

The Ladies' Pin:

The cut herewith shows the Hoo-Hoo Ladies Pin. We have yet to see a lady, old or young, who did not want one of these pins the minute she saw it. To have these pins in the hands of pretty women—and a good Hoo-Hoo knows no other sort—is the best possible advertisement for the Order. Every Hoo-Hoo ought to buy one of these pins, have his number engraved on it, and give it to some good woman. Remit $1.00 to the Scrivenoter, and one of these pins duly engraved will be sent by registered mail to any address. It is one of the nicest presents imaginable for a man's sweetheart. Only members in good standing can purchase.

THE Hoo-Hoo March,
By No. 1050.
Dedicated to the SUPREME NINE.

The Only Authorized Music of the Order.

No better advertisement for the Order could be had than to have this piece of music become one of the popular airs of the day.

The price of the music is 40 cents per copy, and will be sent post paid upon application to the Scrivenoter.

The Practical Side.

The men whose Hoo-Hoo names appear in the notices below are out of work and want employment. This is intended as a permanent department of THE BULLETIN, through which to make these facts known. It is, or should be, read by several thousand business men who employ labor in many varied forms, and it can be made of great value in giving practical application to Hoo-Hoo's central theme of helping one another. It is hoped the department will receive very careful attention each issue.

The following in succinct shape is the division of the Hoo-Hoo territory under the supervision of the members of the Supreme Nine as discussed and acted upon at the Norfolk annual meeting, and as officially promulgated in a letter from the Snark's office dated November 11:

- Jurisdiction No. 1—Under the supervision of the Snark of the Universe, includes the Vicegerents in the following Territories: Nebraska, Colorado, North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota, Republic of Mexico.
- Jurisdiction No. 2—Under supervision of Senior Hoo-Hoo. Vicegerents: Arkansas, Oklahoma Territory, Indian Territory, Louisiana, Texas.
- Jurisdiction No. 3—Under supervision of Junior Hoo-Hoo. Vicegerents: Iowa, Missouri, Kansas.
- Jurisdiction No. 4—Under supervision of Bojum. Vicegerents: Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, Maryland.

Jurisdiction No. 5—Under supervision of Scrivenoter. Vicegerencies: Alabama, Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi.

Jurisdiction No. 6—Under supervision of Jabberwock. Vicegerencies: California, Oregon, Washington.

Jurisdiction No. 7—Under supervision of Custocatian. Vicegerencies: Florida, Georgia, South Carolina.

Jurisdiction No. 8—Under supervision of Arcanoper. Vicegerencies: New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Ohio.

Jurisdiction No. 9—Under supervision of Gurdon. Vicegerencies: Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin.

Standing Committees.

In accordance also with the discussion had at the Norfolk annual meeting, the following standing committees, consisting of the members of the Supreme Nine, have been appointed:

COMMITTEE ON EXTENSION OF HOO-HOO ON THE PACIFIC COAST AND IN THE MOUNTAIN STATES—T. H. Clafey, Jabberwock, chairman, with all the Vicegerents west of the 105th degree of longitude, including the Vicegerent of Colorado.

COMMITTEE ON EXTENSION OF HOO-HOO IN THE SOUTHERN STATES—B. B. Neal, Custocatian, chairman, with all the Vicegerents south of the Ohio, Potomac and Missouri Rivers, and east of the 105th degree of longitude.

COMMITTEE ON EXTENSION OF HOO-HOO IN THE CENTRAL STATES—C. F. Braffett, Gurdon, chairman, with all the Vicegerents north of the Ohio, Potomac and Missouri Rivers, and east of the 105th degree of longitude, and west of the 80th degree of longitude.

COMMITTEE ON EXTENSION OF HOO-HOO IN THE EASTERN STATES—C. H. Stanton, Arcanoper, chairman, with all the Vicegerents north of the Ohio and Potomac Rivers, and east of the 80th degree of longitude.

COMMITTEE ON COMPLAINTS—Senior Hoo-Hoo—W. H. Norris, Chairman. Bojum—J. E. Duke. Junior Hoo-Hoo—George B. Maegley.

The Snark and Scrivenoter are ex-officio members of all committees.

Hoo-Hoo in Montana.

Vicegerent Beckman's Pioneer Work.

When the roll is called at Milwaukee next September, it will be found that Hoo-Hoo has a great deal to be proud of in the year's work. Chief of these is the magnificent showing made in the Jurisdiction of the Jabberwock. Away out in the far Northwest the Great Black Cat has gained a following in a field never before invaded. For some time past Brother Victor H. Beckman, Vicegerent Snark for the State of Washington, and Supreme Jabberwock T. H. Clafey have been perfecting arrangements for the conquest of Montana, and the executive ability shown in carrying out this splendid conception is worthy of much praise. There were several things to be overcome in carrying their plans to a successful consummation, but the West is peopled mainly with men who have a talent for overcoming. First of the difficulties was the distance—it is a long way between stations in the West. It takes time to travel twelve hundred miles, to say nothing of energy and loyalty to the Order. Nevertheless, Brothers Beckman and Clafey were not dismayed, not being built that way, and their faith was rewarded by the most complete and glorious success that ever attended any Hoo-Hoo enterprise. Without calling on the treasury of Hoo-Hoo for a single cent, these devoted officers and their assistants left their own business and took nearly a week's time to further the interest of the Order in a virgin field.

Setting out from Seattle on this memorable pilgrimage, the little band stopped first at Spokane, in the eastern part of the State, where a fine meeting was held on the evening of February 23. From Spokane across Idaho and the Rocky Mountains they took their way, Missoula, Mont., being the objective point. For at Missoula lives a Hoo-Hoo, than whom no more loyal brother draws breath—C. W. Willett by name, No. 5477, formerly with Curtis & Co., of St. Louis, now in the timber land and mining business for himself. Brother Willett had hustled out and worked up a good class, and he was waiting for the brethren from Seattle. Seventeen men had been initiated at Spokane; twenty-two were lined up at Missoula.

In addition to being a business man of marked ability, Brother Beckman is a writer and a wit. He is editor of the "Pacific Lumber Trade Journal" and secretary of the Seattle Lumber Manufacturers' Exchange and a number of lumber associations. His ingenious fancy evolved the humorous menu cards at his "sessions on the roof." A cut of the back of one of these cards, used at the Seattle meeting January 14, was printed in the last issue of "The Bulletin," and a few days afterwards the boys at Fargo, N. D., requested the original plate, saying that they desired to use it in advertising a big concatenation there. Brother Beckman, in a letter to the Scrivenoter, gives the following interesting outline of the invasion of the new field:

"Seattle, Wash., February 18, 1902.—J. H. Baird, Scrivenoter, Nashville, Tenn.—Dear Sir and Brother: It affords me much pleasure to state that the two concatenations most desired by the Supreme Nine—at Spokane, Wash., and Missoula, Mont.—have been held, and were successful from every point of view. It was the first ever held in a promising territory, and the candidates were the very best material, and the results will be beneficial in every respect to the Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo.

"Many members on the coast were skeptical as to the success of the venture, but the five who journeyed 1,200 miles and gave up an entire week in doing so never entertained an idea of failure at any stage of the game, and the result justified their wisdom. The party consisted of Victor H. Beckman, Vicegerent for the State of Washington, of Seattle; Thomas H. Clafey, Supreme Jabberwock, of Seattle; E. Clark Evans, of the Simonds Manufacturing Company, of Seattle; James A. Clock, general agent of the Wisconsin Central Railroad, of Portland; and W. C. Barnhart, representative of Henry Disston & Sons, of Tacoma. The party arrived at Spokane, a distance of 350 miles from the coast, on the morning of February 12, and were met by G. L. Taft, G. Luellwitz, A. W. Robinson, A. Sickafosse, M. H. McCall, H. Osgood, and H. J. Miller, all members of Hoo-Hoo. The party were given the privileges of the Spokane Club and were royally entertained by the local lumbermen and others. The concatenation was held in the Elks' Temple on Thursday, February 13. Seventeen candidates were presented for Hoo-Hoo honors.

"The initiation ceremonies, which were ably conducted, were followed by an 'On the Roof' at Davenport's, at which the following menu was discussed:

"Witty speeches were made and stories told, and the affair was thoroughly enjoyed by the representative men present. It was decided to recommend the creation of a Vicegerency for Eastern Washington and Idaho, there being enough material to hold a dozen concatenations in the near future.

"At 9:55 A.M., Friday, February 14, the coast delegation took the Northern Pacific train for Missoula, Mont., arriving at this beautiful and prosperous city at 7:35 P.M. the same day. The same Western hospitality given at Spokane greeted the party here. They were taken in charge by C. W. Willett, to whose untiring efforts is due the success of the Missoula concatenation. The members of the party were extended the courtesies of the Missoula Club, and were given sleigh rides by prominent citizens. The concatenation was held in the Odd Fellows' Hall on Saturday evening, February 15. The candidates numbered twenty-two. 'On the Roof' was held at the Florence, where the following menu was partaken of:

"So well pleased were the newly-born kittens that it was nearly 4 o'clock in the morning before the banquet ended.

"Hoo-Hoo caught Spokane and Missoula in good shape. One enthusiastic kitten at Spokane guaranteed a class of fifty if a concatenation be held at Lewiston, Idaho, and another guaranteed to get every mill man on the Spokane and Northern to join. In Missoula the candidates wanted the party to stay over the following Monday and guaranteed to initiate fourteen candidates, who could be reached by wire. When it is known that in nearly every case the candidates would have to travel over 100 miles in the roughest mountain country, it may be imagined how well Hoo-Hoo stands among the big-hearted Montanians. The offer was, however, declined on the ground that other concatenations were to be held in the near future, and it was not desirable to exhaust the field. One Butte candidate also offered to furnish fifteen candidates on a day's notice, which was also declined on the same grounds. The daily press of Spokane, Missoula, Anaconda, and Butte furnished columns of matter about the concatenations, and I send you a few to give you an idea of the way we were treated. In fact, we were welcomed on every hand by the generous, warm-hearted, and spontaneous hospitality only to be found in a country where big mountains, big trees, and big people abound. The trip was certainly a memorable one to Hoo-Hoo.

"A Vicegerent Snark will be recommended for Montana, and you may rest assured he will give a good account of himself.

"In closing, I cannot praise sufficiently the able and consistent work of the little party that accompanied the Supreme Jabberwock and myself. Early and late they labored to make the trip a success, and it is due as much to their efforts that the missionary work in introducing Hoo-Hoo in new fields as it is to the few members who reside in Eastern Washington and Montana.

"Fraternally yours,
VICTOR H. BECKMAN, V. S."

The menu of the "Session on the Roof" at Missoula was extremely original. It was got up in the style of a restaurant menu, and the advertisements printed on the margins were very ludicrous. We present a few of them herewith, and regret that we cannot reproduce the "display."

"The Intermittent Stage leaves for Bonner, Helena, St. Paul, Nashville, Jocko, Bitter Root, and Big Hole every other night. Bookings at the drug store."

"Good morning! Have you used Butte Facial Ease? Will unface the face. Blackheads, tetter, corns, poverty, and crime removed on one application. For sale by all train butchers."

"When in Deer Lodge, stop at the Penitentiary. Special rates to permanent guests. Free 'bus'."

"Consult the Old Doctor. Saw teeth extracted with or without gas. Ringbone and spavin a specialty. Graduate of the Hot Tomale Institute at Jocko. St. Regis Dance cured."

"Lessons in elocution and band sawing. Frazzled voices cultivated. Open evenings. Prof. Pinochle, Higgins Ave. Bridge."

"Attractions To-night.
"Opera House.—The Collar and Elbow Opera Co. in 'The Hoo-Hoo Barber.'
"Ubet Theater.—Little Africa, the Loie Fuller of the Bitter Root Valley.

"Coming.—The Horticultural Society in the strong heart drama entitled, 'Roots and Bulbs.'"

The following breezy letter in regard to the Missoula concatenation has been received from Brother C. W. Willett:

"Missoula, Mont., February 24, 1902.—Mr. James H. Baird, Nashville, Tenn.—My Dear Baird: Your esteemed favor of the 19th is at hand and noted. I wrote you shortly after the Missoula concatenation, giving brief mention of the meeting, together with some newspaper clippings, and left the detailed description of the affair to Brother Beckman, who is much better qualified than I am to do the matter justice. As you know, I have been trying to get a meeting here for more than a year, and the thanks of the Montana Hoo-Hoo are due to you and the balance of the Supreme Nine for getting Brother Beckman and his associates over here to help us out. We certainly had a fine class of candidates, and the Order at large may well be proud of them, as they are fully up to the standard in every respect. The class was rather large for good, effective work on the part of the officers, but it was deemed best to get a good, large class for a starter, partly to encourage the visiting members from the coast as well as to have a good, big garden ready for business in Montana. The preliminary work was all well in hand for the concatenation, and everything moved off smoothly; and, to quote Ex-Gov. George W. Peck, of Wisconsin, in a banquet after somewhat similar ceremonies in another order, 'it seemed as though all h—i was greased for the occasion.'

"Vicegerent Beckman was a model Snark, with his 300 pounds of good nature and flesh. Junior Hoo-Hoo Clafey was well equipped for the work and seemed to have been well schooled for the occasion. As medical examiner, Brother Evans allowed no man with weak lungs to escape. All of the candidates were well tested in this respect, and while some of them seemed to have more or less water on the lungs, all passed a respectable examination. Brother Clock labored manfully to keep the candidates in line and to bring them one by one to the anxious seat for the more trying ceremonies. Brother Hartman assumed the functions of tonsorial artist with grace and great unction. Brother Murphy kept a close record of the proceedings, and Brother Crockett stood manfully by the door to see that no guilty man escaped. Several of the shyest candidates endeavored to make their escape via a tunnel which connected with the other end of the room, but vig-

Illust efforts were made by the entire available membership to head them off, with unqualified success in every case. Some of the initiates who are engaged in the manufacture of lumber on a large scale examined a sample of the Pacific Coast Dry Kiln which some disreputable machinery man brought in for inspection, and seemed to think that it was a perfect success by their yells of delight when they saw its workings fully. You know that Brother Clafey has assumed a very commanding mien since he was promoted to the Supreme Nine, and the candidates all seemed to appreciate his awful presence as they passed before him, as each and every one of them assumed an attitude of profound humility in front of him.

Sharp on the stroke of twelve the officers, accompanied by the newly-made kittens, formed in line and marched to the banquet hall in the Hotel Florence, where an elegant spread was laid. Say, you never saw a crowd of hungry Montana lumbermen eat, did you? Well, you ought to have been there—well, I won't give the boys away, but confidentially, Jim, them fellers did not get up from that table until 4 o'clock in the morning. I am a tsetotaler, you know, and, of course, I tried to keep tab on the proceedings, but—well, never mind; when I see you I will tell you all about it. It was pretty hard work to round up the first class; 'twas like rounding up mavericks for the first branding, you know; but now all of the lumbermen who have heard about how those candidates got fed want to get in line in the Hoo-Hoo band wagon right away, and we are already looking forward to another concatenation in the near future and anxiously awaiting the arrival of the necessary working outfit.

"Don't publish this, James, because I wrote it on Sunday. Never mind publishing my picture. The new Vicegerent is a much better-looking man and will represent Montana much better than my mug would.

"Fraternally yours, NO. 5477."

The Charleston Exposition.

Hoo-Hoo Day.

Hoo-Hoo Day at the Charleston Exposition has been set for March 29, and there is no doubt that the programme will eclipse anything ever seen on a similar occasion. A big concatenation will be held in the evening, for which extensive preparations have been made by the South Carolina Hoo-Hoo. At least five members of the Supreme Nine will be present, including the Snark of the Universe and the Scrivenoter. Brother W. B. Dozier, Vicegerent Snark for the State of South Carolina, is doing a great deal of hard work in perfecting the preliminary arrangements. In a recent letter to this office he says:

"We are working for a big day for the Order on March 29, and everything is running along smoothly, and we expect a big crowd; and I would be glad if you would say through the columns of 'The Bulletin' that we want every Hoo-Hoo in the country to come and bring his best girl; and if we don't make them have a good time, it will not be our fault, for we propose to try ourselves on this occasion, and will, I am satisfied, make it interesting for all who may attend.

"I would also be glad to have any of the Vicegerents who are coming to bring along any kittens that they may want enlightened, and we will be pleased to give them instructions.

"The Exposition is on a large scale, and will prove interesting to any one who can see it, and I think that the trip will prove both pleasant and instructive to all.

"I am expecting every member of the Supreme Nine, and while in Charleston on the 22d inst, I saw Brother Neal, who assured me that he would be present.

"Trusting to see you on March 29 and with kindest regards, I am, Fraternaly yours, W. B. DOZIER, Vicegerent Snark for South Carolina."

In a recent letter from Snark Weir he says: "I wrote my friend, Lumpkin, that I was going down there to investigate that family story of his seven children, and that I wanted to see that 1,800-pound bell which the fourteen-year-old girl and the old colored man let down out of the belly. I told him he had better be prepared with an allibi."

Comments on Concatenations.

Within the past thirty days concatenations have come thick and fast, and the Scrivenoter has been at times hard pressed to get trunks around to all the meetings. All demands have been met, however, and not a single Vicegerent has been disappointed, though at times a very close connection had to be made when several meetings occurred on dates near together. Our thanks are due a number of energetic brethren whose promptness in rushing a trunk back to this office enabled us to save the day.

Kansas City, Mo.

The largest concatenation of this Hoo-Hoo year was held at Kansas City, Mo., by Vicegerent S. R. Oliver, January 28. Kansas City has become famous for big concatenations. At a meeting held there some years ago fifty-nine kittens were rescued from the outer darkness. At Brother Oliver's meeting on the 28th the Snark of the Universe

S. R. OLIVER,

himself, who was present and conducted the work, was confronted with a list of forty-three candidates. These were all genuine candidates, who had paid their money and were ready for the opening of their eyes in the gardens of Hoo-Hoo, where all is mirth and pleasure. The meeting was held in the hall of the Elks; and, notwithstanding a theater party and the interests of the great convention of lumbermen, a splendid representation of the Order was present. It was impossible to handle so large a number of candidates without putting in about a week's time, and, therefore, six unfortunates were selected to exemplify the work and teachings of Hoo-Hoo, while the others looked on and enjoyed their discomfiture. By this arrangement the concatenation was over, and all present adjourned to the banquet room before 11 o'clock. There was a little side play not down on the bills that proved quite interesting. After the concatenation had been formally closed, the six candidates were still retained in working order on the floor, and were boxing and wrestling with each other when the chief of police dashed into the hall and arrested the whole six for hilarious and uproarious conduct. The efforts of their friends to give bail for them and secure their release were all in vain. Into the patrol wagon they went and off to the station; but the chief relented, and after a ride around the block, brought them back to the banquet. The amusing part of the deal was that the boys thought it was a sure-enough thing, and one of them belted one of the officers and later escaped from the wagon, but they caught him and brought him back. The chief was a member of the Elks, and some of the order who were also members induced him to work it for them.

Nashville, Tenn.

One of the best concatenations ever held in Nashville—and one, in fact, that will compare very favorably with any concatenation ever held anywhere at any time—occurred in the Odd Fellows' Hall on the night of February 22. The Vicegerent Snark, Mr. R. H. McClelland, deserves a great deal of credit and has been tendered many congratulations by the forty or fifty members of the Order who were present at the meeting. Practically all the representative lumbermen of the city, with several from a distance, were in attendance, and it is hard to tell which they enjoyed the most, the initiatory ceremonies or the "Session on the Roof" which followed at Dorider & Sidbottom's cozy little restaurant on Church street. The officers serving at the concatenation were as follows: Snark, R. H. McClelland; Senior Hoo-Hoo, J. W. Love; Junior Hoo-Hoo, C. H. Sanders; Bojum, J. G. Erwin; Scrivenoter, J. W. Cantrell; Jabberwock, F. C. Guthrie; Custocatian, C. W. Rives; Arcanoper, J. A. Hamilton; Gurdon, John A. Jackson. Seventeen candidates were initiated.

Mr. McClelland was ably assisted in the arrangements for the meeting, as well as in the initiatory ceremonies, by Messrs. C. W. Rives, F. C. Guthrie, J. A. Hamilton, and Joe G. Erwin, to whose efforts no little of the success of the meeting is due. Mr. C. H. Sanders, the well-known railroad man, occupied the position of Junior, and his own son who was initiated was not by any means the particular candidate from whom he had the least fun. Two members from a distance were in attendance—Mr. L. B. Mathis, of Kansas City, and Mr. C. E. Davis, of South Bend, Ind. The latter is one of the buyers for the Fullerton-Powell Hardwood Lumber Company.

It has been some time since a concatenation was held in Nashville, and the meeting on the 22d was all the more enjoyable for being something of a novelty. Arrangements are being perfected for another meeting early in April.

Ruston, La.

A concatenation was held at Ruston, La. (district of Vicegerent E. W. Anderson), February 21, the meeting having been worked up by Brother S. R. Cloud, of Ruston, assisted by the local members. Mr. Cloud manifested the deepest interest in the matter, and displayed a great deal of energy in perfecting the preliminary arrangements. The following account of the affair, which appeared in the local paper, shows that this meeting was fully up to the high standard set by former Louisiana concatenations:

"Last evening, at the Ruston Opera House and in the Knights of Pythias Hall, was held one of the most successful and enjoyable concatenations of the Order of the Black Cat ever held in this section. Preparations had been making for many days, and the indefatigable and self-sacrificing work of Messrs. Cloud, Pitts, Carter, and other active Ruston workers gave promise of the magnificent success which crowned their efforts.

"It was 2 A.M. before the close of the ceremonies, and every man present received his money's worth. The imposing and solemn ceremony was conducted by masters well up in their work, and every man was made to feel that he had not been forgotten.

"A banquet was then announced, and all soon found themselves in the Elite Restaurant, where a sumptuous spread awaited them.

Speaking of chicken salad "made from a dead-game sport" reminds us that Vicegerent Anderson seems to be a sort of a chicken man. The Scrivenoter has recently removed to the country, and has tried to bust into the poultry business. To this end he wrote the various manufacturers of incubators for circulars, but finds it difficult to decide which make to purchase, as every incubator is highly recommended by E. W. Anderson, of Monroe, La.

Vicegerent Anderson is to be congratulated upon the success of his first concatenation.

Fort Worth, Texas.

Vicegerent B. F. Orr held a concatenation at Fort Worth, Texas, January 28, at which thirteen men were initiated. Mr. Orr's colleague, Vicegerent J. S. Bonner, of the Southern District of Texas, was present, as was also Senior Hoo-Hoo W. H. Norris. The two Texas Vicegerents and the Senior Hoo-Hoo are making a great record. To Brother E. S. Kuykendall, of Fort Worth, is due much praise for the preliminary work in connection with the meeting on the 28th.

Milwaukee, Wis.

The first concatenation that has occurred in Wisconsin for quite a while was held at Milwaukee, February 18, by Vicegerent Theo. S. Wilkin. Thirteen new members were added at this meeting—among others, Col. James Clark Pond, general passenger agent of the Wisconsin Central Railway. Snark Weir was present and reports a most enjoyable time. He says: "The character and standing of the candidates was beyond question. We had the use of the Elks' Hall, and one of the members of that order, who manipulates the work for the Elks, assisted with their apparatus, and it was all right—some new business that was entertaining both for ourselves and the candidates. After the work we had a nice little spread at the Hotel Pfister and some 'talking.' It was a successful meeting."

THEO. S. WILKIN,
Vicegerent for Wisconsin.

Muscataine, Ia.

Vicegerent Harry V. Scott held a concatenation at Muscatine, Ia., February 3, at which a class of ten good men were initiated. Iowa now has two Vicegerents—Brother Scott, for the Northern District, and Brother J. Moetzel, for the Southern District; and the prospects are that this State will make quite a record this year. There were but three Hoo-Hoo in Muscatine previous to Vicegerent Scott's concatenation, and considering that the community was one in which the interest in Hoo-Hoo was at rather a low ebb, the fact that so good a meeting was held is most gratifying. The quality of the candidates was much above par, in that they were the older and more conservative people in the lumber business.

Lincoln, Neb.

Twenty-four new members were added to the rolls at a concatenation at Lincoln, the home of the Snark, February 12, at which twenty-four men were initiated. In a letter to this office Snark Weir says: "There was nothing special or sensational about it—it was just a straight, orderly, and satisfactory meeting, with a first-class lot of candidates. We closed in time to adjourn to the hotel and take part in the banquet tendered by the Lincoln dealers to the State association. Over three hundred sat down to the banquet. It was a most enjoyable occasion."

Mobile, Ala.

Vicegerent H. F. Wyley held a good concatenation at Mobile February 8. Five candidates took the Degree of Playful Kitten, and the affair was in all respects a most pleasant one, the only cloud being the sad memory of the recent tragic death of one of the most prominent of the Mobile members, Brother R. H. Vidmer. At Vicegerent Wyley's meeting the following resolutions were adopted:

"Brother Hoo-Hoo: In the midst of our pleasure it behooves us to pause for a brief space in order that your Vicegerent may officially inform you of a grief that has befallen us of which most, if not all, of you are already aware. I allude to the tragic and untimely death of Richard H. Vidmer, a former Vicegerent Snark of this jurisdiction and one of the most loyal Hoo-Hoo of the South. On the morning of January 25, at the Michael & Lyons fire in this city, he laid down his life while engaged in an effort to save the property of his fellow-men. Friday night he had been a member of a gay dinner party at Hotel Bienville, and hardly had the sounds of the merry laughter, jovial jest, and scintillating wit died in his ears, when a fire alarm broke in upon him just as he had disrobed for bed. Our deceased brother was a man of action, and he could not sleep when he knew that possibly he might be of assistance in saving some one's property. He quickly donned his clothes and went to the fire. He volunteered his services, and, with four other brave men, one of them a negro in lowly station in life, manned a nozzle and fought the flames. With the negro, Johnston, by his side, there came a sound of warning; but he and the negro kept at their work, heedless of the warning, till too late, and they were crushed to death by a falling wall. As he closed his eyes in death there in the street, a man of God stood over him and wafted to the Throne of Grace a prayer for as brave and true a man as ever drew the breath of life.

"He met all the obligations of life and discharged them with fidelity. He wore his heart upon his sleeve, and it was any man's for the asking. In Hoo-Hoo, as in everything else, he was earnest, loyal, and energetic, ever ready to lend his aid for its advancement. He is gone, and it behooves us to give some expression to the grief we feel at his loss. I, therefore, suggest that the following resolutions be adopted by this concatenation:

"Whereas it has pleased Almighty God, in his inscrutable providence, to remove from the sphere of his earthly action our late lamented brother, Richard H. Vidmer; be it, therefore,

"Resolved, That in his death Hoo-Hoo has lost a faithful and earnest member, who was ever ready to advance the interests of the Order, and we deplore and lament his untimely death.

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the 'Southern Lumberman,' 'Lumber Trades Journal,' 'St. Louis Lumberman,' 'American Lumberman,' 'The Bulletin,' and to the family of the deceased.

"HENRY F. WYLEY, Vicegerent Snark;
"CARY W. BUTT, Senior Hoo-Hoo;
"SAMUEL A. SIZER, Junior Hoo-Hoo;
"A. S. GUSTAFSON, Bojum;
"W. F. KILDUFF, Scrivenoter;
"N. B. WRIGHT, Jabberwock;
"L. C. DAY, Custocatian;
"L. G. CAMERON, Arcanoper;
"GEORGE H. HUGGINS, Gurdon."

Jacksonville, Fla.

H. H. Richardson, Vicegerent Snark for the Eastern District of Florida, held a very successful concatenation at Jacksonville, Fla., February 21. The meeting took place at the New Windsor Hotel, the proprietors of which made special efforts to have completed and ready the Turkish bathroom in which to hold the ceremonies. So far as we know, this is the only concatenation that ever took place in a Turkish bathroom, and we do not know just why such an apartment was selected. We presume the candidates were each and all warm members, and a warm place to initiate them was deemed appropriate. At any rate, the meeting was a great success, and thirteen good men were initiated.

Notes and Comments.

The following is from a Milwaukee paper of February 19:

"A. H. Weir, of Lincoln, Neb., who is Grand Snark of the Universe for the Order of Hoo-Hoo, and who had charge of the concatenation at Elks' Hall Tuesday evening, left for his home yesterday morning. Before leaving he expressed himself as highly pleased with the work of Vicegerent Snark Wilkin, of Milwaukee, who engineered the concatenation. In alluding to the national Hoo-Hoo celebration billed for Milwaukee next September, he said that the rallying cry of the Order now is: 'One thousand men for Milwaukee in September!' Mr. Wilkin has already arranged for a mammoth lake excursion on the occasion of the national convention, at which brass and string bands will furnish music. A concatenation will be held in Milwaukee June 3, and those who were unable to be present at the one held this week will be initiated."

This item will be of interest to the friends of Hoo-Hoo No. 8233:

"The following from Franklin, Pa., to the 'Oil City Derrick' relates to a prominent and popular young man of this city whose many friends will be interested in the announcement:

"Mrs. George R. Sheasley entertained the H. G. L. Club at dinner this evening, the occasion being the announcement of the engagement of her daughter, Miss Madge, to Mr. Warren Ross, of Jamestown, N. Y. The house was most profusely decorated with bride's roses, American beauties, and maiden-hair ferns, which were most effectively arranged and added greatly to the scene. Cards were one of the features of the evening."

Snark Weir is very appreciative of the good work of the Vicegerents, realizing that on them devolves the actual work of pushing the interests of the Order; for no member of the Supreme Nine, however able, could effect much benefit to Hoo-Hoo without the cooperation of the Vicegerents. They are the real strength of Hoo-Hoo. In his circular letter No. 3, which has been sent out to all Vicegerents, Mr. Weir says:

"I want to compliment the Vicegerents, one and all, for the thorough and efficient work done during the month just closing. Never in all the history of the Order has there been more widespread interest and activity than at the present time. The flattering opinions and sanguine expectations expressed in my first letter, in reference to the personnel and prospective work of the brothers who had accepted the burdensome labors and trying positions of Vicegerent Snarks, have been fully supported by the remarkable development of the interests of the Order under their charge. The concatenations have been so numerous and have followed each other in such rapid succession that it has made the Scrivenoter 'hustle' to meet the demand for the trunks. I held a concatenation in my own town of Lincoln, and we had hardly got the trunk repacked until he wired for it. He writes me that his office is literally flooded with letters from brothers whose interest has been reawakened and who are so pleased with the development of the Order that they write him to tell him of their pleasure. He says he tries to answer all these letters, but, with press of the work on the new handbook and 'The Bulletin' and his own paper, he is about overwhelmed. This result has been produced by the earnestness and fidelity of the Vicegerents.

"My own part in it has been to support and encourage these faithful workers and 'push on the hind end of the wagon' with all my might. Stand by your guns, brothers. Keep up the good work, and the flag of the Order, when unfurled at Milwaukee next September, will bear on its folds a legend of the grandest achievements ever recorded in the annals of the Order. The meeting at Milwaukee is destined to be a notable one. I set the high-water mark at Norfolk of one thousand men at Milwaukee. I feel already assured that the mark is none too high. Preparations are already under way for the entertainment of the convention. It was my pleasure to visit Milwaukee lately in the interest of the Order, and if they receive and treat other members of the Order as royally as they did me, our visit there will be a dream of joy.

"They may have mistaken me for Prince Henry, and I felt like the Prince for the many courtesies extended me. There was nothing in Milwaukee too good for the representative of the Order. I feel sure now, from the facts in my possession, that we will have a thousand people, including the ladies and visitors, there; but I shall not be satisfied with that. I want a thousand members of the Order. I look to the Vicegerents to take hold of this proposition with the same energy and devotion that have been exhibited so far in their regular work; and if you do that, brothers, my hopes will be realized. I rejoice in the large number of new members you are bringing into the Order, and am especially gratified with the character and standing of these members. As stated heretofore, it is quality, and not quantity, that we want. While so largely interested in gathering in new members, I am very anxious that all desirable members of the Order who have allowed their membership to lapse for any reason shall be earnestly solicited to reinstate themselves and come again into active affiliation with the Order. I press this work urgently upon your attention. Look up all these members within your Vicegerencies and call upon them personally or extend them written invitations to again identify themselves with us. Note in my last letter the conditions upon which this can be done.

"A very regretful complaint has come to me from some members of the Supreme Nine, based on the fact that Vicegerents have in several instances held concatenations without notice or information of any kind being given to the member of the Nine within whose jurisdiction the meetings have been held. I can but feel that this was an oversight, and am glad that my attention has been called to the fact, in order that I may urge Vicegerents to extend this courtesy in all cases to the member of the Nine within whose jurisdiction the concatenations occur. It is a courtesy due their rank and official position, and while their presence will in no way interfere with the work or authority of the Vicegerent, yet it might add influence and interest to the work. No concatenation should be held without an invitation being extended to the officer in charge of that jurisdiction."

We have had occasion before to refer to the enormous volume of mail reaching this office. We are glad to see that nearly every letter indicates good feeling and prosperity, though, of course, we do occasionally get hold of a kicker; but most of our correspondents, like the man who wrote the following letter, report that "all is well."

"Portland, Ore., February 8, 1902.—"I have been roaming around for the past year on the coast among those large trees, and while I received your notice for dues last June, it got mislaid until I dug it up to-day while scratching around. I inclose postal order for $1.95. All is well.

"T. V. WARD (No. 1286)."

Marienville, Pa., January 31, 1902.—J. H. Baird, Nashville, Tenn.—Dear Sir: You will find inclosed a sheet filled out with my name and address. I have been in West Virginia, and have just got home. We will soon open up large lumber operations in that State, but will be located here yet for some time. I may get to Nashville before long, and if so, will call on you. We have from sixteen to twenty inches of snow here, and it is four degrees below zero—a little fresh to be pleasant.

Yours respectfully,
O. J. DIEHL

After reading the last issue of "The Bulletin," Brother W. Dixon, of Beaumont, Texas, grew reminiscent and wrote us as follows: "I am pleased to note through the columns of 'The Bulletin' that E. J. Watson, Columbia, S. C., is a good Hoo-Hoo brother." Away back in '78 and '79 we were wont to fire spit balls at each other and receive lookings from the same ruler. Fraternally,
NO. 4911."

Here is a letter from Brother W. S. Phillips, who is now connected with Brother Frank Cole's paper, at Seattle:

"Seattle, Wash., February 12, 1902.—Dear Jim: Have crossed the map and anchored per address given on inclosed card, where I'll be until further notice. Change it in Hoo-Hoo book. Glad I came, too. Spring here already, with frogs singing outside to beat the band. When you all take a notion to come out here, write me and I'll see that you are taken care of right. See? Will have a bite to eat and an extra blanket in camp, and you all is mighty welcome, white folks. Am a heap busy. Annual number to finish, etc. You know what that means. Regards to Mrs. Jimmie, Jim's boys, and Jim's sister, and good living to you and yours. Fraternally yours,
"PHILLIPS (No. 7360)."

This caricature of Brother Charles Baseball Brewer (No. 5005) recently appeared in a Minneapolis paper. The sight of it so weakened him that he thought he was going to die, and set about putting his affairs in order, as will be seen from the following letter:

" Fargo, N. D., February 23, 1902.—Mr. J. H. Baird, Nashville, Tenn.—Dear Brother: It occurs to me that if I want to go to heaven when I die I had better get squared up with you. Inclosed please find a 95-cent check and two 2-cent stamps to pay my dues for the coming year.

Yours fraternally,
CHARLES BREWER (5005)
"alias Charles Baseball Brewer."

Lamar, Mo., February 15, 1902.—J. H. Baird, Scrivener, Nashville, Tenn.—Brother Baird: The book of Hoo-Hoo No. 8226 and the button have been duly received, for which kindly accept my thanks. As far as I have gone I am highly pleased. May the Order ever flourish and prosper. Your well wisher,
L. E. SEBLTON.

Minor, Miss., February 16, 1902.—Inclosed find check for $2—one for dues and one for Hoo-Hoo grip tag. I have lost track of my dues, and don't know whether I paid last September or not. If I did, credit above for next year; if not, square up the past. So far I am well pleased with Hoo-Hoo.
NO. 4097.

Ashland, Wis., February 14, 1902.—James H. Baird, Esq., Scrivener, Nashville, Tenn.—My Dear Sir and Brother:

Inclosed find my check for $3 for dues. I do not know how I stand on your books, but place the amount to my credit; and if I owe any more, I will cheerfully pay it.

If nothing happens to prevent, I shall be with Brother Wilkin on the 18th instant to assist him all I can with his concatenation. I will have to travel 345 miles to get there, but I think I will be well repaid by the good time we will have at that time. Fraternally and cordially yours,
C. M. E. MCCLINTOCK (No. 1210).

Ashland, Wis., February 25, 1902.—J. H. Baird, Esq., Scrivener, Nashville, Tenn.—Dear Sir and Brother: Your favor of the 22d at hand. Yes, I was with Brother Wilkin at the Milwaukee concatenation on the 18th instant, and we did have a royal, good time. I am going to try and get up a team here, if possible. Fraternally yours,
C. M. E. MCCLINTOCK (No. 1210).

Pleasanton, Kan., February 21, 1902.—J. H. Baird, Scrivener, Nashville, Tenn.—Dear Sir: I inclose you a one-dollar bill for dues. Am not sure whether I paid last year's or not. We have had eighteen inches of snowfall the past ten days. Yours truly, ALFRED BLAKER (No. 458).

Springfield, Mo., February 17, 1902.—Mr. J. H. Baird, Scrivener, Nashville, Tenn.—Dear Brother Hoo-Hoo: I am pleased to acknowledge receipt of Hoo-Hoo grip tag. It came to hand to-day. I think it a beauty, and all lumber travelling salesmen should possess one.

Thanking you for your promptness in this matter, I remain, Yours truly,
J. A. MCCLANAHAN (No. 2357).

Holdenville, I. T., February 18, 1902.—J. H. Baird, Scrivener, Nashville, Tenn.—Dear Brother: Inclosed find check for $2, which, I believe, pays me up to 9-9-1902. If I am not correct, please inform me.

My address, as you will see, is changed from Clinton, Mo., to Holdenville, I. T., where I am now in partnership with my brother-in-law, Ben. O. Simms, Jr.

With kind regards to you and wishing the entire Order Godspeed, I am, Fraternally yours,
WYATT SHANNON BROWN (No. 6730).

Ruston, La., February 27, 1902.—Mr. J. H. Baird, Nashville, Tenn.—Dear Brother Baird: I take pleasure in acknowledging receipt of the tags, both for Brother Carter (No. 8025) and myself. You will please accept our thanks for your interest and promptness in this matter.

'Twill hardly be out of place to state here, also, that our "Session on the Roof" on the 21st instant was a howling success. We took in A 1 material, not one being a "black sheep," and we have good reason to feel flattered that the affair turned out so nicely. As luck would have it, Brother Bonner, from South Texas, happened in that evening and was quite an acquisition. Fraternally,
J. LAWRENCE PITTS (No. 8032).

"Mexico, D. F., February 17, 1902.—J. H. Baird, Scrivener, Nashville, Tenn.—Dear Sir: I am beginning to believe that you are conducting your office without expense, else you are not paying your bills; at least, I have not helped pay any of them. Don't you collect dues in foreign countries? I have never received a notice that I was expected to contribute, and I certainly do not want to get on your 'Christmas tree' on account of the carelessness of some clerk in your office. Please look up No. 7743 and see whether he is in red or black ink and let me know. Very truly yours, WILLIAM J. CRITTENDEN."

We have written this brother that we are mighty glad to hear from him, and that he can just bet he would have heard from this office if he had been on the "Christmas tree" or in any danger of roosting there. The reason he did not hear from us is because he only owes 1902 dues, formal notice of which has not gone out. In the meantime we are collecting dues right along through reminders in "The Bulletin."

Canyon City, Texas, February 15, 1902.—Brother Baird: I have a girl on my string who is very anxious to be a Hoo-Hoo, and says she intends to throw me overboard and not give her one of the Hoo-Hoo ladies' pins. So my life, I inclose $1.00, for which please send me a pin engraved with my number.

With kind regards, I am, Fraternally,

Personal.

Mr. Charles Wolfin (No. 6460), the well-known representative of Enochs Brothers, manufacturers of yellow pine, was a recent visitor to this office. Mr. Wolfin's headquarters are at Evansville, but he sells lumber for his firm practically all over the Central West south of the lakes and north of the Ohio River. Mr. Wolfin was on his way home from a visit to the mills in the South of his firm and incidentally to Mardi Gras, at New Orleans. He was accompanied by Mrs. Wolfin. Brother Wolfin was at one time Vicegerent Snark for the Southern District of Illinois, and is a most loyal member of the Order.

Mr. B. M. Bunker (No. 5352), of Altoona, Pa., is another visitor to Mardi Gras who stopped at Nashville on his way home. Brother Bunker says that his presence at Mardi Gras was a mere incident and that he really went to Louisiana on business. But they all say that. However, we know that Brother Bunker is a director in a $2,000,000 company which recently purchased 109,000 acres of hardwoods in Louisiana.

This is the Hoo-Hoo Grip Tag. It is guaranteed to bring good luck to any traveling man and to keep him from journeying on the downhill road towards failure or disaster. It can be ordered from the Scrivener, and will be sold only to members in good standing. The price is 99 cents cash.
