James A. Jones L-72703
Snark of the Universe

It is a privilege and an honor to accept the challenge of the high office and the responsibilities you have entrusted me with, as your "Snark of the Universe."

I feel very humble, but will do all within my capabilities, to carry on the great traditions of our great Lumber Fraternity. I have no ego to nourish, so I can devote my full time to the betterment of Hoo-Hoo, and all of our members.

I would like to congratulate, the Honolulu Club No. 142 for a great convention, and the warm Hawaiian hospitality, and all the courtesies shown all of us. Everything was in the Hoo-Hoo tradition of friendship.

I earnestly solicit your suggestions and your cooperation in working together for our mutual strengthening of the Fraternal Order of Lumbermen. If each of you, as I do, will pledge ourselves to seek membership and a well balanced series of constructive programs, within our respective Hoo-Hoo Clubs, we will find that we will grow and that we can enjoy our fellowship all the more.

Our Fraternal Order of Lumbermen is unique, and because of its uniqueness, because of its program, because of its fraternalism, we are proud to be members. We can express our pride by asking fellow lumber and forest products men to join with us in the Fraternalism of Hoo-Hoo International. Let us capitalize on it.

I hope also, that we can make this Hoo-Hoo year a FUN year.

F---Fraternity
U---Unity
N---Now

Hoo-Hoo was founded January 21, 1892 by six men stranded in Gurdon, Arkansas on a lumber pile by flooded railroad tracks. Since that date over 86,000 men have passed into the Garden of the Great Black Cat. It was by the merest chance that this great body started in the direction of being an organization of lumbermen. Our eternal thanks should go to those six men for our great heritage, "Hoo-Hoo International, the Fraternal order of Lumbermen." If we never forget its foundations and its early principles, we will remain the greatest power for good, which any industry ever held within its ranks.

In talking about the story of Hoo-Hoo, Bolling Arthur Johnson in Sept. 1924, quoted from St Mather: "Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: And the rain descended and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock."

Report from The Chairman

Those Memorable Years

Fellow Hoo-Hoo I salute you and thank you for a job well done. As Chairman of Hoo-Hoo International you are like an Admiral of the ship, you stand on the bow and see that the Captain and the crew are running the ship in good order. If your eyes and ears tell you this is happening you just smile and say "well done". My fellow Hoo-Hoo this has happened this past year, because a lot of people made it all happen. Your Snark has done a great job, but none of this would be possible without a lot of support from a lot of people. This year will complete my term on the International Board of Directors, which I am sorry to say must come to an end. This is not an end in working in true fellowship in Hoo-Hoo and that is what it is all about.

I went on the board in September 1973 in Miami, Florida and now 6 years later I am leaving the board in beautiful Hawaii. I have worked with the finest people in the world during this time. We had a membership of 7657 and now that number has jumped to 8468. This is definitely a plus for all of us. Your leaders and you people have worked very hard to turn our order to an up swing, and this you have accomplished.

We had help in many areas in our order and definitely showed our fellow man that we need each

Hoo-Hoo has a great foundation, it is our obligation to build a mighty organization upon that foundation.

Health, happiness and long life to all of you.

Report from the President

It's a pleasure to report that Hoo-Hoo received a renewed vitality this past year. Our 9-point program was successful because many members believed in it and worked for it's success. Goal No. 1, to increase membership, was achieved with a whopping 432 members over last year. This is the largest increase we've had in the past 23 years of record-keeping. Our efforts to advertise were also highly successful because we found a wealth of free advertising available to us for the asking. Numerous trade journals carried the Hoo-Hoo message for us and two (The "BluePrint Magazine" in Florida and the "Lumber Co-Operator" in the N.E.) devoted front covers and their entire magazine to write-ups about Hoo-Hoo.

I've been advised that several other trade journals will extend the same courtesy to us in the near future. This is absolutely tremendous, because if we had to pay for this service, the cost would be in the thousands. The rewards for Hoo-Hoo due to this other, People needing People. A number of new clubs and old were started this past year. Before 1973 we were having a definite decrease in membership, by a lot of hard work we have turned this around and the last 3 years we showed an increase of 911 members. This past year being our largest gain. This shows unity among all you great people with good leadership. So with this I leave the International Board with a feeling of pride -- we do'ed it. But don't stop now -- lets grow bigger and stronger in the booming 80's.

Warmest Personal Regards,
Chairman of the Board.

courtesy will be reaped for many years to come. Additional P.R. work and fence-mending took place when I was afforded the opportunity to be the guest speaker at the 1979 Hoo-Hoo-Ette convention. I believe I was the first Snark to speak at a Hoo-Hoo-Ette convention and as such, am confident closer ties have now been established between our two organizations.

In Goal No. 2, each Supreme 9 was asked to make a pledge to form or reactivate one club in his jurisdiction. This was done, so we are now 9 clubs richer than we were a year ago. In addition to these starts, the seeds for 10 additional clubs have been sown by our S-9's. I'm confident these additional clubs will be going by the end of this coming year. That's another record, because we haven't started that many clubs in one year for a long, long time. As for a club in England, I'm still working on that and will continue to correspond with people there until a club is started.

With regards to reviving and starting a Hoo-Hoo song, this too met with a resounding success. Many club verses were written and sung wherever I traveled. Our Hoo-Hoo song and 9 of the club verses given me will appear in the Log & Tally. I strongly suggest you include it in your club programs, and in particular, conclude concats with the singing of our Hoo-Hoo song.

We struck out on Goal No. 4. Every encyclopedia publisher was contacted and responded in the negative, citing high costs to list every club in existence. They feel if they listed our club, they would have to list all the others. So much for that.

Goal No. 5, for more multi-club meetings, was also successful. Almost every jurisdiction now boasts multi-club meetings and it's hoped this type of meeting will grow in popularity and be fostered by our leaders. Much good for Hoo-Hoo can and will come from these meetings.

Goal No. 6, to have more members seek International office, will be achieved in the next few years. Many questions were asked of me about these offices. As a result, member interest in Supreme 9 positions is running high. Many jurisdictions should have 2 or 3 people seeking International office soon. Again, this is healthy for Hoo-Hoo.

The input asked for in Goal No. 7 was received. We improved our magazine, brought our club charters up to date, exchanged a wealth of Hoo-Hoo ideas and in general, made some waves. We need to make waves in Hoo-Hoo to keep up with the times. Keep in mind that it takes waves to wash the beaches clean. All the beaches in Hawaii are constantly washed by waves and look beautiful. If the water on these beaches were still, they'd soon start to stink. So, don't be afraid to make waves; let your officers hear from you. They'll do a better job for you and Hoo-Hoo in return for your ideas.

Goal No. 8, to establish a club secretary's award, enjoyed moderate success. Some input was received on this and in addition, several clubs honored their long-time secretaries for service to the club. Recently, several more suggestions came in for a special club secretary's pin. I have offered my service to pursue this further and will report on it at a later date.

Our last Log & Tally carried a cover story describing the success of Goal No. 9. Representative Clausen, the recipient of an honorary membership in Hoo-Hoo, turned out to be a real gentleman and a true friend of the people in the forest products industry. He felt highly honored to be the first Congressman to receive the award. We, likewise, were also honored to add his name to our list of other illustrious honorary members.

Our recent convention in Honolulu turned out to be another record-setter for Hoo-Hoo in 1979. All of these sessions were well attended as a result of over 450 registrants (wives and girlfriends included).

Another significant accomplishment this year was the bettering of communication with Australia. I enjoyed the privilege of attending a portion of their convention in Honolulu prior to ours.

We also struck a positive note financially for Hoo-Hoo in 1979. We finished the year in the black by $5,100. This shows what can be done when we have goals and work together to achieve them. I visited over 50 clubs and attended 5 jurisdictional meetings during my reign as Snark and have left these visits with the feeling that in most instances, our members want a club to have a solid base through worthwhile programs and projects. It appears the "booze and broods" era of Hoo-Hoo is becoming a thing of the past. Calls that I've made to ex-members of defunct clubs clearly indicate that the "party boys" killed the club with too much fun and games. Even though we are a fraternal order, it appears we have to keep in mind the other goals and purposes of our order as spelled out in our "Articles of Incorporation and By-laws". My personal contacts throughout Hoo-Hoo land further indicate we have the capability of increasing our membership to 15 or 20 thousand members if we want to do it. With inflation taking a bigger bite out of our revenue dollar every year, it's obvious we have to increase our membership to remain solvent. The adverse impact upon our industry by the environmentalists also supports the need for increasing our membership. Increased membership and the use of good club programs can offset the detrimental effect the preservationalists have upon our industry.

I have tried throughout my year to give thanks to the many people who contributed to the success of my year. It's impossible to single out any one or two individuals who were more helpful than others. So, let it suffice to say, I had the support of hundreds of people and to each of you, I extend my thanks. You

There were no by-laws changes proposed. Ernie Wales, Rameses No. 50, made the following suggestions:

2.) Suggested five ways in which he thought the needed funds could be raised to maintain the building without drawing the money from the general fund.

Report from 1st Veep

The first vice president, up until the Honolulu Convention, has not had any specific duties, but on my own I did a little traveling around the U.S. and Canada. I visited a widely scattered group of clubs in about all jurisdictions. Some of them are: Gurdon, Arkansas; Wichita, Kansas; Detroit, Michigan; Honolulu, Hawaii; Duncan, British Columbia; Tampa, Florida; Norfolk, Virginia; Syracuse, New York; Boston, Mass. and Rochester, New York.

Also, Rochester, Minnesota; Reno, Nevada; Eureka, California; Houston, Texas; Albuquerque, New Mexico and Fresno, Ft. Bragg, Redding, Oakland and Ukiah, California.

Our membership is increasing with the cooperation of all of our members and officers.

The increase in membership is testimony enough to show that everyone is really "putting out." Jurisdiction IV and IX showed the greatest increase, but with great workers on the Supreme Nine this year, Hoo-Hoo in 1979-1980 is in good hands.

Health, happiness and long life!

James A. Jones L-72703
1st Vice President.

Report from 2nd Veep

I want to thank all of you who attended our 87th Annual Convention in Honolulu, Hawaii and supported my successful bid for the office of 1st Vice President.

I pledge to you to carry out the duties of the office as they are stated in our by-laws, plus any and all other duties assigned to me by our Snark.

I have known Snark Jimmy Jones for nearly 13 years and know him well enough to realize that we can work in harmony and get the job done.

Hoo-Hoo is no different than you or I in both our personal and

Report from Juris. I

Some twelve months ago in Toronto, Ontario I was elected to the Supreme Nine for Jurisdiction I to fill an unexpired term left vacant by the resignation of Joe Cusack. Jurisdiction I encompasses the six New England states, Eastern New York, Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Washington, D.C., Maryland and Delaware.

As of July 31st, there are 15 active clubs in the Jurisdiction with a total paid membership of 1,043.

During the past year I attempted to do basically three things: 1.) Make personal visits 2.) Communications 3.) Newsletters.

I believe that Jurisdiction I had a good year. In my visits to the local clubs I found a great deal of business lives. I believe we can solve Hoo-Hoo's problems, but it's going to take an effort on the part of everyone.

We need to take in about 800 new members again this year, and this should not be too difficult. You met the challenge last year and succeeded. I'm asking each of you to take an eligible lumberman to your next club meeting.

Many clubs have only one Concat per year. I'm suggesting to have at least two or as many as are needed. I believe we must accept members any time they are prepared to join our Order.

Another way to help Hoo-Hoo is to sell advertising in the LOG & TALLY magazine. The rates are really quite reasonable and every issue gets into the hands of someone in the forest products industry. Do some manufacturer a favor and tell him about LOG & TALLY. For more information, talk to your club president, or any International officer.

I have pledged to you to give my all for Hoo-Hoo again this year, and I would like to have that same pledge from you.

enthusiasm, good strong programs and a feeling of great spirit among the officers, directors and members. Two particular points I would like to mention - the reactivation of the Western Massachusetts Club No. 59, and the fact the New Hampshire Club No. 107 now has over 100 members for the first time in its history.

As far as personal visits are concerned, I visited Rhode Island (No. 51), Maine (No. 54), Western Mass. (No. 59), Washington, D.C. (No. 99), New Hampshire (No. 107), Albany, N.Y. (No. 161), New Jersey (No. 171), Connecticut (No. 199), and Boston (No. 13).

As far as communicating is concerned, I feel that I accomplished a lot by telephoning a number of officers in the various clubs.

The third part of my program was a newsletter. I sent out four this year along with a couple of special letters to try and let the clubs know what was taking place as a result of communications with International.

In closing I would like to thank publicly the officers and directors of the clubs in Jurisdiction I for the fine support they gave me during the past year.

Report from Juris. II

Upon reaching the halfway point in my two-year term of office, I look back on what has taken place and what I can hope to accomplish in the coming year. My goals were: to form new clubs, to bring about an increase in membership and to bring responsive interaction between clubs in Jurisdiction II, and between those clubs and Hoo-Hoo International. I am happy to report the formation of two new clubs - One in Flint, Michigan and the other in Syracuse, New York. That's the good news.

But the bad news is that Jurisdiction II dropped slightly in membership from last year despite a most aggressive and successful membership drive by the Detroit Club No. 28. However, I am sure that this will be reversed if we continue to promote actively the fraternal spirit of Hoo-Hoo on both the Jurisdictional and the International levels.

We are going to do this by holding more "Mini-Conventions" within the Jurisdiction; by trying to get space in Trade Magazines to create interest in our organization, and by trying to get each club to send at least one delegate to the Atlanta Convention.

We also hope to start or reactivate at least three more clubs in the coming year and to look for more Deputy Supreme Nines to work with us on our goals.

To get things started, I'm going to ask each Club in Jurisdiction II to have a membership drive this coming Hoo-Hoo year and we'll place special recognition for the club that has the best percentage increase and for the individual that contributes the most personally.

For myself, I'll try to visit as many clubs as I can, particularly those trying to revitalize themselves and I'll work to bring the International Officers to as many of our meetings as possible. We'll try to arrange "Mini-Conventions" for them so they can meet with members from many clubs.

I would like to ask the help and support of each of our members in working to achieve these goals. Each of you has his own reason for joining and belonging to Hoo-Hoo. You can probably remember who it was that asked you to join and chances are he is still a good friend of yours. You probably feel he did you a favor and you're glad he brought you in. I'm sure each of you know someone in our industry who has not yet joined. Do him a favor, just as someone did for you and bring him into Hoo-Hoo. He'll thank you for it

Jurisdiction III held its annual mini convention at Ka-Nee-Ta Resort in North Central Oregon, on the 4th, 5th and 6th of May. Ted Fullmer of the Portland Club did another bang up job of putting on this event. Club reports were given by various representatives and for those who were not present, the deputy S-9's advised us on how each club was getting along. Snark Gene Zanck and Jackie were there to add to the importance of this meeting.

Norm Mikalson of the Spokane Club threw his hat into the ring for S-9 and received enthusiastic support of those in attendance. Deputy S-9 members, Al Meiers, Norm Mikalson and Louie Buschbacher were all at the convention and were presented with momentos. All of these items were made of several species of wood from Australia and New Zealand and were obtained during a recent trip down under by yours truly. The exchange of ideas and exposure of new officers to what other clubs are doing keeps Jurisdiction III growing and active. A lot of good ideas are carried back and put to use in their local clubs.

Harry Van Sickle, Deputy S-9 from Billings, Montana, has put together a multi club meeting at Harrison Hot Springs, Montana for early July, for the Montana Clubs and whoever else might like to attend. At both of these meetings, golf, swimming, business meetings, and just plain good time are part of the program.

We are still the largest jurisdiction in all of Hoo-Hoo.

Report from Juris. IV

Jurisdiction IV is a very active unit of our Order, with 12 clubs (including one in Singapore) and over 700 paid members. Hoo-Hoo in Australia is now in its 18th year with the first club formed in Adelaide in April 1962.

While social activities are not ignored, it is anything but a social club in our part of the world. Fellowship rates high amongst our objectives, together with educational programs, community service in the name of Hoo-Hoo, and the establishment by that and other means, of a high image of the club within our industry, and of the industry within the community.

Two Clubs, Sydney and Melbourne, have recently conducted important seminars for the industry, each of four sessions, examining the future supply scene in the local and imported timbers - both were sell-outs.

Three clubs - Hobart, Mount Gambier and Launceston - have publicly participated in World Forestry Day, earning great publicity for the Order.

The Brisbane Club helped to organize Timber Week in their city, culminating in a gala dinner and crowning of the Timber Queen, who is here in Honolulu as part of her prize. This and other fund raising activities enable the club to donate over $12,000 in three children's charities.

The Perth Club is planning a project called "Save Our Soil" (S.O.S.), which involves a massive tree planting program by the public, and the Adelaide Club initiated Project Wooden Toy which has been adopted by a number of other clubs - and which past Supreme Nine Des Gill will be describing to you later in the convention. Brisbane and Melbourne entertained their State Governors at club meetings and most clubs have been able to command the interest and attendance of VIP guests.

All clubs meet at least once monthly and usually program interesting guest speakers who talk on a wide range of subjects, both industry and general. In most cases there is a Ladies Night once a year, and at least one club newsletter begins with "Show This To Your Wife."

Northeast Victoria is probably the most scattered industry community to have a club and many members drive up to 100 miles to attend the meetings. Northeast New South Wales also comprises a large area and has bid for and won a Tri-Ennial Australian Forest Products Conference for their area next year and will play a key role in its conduct.

Newcastle is our smallest club but has the second best attendance record and won the Jurisdiction IV Outstanding Club Activity Award.

It would take hours to relate all the activities of all the clubs. Suffice it to say that each one is a working club and is outstanding in its own way. With my policy of concentrating on more effective clubs and more effective membership participation, no new clubs were formed during the past year, although Singapore Club's Constitution gained government sanction in June which was then off and running, and Kevin Kelly is well advanced in forming one or more clubs in New Zealand.

As you know, we have a strong bid for the 1982 International Convention to be held in Melbourne - that will be Hoo-Hoo's 90th Anniversary and Australia's 20th - and if we succeed in our bid, we look forward to showing you all a real big hearted Aussie Welcome and every club in the land hopes to entertain, if not all, at least some of you while you are "down under".

is 248 paid and 12 unpaid members, versus 231 last year.

Vancouver once again have supported the Junior Forest Wardens Camp at Evans Lake in a monetary way; and some of the members have also spent considerable time at the camp doing repairs and general upkeep.

Snark Gene Zanck and his wife Jackie attended the Annual Ladies' Night Dinner and Draw in October. This is one of Vancouver's fund raising events. Their main fund raising event was a dinner and draw, with a prize of $5,000.00 going to David Demuth.

This year, the Vancouver Club honored Ted Pratt, who has arranged their golf tournaments for 14 consecutive years. The Ted Pratt Trophy is awarded to the Low Net Paid Up Hoo-Hoo member.

Toronto Club 53, The 1978/1979 year started for Toronto with hosting a vary successful International convention. Monthly meetings were planned at the beginning of the Hoo-Hoo year, and proved to be very successful.

There were two ladies' nights, two concats, two golf tournaments and three business meetings with three guest speakers. There were 23 new members signed up during the year. However, we lost some old members, and at this time we have 155 paid compared to 164 last year, and 32 unpaid members.

Once again Toronto carried on with their Industrial Arts Scholarship Program for the 11th consecutive year. This program usually involves 100% participation by the active members. Each year more schools and students are participating. All projects constructed by the students in Grades 7, 8 and 9 must contain 80% or more wood content. They are finally judged and displayed at the Toronto International Home show in April.

We then present the winners with cash scholarship awards. If any of the clubs care to piggyback on this Wood Promotion

Victoria Club No. 183, have signed up 16 new members at their last Concat and two reinstatements, bringing their paid up membership to 62, with 15 members unpaid, as of July 31st, compared to 65 paid the previous year.

The Victoria Club support the Junior Forest Wardens in their area in a monetary way; and are also working on a tentative wood promotion with the City of Victoria.

Regular business and social meetings were held throughout the year, winding up with a family picnic.

In Jurisdiction V we are very optimistic about 1979-1980 being a successful year. We anticipate the reactivation of the following clubs: -

Prince George, B.C.
Edmonton, Alberta
Ottawa, Ontario.

We are very close to getting some of these started. Right now I suggest we will have one going in October and one in November.

We are also working on four new clubs in Jurisdiction V to start up in the Fall of 1979. They are:-

The Pas, Manitoba
London, Ontario
Halifax, Nova Scotia
Moncton, New Brunswick.

Just Briefly, the Pas, Manitoba is 500 miles north of Winnipeg, and came about with an inquiry from Nick Barkett who works for the Manitoba Forestry Resources Ltd., a mill that produces 60 million feet of lumber per year, and employs 212 people. He said they were interested in Hoo-Hoo. Gene Zanck, Cliff Cunningham and myself have corresponded with Mr. Barkett on several occasions, and I have phoned there numerous times. He's not there when we phone, and does not answer the letters. We will keep trying.

London, Ontario is located midway between Toronto and Detroit, and will be an ideal

During the year I attended 12 club functions in the Jurisdiction VI range, from the western-most Honolulu Hoo-Hoo Club No. 142's Ladies Night Dinner Dance in February, to the eastern-most Albuquerque Hoo-Hoo Club No. 69 in August where I participated in a concat. I also participated in a concat held by the Shasta-Cascade Hoo-Hoo Club No. 133, Redding, in January.

I visited the Humboldt Hoo-Hoo Club No. 63 in Eureka, California on two occasions. I also attended the Memorial Grove. It is a very beautiful grove and I highly recommend it to anyone who is in the Eureka, California area.

location for a Hoo-Hoo Club.

Halifax and Moncton are located in Canada's Maritimes, and should also be a good location for Hoo-Hoo clubs. Bas Riddell, a past president of the Toronto Club, is now living in the Maritimes, and I am confident that he will be a great asset for Hoo-Hoo.

Incidentally, if there are any members here from the Calgary, Cowichan Valley or Alaska Clubs, who wonder why I did not make any comments about their clubs, it is because they did not send me a report of their activities for the year.

In closing, we as Hoo-Hoo members have to come up with more interesting programs to retain members.

Even though Jurisdiction V has about the same number of members paid up as we did last year at this time, our records show that we have a total of 106 unpaid members on our books. How do we get these back?

The executive and board of directors of each club should take note, and sit down and say what are we doing wrong? What can we do to retain members? What can we do to make meetings more interesting?

I participated in a concat in May held by my own San Joaquin Valley Hoo-Hoo Club No. 31, and attended the Four Club meetings in Los Angeles in August. Also, in August, with the assistance of brothers from the Sacramento and Redding clubs, as well as Snark Gene Zanck, we attempted to reactivate the Reno Hoo-Hoo Club. It appears that this will be accomplished in the very near future.

At the Sacramento Hoo-Hoo Club No. 109 I learned about their Blood Bank, which has been very helpful to several members of Hoo-Hoo, and is one of the better club programs I had an opportunity to hear about.

Report from Juris. VII

THE 1978-1979 YEAR OF HOO-HOO got off to a great start following the Toronto Convention.

An amiable board meeting was held and the International Officers and Directors departed full of enthusiasm and optimism for all of Hoo-Hoo for the coming year.....

Results from Jurisdiction VII again produced a fruitful year. The Highlight being the reactivation of the San Antonio Hoo-Hoo Club No. 20 on February 22, 1979.

The activation of this club was a testimonial of what Hoo-Hoo really stands for. We were honored to have Gene Zanck, Snark of the Universe in attendance, along with 8 members of the Houston Hoo-Hoo Club No 23 and 3 members of the Metroplex Club No. 242.

Following the Happy hour and dinner, discussion was held on whether or not to re-activate the club, as well as WHEN & HOW....THE SPIRIT OF HOO-HOO PREVAILED and it was decided that there was NO TIME LIKE THE PRESENT and a long form concat was held.

During this great concat, and I might add, one of the greatest I've ever attended, there were 29 new members concated and 10 reinstatements.

HOUSTON HOO-HOO CLUB, under the able leadership of their officers, had an outstanding year and continued to increase membership, attendance and enthusiasm.

The mid year board meeting was held in El Paso in Jan., 1979. Following this meeting, we were honored to have 1st Vice President, Jimmy Jones follow us back to Houston to visit his many friends in our area. He was also present during our January HOUSTON HOO-HOO meeting where he became a GOOD GUY and was presented with a WHITE HAT.....

Several members of the Houston Hoo-Hoo Club visited the Metroplex Club No. 242 in April, 1979.

Following the social hour and dinner, a concat was held and 16 kittens were initiated.

The Metroplex Club has continued to grow and be a viable part of the lumber industry in the Dallas-Ft. Worth area. Late reports reaching me, indicate there should be at least 4 members here at this 1979 HONOLULU convention. This club is also taking on a project towards betterment of the communities. We understand that they are looking forward to a sponsorship of the RONALD McDONALD HOUSE. This program should greatly benefit many children & parents in their area. We feel this is a great step forward for this club and may be instrumental in getting other clubs to take part in similar worthwhile projects.

May of 1979, the annual pilgrimage to Gurdon, Arkansas, birthplace of Hoo-Hoo, was made by the Snark and his wife, along with Laurin Champ, Chairman of the Board and myself. We attended the Gurdon Hoo-Hoo Club meeting and enjoyed our visit and fellowship with many good members of this club.

Gene and Laurin stayed to discuss the problems and possibilities of the old Gurdon

Report from Juris. IX

During the past Hoo-Hoo year I have criss-crossed every state in my jurisdiction several times, with the exception of Virginia.

I have had the full cooperation of all the Deputy Supreme nine members, Bob Hayes in Virginia, John Schultz in North Carolina, Weems Jones in Georgia, Joe Ledford in Florida, Doug McCary in Alabama and soon to appoint Ed Lambart in Tennessee.

We have eight very active clubs in my jurisdiction and one club in Jacksonville in a state of limbo. We will work to have this club on an active basis within the next two months.

My aim for the 1979-1980 Hoo-Hoo year is to reactivate three more clubs. Knoxville, Tennessee is almost ready to go and we will activate that club before the end of the fiscal year. We are also working on Charlotte, N.C. and Columbia, S.C. As of now we have no clubs in South Carolina and we must have a club in that state before I complete my next term of office.

I am particularly proud of the two very active clubs reactivated during 1979. The Tampa Bay No. 225 and the Royal Palm No. 202.

City Hall becoming a museum for Hoo-Hoo International.

During June, we visited the Beaumont Hoo-Hoo Club and presented a history and background of Hoo-Hoo, for their members. The reports from Beaumont, subsequent to that meeting, has resulted in increased interest and attendance at their monthly meetings.

During this year, all clubs visited, seemed healthy and active.

We hope, this coming year, to re-activate at least 3 more clubs and visit the other clubs in Jurisdiction VII.

UNDER OUR RETIRING SNARK AND THE NEW INCOMING SNARK, THE FUTURE OF HOO-HOO LOOKS BRIGHT.....

Fraternally yours,
Gary B. Hester - 81283

Both of these clubs have strong leadership and I am sure will increase in membership and fraternalism.

The Central Florida club No. 115 under the leadership of Bud Ryan is a model Hoo-Hoo Club. If you are in the Orlando area when they hold their meetings you should visit with them. You would then know how they keep their vitality and strength.

All in all we have had a good year in this jurisdiction and I am proud to have been a part of it.

Lumber Mills Hit A High

The western lumber industry operated at 97.7 percent in July, the highest month-to-date in 1979, according to the Western Wood Products Association.

The industry operated at 91.1 percent this June and at 91.5 percent in July, 1978.

1979 year-to-date figures for the first seven months show the industry running at 92.4 percent of capacity compared to 94.1 percent for the first seven months of 1978.

"We experienced a solid demand for dimension products in July," Fred Reseburg, director of the Association's economic services said. "Also, the projected slump in housing starts really never reached the point many of the 'gloom and doom forecasters' thought it would."

"In fact, housing starts were stronger than expected in July because many people see a home as one of the best hedges against inflation. Tie in starts with the many who decided to do a little remodeling rather than travelling this summer and it makes for the type of July we had."

WWPA has established the 12-state western lumber producing industry's practical capacity for any given month as the highest actual production reached in that month during the last five calendar years including the current month.

Launceston, Tasmania
Australia

I have been asked to write this article on behalf of Club 239, Launceston, which is the capital city of northern Tasmania. Tasmania is an island about the size of England off the southern coast of Australia.

Although only small in size we have one of the most important forestry & hardwood timber industries in Australia. In the northern part of this State we have two major woodchip companies which produce approx. 1.8 million tonnes of wood chip annually for export to Japan. During the production of chipwood from integrated cutting some 800,000^m of sown timber is produced, which is processed at a variety of mills scattered along the northern coastline. Most of the sown timber is kiln dried for export to the Mainland and overseas markets, and is becoming well regarded in the world market as Tasmanian Oak.

The State contains some 3 million acres of State Forest and a further 1 million acres of privately owned forest. Approximately 0.01 percent of this area has been converted to exotic pine forest, of which Pinus radiata is the most common species. Since settlement by British colonists in the early nineteenth century, foresters have been experimenting with different exotic species to determine the most economical growth rates which are favourable to our temperate climate. One such experiment is an arboretum of American trees growing in the beautiful surroundings of Hollybank Park.

Hollybank was purchased by the Forestry Department in 1955 and in recent years, the area has been opened up as a public recreational park. The central attraction at the park is known as the Cathedral and contains a densely stocked stand of softwoods such as Western Red Cedar, Himalayan Cedar, Western Hemlock, Redwood, Monterey Cypress, and Douglas Fir (Oregon).

Although only comparatively young trees (planted 1935) they have already become a majestic sight and average 120 feet in height. The park is very popular for two reasons, it is close to a

There were two main business items on the agenda that night - the election of officers and the convention trip drawing, for the trip to Honolulu.

The following new officers were elected: President, Leonard Craig; Vice President, Bill Franks; Sec/Treas, Ken Rosenberger; Sgt. at Arms, John Johnson.

Directors are: Mike Barringer, Joe Breeden, Bill Compton, Dan Guerra, Hubert Herndon and Sid Hester.

Also, Danny Joiner, John Lodge and Mark Van Sickle.

Chairman of the Board is past president, Mel Allen.

We had 48 members eligible for the International Convention trip drawing. Nine (9) trips were given to the following members: Bob Ridley, Skip Crowe, Roy Reid, Ross Hunnicutt, Cal Johnson, Mark Senat, Bill Franks, Ken Babcock and Gary Hester. How lucky can you get?

Then in August, 52 Houston Club members turned out for a regular monthly meeting at the Holiday Inn. The cocktail sponsor for the evening was Loessin & Herndon. Gary Hester, Supreme Nine Member for Jurisdiction VII conducted the installation of new officers and directors, and after the installation we saw a sound/color film on the Houston Oilers N.F.L. 1979 Highlights. Great stuff.

At the meeting, a total of $50 was given out for the cash drawing. Winners were Cal Johnson, Mark VanSickle and Bill Baird. At the August meeting, a total of $55 was won by Von Simpson, Danny Joiner and Ken Rosenberger.

Spokane, Wash.

The first meeting of the new Hoo-Hoo year, 1979-1980 of The Spokane Hoo-Hoo Club No. 16 was called to order by President Bob Grotfend at the noon luncheon at the Stockyards Inn. The first order of business was the installation of the new President, Steve Page, 1st VP Norb Edwardsen, 2nd VP Dary Zanck and (long time) Secty-Treasurer Ernie Wales. Then the new Directors were installed by the Snark of the Universe, Gene Zanck. This was a great honor, and happens only occasionally.

The next order of business was the introduction of Delvina Coffman, our long time and very efficient Secretary to the Secretary. Delvina has known the members by name, and some by telephone voice, so it was nice to have her meet them, and have them meet her.

The Secretary announced that our delegates to the HHI convention in Honolulu would be John Howard, Norm Mikalson and Ernie Wales. It was announced that the following members would be in attendance.

- M/M John Howard
- M/M Ken Sowles
of Moscow, Ida.
- M/M Ernie Wales
- Snark and Mrs. Gene Zanck
- Mr. Norm Mikalson
- Mrs. Lois Nielsen of Norwood, Mass.

Snark Gene Zanck was the speaker, and told us many good things about Hoo-Hoo, his year as Snark, and predictions for another good year.

It is interesting to note that the Spokane Hoo-Hoo Club is unique in many ways - - including the fact that there are two father and son teams on the Executive Board i.e. Ernie & Kris Wales; Gene & Daryl Zanck. Here's our Grand Prize Winner Elaine Losee.

Suspense grew as the ladies awaited the awarding of the GRAND PRIZE. 1st place was drawn by Elaine Losee - heart-shaped diamond pendant on a white gold chain. Next was Janelle Mason with a quartz watch with gold wrist band; 3rd prize, a digital watch with gold wrist band went to Marlene tipton (last year's Grand Prize winner). To Peggy Pallow went a crystal jewel box while Cherri Stainbrook received a crystal punch bowl set. The rest of the prizes - every lady received one - were received with great enthusiasm.

The club wishes to thank again the many generous contributions made by the wholesalers that made this a smash hit again this year.

And here's our 5th place winner, Peggy Pallow.

Not winners of any of the big prizes but happy just the same are Don and Fran Olson.

Buffalo
Club No. 71
Buffalo, N. Y.

The Buffalo Club No. 71 members attended a Woodsmen Week-end at the Foxhead Inn, Niagara Falls, Ontario on June 8, 9 & 10, 1979. Twenty-three members and their wives from Buffalo, Detroit, Rochester, Syracuse and Toronto attended the first of what we hope may be a continuing annual mini-convention.

Fred Meyer of the Rochester Club and Supreme Nine Member for Jurisdiction II and International Vice President Bob VanEvery combined a great package of fun, sight-seeing and useful meetings designed to inspire some of our members to the real meaning of Hoo-Hoo.

The business session was informal and many problems and good possible solutions were discussed. The ideas passed by five different clubs were most informative and gave us much insight on why some clubs may be more successful than others.

The Buffalo Club wishes to extend thanks to Bob VanEvery and Fred Meyer for a most enjoyable and stimulating week-end.

The Buffalo Vs. Rochester Hoo-Hoo ball game in Churchville, NY....we know that Rochester will claim to be the big winner of the game, but the real score was Rochester 23, Buffalo 18. No matter what they say (See Rochester Club News), the game was called as Buffalo was coming to bat. Reason given - if you can believe this - the hot dogs were ready! Winner will play the newly formed Syracuse Hoo-Hoo Club.

The the Buffalo Club had its annual Night at the Races. Eighty-eight cheering fans attended at the Buffalo Raceway in Hamburg, New York. Everyone had a good time especially during the 9th race which is always a Hoo-Hoo sponsored race. Charles Johnson and Vic Lichtenthal from Buffalo along with Ed Pretko and Buckey Lischer from Rochester, made a special presentation to the owner of the winning horse.

Ed Berger of Frontier Lumber was seen after the last race smiling and waving a lot of green stuff on his way home.

Another Fantastic Convention!!

It is truly appropriate that the hawaiian Island of Oahu when given its English interpretation means "The Gathering Place" because this year's 87th Annual Convention held at the Sheraton Waikiki on Oahu was certainly a most scenic and ideal site for the gathering from all over the world of over 450 members, wives and guests of Hoo-Hoo International.

For those of you who missed it, these pages will reveal a happening that I'm sure you'll want to be a part of in 1980 at Atlanta, Georgia and conventions following that for years to come.

From beginning to end we had the fullest cooperation from the weatherman - not a wet day in the bunch.

Although there was to be nothing "official" about the convention until the Board meeting on the 14th, many officers began arriving as early as the 10th. Since the Australians planned to hold their own Jurisdiction IV Convention on Thursday the 13th, at least three "regulars" attended portions of their annual. At their meeting, they elected Kevin F. Kelly as their new Supreme Nine Member from Jurisdiction IV and Ian Marks their Secretary. Their meetings progressed smoothly and most efficiently.

Needless to say there were one or two cocktail parties in Honolulu Thursday evening.

Friday

Promptly at 9:29 A.M. Snark Zanck brought down the gavel to start the Board of Directors meeting. Needless to say everyone was present who holds a position on the Board except the Seer of the house of Ancients, LeRoy Stanton, Sr. Roy's advanced years did not permit him to make the trip.

In keeping with past practice, those seeking election at the convention were invited to attend the "old" Board Meeting. Thus, with five Rameses (Ernie Wales, John Hickey, Tom Partridge, Bill Bader and Larn Champ) present, we had a good size group in attendance.

The meeting moved along quite briskly, and we were able to conduct all the necessary business shortly after noon hour. The balance of the day was free time for everyone. Most of us spent the day relaxing on the beach or by the pool, but early that evening most Hoo-Hoo present went to another cocktail party in Snark Gene Zanck's suite. There was more friendship and fellowship than you could shake a stick at!

Saturday

Simply beautiful weather again today! Free time for most of us excepting those on the budget committee. The budget committee met from 11:00 AM to 1:30 PM, and came up with a workable recommendation for the New Board of Directors.

Aloha Icebreaker

Saturday evening was the "Official" opening of the 87th Hoo-Hoo International Convention, and it opened with a loud bang. We simply walked next door to the Sheraton Royal Hawaiian Hotel for still another cocktail party on the lawn. There was entertainment, cocktails, and pupus for everyone. The grass was soft and warm beneath our feet, and so the mood was set for the balance of the Convention - a cheerful one. Informal attire throughout the convention made everyone perfectly at ease.

Sunday

This was our first day of business sessions. The morning started when Snark Zanck banged the gavel at 8:39 AM, and Bill Striker took over as the Chairman of the Day. There was an invocation by our 2nd V.P., Robert VanEvery, presentation of the colors of the many nations in which we have members, a Salute to the Great Black Cat, led by Ernie Wales, Rameses No. 50,

JOINT LUNCHEON

LOG & TALLY

Business Session

Snark Zanck was then introduced, and the business session was off and running. There were officer reports from the Chairman, Snark, 1st, V.P., 2nd V.P., Treasurer, Executive Secretary, and the Administrative Assistant.

The attendance at the business session was very gratifying. It was one of the largest turnouts to a business session in this writer's memory - which simply means that there is a growing interest in the affairs of Hoo-Hoo International. And that brings us up to the Joint Luncheon in the Molokai Room at the Sheraton Waikiki.

Joint Luncheon

The highlight of the Joint Luncheon was the presentation of the Melbourne, Australia Hoo-Hoo Club No. 217 - their bid to hold the 1982 Convention in Melbourne. After business that day, there was a hurried Board meeting at which it was decided that Jurisdiction IV should definitely be awarded the 1982 Convention. The vote was unanimous with one abstaining vote. Australia, here we come in 1982.

We might add here that the Melbourne presentation was given by Doug Howick, from Melbourne. He extolled Australia briefly and then showed a 30-minute color/sound movie on Australia - complete with kangaroos and koala bears. Beautifully done!

Business Session

Another business session followed the joint luncheon with reports from each of the Supreme Nine Members. Snark Zanck gave each of the officers and directors a LARGE board on which he had personally carved appropriate comments for each individual. Just Gene's way of saying "Thanks for sitting on my Board."

The officers Reports were followed by the presentation of Candidates for office. These

That Tea House party was something else again. It was a sell-out crowd. Everyone sat on cushions on the floor and ate of about 15 courses of food with hot saki to wash it down. There was a Hawaiian band for dancing, and a group of Hawaiian dancers from a local dance school.

We don't know the gentleman's name, but we heard there was only one man missing after the party broke up. His wife was still looking for him at noon the next day.

included Snark Jimmy Jones; 1st V.P. Bob VanEvery, 2nd V.P. Dan Brown, Treasurer Bill Russell, S-9 for Juris I Dick Mullen, S-9 for Juris III Norm Mikalson, S-9 for Juris V Jack Jacobson, S-9 for Juris VII Gary Hester, and S-9 for Juris IX, Dick Wilson.

After the committee appointments had been made by Snark Zanck, the business session was adjourned so that everyone could go to the Authentic Japanese Tea House Party.

The "middle" day of the convention is sometimes a free day for our conventioners, but by popular request, we had a business session in the morning. It was dubbed "Club Operations Seminar." It was chaired jointly by Ernie Wales, secretary/treasurer for the Spokane Hoo-Hoo Club No. 16, and Snark Zanck. On the panel were Cliff Barlament from the North Cascade Club No. 230 and Gordon Graham, secretary/treasurer of the Detroit Hoo-Hoo Club No. 28. Some most interesting points were brought up about the "Care and Feeding" of a successful Hoo-Hoo Club.

Ideas were swapped about monthly bulletins to the club members, how dues are collected, how the club treasury is built up, and the programs that some of the clubs utilize for their monthly meetings.

Shortly after noon, we ceased business sessions so members could play golf or go on the Polynesian Cultural Center Tour.

Monday evening at 5:59 PM there was a cocktail party sponsored by our 1980 Convention Host, The Atlanta Hoo-Hoo Club No. 1. We were all given "chits for cocktails" and the "chits" were $100 Confederate bills! And oh, those morsels of food (straight from Georgia) were something else again! This party turned out to be one of the main attractions of the convention, and if the hospitality in Atlanta next year is anything like this party was, we're all in for a real big time.

Tuesday

Chairman of the Day was Nagao (Yamma) Yamada, however, he had a severe case of laryngitis, so the duties were taken over by Bill Striker.

Most of the morning was taken up by the Wood Promotion Competition. This year there were three clubs competing - Melbourne (Australia), Spokane, Washington and Portland, Oregon. The Wood Promotion committee had one hell of a tough job in awarding the Huge walnut trophy of a black cat, but the Melbourne, Australia club walked off with the top award, followed by Spokane and Portland. Space does not permit us to give all the details, but the audience was particularly interested in all the presentations - They were great!

At the end of the morning business session, the men went up to the top of the Sheraton Waikiki to a stag luncheon in the Hanohano Room. At thirty stories high, the view of Diamondhead is unbelievable! Breathtaking is a better word.

There were a few awards and presentations made at the luncheon - the golfing awards for men were awarded, Ross Hunnicutt won the award of "Designated Drinker", Jimmy Jones presented Gene Zanck with a photo of a famous house in California, and the food was really delicious - especially the cheesecake with strawberry sauce for dessert.

Business Session

Then it was a return to business and the election of officers. The new officers have already been introduced to you near the front of this magazine, but somethings different was done after this election. For the first time in anyone's memory, we had an Installation of new Officers. We actually installed 14 officers and directors, and the installation was conducted by Rameses No. 70, Larn Champ L-75820. The ceremony was very much like the installation ritual used for the installation of local club officers.

Next was the Concat. A semi-short form Concat was used, and three new members were brought into the Order, including the son of Bernie Barber, Jr., Mike.

Three New Members

The embalming ceremony in recent years has been one of the highlights of the convention. It took five (5) Rameses to embalm Snark Zanck - and the ceremony was performed by Rameses Ernie Wales, a close friend and member of the same club as Mr. Zanck.

Another award was made on Tuesday. Dick Wilson presented the George Mueth Walking Stick to Steve Stevenson of Jurisdiction IV for traveling over 30,000 miles in his Hoo-Hoo travels.

Snark Zanck was escorted into the room by Rameses Champ and Rameses Hickey. After the ceremony Ernie Wales shook the hand of Mr. Zanck, and Gene hugged his wife because she also worked hard for Hoo-Hoo while Gene was Snark. According to the other Rameses, Gene Zanck is just another has been now, and will go under the title of Rameses No. 71.

But Mr. Zanck's duties were not quite over. He had to "frock" and "cap" the New Snark which made it official that we now have a new Snark, Jimmy Jones L-72703.

A proud Betty Jones beams as her husband acknowledges the applause of everyone in attendance. It was another impressive ceremony.

Now there was a short pause in the activities as everyone prepared for the Snark's Reception and Banquet - both of which were held a very short distance away at the Hyatt Regency. The Snark's Reception was another outdoor affair with plenty of beverage and Pupus for all. The banquet itself was held in a beautiful room with proper music to set the proper mood.

Wayne Meredith, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, introduced himself and announced that the total registrants at the Convention was 453 - the largest turnout in recent memory.

A stirring invocation was delivered by Hamilton (Ham) Ahlo, and the evening was underway.

Avocado stuffed with shrimp, beautiful roast beef and a fantastic dessert was the main fare. Delicious!

The head table was introduced as was the Rameses table. Then Gene Zanck introduced Snark Jimmy Jones and believe me, there was a standing ovation for Snark Jones from everyone who realized that our new Snark has spent seven years on the International Board as a director or an officer, and still has two more to go.

Jimmy gave a very short acceptance speech and sat down amidst more applause.

Our New Snark.....

More honors and awards were presented to our new Snark as the evening went on. Bill Striker made awards to Dick Mullen and Trevor Austin for the two individuals who travelled farthest to attend the convention - one from the East and one from the West.

Steve Stevenson, Past Supreme Nine Member from Australia, received an award for his having 41 members present from Loren Swift L-34021, received an award since his Hoo-Hoo number was the lowest in attendance.

Ludi Striker, that hard working little girl from Honolulu was given well deserved recognition.

new Rameses (No. 71), Eugene D. Zanck L-68162.

Wednesday, September 19th, was another early day for the new Board of Directors. We had a Board meeting in Snark Jones' suite which was cut short because everyone wanted to continue the convention on the Island of Maui - from what I heard there was almost as much fun on Maui as there was on Oahu.

Jim Lovell was heard to say at the close of the banquet - "After everyone has gone home from this convention, it will be just like a beautiful balloon that someone punched a hole in around here." And that's the truth.

LADIES TOUR & LUNCHEON

While the Hoo-Hoo men attended the morning business session on Tuesday, the Hoo-Hoo wives boarded the buses for a tour of Honolulu and Punchbowl Cemetery. Touring Honolulu we witnessed such sights as the original home of Robert Louis Stevenson, the inside of which is pictured below. We were also fortunate to catch a glimpse of an outdoor marriage ceremony between a Japanese couple. It's interesting to note that the only people present at this ceremony was the couple and their minister while the parents and guests of both bride and groom remained at the hall preparing for the wedding reception, this being Japanese custom.

The tour stopped at various points of interest in the city including the scene of Hawaii 5-0 and the office of Steve McGarrett, the gold-leaf imported statue of King Kamehameha who was of course king of the Sandwich Islands and responsible for uniting them during his reign 1795-1819 and a State House visit whose unique architecture reflects the elements of Hawaii in its rectangular structure which rises to an open

The State House at Honolulu with a unique architecture and statue of Father Damien at its entrance.

The beautiful white marble monument commemorating the war dead at Punchbowl Cemetery.

Included in the tour was a visit to the National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific (Punchbowl Hill). The mood was reflective as we gazed upon the walled maps containing the details of war and military strategies. The cemetery, if it can be called beautiful, is such a tribute to the over 13,000 buried here who gave their lives during World War II and Korea. The Memorial also houses the "Gardens of the Missing Monument", a beautifully landscaped setting containing the names, carved on 10 foot white marble walls, of servicemen missing in action from WWI and the Korean conflict.

The cemetery, located on Punchbowl Hill, is one of the highest points on the Island from whose vantage we were able to experience the panoramic view of the entire city of Honolulu and the jagged shoreline of Oahu.

After completing our tour of the Memorial, we continued down the hill and headed for lunch and a delightful fashion show at the Hawaiian Regent Hotel.

Members of the Hoo-Hoo Ettes (a national club for women involved in the wood products industry) were very much in evidence during the convention. They included Judy Santos, Priscilla Mow, Elaine Sato and merrily Tanigachi.

Mrs. Dave Ackerman of the Honolulu Club presented golf prizes to the top lady golfers who were quite pleased and some even surprised that they won at all.

We want to thank Ludi Striker, Wilma Lovell, the rest of the Hoo-Hoo wives of Club No. 142 and the members of the Hoo-Hoo Ettes for the enjoyable times the ladies experienced on this tour and during the 87th annual Hoo-Hoo convention.

Polynesian Tour

The Cultural Center, run by the Mormon church was created to perpetuate and preserve the arts, crafts and cultures of Polynesia as well as to provide jobs and scholarships for Polynesian students attending Brigham Young University. Each year a majority of BYU-Hawaii students "work" their way through college by singing, dancing and filling other assignments at the Center.

Many of the Hoo-Hoo members and wives did take the opportunity to visit the center and though the day was long, running from one in the afternoon until after 10:30 at night, it was one of the most worthwhile and exhilarating experiences of the convention.

The lifestyles and early cultures of the Polynesian Islands of Fiji, New Zealand, Samoa, Tonga, Tahiti, Marquesas and of course Hawaii are reproduced here in a true to life manner.

The various island villages could be reached by a comfortable ride on the Tramway, via canoe or just by walking the beautifully palm-treed and flowered paths connecting each village.

A Brigham Young University student enjoying his work as the Center's canoe-tour guide.

The cultural center offered a scenic view of thatch roofed huts and swaying palm trees.

Whatever way you chose to take, one could stop intermittently along the way to play the "Derua" (bamboo organ) in the Fijian Village; enjoy the parade of Canoes which encompassed the dance, colorful costumes and rhythmic music of the islands; don a grass skirt and experience the graceful dance of the "Hula" or the more animated and fast moving Tahitian "Otea" or watch the villagers at their relaxing art of basket weaving and stringing of colorful flowered leis.

Members and wives of the Twin Cities Hoo-Hoo Club look on as the colorful "Parade of Canoes" passes by.

After an appetizing Polynesian buffet of such picks as "Mahi-Mahi" (island fried fish), Hawaiian-style pork, gauava chiffon cake etc., etc., we moved to the Center's amphitheater for the evening show aptly entitled "Invitation to Paradise".

The show was not only a spectacular in the myriad of colors, rhythmic drum beats and dance that it portrayed but also in the many and varied emotions it elicited from its audience.

At one point we were roused to war by the dance of the warriors, then gently calmed by the dance of the Maori maidens and the easy sound of their chant. We were stirred to laughter by a humorous adaptation of young Samoans testing their bravery with the ancient Fire Dance and finally awed by the 175 performers who circled the stage and entered the audience to bid us "Aloha".

Our busdriver, "Cousin Kimo" helped us continue the warm and festive atmosphere for the trip back to the hotel with humorous tales of Hawaii and lots of songs to sing along to.

Club No. 220

Paulina Club No. 220 celebrated its 11th annual Ponderosa Pine Golf outing at the Prineville, Oregon Golf and Country Club, August 10 and 11th, 1979. Dean Dodson has been chairman of the tournament since its inception and from all reports will continue to be so. He was assisted in his efforts by our Vice Gerent Snark, Ed Wilson, and by past Presidents Ted Saunders and Bob Sell.

One Hundred Forty Hoo-Hoo contestants took on the 18-hole challenge with a shotgun start. Some of the contestants faded in the stretch with a couple claiming they were wounded at the start by the shotgun blast.

Entrees came from California clubs as well as Washington and Idaho. Chairman Dodson indicates some new measures will have to be taken next year to control the entries at this popular outing as many good Hoo-Hoo members had to be turned away after the opening slots were filled.

Jim McCoy and Jim Baskins took home the Low Gross and Net honors in the Championship division. Tom Houston and Willis Mahlin grabbed the awards in the 1st Flight and Ed Sturza and Bill Carey were accused of stealing the second Flight purses. A Calloway award was taken by Cliff Johnson.

This affair just about closes out a most successful year for the Paulina club under the great leadership of Pres. John DeMarco. Elections have been held for the coming year and Bert Hagen will take the reins of a club that is off and running.

The Rochester (New York) Hoo-Hoo Club was a very busy group this last spring. In March we attended a local charity sports banquet en masse. We can assure you that Bob Griese of the Miami Dolphins knows about Hoo-Hoo now!

In April we hosted a Monte Carlo night for 45 couples, and it's not surprising that lumber people have a taste for gambling.

June 8-10 we joined other clubs in Jurisdiction II at a Jurisdiction Conference at Niagara Falls. There were many excellent ideas for Hoo-Hoo discussed at the meeting and the fellowship experience was just fantastic.

On June 21st we hosted a truly remarkable baseball challenge game between our own club and the Buffalo Hoo-Hoo Club No. 71. Not only did we beat them 21-17, but we sold them their uniforms, too.

San Antonio
Club No. 20
San Antonio, Texas

Well, the San Antonio Club No. 20 started off the new Hoo-Hoo year with a bang in September. We had music, refreshments, a nice dinner and plenty of fun for all.

Our guest speaker for the evening was LeRoy Jordan, an ex Dallas Cowboy All-Pro Middle Line Backer. LeRoy now owns and operates LeRoy Jordan Redwood, Inc. with yards in Dallas and Austin.

There were well over 50 men in attendance, and as you can see by the photographs, we know how to have a good time here in San Antonio.

Among other things planned for the future is a Wildlife biologist to talk on the up-coming deer season, and of course we are planning a Christmas Party in December.

Have you ever seen any of these faces on your Post Office Wall?

Here we have Bill Burk, Mel Gallion, Fred Grampp and guest speaker, LeRoy Jordan.

The North Idaho Club No. 155 held its first meeting of the new Hoo-Hoo year in September at the Iron Horse Restaurant in Coeur d'Alene. K. S. Draheim was the program chairman.

At this meeting there was an election of officers, and we are fortunate in having Keith Olson as our new president; K. S. Draheim as 1st. Veep; W. M. Sims as our 2nd Veep, and Carl Krueger as Secretary/Treasurer.

President Olson appointed the various committee chairmen for the year, lead a discussion of possible future programs, plans for the Jurisdiction III Conference next Spring, and updated the summer activities.

The fact that two club past presidents had died in a helicopter crash was recognized.

W. P. McCarty won the door prize which was donated by the club.

The Greensboro Hoo-Hoo Club No. 243 celebrated its first anniversary in July, and everyone present agreed that it had been a very successful year under the fine leadership of our outgoing president, John Schultz. Charter membership was only 15 members in July of 1978, and we ended up our first year with 30 paid members on the roster.

Last August we elected officers for the new Hoo-Hoo year, and we believe we have selected a great group of hard-working men.

President, Tom Seigler; 1st V.P., Rocky Abell; 2nd V.P., Doug Sawyer; 3rd V.P., A.L. Ingram; Secretary, Bill Gary.

Also, Treasurer, Ed Raines; Vicegerent Snark, John Schultz; Publicity, Ray Holoman and in charge of liquor is Ernest Berliner.

Los Angeles Club No. 2 Los Angeles, Calif.

Members from the four Southern California Hoo-Hoo Clubs - Los Angeles No. 2, San Diego No. 3, Inland Empire No. 117, and Orange County No. 234 - gathered at the Diamond Bar Country Club, Diamond Bar, California on August 10th for a gold tournament followed by a dinner meeting.

We had about 40 for golf and close to 70 for dinner. Golf prizes were awarded to winners of the various flights. We also raffled off door prizes which were donated by various firms, both retail and wholesale, from Northern and Southern California. Commemorative coffee cups were awarded to the nine oldest "old-timers" who were present.

Snark Zanck was well received and gave a fine talk extolling the virtues of Hoo-Hoo and urging all those present to invite other prospective members into our great Order.

Les Richter, an ex Los Angeles Rams All-Pro, told the assembled Hoo-Hoo of his experience as a professional football player. He compared some of yesterday's greats with those of the present and gave us a lot of interesting insights about Pro football.

Bob and his wife Joye, his excellent secretary, Wendy Milner, and Jim Turner's wife, Carol prepared the meal. A buffet of ham, turkey, potato salad, and baked beans were served. Bob's daughter, Lauri was an able and lovely Bartender.

After dinner election of Officers was held. Elected for the upcoming year were: Pat Storey - President, Ron Coker - 1st V.P., Dee Horton - 2nd V.P., Jim Turner - Secretary, David Lee - Treasurer, and Bob Vorderbrug - Vice Gerent Snark.

After a short business meeting fun was had by all. Bo Maxey won the Golf Chipping Contest with a shot within two feet of the pin. The Door Prize was won by Don Peavey. Black Jack Tables were opened and many stayed on into the night trying to win some Hoo-Hoo Club money.

From the Woodpile

Club No. 99 began its "Hoo-Hoo" year with our annual "Fall Golf Outing" on Wednesday, September 26th. There were over 40 golfers and duffers who took on the challenging Washington Country Club National Course in Gaithersburg, Maryland. The weatherman smiled on us as the temperature was in the upper 70's on a beautiful Fall day. However, due to "technical difficulty", (mainly the pro-shop closing early) I can not report who our BIG winners were at this time!!

After golf we had our first general business meeting for the year with fifty members and guests in attendance. The program for the evening was very light and informal. Delegates, George and Bill Dockeray, reported to our members the events that took place at the Hawaiian Convention.

Next on the program were two special awards to two of Club No. 99's "unsund" heroes! We took time out to recognize the work of Harold Hershey who for years has chaired our "Spring and Fall Golf Tournaments". Secondly, we did honor to Howard Jesneck who has for the last ten years been responsible for practically every special function of Club No. 99.

The meeting came to an end with the drawing of two door prizes which were won by Marvin Curtis and Bill Stebbins, both, both of Curtis Lumber and Plywood, Co. The 50/50 drawing was won by Bob Tanis-of T.W. Perry, Co. Fraternaly Submitted,

Many other firms supported with time and effort, including the news media which gave public service, space and time. The Traders Village Parking Lot was donated for space to hold the auction, and the H-C Auction Service donated an auctioneer.

Service of this nature deserves positive recognition and support from everyone.

John Todd, a member of the club, said that there were 15 truckloads of building materials auctioned off. He also said that this was the 4th year the Hoo-Hoo club has held an auction for the agency.

Every good Hoo-Hoo knows that Hoo-Hoo day is the ninth day of the ninth month (September 9,) but we can't recall of any Hoo-Hoo member so dedicated that he insisted on getting married on the Ninth day of the Ninth month at 1:59 P.M. - That's got to be a record of some sort.

So on the Ninth day of the Ninth month of 1979, Mr. Tom Osborne, Jr. L-76297 married the former Maureen VanEvery, daughter of Robert VanEvery, 1st International Vice President of Hoo-Hoo International at a ceremony in Detroit, Michigan.

The entire male wedding party was dressed in Hoo-Hoo black robes befitting this wedding on Hoo-Hoo day.

Chris Potter, reporting for the Vancouver Club No. 48 says, "On May 17th we held our annual fund raising Dinner and Draw at the Terminal City Club in Vancouver. This event is so popular with our club that we had completely sold out all 350 tickets a full week before the big night.

"The program chairman was Frank Scott who was ably assisted by Ed Reid. These two guys did a hell of a good job in making all the arrangements and insuring that the evening went off without a hitch.

"First ticket out of the barrel was No. 238 - Bill McEachnie of S. A. Mowat Ltd, who won $100.

"Every 50th ticket drawn thereafter received $50. The last ticket out of the barrel was No. 343 - David Demuth of Sooke Forest Products - won the grand prize of $5,000.00.

The Vancouver Club wishes to give a word of thanks to the staff management of the Terminal City Club for once again catering to our needs in fine fashion.

This is what the big board looked like when the drawing was first getting started.

Manchester, N.H.

The weather on Monday, June 11 as perfect for a clambake and the large turnout of lumbermen at the 32nd Annual Outing & Clambake of the Granite State Hoo-Hoo Club No. 107 attested to the fact.

Held as usual at Simpson's Pavilion, Dover Point, Durham, New Hampshire, the Popular summer gathering is now named the Harold Littlefield Memorial, honoring the veteran lumberman who ran it for so many years. Harold passed away this year on April 21 and his presence was sadly missed by his many friends in the industry.

However, the clambake was well organized in the littlefield manner by Harold's friends, Bill Trobec, Emile Bernard and other members of the club, plus, of course his two sons, Bob and Roger. As usual, there was two large lobsters for each person, plus the chowder, and plenty of free beer to wash it down, not to mention an Open Bar tended by Harold's son, Roger.

For the first time in three years, the Snark of the Universe was unable to attend this Granite State highlight of the year, but there were several special guests including Dick Mullen, Jurisdiction I Representative of the Supreme Nine, Horace Pierce, Executive Vice President of the Northeastern Retail Lumbermen Association Randy Taylor, President of Mass. Retail Lumber Dealers Assn., and many Boston-area lumbermen form the Harry L. Folsom Hoo-Hoo Club.

Some of the members arrived at mid-afternoon for some horse shoe pitching to work up an appetite, but the bulk of the crowd arrived around five for the social hour, after a hard day at their respective lumber yards. Set up near the horse-shoe pits was the "hospitality wagon" of Saxonville Wholesale, manned by Doug Webb and Bill Zurwell.

Portland Club #47

Portland, Oregon

Hoo-Hoo Club No. 47 Fetes Aussies.

That was the headlines in our local newspaper the Oregon Journal, announcing the visitation of the members of the Australian Hoo-Hoo Clubs, assembled at the Forestry Center for a social hour and salmon bake.

The Australian contingent was 32 strong, and Club No. 47 can be proud of our turn out in support of our International visitors.

President Dave Blasen opened the meeting with the standard Alhoa, which we became use to hearing at the International convention in Honolulu, Hawaii September 15th - 18th.

Our guest speaker was Bill Hagenstein, Executive Vice President of the Industrial Forestry Association who gave a speech on what happened to the self sufficient U.S. lumber market.

Everyone had a wonderful time as our bar was hosted by Linnton Enterprises and Linnton Planning Mill. It was a tremendous success, also we viewed a film of the Australian Wood Chopping Championships held in Tasmania annually.

The Australians, representing seven of their nations Hoo-Hoo Clubs, came to the West coast after attending the International Hoo-Hoo convention in Honolulu.

Their first stop was in Vancouver, B.C. where they viewed sawmill operations. They came then to Longview, Washington for a tour of the Weyerhaeuser complex, explained an Aussie, they produce more wood in 3 shifts than we do in 6 months.

Doug Howick, Vice President of the Melbourne Hoo-Hoo Club discussed the 1982 International Convention that will be held in Melbourne, Australia in two years. We need to start saving now for a large turn out from Club No. 47 at that convention.

President Dave Blasen ended the meeting by thanking everyone for a spontaneous turn out and the Australians favored the Portland Clubs request for their song Waltzing Matilda.

Here are just three of the many Aussies who attended the Portland Club No. 47's dinner and meeting.

Black Bart
Club No. 181
Ukiah, Calif.

Joe Bowman and Don Michaelson were the ones responsible for the Black Bart Club's annual Family Weekend. This is a very popular event, and this year was no exception.

It was held at Konocti Harbor Inn in Lake County. We had swimming, golf, boating on Clear Lake, dancing, fishing, tennis, a beautiful steak dinner - the works. It was a great time socializing and just plain relaxing.

It was a very good turnout of 112 people.

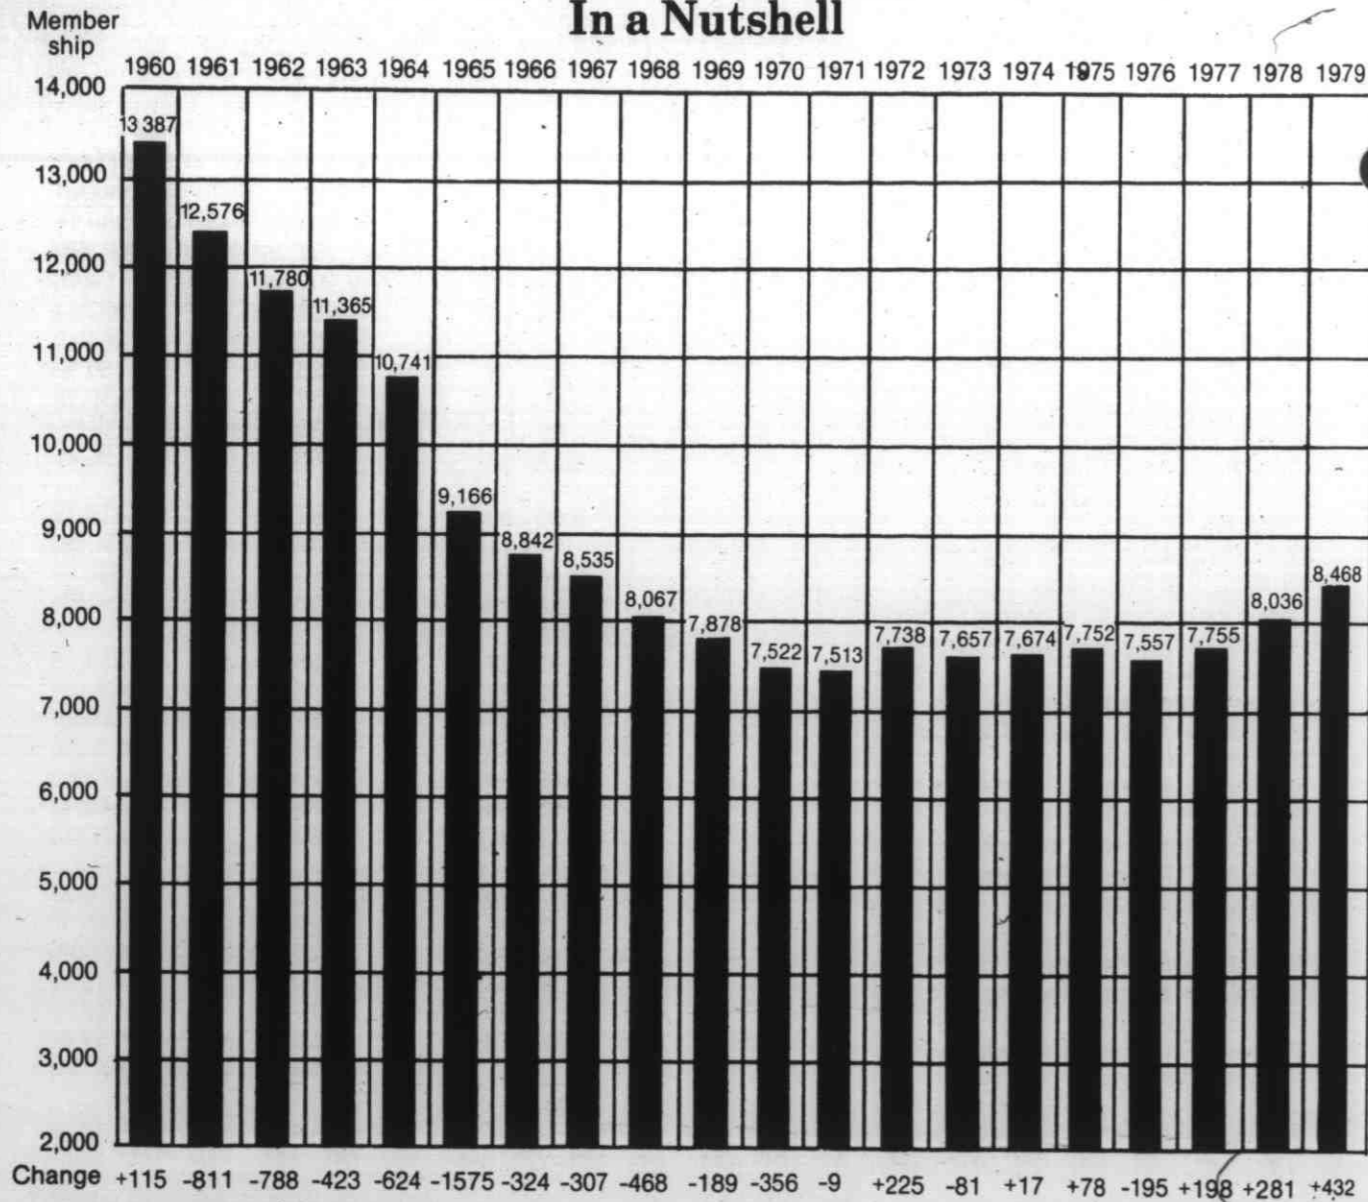

1) Dorice and Bob Johnson 2) Doris and Joe Bowman 3) Gary and Jeanna Gamble 4) Jerry and Joyce DeCou 5) Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Paquette 6) Sharon and Sam Witzel
