenberg; Secretary-Treasurer—C. J. Laughlin.
- No. 3.—Hoo-Hoo Club of San Diego, Calif. President—A. A. Frost; Secretary-Treasurer—Frank Benz.
- No. 4.—Hoo Hoo Club of Beaumont, Tex.—president, Leroy W. King; secretary-treasurer, R. D. Naylor.
- No. 5.—Hoo Hoo Club of Oklahoma City, Okla.—president, C. J. Jennings; vice-president, C. J. Eskridge; secretary-treasurer, W. B. Campbell.
- No. 6.—Hoo-Hoo Club at St. Louis, Mo.—president, Hal Ball; Secretary-Treasurer John Larsen.
- No. 7.—Hoo Hoo Club of El Paso, Tex.—president, Fred Woodworth; secretary-treasurer, Miere C. Johnson.
- No. 8.—Hoo Hoo Club of Amarillo, Tex.—president, C. D. Whitsitt; secretary-treasurer, U. N. Oliver.
- No. 9.—Hoo-Hoo Club of San Francisco, Calif. President—R. A. Hiscok; Vice-President—J. W. Kelley; Secretary-Treasurer—J. C. McCabe.
- No. 10.—Grand Rapids, Michigan, Hoo Hoo Club—president, William Verhey; secretary, Frank H. Wagner; treasurer, A. M. Manning.
- No. 11.—Hoo Hoo club of Cairo, Ill.—president, J. A. Beables; secretary-treasurer, L. S. Johnson.
- No. 12.—Hoo Hoo Club of Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minn.—president, A. S. Bliss; secretary-treasurer, Doc Watson.
- No. 13.—Harry L. Folsom Hoo Hoo Club of Boston, Mass.—president, R. M. Davenport; secretary-treasurer, H. E. Lewis.
- No. 14.—Hoo Hoo Club of Duluth, Minn.—president, Charles A. Mattson; secretary-treasurer, H. S. Robb.
- No. 15.—Hoo-Hoo Club of Warren, Ark. President—G. C. Morgan; Vice-President—J. C. Moore; Secretary-Treasurer—J. C. Anthony.
- No. 16.—Hoo Hoo Club of Spokane, Wash.—president, R. I. Bayne; secretary-treasurer, E. F. Water.
- No. 17.—Hoo-Hoo Club of Lansing, Michigan—president, B. F. Hall, Jr.; Vice-President, Wm. Krass; Secretary-Treasurer, Norman B. Cove.
- No. 18.—Hoo-Hoo Club of Waco, Texas. President—Walter Gregg; Vice-President—W. S. Morrow; Secretary—Bob Nalley.

- No. 19.—Hoo-Hoo Club of Saginaw, Michigan—president, Herman W. Zahnow.
- No. 20.—Hoo-Hoo Club of San Antonio, Texas—president, N. L. Petrich; vice-president, William H. Hearne; secretary-treasurer, John A. Mitchell.
- No. 21.—Hoo-Hoo Club of Fort Wayne, Indiana—president, John Switzer, Jr.
- Indianapolis, Ind. Severin Hotel

HOO-HOO HOMES

- Akron, Ohio.....Portage Hotel
- Alexandria, La.....Bentley Hotel
- Atlanta, Ga.....Ansley Hotel
- Bend, Ore.....Pilot Butte Inn
- Beaumont, Texas.....Beaumont Hotel
- Birmingham, Ala.....Tutwiler Hotel
- Boise, Idaho.....Owyhee Hotel
- Boulder, Colo.....Boulderado Hotel
- Butte, Mont.....Thornton Hotel
- Cairo, Ill.....Halday Hotel
- Canon City, Colo.....Stratmore Hotel
- Centralia, Wash.....Centralia Hotel
- Chicago, Ill.....La Salle Hotel
- Cincinnati, Ohio.....Gibson Hotel
- Colorado Springs, Colo.....Alamo Hotel
- Columbia, S. C.....Jefferson Hotel
- Columbus, Ohio.....Deshler Hotel
- Corinth, Miss.....Waldron Hotel
- Denver, Colo.....Brown Palace
- Detroit, Mich.....Statler Hotel
- Duluth, Minn.....Spalding Hotel
- Elkins, W. Va.....City Hotel
- Fort Collins, Colo.....Northern Hotel
- Fort Morgan, Colo.....Curry Hotel
- Fresno, Calif.....Fresno Hotel
- Glenwood Springs, Colo.....Denver Hotel
- Grand Rapids, Mich.....Pantlind Hotel
- Grand Junction, Colo.....La Court Hotel
- Greeley, Colo.....Camfield Hotel
- Jacksonville, Fla.....Mason Hotel
- Kansas City, Mo.....Muehlebach Hotel
- Lake Charles, La.....Majestic Hotel
- Longmont, Colo.....Imperial Hotel
- Loveland, Colo.....Lincoln Hotel
- Los Angeles, Calif.....Hayward Hotel
- Macon, Ga.....Denney Hotel
- Memphis, Tenn.....Chicago Hotel
- Milwaukee, Wis.....Wisconsin Hotel
- Minneapolis, Minn.....Andrews Hotel
- Mobile, Ala.....Battle Hotel
- Montgomery, Ala.....The Exchange Hotel
- New Orleans, La.....Grunwald Hotel
- New York, N Y.....McAlpin Hotel

- Portland, Ore.....Portland Hotel
- Pueblo, Colo.....Vall Hotel
- Phoenix, Ariz.....Adams Hotel
- St. Louis, Mo.....Statler Hotel
- Salt Lake City, Utah.....Utah Hotel
- San Diego, Calif.....San Diego Hotel
- San Francisco, Calif.....Ramona Hotel
- Seattle, Wash.....Washington Hotel
- Springfield, Ohio.....Bancroft Hotel
- Sterling, Colo.....Cole Hotel
- St. Paul, Minn.....St. Paul Hotel
- Tampa, Fla.....Hillsboro Hotel
- Toledo, Ohio.....Secor Hotel
- Trinidad, Colo.....Columbia Hotel
- Tuscaloosa, Ala.....McLester Hotel
- Winnipeg, Canada.....Marlborough Hotel

—HOO-HOO—

When Visiting Any of these Places—Stop at The Hoo-Hoo Home—You'll be treated right and be made welcome

Planting the Seed

Hoo-Hoo has made a lot of friends for the organization through its educational work in behalf of conservation and reforestation, but no movement has attracted as much attention and favorable comment as that which has inspired Boy Scouts of the United States to join in the planting of trees and the protection of tree life.

The Lure of the Forest

More than 6,000,000 persons visited the national forests during 1923, according to the annual report of Chief Forester W. B. Greeley. This is double the number of six years ago.

Send a Post Card from Minneapolis Sept. 8, 9 and 10