The Jurisdictions.

The Hoo-Hoo territory, for the year beginning September 9, 1902, and ending September 9, 1903, has been apportioned among the members of the Supreme Nine as follows:

- Jurisdiction No. 1—Under the Snark the following States: Arizona, Old Mexico, New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, and Indian Territory.
- Jurisdiction No. 2—Under the Senior Hoo-Hoo: Missouri, Illinois, Arkansas, and Indiana.
- Jurisdiction No. 3—Under the Junior Hoo-Hoo: North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, central portion of Canada, and the Peninsula of Michigan.
- Jurisdiction No. 4—Under the Bojum: Ohio, Michigan, Virginia, and West Virginia.
- Jurisdiction No. 5—Under the Scrivenoter: Tennessee, Kentucky, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia.
- Jurisdiction No. 6—Under the Jabberwock: New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and all other States East, and the eastern portion of Canada.
- Jurisdiction No. 7—Under the Custocattan: Washington, Oregon, California, Nevada, Idaho, Montana and the western portion of Canada.
- Jurisdiction No. 8—Under the Arcanoper: Wyoming, Colorado, Colorado, Utah, Nebraska and Kansas.
- Jurisdiction No. 9—Under the Gurdon: Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Florida and Cuba.

Comments on Concatenations.

The concatenation at Oklahoma City, O. T., November 22 was the biggest thing that has happened down that way for some time, though the people of that section are rather accustomed to big things. The following excellent account of this meeting was written for us by Brother Harry A. Gorsuch, Vicegerent for the Western District of Missouri, who was present and rendered valuable assistance:

"T. H. Rogers, the recently appointed Vicegerent Snark for Oklahoma Territory and Indian Territory, has, at his initial concatenation, established a record which will make the other Vicegerents of the country hustle to equal. At the Oklahoma City concatenation held Saturday night, November 22, a class of fifty-seven was initiated into the mysteries of Hoo-Hoo. As far as can be ascertained from the records, this number of candidates is the largest ever initiated at one meeting, with one exception, and that was at the concatenation held at Kansas City, Mo., January 25, 1898, when a class of fifty-nine was initiated. Without detracting in the least from the credit due Vicegerent Rogers for his great achievement, it is only due to say that he was most ably assisted by a bunch of as live a lot of lumbermen as can be found, who went to work and gathered in candidates from all parts of the Territory in this Vicegerency.

"The concatenation was held at the Masonic Hall. It was intended to have a parade through the streets, but late rains had made the streets too muddy to allow this to be done with any comfort. The initiation was witnessed by about one hundred Hoo-Hoo of Oklahoma Territory and Indian Territory. Vicegerent J. E. Marrs, of Winfield, Kan., was also present, and occupied a seat on the platform with the Snark. The Junior work, in charge of Lee VanWinkle, was exceptionally well conducted, and was pushed through with vim and vigor, to the discomfort of the candidates (who received their money's worth, with interest) and the edification of the audience. At one stage of the procedure, in the midst of a spirited glove combat between two of the candidates, the vigilant guardians of the peace of Oklahoma City, thinking that a riot was in progress, broke into the hall and started to arrest the combatants. The policemen were finally persuaded that it was all right, after having been shown a permit from the mayor to allow the Hoo-Hoo to do what they pleased that night; and the affair ended happily, much to the relief of candidates Huber and Graves, who did not relish the prospect of a night in the lockup.

"At the close of the concatenation the old cats and their newly-made brothers adjourned to the Illinois Hotel, where they were royally entertained at a banquet prepared by the wholesale and retail lumbermen of Oklahoma City. One hundred and sixty-five plates were laid, and the menu which follows, speaks for itself:

| | | |
|--------------------|---------------------------|-----------------|
| Manhattan Cocktail | Soup | Oyster Cocktail |
| | Clam Bouillon En Tass | |
| | Claret Wine | |
| | Filet of Salmon Trout | |
| | Vegetables | |
| Radishes | Potato Parisen | Cucumbers |
| Prairie Chicken | French Peas | |
| | Lobster Salad | |
| | Water Crackers and Cheese | |
| Coffee | Champagne | |

"As the banquet proceeded the guests were afforded much amusement by the clever imitations and stories of Nels Darling, of the Oklahoma Sash and Door Company, who should be on the vaudeville circuit; were charmed by the delightful songs of J. E. Crawford, of the Pine Tree Lumber Company; and were deeply mystified by the sleight-of-hand feats of 'Schonwerk,' an Oklahoma magician, who is really an expert in his line.

"This concatenation was as successful and enjoyable as any that has ever been held. Its success was due to the united efforts of the Hoo-Hoo of Oklahoma City (the greatest town in Oklahoma Territory), whose population, now estimated at twenty-two thousand, has doubled within the past one or two years, and whose people are all hustlers.

"A pleasing feature of the banquet was the excellent music furnished by Tomlin Brothers' Orchestra."

Jacksonville, Fla.

Vicegerent J. P. Lynch made a most promising start on a fine record at Jacksonville, Fla., November 23. His concatenation took place in Wolf's Casino, on Riverside avenue, and thirteen was the number of his initiates—a very lucky number, indeed, for Hoo-Hoo, as everybody knows. Following the initiatory ceremonies, the following menu was served at the Session on the Roof:

|-------------------------------|-------------------------|
| Blue Points on the Half Shell | Celery |
| Olives | Pickles |
| Quail on Toast | French Peas |
| Sliced Tomatoes | Pepper Salad |
| Cold Turkey | Bentz Crackers |
| | Rocqueford Cheese |
| | Chocolate |
| | Coffee |
| | Cigars and Refreshments |

The meeting adjourned at 3:10 A.M., at which time the ninth life of the ninth kitten was saved; and each and every person repaired to his humble couch.

The following members were present (the formal report on another page gives the names of the initiates): J. P. Lynch, H. H. Richardson, C. S. Hammatt, L. C. Davison, H. W. Anderson, C. F. Flynn, H. E. Ploof, S. L. Chapman, A. T. Borden, F. F. Waller, H. S. Walters, J. W. White, P. E. Toolen, J. R. Walsh, C. H. Leggett, F. S. Larkins, H. F. Lecks, A. C. Harris, W. A. Blue, H. A. Hodges, C. E. Tufts, H. T. Barker, J. R. Schneider, G. W. Mead, S. J. Gunn, L. F. Drysdale, F. W. Buckley, F. H. Owen, H. C. Oltrogge, R. D. Drysdale, E. C. DeBogory, George E. Youle, J. E. Borden.

Aberdeen, Wash.

Vicegerent E. Clark Evans started the ball a-rolling in his district at a very enjoyable concatenation at Aberdeen, Wash., November 20. The local paper in its write-up of the affair, says:

"Last night was Hoo-Hoo night. Aberdeen always shines in anything she undertakes, whether in making sawdust or Hoo-Hoo kittens; and the excellent concatenation held last night in the Elks' Hall was in keeping with the spirit that has made Aberdeen the leading lumber manufacturing point on the Pacific Coast."

After giving the names of the officers and initiates, of which latter there were thirty-two, the paper states:

"At the close of the initiatory exercises, the line of march was taken up, and, amid loud caterwaulings, the assemblage repaired to the Poodle Dog Cafe, where a most elaborate banquet was served.

"Amid a blaze of oratory and glory the concatenation came to a close at three o'clock this morning, and Snark Evans may well feel proud of his initial meeting. A special vote of thanks was tendered to Grove M. Antrim, to whose efforts very largely the success of the concatenation is due."

The menu card on this occasion was extremely unique. In a conspicuous place on the card appeared this formidable ordinance:

"Ordinance 4-11-14.

"Be it ordered that all voters and inhabitants—Populists, Democrats, Republicans, and Prohibitionists—are hereby ordered, requested, and compelled to vacate the premises bounded on the west by Gray's Harbor, on the south by Hooliam, on the north by the Wishkah River, and on the east by the Northern Pacific Railway, between the hours of 9 P.M. and 1:09 A.M., on Thursday, November 20, and a portion of Friday, November 21.

"Be it also ordered that public business be suspended and the city hall flag be at half mast.

"First reading, November 19; second reading, November 20; final passage, November 20. GROVE M. ANTRIM.

"President Board of Public Works."

The following is the menu discussed at the Session on the Roof:

| | | |
|--|---------------------------|--------------------|
| Puree of Weatherwax Bean | Sawdust Gumbo | Piece Stuff |
| Specifications | Grades | |
| Entrees: | | |
| Salmi of Traveling Man, | Grafter Dressing | |
| Fried Leaches, | Calder Flavor | |
| Polk Straw | Potatoes in (A. F.) Coats | |
| Roast Hart | Emerson Punch | |
| Kellogg Fricassee | Fried Soule | |
| Salted Mack | Douglas Donkey | |
| Peterson Peas | | |
| (Permission of Gray's Harbor Commercial Company) | | |
| Spaghetti in Shields, | a la Claffey | Mitchell Kerf |
| Roast Whale, | a la Judge Nudd | |
| (Kindness of Judge Noyes) | | |

| | Gray's Harbor Clams | |

Tonata.

"The Ladies"—F. B. Leach, A. B. Calder, E. H. Lewis.
 "Nothing Doing"—D. B. Hanson, James A. Clock.
 "Rain as a Moisture"—Skid Oil Martin.
 "Dry Kiln Germs"—W. Eastman, J. W. Balcom.
 "The Real Thing in 'C. I. F.' Quotations"—Anderson and Middleton.
 "The Absorption of Fairbanks by Morse"—Oom Joseph Paul.
 "Influence of Poetry on Weyerhaeuser" ("Curfew Bells")—H. Jeewhillikins Miller.

San Antonio, Tex.

At San Antonio on October 25 there occurred one of the typical Texas concatenations. Vicegerent Kilburn Moore was ably assisted by a number of the prominent members in that section. Snark of the Universe W. H. Norris honored the occasion with his presence. A fine class of kittens was initiated into the mysteries of the Order, and the San Antonio Hoo-Hoo made the occasion a very enjoyable one for the visitors, of which there were a large number.

Sutton, W. Va.

The concatenation held by Vicegerent H. A. Hollowell at Sutton, W. Va., November 13, was a very brilliant affair, indeed. The fun was fast and furious, and the twenty candidates seem to have received all that was due them. The following able write-up of the occasion is from the facile pen of Brother T. A. Dless (No. 2062), of Clarksburg, W. Va.:

"The double ring-tailed ronder from Texas and the hump-backed Black Cat from Gurdon, Ark., paid a visit to Sutton last night, accompanied by eighteen veterans familiar with the use of rapid-fire guns, smokeless powder, quick aid to the injured, etc. They got busy at once corralling the twenty kittens who awaited their coming. After they were all lassoed, branded, counted, and inspected, the real work began; and until midnight the fun was fast and furious at the Knights of Pythias Hall, where the concatenation took place.

"Edward Special Barber, of Cincinnati, O., was Junior; and as it was not so long since he had a dose himself, he was there with the goods, and gave the boys a warm time, especially those who would not answer; and they were put in the dry kiln until they did.

"The On the Roof at the Elk Hotel was an enjoyable affair. Brother F. A. Kirby was toastmaster and kept the ball rolling, some say, until near daylight; and thus ended the first concatenation of the new Vicegerent, H. A. Hollowell, who has the best wishes of all to make his term a success.

To Brothers W. D. Floyd (No. 9244) and H. B. Curtin (No. 7431) much credit must be given for work before and during the concatenation. I also want to mention the good work of Brother J. M. Marshall. He worked hard, as, in fact, did all of the Junior's assistants."

The local paper had the following in regard to the On the Roof:

"At midnight they repaired to the Elk Hotel, where Mine Host Sutton had one of the most elaborate banquets ever spread in Sutton in readiness for them. Everything this and other markets could afford was had, and it was served in the very best style. Many of the visiting Hoo-Hoo were agreeably surprised, as they had made up their minds that Sutton was in the backwoods and nothing of the kind could be had here. Okey, was the recipient of many congratulations over the successful manner in which he carried out his part of their splendid visit to our growing little city.

"After partaking bountifully of the feast, speeches were next in order. F. A. Kirby, of Clarksburg, appointed himself toastmaster, and the following responded with well chosen remarks suitable to the occasion: Messrs. Hollowell, Curtin, Brooks, Dico, Chapman, Barber, Latham, Smith, Marshall, Floyd, Deltz, Proudfoot, Rectanus, Good, Hollen, Bailey, Irvin, Duncan, Bennett, and Bright."

Houston, Tex.

Vicegerent Kilburn Moore held a fine meeting at Houston, Texas, November 21, at which fifteen regular members and two life members were added to the rolls. Brother Moore was assisted by Snark Norris and a number of others of the old guard.

Valdosta, Ga.

The concatenation held at Valdosta, Ga., November 4, was a notable success despite the fact that the Vicegerent, A. M. Ramsey, was unable to be present, on account of illness. The work was ably carried through, and the candidates were well taken care of. Twenty-two men were initiated. The concatenation occurred during the meeting of the Georgia Sawmill Association, and a large number of visitors were present. After the concatenation a delightful On the Roof was held in the rooms of the Elks' Club, and many were the speeches made and the songs that were sung.

The following "Impressions of the meeting" appeared in the American Lumberman:

"George V. Denny, Jr., who represents in all the territory of the South the Georgia Supply Company, of Savannah, Ga., was a moving and enthusiastic figure in parts of the Hoo-Hoo ceremony on and during the daylight part of November 4 around about the hotel corridors and wherever good fellowship reigned. Mr. Denny made a decidedly good impression at the last Annual Meeting of Hoo-Hoo, and his popularity with the Order is well earned and thoroughly established.

"A. M. Collins, representing the Walter A. Zelnicker Supply Company, of St. Louis, Mo., seldom misses a meeting of the Georgia Sawmill Association, and certainly never misses any kind of Hoo-Hoo meeting that may occur in his territory. Mr. Collins is a very popular man with not only his trade but the best citizens of the country in which he travels. He assisted the Junior Hoo-Hoo on the floor.

"I. B. Lamson, who represents the Graton & Knight Belting Company, of Atlanta, Ga., became a Hoo-Hoo at this meeting, and a very enthusiastic Hoo-Hoo at that.

"Dry Kiln' Moore, whom every man, woman, and child in Georgia knows personally, arrived at Valdosta a little late in the daylight time of Tuesday, November 4, but his work "on the rough" was none the less pleasing on that account. Mr. Moore is probably one of the most popular traveling men in Georgia, and he deserves every bit of it.

"John A. Schaffer, of the Schofield Iron Works, Macon, Ga., came in early in the morning of November 4 and took in all portions of the ceremonies. Mr. Schaffer has never been known to miss a meeting of Hoo-Hoo in the State. He is a Northern man who popularized himself in the South and southeast in a way which must be very gratifying to himself and to those who have been fortunate enough to have him in employment. Mr. Schaffer was years ago connected with the Edward Hines Lumber Company, of Chicago, Ill., and afterwards with the Prepcke-Leicht Lumber Company. Some time ago he sold belting for the Munson folks. For the last three years he has represented the Schofield Iron Works, of Macon, and it seems now that he is a fixture with that concern; at least the character of his work would indicate that.

"At last Peter B. Blane, assistant manager of the affairs of the American Car and Foundry Company, with headquarters at Thomasville, Ga., has become a Hoo-Hoo. Many of his friends who could not be present will be both glad and displeased to hear this—glad that he is a Hoo-Hoo, and disappointed that they were not able to be present and lightly and gently help him along the road. Mr. Blane is one of the best known lumber buyers south of the Ohio River. He worked for several years in Mississippi, but has now been several years in the southeast.

"T. J. Peterson, of the Hutchinson Lumber and Supply Company, of Cordale, Ga., who is a very popular traveling man in this section of the southeast, was made a Hoo-Hoo at the concatenation.

"F. H. Ohlen, of Atlanta, Ga., representing E. C. Atkins & Company in the whole southeast, made an earnest endeavor to arrive at the meeting on time, but came in so late it was impossible to attend. He will leave Georgia for a short time this week to attend the great meeting of mill supply men at Memphis, Tenn., November 13.

"J. F. Coates, of the H. B. Smith Machine Company, of Smithville, N. J., took part in the ceremonies. Mr. Coates has headquarters in Atlanta.

"W. H. Hahr, of the A. Leschen Company, of St. Louis, Mo., who travels in this territory, also attended the meeting."

Columbia, S. C.

Vicegerent J. E. Fitzwillson held a concatenation at Columbia, S. C., October 31, on the occasion of the State Fair. In a letter to this office Vicegerent Fitzwillson says:

"Our float was given a very prominent position in the parade; and with our log cart, attached to which were four mules, each wearing a banner decorated with the Black Cat, we cut quite a figure. We had twenty men in line, each one wearing a Hoo-Hoo robe and a monk's hood. The ovation we received was immense, and a great card for Hoo-Hoo in this State. Another feature we had was a large black cat in a cage on the front of the wagon, and a number of human 'kittens' riding on the wagon."

Nashville, Tenn.

The first concatenation held this year in the Jurisdiction of the Scrivenoter occurred in Nashville, Tenn., December 5. The meeting began with a Session on the Roof in the shape of a banquet, which occurred at 6 o'clock. This was something of an innovation, but was extremely enjoyable, inasmuch as the banquet came just at a time when the inner man yearns for something substantial. Besides, some of the candidates were fearful that they would not enjoy the viands so much if they waited till after the concatenation, an apprehension which was wholly without foundation, as they afterwards realized. The banquet was a very elegant affair, and was thoroughly enjoyed. It was given jointly by the local members of Hoo-Hoo and by the Nashville Lumbermen's Club, which has rooms in the same building with the official headquarters of Hoo-Hoo. The banquet hall was decorated with red carnations and American Beauty Roses.

John B. Ransom acted as master of ceremonies at the Session on the Roof and peacefully allowed the following menu to be served and devoured:

Menu.

(All subject to the inspection rules of the Hardwood Manufacturers' Association of the United States.)

Miscut Blue Points
Rough Clams
Celery, random lengths
Cream of Asparagus, aux Mill Culls Out
Kiln Dried Bouillon in Cups Green Turtle
Haunch Venison S 2 S to 3/4
Roast Ribs of Prime Beef, free of season checks
Red Head Duck, a la Baskette
Clear Potato Strips 2 1/2 to 5 1/2 wide
Tennessee Central Custard
St. Vitus Punch
Hoo-Hoo Ice Cream
Band Saw Assorted Cakes, Mixed Thicknesses
Coffee Cigars

Skoots

Mr. Ransom called on Mayor James M. Head, who welcomed the visitors to the city, saying that there was nothing that helped to make the city more what it should be than the lumber interests. He referred to the new paving being put on the Nashville streets, and said that unless he was mistaken it would soon be recognized as the ideal paving. He said that he expected Nashville to be in a few years one of the best paved cities in the country and that it could then be made one of the cleanest.

Vicegerent Hamilton Love was assigned the toast, "Cats and Kittens." He expressed his pleasure at the success of the Session on the Roof, and advised the candidates to get their muscles in trim for what was coming.

J. H. Baskette was called on and explained that the item on the bill of fare, "Red Headed Duck, a la Baskette," was not meant for him; that he had a red-headed brother in the railroad business.

Lewis Doster, secretary of the Hardwood Manufacturers' Association of the United States, stated that he did not care to say much, as he desired to save up all his energy for what was coming, as he was a candidate.

S. Lieberman told of what he knew about "Saps and Scoots." He said that all knew what scoots were, but only the more intellectual knew just what saps were. He said that he liked to see Hoo-Hoo, liked to talk Hoo-Hoo, and liked to act Hoo-Hoo, and hoped he would be gratified later.

Charles H. Sanders, the new general agent of the Tennessee Central Railroad, was called on to tell "how he liked his new job." He said he felt flattered that he had been selected out of all the bunch of intellect he saw before him, and asked to be allowed to reserve what he had in his think box until a little later.

C. S. Willock, the new general agent of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, said that he needed all his energy for what he expected a little later, as he was also a candidate.

R. L. Burch was called on to tell some actual facts about newspaper circulation. He said that if all would consider it confidential, he would say that The American was about three lengths in the lead. After a few other remarks he told the prospective Cats that barbers would do them more good than doctors. It was a joke that all seemed to greatly appreciate.

The meeting then adjourned to the Willcox Building, where the concatenation was held. Fourteen candidates were initiated, and the ceremonies were made extremely interesting.

Birmingham, Ala.

Vicegerent J. J. Kaul held a good concatenation at Birmingham, Ala., November 22. He was assisted by Brothers F. H. Lathrop, J. H. Scruggs, W. C. Fellows, C. T. Graves, D. S. Fellows, K. M. Morrison, and M. F. Gorman.

Memphis, Tenn.

Vicegerent John W. Dickson held a special concatenation at Memphis, Tenn., November 4, for the purpose of initiating two prominent lumber dealers of Liverpool, England. The meeting was a very pleasant one, and the two distinguished foreigners are now enthusiastic followers of the Black Cat. These two Brits are Arthur Donald Munro and Herbert John Munro, of the firm of Munro, Brice & Company, of Liverpool. Their application blanks show that both are young men, and both were "raised" on a bottle. Notwithstanding they were brought up by hand, they are fine specimens of the Anglo-Saxon type, and will doubtless prove valuable acquisitions to Hoo-Hoo.

Approaching Concatenations.

Vicegerent George W. Schmidt will hold a concatenation at Clay City, Ky., December 19. A class of fifteen or twenty kittens has already been worked up, and the prospects are that the meeting will be a great success.

Vicegerent G. M. Reddy will hold a concatenation at New Orleans, La., December 27.

A concatenation will be held at Minneapolis, Minn., by Vicegerent W. B. Tomlinson January 15.

Notes and Comments.

The following write-up of one of Hoo-Hoo's new Vicegerents appeared in a recent issue of the American Lumberman:

"The Lumberman takes pleasure in presenting herewith the photograph of Harlan P. Hubbard, who was recently appointed sales agent for Canada and the maritime provinces for the world-renowned concern E. C. Atkins & Company, Incorporated, Indianapolis, Ind., manufacturers of all kinds of saws and saw tools.

"Mr. Hubbard is a young man of fine address and great energy and is especially qualified for his new duties, having had years of experience in the manufacture of saws. He comes of the well-known Hubbard family, of Pittsburgh, Pa., his father and uncles having for years been in the saw and ax business in that city, and under them he learned the trade. He was for several years superintendent of the Chicago factory of the Simonds Manufacturing Company, where he was very successful; and he was so well liked by every one connected with the establishment, especially the workmen, that upon his resignation he was presented with a beautiful gold watch and chain by his men.

"His practical knowledge of the manufacture of saws, as well as of the requirements of saw users, makes Mr. Hubbard especially well fitted to represent the fine line of saws put out by E. C. Atkins & Company to the trade in the country in which he is now traveling. He has now been in the field about two months and has had the great satisfaction of meeting with a very encouraging reception wherever he has been.

"Mr. Hubbard was made a member of the Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo at the Milwaukee Annual, September 9, 1902, and was recently appointed Vicegerent for Eastern Canada by the new Snark."

We are still receiving complimentary letters concerning the September "Bulletin," which please us very much. The Scrivenoter is a modest man as is also the Snark of the Universe, but the motto of "The Bulletin" is: "If you love me, tell me so."

DuBois, Pa., November 9.—Editor of "Bulletin," Nashville, Tenn.—Dear Sir: I have just finished reading "The Bulletin" of September. It is really a fine issue, and I have enjoyed it all. The explanation for lateness of issue is satisfactory, and I trust that the same will not happen again. I was one on the anxious waiting list, for I assure you that "The Bulletin," with its wide range of news, is eagerly looked for and read with pleasure. You must have used that rabbit's foot on Sam. Cowan's jewelry; I am glad you did, for Sam. is too good a boy to be running loose. Thanks to the young lady that took him up and put him in pound! I hope her reward will be generous.

Did the new Nine not have a Jabberwock at the installation? If I remember correctly, there was a wouldbe actor of some two hundred and fifty pounds (and I think Jim Baird got him the job) that practiced the art of lock-step and sit down right for nearly eight hours, he supposing all the time that he was the new Jabberwock. Perhaps he was N. G.

Colonel McLeod's letter makes good reading, but I prefer the Colonel in person at our Annuals.

Pennsylvania will have a big crowd at Buffalo, for every one of the Black Cats in Forest County and Elk County have made up their minds to be there, and, of course, there will be others.

Yours respectfully,
NO. 7292.

The new Nine had a Jabberwock at the installation—a man who is big in more ways than one. His name was written out plainly in the write-up of the installation ceremonies, but the Mergenthalers made a slip and dropped it out. Every one who has had any experience with typesetting machines knows that when they make a break it is always in a matter of special importance.

Valdosta, Ga., November 5.—I have just finished porusing the contents of the September issue of "The Bulletin," and wish to thank you for the report of the Milwaukee Annual. I can readily appreciate the various trials and tribulations you had in getting the September issue in shape for the members of Hoo-Hoo. In reading over the minutes and business proceedings of the Annual, I find that a member is required to remit dues annually, without notification. I was under the impression that each member was to be notified of the date that his dues were expected, and I hasten herewith to remit my dues for 1903, which I hope will arrive in proper time. I would not drop my membership in the Order for a great deal, as I feel that since I became a Hoo-Hoo it has been of great benefit to me.

Fraternally,
NO. 8538.

In reply to the foregoing letter, we wrote this brother that all good Hoo-Hoo are expected to pay their dues without notification. Nevertheless, the Scrivenoter is required to send out three notices before suspending a man. He always does this, and, in addition, writes a personal letter, if the third dues' notice fails to bring a response. However, no good Hoo-Hoo wants to put this office to all this expense. The amount of the yearly dues to Hoo-Hoo is very small, and a great many men prefer to pay up for several years in advance and get the matter off their minds. We have a number of men on the books paid up as far ahead as 1907. Dues for 1903 are now payable. Have you paid yours?

Brother A. H. Weir, of Lincoln, Neb., ex-Snark of the Universe, has busted into the "fourth estate." He has become the editor of "The Traveler," a miniature lumber newspaper, which he is going to get out "semi-occasionally," as he says, as a sort of adjunct to his business as a lumber dealer. Brother Weir's literary style is straightforward and direct, and the news published in his little paper is absolutely reliable.

Pine Bluff, Ark., November 6.—The last issue of "The Bulletin" to hand, and it is a dandy. I do not know how my dues stand, so I inclose New York exchange for $2. If my dues are paid and there is any left, place it to my credit in the Distress Fund. I never want to drop my membership in Hoo-Hoo, and expect to subscribe to the House of Hoo-Hoo and take in the great fair.

Yours in the bonds that unite us,
A. A. LE LAURIN (583).

Brothers J. E. Brantley, of the Hawley Down Draft Furnace Company, of Atlanta, Ga., and Walter D. Thomas, of Savannah, Ga., were callers at the Scrivenoter's office a few days ago.

Senior Hoo-Hoo George W. Schwartz paid us a pleasant visit recently.

We are in receipt of the big, illustrated industrial edition of the Harrison County (W. Va.) Herald, which contains an interesting sketch of the wholesale lumber firm of E. Stringer Boggess, of Clarksburg. Brother Boggess has served two terms as Vicegerent for West Virginia, and Brother F. A. Kirby of the same firm was Vicegerent for Maryland several years ago; while Brother T. A. Delse is a very loyal and enthusiastic private in the ranks, and has often done us a good turn in the way of writing up reports of concatenations. The paper referred to contains a portrait cut of Brother Boggess and a picture of a corner in the office, showing Brothers Kirby and Delse engaged in an earnest discussion, probably on the relative merits of a high ball and a silver gin fizz. We observe that the office walls are ornamented with numerous photographs of young ladies, despite the fact that Kirby bemoans his lack of luck with ladies. The sketch is as follows:

"One of the largest wholesale lumber industries of West Virginia is that conducted under the firm name of 'E. Stringer Boggess' and located in Clarksburg. Mr. Boggess is a native of Harrison County, having been born near Lumberport. For over twenty-two years he has been engaged, in one way or another, in the lumber trade, and his name is known throughout this and adjoining States, wherever lumber is bought and sold, as that of one of the best informed and most reliable men connected with the business. He was educated in the schools of his native county and at Rock Hill College, near Baltimore, Md. In 1880 he operated a sawmill in Doddridge County, W. Va., which branch of the lumber industry he relinquished three years later for that of lumber inspector. In this capacity he traveled for several years, and being regarded everywhere as an expert in his line. Subsequently he engaged in business in Clarksburg, and three years ago opened his present suite of offices in the Clifford Block, on Main street. Since that time his transactions in lumber have been very heavy, much of his trade being export, Great Britain furnishing the principal market. His chief trade is in popular, oak, hemlock, bass, and other woods indigenous to this State. Mr. Boggess was last year Vicegerent for West Virginia of the Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo, the well-known lumbermen's association of the United States, and active in promoting its interests. Connected with him in the conduct of his lumber business are F. A. Kirby and T. A. Delse, who have charge of the affairs of the office, much of Mr. Boggess' time being spent in traveling."

With much anxiety the writer awaits every month the arrival of "The Bulletin," which is always read with great interest; and you certainly deserve credit for the neat and attractive manner in which it is gotten up, everything being so complete. EMMETT D. WALSH (9105).

The number of delinquents who are paying up and coming back into the fold is very gratifying. The following is taken from one of a number of letters of a similar tenor: "I was at Tippecanoo City, O., Tuesday, and while waiting an audience with my customer, I picked up a copy of the September 'Bulletin' and became interested in the report of the Annual Meeting held at Milwaukee." He then goes on to say that he wants to pay up and be reinstated, buy a new button, and become once more a follower of the Great Sacred Black Cat.

We are short on 1896 handbooks, having but two copies of that issue. We need these two for our files, and we also need a few others for reference. If any good brother happens to have a handbook of the issue of 1896, he will confer a favor upon the Scrivenoter by sending it to this office.

Buckhannon, W. Va., November 29.—Mr. J. H. Baird, Nashville, Tenn. Dear Sir: Button No. 9669 has been received, also Constitution and By-laws. This Hoo-Hoo business is O. K. Yours, J. L. HENRY (9669).

Brother J. F. O'Neill (No. 5127), of New Orleans, La., formerly with the Thomas Belting Company, is now a member of the firm of Glas & O'Neill, machinery and mill supply specialties, 720 Carondelet street, New Orleans. He writes us that his partner, Mr. Glas, is not a Hoo-Hoo, but is a good subject for initiation, from which we infer that Mr. Glas is not really so fragile as he sounds. The new firm reports business good.

Buckhannon, W. Va., December 3.—Mr. J. H. Baird, Nashville, Tenn. Dear Sir and Brother: I have received my button and the Constitution and By-laws all O. K., for which I tender many thanks. Though I am only a kitten, I enjoy Hoo-Hoo first-rate so far; the initiation is fine and also funny. Yours very truly,

LEE L. BENNETT (9658).

Chicago, Ill., November 17.—I intended to write you last week, congratulating you upon the issue of "The Bulletin" containing the report of the Milwaukee Annual Meeting. It was one of the best pieces of newspaper work I ever saw. NO. 5936.

Vicegerents when telegraphing this office will please send their messages collect. It is not the intention of Hoo-Hoo to put any unnecessary burden upon its faithful and hard-working men in the field.

Don'ts for Hoo-Hoo.

Don't fail to give both your number and your name when writing to the Scrivenoter's office. It is quite likely that your signature is difficult to decipher, and the number will help us out wonderfully.

Don't send us a remittance unaccompanied by any kind of clue as to your identity. We are holding a number of unidentified remittances here now.

Don't write us a letter to which your number alone is signed. It may be that you are mistaken in your number—a great many men get their numbers wrong. Besides, we do not know the numbers of all the members by heart, and the number has to be looked up at this office. While you are about it, write both name and number, and save trouble all around.

Don't ask us to send you any article of Hoo-Hoo jewelry on approval. We sell jewelry for spot cash, and in no other way.

Don't order jewelry by wire unless you telegraph the price along with the order.

Don't wait till Christmas Eve to order some article of Hoo-Hoo jewelry for your best girl's present.

Don't imagine that the Scrivenoter is a crusty curmudgeon because he refuses to transgress a rule of the Order. He is handling nearly nine thousand men, and he has to be systematic.

Don't imagine that we can write a lengthy obituary of your deceased friend from a pencilled line on a postal card sent in by you and stating briefly: "Poor Bill Smith is dead."

Don't hesitate to write us when there is anything we can do for you. We are always glad to hear from the members and to give careful attention to jewelry orders or any other commission intrusted to us. We like to read letters, anyway.

Dues for 1903.

WHEN the clock struck twelve on the night of September 9 last, dues became payable for 1903. The Hoo-Hoo year begins and ends on September 9. Look up your receipts, and if you find that you have not paid 1903 dues, send 99 cents to the Scrivenoter at once. Any form of remittance will do except stamps that are stuck together. Your individual check will be all right.

House of Hoo-Hoo.

As everybody knows, the site for the House of Hoo-Hoo at the St. Louis World's Fair has been formally accepted, with fitting and impressive ceremonies, which occurred October 8 last. We present herewith some pictures taken on the spot by the American Lumberman's representative. The "House of Ancients Delegation" is shown standing on the exact spot where the building is to be erected. Brother

House of Ancients Delegation.

J. A. Freeman is the man who formally accepted the site and who made a most interesting and appropriate speech. Brother N. W. McLeod is president of the House of Hoo-Hoo. The "House of Ancients Delegation" on this memorable occasion was composed of Brothers Bolling Arthur Johnson, J. E. Defebaugh, and W. E. Barns, these men being the three oldest—in point of office holding—Snarks of the Universe.

Hymeneal.

Mr. L. J. Strickland (No. 5605), of Greenville, Miss., and Miss Ruth Le Grand Seay, of this city, will be united in marriage at Christ Church on the evening of December 10. The bride is one of Nashville's most charming and popular girls. Mr. Strickland is general manager of the Planter's Lumber Company, of Greenville, Miss., at which place the young couple will reside. He is a fine representative of an old Southern family, and a young man of wide popularity in both the business and social worlds.

The wedding will be a quiet, but elegant affair, the only attendants being the maid of honor and best man and the party of ushers. "The Bulletin" extends congratulations and good wishes.

N. W. McLeod.

No piece of Hoo-Hoo jewelry can be sent from the Scrivenoter's office unless the purchaser's number is engraved thereon. There is no exception to this rule.

All Hoo-Hoo jewelry is guaranteed. Money will be refunded if the article is not satisfactory and if it is returned to us promptly. We cannot, of course, refund the price of a pin that has been worn for months.

Send to the Scrivenoter for the Special Jewelry Circular for prices and description of Hoo-Hoo brooches and souvenir spoons.

The price of a Hoo-Hoo lapel button is $2.10.

Hoo-Hoo jewelry can be purchased only from the Scrivenoter's office.

J. A. FREEMAN.

Hoo-Hoo Watch Charm.

The accompanying cut shows a new design for a Hoo-Hoo watch charm. It can be worn as a fob, and being alike on both sides, will never hang wrong side out, as is always the case with a watch charm that is plain on one side. The edges are smooth, which is also a great advantage. It will be remembered that we once had a most beautiful design made, to which we thought there could be no possible objection. It had, however, some sharp points and numerous kicks began to reach us from married brothers who felt aggrieved because, as they said, the watch charm "scratched the baby's legs all up." We are sure that this watch charm is perfectly harmless, as well as very beautiful, besides being appropriately suggestive of Egypt, the birthplace of Hoo-Hoo. That part of the design which looks like the top of a gate or door represents the "Propylon." The Propylon was the great gateway erected in front of the temple of Osiris. It was massive in proportion and rich in sculptural design and inscriptions. In shape it was like the Pylons of the temple, from which it took its name. It served as a kind of introduction to the temple, and beyond it was sacred ground. From beneath its portal, on account of its position, the temple in all its glory was seen. Leading from it was the sacred way, bordered on each side by the recumbent sphynx. Once a year, when the earth in its circuit around the sun had reached a certain point in the ecliptic, the rays of the rising sun cutting across the desert, shone through the great Propylon down the avenue of sphynx into and down through the temple until it lighted up the place of the Most Holy and glittered on the gilded horns of the sacred bull—and the Egyptian new year had begun.

Hoo-Hoo Watch Charm.

The rest of the design is made up of a continuous border of the lotus, symbolical of the resurrection—the lotus sleeps and awakens. The Egyptians believed that their spirits would return to earth after a lengthy sojourn elsewhere and that they would inhabit their old bodies—hence mummies.

It will be seen from the foregoing that the Hoo-Hoo watch charm is not only very beautiful, but that it means a whole lot. The price of it is $7.50, and, like every other article of Hoo-Hoo jewelry, it is sold only for spot cash to members in good standing.

Obituary.

Brother C. H. Crane (No. 2011) died at Phoenix, Ariz., October 12.

Cornelius H. Crane was born at Manchester, N. H., in 1855. At an early age he went West and engaged in the lumber business at Fairhaven, Wash. It was but a short time afterwards that Messrs. Crane and Lewis joined forces at Seattle, and the firm of Lewis & Crane was formed to handle lumber. As shingles were then in great demand, for a few years they made a specialty of the shingle business; but they gradually worked out of it, and during the last few years they confined their attentions almost exclusively to fir lumber, making a specialty of long and large timber for Eastern railroad and shipbuilding trade.

Having worked up an extensive business along the Atlantic Coast, it was the custom for either Mr. Lewis or Mr. Crane to spend several months each year in the East, and, as their business grew, a year ago it was found necessary to open an office in New York. This was done by Mr. Lewis, and he remained there until the first of last April. Mr. Crane looking after the general office in Seattle. Too close confinement to office work impaired his health, and early in April he was obliged to give up active work, wiring Mr. Lewis to return, which he did. It was thought then that Mr. Crane was suffering merely from overwork and his physician advised a rest and change of climate. There was some fear of his developing consumption, and early in April he went to Phoenix, Ariz., where he remained until the time of his death.

Contributors to "Imminent Distress Fund."

Of the following men, some contributed one amount and some another. Ninety-nine cents is what was asked for, but Hoo-Hoo are generous, and in many cases the contribution was more than ninety-nine cents. Each man is credited on the books with the exact amount sent in. Since this list was put in type a number of contributions have been received, all of which will be acknowledged in the next issue of The Bulletin.

At Cairo, Ill.

The big "annual concatenation," at Cairo, Ill., will occur on the night of January 28, and the prospects are that it will be a record breaker. The banquet will be held at the Halliday House. These Cairo meetings are famous throughout the country, and Vicegerent P. T. Langan and his assistants will spare no pains to make this concatenation worthy of their city's reputation.

Personal Mention.

Brother Charles H. Adams (7292), the well known representative of the D. Clint Prescott Co., and one of the best and most loyal Hoo-Hoo there is going, was in Nashville a few days ago. Brother Adams has recently spent some time in Pennsylvania, and reports that prospects are good for several concatenations up that way.

Brother F. U. Nofziger (6772), of Los Angeles, Cal., has recently been elected one of the Board of Aldermen of that fair little city. In a recent letter to the Scrivenoter's office, Brother Nofziger writes that the lumbermen of Los Angeles are anxious for a concatenation and that a dozen applications have been filed. It is probable that a Vicegerent will be appointed for Southern California within the next few days.

This issue of The Bulletin is late. The September Bulletin was late in coming out, and we have not yet caught up. The reason for the delay in connection with the September Bulletin is known to all of the Supreme Nine and to a great many of the lay members. It was no fault of this office. The December Bulletin will come out as promptly as possible, and we shall make every effort to get out each succeeding issue on time.

Great Opportunities for Homes in Texas.

The country traversed by the International & Great Northern Railroad, embracing the greater portion of East, South and Southwest Texas, contains thousands of acres of fertile lands especially adapted to general farming, stock-raising, rice, tobacco, fruit and grape culture, trucking, mining and lumber manufacturing, that can be purchased at low rates and on exceedingly liberal terms.

The Practical Side.

The men whose Hoo-Hoo names appear in the notices below are out of work and want employment. This is intended as a permanent department of THE BULLETIN, through which to make these facts known. It is, or should be, read by several thousand business men who employ labor in many varied forms, and it can be made of great value in giving practical application to Hoo-Hoo's central theme of helping one another. It is hoped the department will receive very careful attention each issue.
