MEMO ...from the Snark

Our 1973 International Convention is now a very pleasant memory as we start looking forward to 1974. However, we can't close the book on Miami without expressing the heartfelt thanks of the Order to those who worked so diligently to make that convention the great success that it certainly was. To Chairman Paul Renuart and his Co-Chairmen: Al Coletti, Everett Cupit and Mike McVay, we salute you for a job well done! To their lovely wives: Gail, Jean, Connie and Ginger, it could not have been done without you! To all others, members and sponsors alike, who in any way assisted in the cause, Miami was great. You gave our Detroit Chapter a hard act to follow in 1974.

We are all looking forward to a busy and productive year in Hoo-Hoo. For openers, your Snark and wife Bette are leaving for a round the world tour October 12th and, in all probability, will have returned by publication date. We hope to say hello to some members in Anchorage, Alaska and if there are any stray cats in Japan, Hong Kong, India, South Africa, and South America, I hope to find them.

Upon my return, I plan to concentrate upon a new program developed in Miami in which we will promote jurisdictional meetings for all jurisdictions like those which have been so successful in Jurisdictions III and V. In this program, each jurisdiction will hold its own miniature convention which will make it possible for all clubs to be represented. The meetings will be a blending of fellowship and an inter-exchange of ideas on club operations and the betterment of the Order. I plan to attend all of these meetings and thereby have the opportunity to contact representatives of every club. I would like to call it "Operation Grass Roots". I want to see top level contact carried right back to the individual clubs, to impress upon them that they are a very vital part of Hoo-Hoo. If possible, I plan to visit Australia this winter, with stops in Hawaii and possibly New Zealand. Yes, it certainly will be a busy year!

A few reminders to club officers: 1). Get your club officer rosters in to the Boston office; 2). Select a good correspondent who will cover your meetings and will take and send pictures and reports of your activities; 3). Review the Guidelines of Successful Club Operations—it is a great help; 4). Sharpen up your meetings and particularly your concats—make them an acceptable combination of solemnity and levity; 5). Check your ritual gear—if it needs replacing; do so and last but not least, 6). Contact your S-9 Member to obtain the use of the film "The Forest Productive". He has a copy for use by the clubs in your jurisdiction. Show it to your own group; then, to others. It is a fine, informative industry public relations work.

This next year presents a great challenge to all of us in Hoo-Hoo. I accept this high office with a deep sense of humility and a dedication of purpose and I assure all of you that I will do my best to make this a great year in Hoo-Hoo.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Philip H. Dawson 53384

Rameses #52

A Living Past Snark.....

Editor's note: This is the ninth in a series of articles appearing in the LOG & TALLY honoring our living past Snarks. While Dick was Snark he was assisted by a Supreme Nine consisting of Tom Dugan 53491; Clyde Haas 47110, James Miller 55685; Leo Speltz 50906; Leslie McKimmie 60303; Jack Berry 49431; Hubert Heting 46190; Glenn Ross 45275, and Oscar Franklin 54804.

R.W. (Dick) Scott was born in Manitoba in 1916 and moved to beautiful British Columbia in 1927. He started his career in the forest industry at the age of seventeen and worked through all phases of the industry and semi retired in December of 1969.

Scott retains an active interest in the forest industries as he owns and operates - R.W. Scott Industries Ltd., Pac-Deck Sales Ltd., Scott Forest Products Ltd., and is an active partner in Arthur Cedar Products Co.

These companies specialize in the manufacture and distribution of industrial and exotic, British Columbia woods. The head office of all these companies is situated at Maple Ridge, B.C. and the mail address is P.O. Box 68, Maple Ridge, B.C., Canada.

Excellent partners and management, allows Dick to spend two months a year in Hawaii and to continue to spend a month annually seeing with Isabel the parts of the world not yet explored by the Scotts. The last trip was 6 weeks in Africa and South America, the next will be in Asia and Malasia.

They still find time to spend July and August cruising the coastal area of British Columbia in their cruiser the "MV. Heatherbel".

Dick's HOO-HOO life started in 1951 in Vancouver, B.C. He is a past secretary and president of the Vancouver Club #48. He was elected to the supreme nine as head of Jurisdiction V in 1956 and became Snark of the Universe in 1959 at Duluth Minn., the first Canadian Snark.

Scott's term of Snark was a busy one as he attended 84 industry meetings on behalf of HOO-HOO personally, started five new clubs in Western Canada, plus one in Kentucky.

Of the many highlights during the year as Snark, two particularly stand out, Firstly the coming into being of National Forest Products Week throughout the U.S.A. and Canada climaxed by Scott being asked to President Eisenhower's executive offices in the White House to witness the National Forest Product Week Bill be signed into law by the President, Secondly the 69th annual convention at Hot Springs Arkansas and the visit to Gurdon Arkansas, the birthplace of HOO-HOO.

In closing the Scotts extend their sincere and warm greeting to all their HOO-HOO friends and a very special SALUTE to the ONE & ONLY—BEN SPRINGER.

We hope to see "you all" at the Vancouver International Convention in 1975.

Fraternally,
Dick Scott

Wichita

Club #173

Wichita, Kansas

Needless to say, the Wichita Hoo-Hoo Club #173 was elated after the Miami convention, and for good reason, too. One of their members, Laurn Champ, was elected to the office of Supreme Nine for Jurisdiction VII; Dave Marteney, also a member of Club #173, was elected to the office of International Vice President; and the Wichita Club also made a clean sweep of things by winning the Wood Promotion Trophy for 1973!

Following are a few shots of the Wichita Club's Annual Picnic at Jayland Park on August 18th.

Club #142

Honolulu, Hawaii

The Honolulu Hoo-Hoo Club held its 2nd annual steak barbecue in July and it was such a success that this annual event will go on and on, according to Jim Lovell, reporter for Club #142.

The event was held at the Lanikai Community Park in Kailua, on the windward side of the Island of Oahu. Members, their families and guests enjoyed a most beautiful day with lively sports, good food and great company.

Nagao Yamada was the program chairman, and he should be congratulated for a wonderful job.

President Wayne Meredith (wearing the Hoo-Hoo shirt) chats with some of the guests at the 2nd annual steak barbecue.

Here is a group converging around the aroma of barbecuing steaks.

Club #118

Sioux Falls, S. D.

The Sioux Valley club #118 had its annual golf and trap shooting contest August 17th in Sioux Falls, S.D. at the Izac Walton League club house on the East edge of Sioux Falls.

Close to 100 lumbermen and friends enjoyed grilling their own steaks on the outdoor grill. The Twin City Club was well represented this year with Earl Emmer, Tom Partridge and Cliff Taylor on hand. With the temperature over 90 degrees that day, a breeze kept things somewhat comfortable.

Inland Empire

Club #117

Riverside, Calif.

On September 12, 1973 our club hosted a Plywood Grading Seminar at American Forest Products, Rialto. All retail & wholesale yards were invited from our area. Our registration tally totaled 182 lumbermen.

Our stations were broken up four (4) ways, each station rotating every 30 minutes. Station #1 Phil Benfield American Plywood Association, San Francisco on sanded stock. #2 Stu Day APA-LA, unsanded and sheathing grades. #3 Kenn Walters, APA, LA Siding and specialties. #4 Charles Morschauser, National Particle Board Ass'n. Maryland, particle board.

Station #4 finds Charlie Morschauser of the National Particle Board Association.

After the stations were finished the tops came off the beer barrels and Stu Day put a slide presentation on timber management and ecology. From there everyone had a buffet, ham & beef dinner to conclude the evening.

Inland Empire #117 would like to thank all those who participated and especially the two Associations that made this seminar possible.

Here's a small portion of the group of 182 people who registered for the Inland Empire Club's Plywood Grading Seminar.

This station did not have a number, so we called it the Beer Station. The end of a very informative and educational day.

North Cascade

Club #230

Arlington, Wash.

The North Cascade Field Trip was an experience in the renewable cycle of reforestation here in the Northwest. The trip covered a 13-mile drive on a Forest Service logging road where the group passed through the various age groups of trees. The second growth, now some 60 years old, was prominent in the lower reaches of the mountains and was of a size usable for commercial use.

Some Hoo-Hoo members and their families observed logging operations. This is where it all begins for we lumbermen.

Heavy equipment loaded large logs while North Cascade group watched the loggers set chokers.

Chairman Walt Bates and helpers made arrangements for this enjoyable trip.

This area was of natural reseeding with dense growth of fir a hemlock over thousands of acres. The higher slopes were younger stands that have been helped along by logging practices in use today where planting and thinning increase the yield. The building of forest roads in this area has made possible the control of fire and disease that are the natural enemy of such stands.

The group was treated to some fantastic scenery as the buses broke out on the ridges above the Stillaguamish river where the active logging was in progress. It was possible to look down one side and see the Skagit river and the town of Rockport and miles of forested hills on the other side.

Possibly this was somewhat frightening to the people not used to the rugged roads used by loggers to bring out the timber. Fortunately the day was somewhat overcast because in this area it can get very warm. Those that missed out on the trip were unfortunate indeed as the overall planning for the visitors was perfect. Thanks to all who helped make this unique trip possible.

The first fall meeting for Club #230 was attended by 77 members at the Bellingham G&C. The personal efforts of all officers and directors was evident in the fine program and good attendance. Hoo-Hoo numbers are being used for the door prize drawings and Elliott McCluney 78871, was first lucky winner of this year. The more meetings you attend the more chance for winning the April jackpot draw.

Jim Reece 78886, is now the head expeditor of lumber shipment from the Summit Timber Mill.....Sam Newman 78879, has been sufficiently busy to add two more professionals to his staff of cruisers...Bob Simon 79593, informs us that helicopter logging has come to the Sultan area..... O. Roesler 80158, and family took an interesting trip to the East and enjoyed visiting the Nation's Capitol.....Al Head 39356, signed up new Hoo-Hoo member D. L.

Our fearless leader for the 1973-1974 Hoo-Hoo year is Neill Bowman 78826. Neill lives up Monroe way and is with Seattle Snohomish Mill Company as chief forester. Neill has spent considerable time presenting the industry viewpoint regarding many of the wilderness and recreation areas being considered in our area. It was fortunate for our club that Neill consented to be our president with all his varied outside activities. We should all give him our personal support for the coming year.

St. Louis

Club #6

St. Louis, Mo.

This is to tell you about our 56th annual golf tournament, and what a tournament! It was held at the Bogey Hills Country Club in St. Peters, a suburb of St. Louis. Tee-off time started at 8:30 and ended at 12:30, but we had rain off and on all day and at about 3:30 a tornado struck the town of St. Peters! Our foursome was on the 17th hole when the tornado passed over and I mean to tell you I was really scared stiff! We could almost touch the clouds.

I left the course about 10:30 that night and started to drive home. It usually takes an hour or so, but that night it took me 2 1/2 hours...roads were under water... I couldn't see where I was goingPart of the bridge over the Missouri River gave way....it was terrible!

But with all this terrible weather we had 85 golfers turn out. Some got to finish and some didn't—and we had 129 for the dinner that evening which was very good.

There was either a golf prize or a door prize for almost everyone, so sum the whole thing up and everyone had a good time and I think everyone there is glad there is a Hoo-Hoo Club in St. Louis. I know I am!

In spite of all the tip sheets (they didn't agree either) and your reporter being chastised and forbidden to take pictures by the security personnel, we did manage a few shots of the happy throng before the fireworks started.

Paulina
Club #220

Redmond, Ore.

The Paulina Club held the fourth annual golf tournament at the Prineville Golf & Country Club in August. There was a good turnout of about 90 fun-loving Hoo-Hoos and lumberman guests.

Pre-tourney festivities were held at Bob Sell's "Goose Hollow" on Friday night and everyone that participated had a most enjoyable evening.

In the championship flight "Pinky" Bergstrom won low gross and Dale Johnson won low net. In the first flight Jim Garrett won low gross and Leon Devereaux won low net.

In the second flight Ed Wilson won low gross and Ed Wilson walked away with low net. Harlan Schroeder won the Calloway flight.

Special prizes were awarded to Harlan Schroeder for KP and to Bob Lisk for finishing (Bob had high gross with 128 pops).

Victoria
Club #183
Victoria, B.C.

John Chalmers, Secretary of the Victoria Hoo-Hoo Club reports that his club's annual Summer Bash was a smashing success with 75 Hoo-Hoos, visitors and guests there to enjoy a wonderful day. It was held at Hershell's Place, a farm on the outskirts of Victoria.

A great time and good fellowship was enjoyed by everyone. They had clam chowder, barbecued salmon, a Bavarian Band and a wonderful location.

Host Hershell Smith, assisted by our Bavarian Band, escorts Herb Doman and the rest of the Cowichan Valley Club into the yard on the latter's arrival by chartered bus.

Highlight of Club 183's Summer Bash was the barbecued salmon. Six 12-pounders can be seen in the foreground.

Host Hershell checks with "Barbecue Bill Grunow" to see how the salmon are doing.

Dave McNeil, Bill Little and Sonny Vickery chat while waiting their turn at the bar.

Our year to date has not been filled with any large projects—we have just kept plugging along. In April our Club members toured Sooke Forest Products sawmill and enjoyed a fine dinner at the Golf Club in Sooke.

During May we hosted a joint golf tournament with Cowichan Valley Club #229 held at the Cowichan Golf & Country Club—again their high handicap golfers came in with questionable scores ?????? Actually we have to admit they beat us fair and square—we even had some of our members in their foursomes to make sure.

We sponsored three Junior Forest Warden Clubs in sending some of their members to Evans Lake Camp. Sponsored and conducted another of our Woodlands Tours for 80 Senior Secondary Students from Victoria School Districts 62 and 63. This has seemed to develop into an annual "logging in progress" tour. In view of the sharp interest of Victoria students the Greater Victoria School Board asked us to participate in assisting them to handle tours for visiting "Voyageur" student groups from Eastern Canada. We have taken on two groups of 42 students each—one from Ontario the other from Quebec.

A General Meeting was held June 8th and many points were discussed in great detail including membership and participation and wood promotion projects. All latest communiques from headquarters were read.

We are looking forward to our joint fishing derby to be held Sept. 16th hosted by Cowichan Valley Club 229. Also to our Fund Raising Dinner to be held October 19th in Victoria on board the SS Princess Patricia—Tickets are $50.00 each and only 150 will be sold. This is our gala—fun—fund raising night of the year.

Southern Minnesota
Club #150

Owatonna, Minn.

Southern Minnesota Hoo-Hoo Club #150 held its monthly golf party July 19th at the Albert Lea Country Club. 22 golfers teed off in the afternoon with 32 sitting down for dinner in the evening. Next months golf party will be at Dodge Center August 16th.

The Southern Minnesota Hoo-Hoo Club #150 had the August Golf Outing at Didge Center on August 16th. Eighteen golfers played in the afternoon and a good number of chaps showed up for dinner in the club house. This new course is developing into a fine course to play as it has many wooded fairways.

Sioux Valley
Club #118

Sioux Falls, S.D.

Sioux Valley Hoo-Hoo Club #118 held a golf party July 19th at the Brookings Country Club. 22 golfers played this attractive course in the afternoon and 40 sat down to a fine steak dinner that evening. A goodly number of prizes were awarded to the golfers and for other members of the club.

Sioux Valley's next event is the annual Stage at the Izaak Walton Clubhouse on August 17th.

Black Bart Club #181

Ukiah, Calif.

The Black Bart Club #181 had its annual family barbecue at Harwood Grove in Branscomb recently, and 58 Hoo-Hoo members, their families and guests attended.

There was something to do for everyone including trap shoot and tennis during the day. The kids had hamburgers and hot dogs and the grownups had steaks etc. The bar was open all day, by the way.

The picnic was co-sponsored by the Harwood Products Company, and Del Cole was the program Chairman.

The Black Bart Club's July barbecue was a success, too. Ninety lumbermen attended the annual event which was held at the Jack Frank residence, the former home of Bill Crawford and Bill Moore. Those in attendance came from North Pacific Lumber Company, Portland, Oregon, some from Los Angeles and also from the Valley.

It was simply beautiful weather and many played golf, swam in the olympic size pool, or just loafed.

Jurisdiction III Meeting

We hope everyone read the Jurisdiction III minutes in the August issue of LOG & TALLY. They did accomplish a lot in the way of business and pleasure, and the International officers sincerely hope that the other Jurisdictions follow III's example and have a mini-convention every year.

Each of the nine Jurisdictions (except Jurisdiction IV) has been awarded the sum of $500 to assist in these mini-conventions.

(Please see Minutes of 1973 Convention elsewhere in these pages.)

At any rate, here are some pictures taken at the Juris III meeting last June.

#1) Need anything more be said? Len Putnam was awarded a fine toilet seat at the Juris III meeting. 2) That's Darrel Pardee and Dick Tutt, both from the Portland Club. 3) Some of the Juris III ladies at the cocktail hour. 4) This logging truck was parked IN FRONT of the Thunderbird Motel during the meeting. 5) In his Hoo-Hoo shirt is Norm Mikalson from the Spokane Club. 6) They even came down from British Columbia!

Canokalan

Club #233

Omak, Wash.

The newly formed Canokalan Club #233 held its first meeting of the 1974 Hoo-Hoo year on September 12th, and newly elected President Hawley Woolshlager called the meeting to order.

After a brief Secretary and Treasurer report, President Woolshlager called for a motion from the floor that the club adopt a project for a youth program. After a short discussion, it was unanimously passed. Hawley then appointed himself as chairman and advised he would appoint a steering committee and would ask for volunteers to work on the project.

Our President suggested we all get behind and support the Okanogan Historical Museum that it now being put together in Okanogan. Inasmuch as the Canokalan Club represents Canada, Okanogan and Chelan, it was agreed to go on record to support the museum but only on a basis that it would be up to the individual members to donate what time and effort he was able to offer.

Hawkeye

Club #193

Cedar Rapids, Iowa

Hawkeye Club #193 met Sept. 24th at the Amana Colonies for dinner. New Officers were installed by Charlie Gunn and the club is off and running for another year. Henry Hess and Tom Partidge were on hand for the meeting and gave a report of the Miami Convention and programs for the coming year. The usual fine Amana dinner was served and every one went home stuffed.

Atlanta
Club #1

Atlanta, Ga.

The Atlanta, Georgia Club had its election of officers in June, and the following officers were elected: Edgar Hill 52691, President; Robert Chambers 80292, Vice President; Robert Lummus III 80296, 2nd Vice President, and Carl Harmon 79980, Secretary Treasurer.

Outgoing President, Dick Wilson, thanked the members for their assistance while he was in office and he awarded Pete Munderloh, outgoing Secretary/Treasurer, a plaque for his contributions toward the growth of the Atlanta Club.

Western Mass.
Club #59

Springfield, Mass.

We don't hear from the Western Massachusetts Club #59 very often, but this issue we were favored with a short story and some pictures.

It seems that they had a golf outing back in June with an election of officers at the same time. Newly elected officers are: Robert Renyhart, President; Harold Gatslick, Secretary; Dennis Reardon, Treasurer; Mark B. Cowles, Vice-gent Snark and William Boilard, Program Director.

Golfing host Red Weeks talks to the club members.

Maine
Club #54

Portland, Me.

The Maine Hoo-Hoo Club #54 held its monthly dinner meeting at the Knights of Pythias Hall in Gray, Maine on September 27, 1973, with better than 35 members attending.

Our guest speaker for the evening was Mr. Harold R. Murray, vice-president, commercial loans, of the Casco Bank, in Portland, Maine. His topic was primarily "Banking In The Lumber Industry", and explained the government freeze, its controls, etc. It was a very interesting program for all.

From the results of our late summer board of directors meeting, the Club now has a new "permanent home" thanks to the work of Dan Carroll of M.S. Hancock Lbr. Co. as mentioned above, we now have the Knights of Pythias Hall in Gray at our disposal, thanks to Dan, and it is working our just great.

These people were not identified, but they seem to be very attentive.

Enjoying cocktails before the meeting. Note those very easy chairs!

Mrs. Bonney and her crew are really doing things up brown for our Club. The hall is a central location for all, and the response has just been great. Each month is a different menu, and the price is just unbelievable, and everything that Mrs. Bonney puts out is home-made...including the famous biscuits! And the attitude adjustment period is something else again....such prices you have never seen!

Seriously, the Club is just elated that it has these fine quarters that it can rely on, and this includes its ladies nite.

The programs for the balance of the year are the best we can get, and a lot of work has gone into them, even to the possibility of a cruise later on in '74 to Nova Scotia on the Lion Ferry MS Bolero, for members and their wives.

Our scholarship program is in full swing also to help out the students in the vocational technical institutes building and architectural programs in Maine at the Central and Southern Institutes.

"Don't bother us now", say Rosie Lafrance, Roger Nolin, Armond Cloutier and Elwin Bailey.

We call it the attitude adjustment period. Any takers?

Tulsa
Club #27
Tulsa, OK

Here is a good shot of the degree team and the new members of the Tulsa, Oklahoma Club #27. Thirty-one new members were brought into the Order at this October 4th meeting. The visiting officer was Jack Cheshire, a past Snark.

Chapter 27, Hoo-Hoo International of Tulsa, Oklahoma was revived in splendid fashion on the evening of October 4, 1973. Several active and newly reinstated members did justice to the Hoo-Hoo code with an excellent concatenation. The thirty-one new members initiated represent a good cross section of the lumber industry of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

The excellent turn out and meeting were due mainly to the effort of Jim Baker, Larry Curd, and Charles Rocky of Tulsa.

Jack Cheshire, (Past Snark), Dave Marteney, Vice President, Hoo-Hoo International, and Loren Champ of Wichita, added their words of wisdom to the gathering.

Temporary officers of Bill Seal as President, and Clark Wiens as Secretary Treasurer were installed.

Toronto
Club #53

Toronto, Ont.

The old and new members of the Tulsa Hoo-Hoo Club couldn't miss this spot for the first meeting in many years.

All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy and the same goes for the hardworking (?) cats in Club #53. So, on the 12th of October, 75 of them journeyed to the number one club in Kitchener/Waterloo for the annual Oktoberfest celebrations—the culmination of two weeks for the largest beer and funfest in North America. The Concordia Club with its 4 oom-pah-pah bands entertained the nightly crowds of over 1000 celebrants as they raised their glasses in the traditional toast, Ein Prosit.

The Miami convention was attended by four delegates from Toronto—Rudy Susanik, George Pletch, Bill Quinn and Bill Bader.

Bill Quinn was appointed to the membership committee of Hoo-Hoo International and Bill Bader was elected to the Supreme Nine as the International Director for Jurisdiction V—Canada and Alaska.

The first official meeting of the year was the annual Hoo-Hoo Golf Tourney and extravaganza. Again held at Glen Eagles in Bolton, (where chief organizer Keith Warren practices a lot), it was a repeat success.

It was windy on the golf course and even windier in the club house as fellows like Al Peck (most honest golfer) explained their technique. Guest John Dunne topped the low net division. Gord Fraser had apparently learned how to use a regular tee instead of a (pop) bottle and succeeded in winning the Don Barclay Trophy as the club member with the Low Net. In close competition were Larry Marshall, Bob Traplin, Jack Hawkins and Bill Truemner.

Low Gross honours went to John Cornwall followed by G. Sosnoski, Georgeous George Petch, Ken Herrler and Harold Keeso. Jimmy Carter and Giles Cloutier won prizes for hidden holes. (Does that mean they couldn't even find them?) Richard Wand collected the Lorimer Trophy and the bottle of Black Cat Cellar wine.

One would think that all is play and no work in Toronto Club #53, but the board members at the monthly executive meetings have already spent many hours in preparation for this year's Industrial Arts Scholarship and Wood Promotion Program. In addition, the annual concat of Club #53 takes place at Fantasy Farm after this issue of Log & Tally goes to press. This ceremony is taken very seriously in Toronto and considerable hours of planning have gone into its organization. More on this subject and the host of kittens entering the garden will be in the next issue.

A Happy Birthday To A Grand Old Cat!!

It is with a great deal of pleasure that Toronto Hoo-Hoo Club #53 and Jurisdiction V congratulates John B. Jarvis #13043 on the occasion of his ninety-first birthday.

Mr. Jarvis was concatenated at Hammond, Louisiana on August 6th, 1904. Those were the days when lumbermen were lumbermen and concatenations were....!

Mr. Jarvis has been an active member for 69 years and his Hoo-Hoo number is the sixth lowest number now active.

Although he has been retired from active participation in the lumber industry for some years now, Mr. Jarvis still maintains an active interest in Hoo-Hoo.

A twitch of the Big Black Cat's whiskers to one of the lumber industry's grand old men.

OBITUARIES

Henry Bahr 45786 of Cleveland, Ohio died suddenly along with his beloved wife in January, 1973.

Brother Bahr was born June, 1904 in Webster, South Dakota and became a member of the order at Washington, D.C. in 1940 where he was a member of the local Washington, D.C. club #99.

Our thanks to Alice Verustho, niece of Mr. & Mrs. Bahr for this report.

Ray Saberson 12075, Rameses #40, has passed on to the Great Beyond in his 94th year. His beloved wife, Pearl, preceded him in death. He left no children.

Here was a unique man in the virtues that men have respected through the ages. He was possessed of great wisdom.

He was an individualist, ambitious to make the most of his abilities and opportunities. He was a believer in individual initiative, self-reliance and responsibility.

He needed no external code of ethics to teach him what was honest, forthright, decent and fair, in dealings with his fellow men.

Ray was a good neighbor in every sense of the word. He could not have been otherwise.

Here was a scion of adventure-some and hardy pioneers. He inherited respect for individual liberty, industry, hardwork and frugality. He respected the property and rights of others, harboring no envy of him whose status and material possessions happened to be greater than his.

He remained until the end keenly interested in the lives and fortunes of his friends and associates and in the affairs of his community and nation.

He could see some good in everything, focusing on the good in men and not on their faults.

So, as we bid farewell to Ray, he would not have us mourn. He would ask no recompense for the life he lived but to linger on in the memory of those who knew him well.

Robert A. Nelson 36560 of Minneapolis, Minnesota was born in Minneapolis January, 1894.

Bob became a member of Hoo-Hoo International in 1925 and was a local member of the Twin Cities Club #12.

Harold R. Britt 50228. We have recently been advised of the passing of Harold Britt of Phoenix, Arizona.

Brother Harold received his membership in Hoo-Hoo at Grand Canyon, Arizona in 1948 and was a recent member of the Phoenix Club #72.

One of Hoo-Hoo's most familiar faces was missed at the recent convention in Miami—that of S. Eugene Madden 45056, who passed away on July 19 in Warrenton, Virginia. Gene, a long-time member of Washington, DC Hoo-Hoo Club #99, always involved himself wholeheartedly in anything he undertook, as both his Hoo-Hoo and civic activities attest.

Following Gene's initiation into the Washington Club in the middle 30's, he held several local offices culminating in being elected President of Club #99 for the 1942-43 Hoo-Hoo year. In 1951 he attended the National Convention in Miami, Florida which was the first of twenty-two consecutive national Conventions Gene and his wife Ida were to attend. Subsequently, Gene was elected to the Supreme Nine from Jurisdiction IX on three separate occasions and served with great distinction. At the 1970 convention in Boston Gene was presented with a plaque honoring him for attending his twentieth consecutive national convention.

Gene left his native Luray, Virginia as a young man, coming to Washington, DC in the 1920's. He began working for a local retail lumber yard, Galliher & Hugely, ultimately becoming general manager of the company. With the advent of World War II, Gene went with the War Production Board, where he earned a commendation award for his contribution to the war efforts. Following his government service, Gene entered the wholesale lumber business in partnership with J. Addison Porter 46499, and in 1950 Gene formed his own company, Madden Lumber Co.

William L. Kofford 73192 of Yreka, California was born August 14, 1931 in Chico, Louisiana.

Bill was an employee of Diamond International at the time of his initiation which was January, 1962. He was also a member of the local Shasta-Cascade Hoo-Hoo Club in Redding, CA.

The Hoo - Hoo House Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition Seattle, Wash. 1909

The clubhouse designed by architect Ellsworth Prime Storey for the Hoo-Hoo, a national lumberman's fraternity, and erected at Seattle's Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition of 1909, was demolished in April 1959. At the close of the fair it had become the property of the University of Washington, and functioned as a faculty club until its destruction. Its disappearance is unfortunate.

Hoo House, on the other hand, was an individual architectural statement, and in that sense recalls Louis Sullivan's Transportation Building at the earlier fair. As with the latter building, Storey's work received contemporary praise for those qualities which set it apart from most of the exposition's architecture.

A survival of many features from the mid-nineteenth-century

In addition, the Hoo-Hoo House was closely linked to a more contemporary movement: the 'New School of the Middle West', as Frank Lloyd Wright called it; that is, the early work of the 'prairie architects', and the co-Chicago Arts and Crafts Society. Ellsworth Storey, who moved to Seattle in 1903, was born in Chicago. He graduated from the University of Illinois, and while a

Here is a view of the exterior of the Hoo-Hoo House in Seattle, Washington in 1909. Building was demolished in 1959.

The Hoo-Hoo House was a product of architectural individualism, but recalled the mid-nineteenth-century Stick Style and reflected the more contemporary thought of the Chicago 'prairie architects'. An interesting example of the westward diffusion of these movements, it was a forerunner of later Seattle architecture.

The privately commissioned Hoo-Hoo House was not typical of the exposition's architecture. The official buildings, designed under the supervision of John Galen Howard, were of an academic unity which reflected the Chicago Fair of 1893. The Hoo-student worked during the summers with the Chicago firm of Frost and Granger. There is no doubt that he was aware of the work of the group about Wright. In the Hoo-Hoo House the characteristic picturesque asymmetry of the Stick Style had disappeared. The massing was reminiscent of Sullivan's West Chicago Club: the use of a central, projecting, and gabled bay above the entrance was common to both. However, the verticality of the taller Sullivan building gave way in the Hoo-Hoo House to a dominant horizontal character reflecting the contemporary prairie house. On the interior,

Stick and Shingle Styles characterizes much of Seattle's twentieth-century domestic architecture. In this area, with its vast timber resources, wood continues to be the most abundant building material. The domestically scaled Hoo-Hoo House, intended as a display of forest products, recalled the Stick Style by its exposed timber frame, here employed as the actual waff structure. This dark-stained timberwork, contrasting with the stucco panels, created a visually active exterior. Other Stick Style features, for example the use of vertical board and batten siding, were also found in the building.

1974 Convention Host

Saturday evening, May 12th, was the date picked for the Detroit Club's Husband & Wife Dinner Dance which was held at the beautiful Detroit Yacht Club. The evening was one devoted to entertaining the wives, girlfriends etc. Some 80 couples enjoyed a great cocktail hour and a great steak dinner.

The dining room was set up cabaret style and the couples enjoyed dancing through and after dinner. This was truly one of our finer outings. The ladies really enjoyed it and so did the cats. The pictures prove it!

On August 16th we had our annual meeting at the Royal Oak Elk's Club, and a much better than average turnout enjoyed the sumptuous buffet.

Following dinner the annual election of officers was held with V.P. Ran Leech moving up to the presidency; President Bob Carper became Vicegerent Snark while long time Secretary/Treasurer Ed. Burry was elevated to Vice President. Jim Peterson is the new Secretary/Treasurer and several new members were added to the Board of Directors.

The club was then told of our plans to run S-9 Member Phil Dawson for International V.P. of Snark of the Universe at the Miami Convention. Our group the central, two-story void of the wide assembly hall (twenty-five by fifty feet), used in conjunction with areas of varying but more restricted size, recalls Wright's use of the same interior spatial organization. In addition, Storey's association with the spirit of the Arts and Crafts movement is apparent from the fact that he designed all the building's furniture and many of its appointments.

In contrast to the derivative stylistic features listed above, the terrace to the east exploited the building's splendid location. It was situated on a typical Seattle sloping site at the top of a ridge overlooking Lake Washington.

then soundly declared itself in full support of Phil for no less than Snark and wished him well.

A 50/50 drawing was held with the winner receiving $200 toward his convention expense. Alternates were drawn as the member who wins MUST attend the convention to collect. The club also voted to again assist the President and Treasurer with an expense underwrite to attend the convention.

Our S-9 Member and Ex-Club President Phil Dawson (right), congratulates newly elected Club President Ran Leech.

After the usual review of progress on our 1974 Convention to be held in Detroit which was presented by Phil Dawson, the meeting was adjourned.

On October 4th, our group gathered at the beautiful Meadowbrook Hall, the breathtaking mansion of the late Matilda Dodge Wilson, widow of the late auto pioneer and multi-millionaire John Dodge and former lumberman Alfred Wilson. After a tour of the mansion cocktails were served in the drawing room followed by dinner in the ballroom.

This was a dual occasion. Our club welcomed home our new Snark, Philip H. Dawson 53384 (former S-9 Member), who was elected to the Presidency of the International Order and we also greeted and recognized Bob Van Every, our new S-9 Member for Jurisdiction II.

The other purpose was to officially launch our last year's drive for our convention which is to be held September 15-19, 1974. Snark Phil, who is also general chairman of the convention committee, gave a thorough briefing on the overall plans for the convention, showed his personal movies of the Miami Convention and gave his usual fine pitch for help from the ladies in planning the future convention.

THE STORY OF OUR 83rd ANNUAL CONVENTION

The Snark was Embalmed

Long Live
The Snark!

I have now attended five consecutive Hoo-Hoo conventions, and it seems to me that they get better each year I attend. The entire convention was a big success in the aspects of both business and fun.

FIRST DAY—Sunday, September 2nd—The Icebreaker and reception was to have been at poolside, but it was a little chilly that night, so we had it indoors. This didn't deter our stalwart conventioners, however, as we renewed old friendships and made new friends. Fraternalism was at its best.

SECOND DAY—Monday, September 3rd—Opening general session was impressive with an invocation and presentation of colors. The guest speaker was Hubert Walker, incoming president of the National Lumber & Building Materials Dealers Association. His address was brief and to the point.

Then it was time for the Snark, Len Putnam, to take over, and he took over with a vengeance! He showed some beautiful slides of the new International office (and some of the old office just for comparison) in his own "Putnam Style" which we have all learned to enjoy.

After a brief coffee break we heard reports from the officers of Hoo-Hoo International and the usual committee appointments were made. Roy S. Cummins was appointed chairman of the Nominating Committee; Leonard Hurd was appointed Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions; Tom Partridge was appointed Chairman of the Committee on Administration, and Wade Cory was appointed Chairman of the Committee on Legislation. The Budget Committee was headed by the Treasurer, Henry Hess, and the Membership Committee was under the guidance of the Vice President, Robert Hayes.

All this was followed by a stag luncheon which was served efficiently and promptly, but it didn't make much difference how promptly or efficiently it was served because the Fashion Show held the attention of the guests throughout the luncheon. It was a real eye-popping event!

After lunch it was back to the business session and the reports of the Supreme Nine members. Snark Putnam started to fine people (sometimes as much as $5, but more often only $1.50) for some trivial error as each report was given. Then the Snark pasted up a crisp $100 bill on the podium and announced that when the finest $100 he would match it and send it all to the Western Forestry Center in Portland, Oregon.

Later, when it was announced that the fines totaled $99.99, there was an immediate rush by the members present to donate that last penny so that the Snark would have to match the pot. The total collected was $200.02 which was sent to the Western Forestry Center the following week. A full accounting of money was also mailed with the check. List of fines is located elsewhere in these pages.

We were "on our own" for Monday evening, but everyone managed to keep busy attending cocktail parties, going out to Dinner, or just plain relaxing.

While the men were busy during the day, the ladies went by bus to Calder Race Track for a day at the races. The fourth race was named after Hoo-Hoo! From what I hear, however, there were no big winners in their group.

THIRD DAY—September 4th—The men had a choice. They could enter the golf tournament or go deep sea fishing, and the group was split about 50-50 each way. It was a beautiful day to either fish or play golf, but yours truly elected to stay in bed until 10:00 AM.

On this, the third day, the ladies either took a boat cruise down the famous Miami Beach Millionaire's Row, or took a two-hour sightseeing ride. In the afternoon the ladies went on a shopping spree.

FOURTH DAY—September 5th—The business session was in progress again at 9:29 AM. The Wood Promotion Trophy was up for grabs again with three clubs competing in earnest. Winner of the Wood Promotion contest for 1973 was the Wichita Hoo-Hoo Club #173. They told their story with beautifully done color slides. They showed movies on TV, and had TV and radio coverage. Just about everyone in the Wichita area knows what Hoo-Hoo is all about!

Things moved along so rapidly that morning it was decided to finish up the business session before lunch. The nominating committee came up with the following slate of officers and directors: President, Philip H. Dawson 53384; Vice President, David B. Marteney 65075; Treasurer, Henry C. Hess 46786, and Secretary, Ben F. Springer 34265.

Nominated as Supreme Nine Members were: Charles Lyons 77352, Jurisdiction I; Robert Van Every 73186, Jurisdiction II; Eugene Zanck 68162, Jurisdiction III; Tony Baynes 74529, Jurisdiction IV; William A. Bader 75318, Jurisdiction V.

Also, James A. Jones L-72703, Jurisdiction VI; Larn Champ 75820, Jurisdiction VII; Thomas M. Partridge 45201, Jurisdiction VIII and Robert E. Hayes 70754, Jurisdiction IX.

There being no further nominations, there was a unanimous vote to accept the slate as read.

There was a joint ladies and mens luncheon this day. A delightful and entertaining lunch.

At 3:30 in the afternoon there was a concat (8 new members!) and at 4:29 the Emblaming of the Snark ceremony took place with the Seer of the House of Ancients, Ben Springer, in command.

Later in the afternoon there was the new Snark's reception (open bar) followed by a huge banquet, entertainment and dancing far into the night. Golf and fishing trophies were awarded at the banquet and everyone enjoyed himself.

Our new Snark, Phil Dawson, made some movies of the affair, and I, for one, can't wait to see them!

And so to bed. If you are missing these conventions every year, you're making a mistake! Plan to attend the next convention hosted by the Detroit Hoo-Hoo Club #28 at the Detroit-Hilton Hotel, Detroit, Michigan, September 15-19, 1974. You might even be lucky enough to win a new car! Honest!

Len Putnam (seated, right) invites Harold Hiley to kiss his Rameses ring to the obvious delight of the board members. Harold made the trip to the convention as a representative of Jurisdiction IV (Australia).

Robert Hayes, outgoing vice president, is about to present the membership trophy to Jurisdiction III Supreme Nine.

Convention Chairman Paul Renuart stands behind the golf and fishing trophies about to be awarded. At right is the Wood Promotion Trophy and at left is the Membership Trophy which is awarded each year to the Jurisdiction which shows the largest gain in membership for the year.

Here are Len Putnam (Right), newest Rameses #65, with John Dolcater, Rameses #47. John and his wife, Julia, currently live in Tampa, Florida, and made the trip to Miami to see some old friends and make some new ones.

John Dolcater 37372 (left), Rameses #47 presents Cliff Cunningham (right) with a hand-crafted Hoo-Hoo locket. The locket bears the name of Samuel Abraham Conn #936, and Fred King Conn, #10739, and a photo of Fred Conn. Mr. Dolcater also gave to Hoo-Hoo International a membership book dated 1909.

Minutes

September 1, 1973 - Americana Hotel,
Miami Beach, Florida

The meeting was called to order by Snark Leonard R. Putnam at 9:29 A.M.

Present were Snark Putnam, Chairman Jack Cheshire, V.P. Robert Hayes, Secretary Ben F. Springer and Treasurer Henry C. Hess. Also present were the following S-9 members: James Jones, Wade Cory, Leonard Hurd, Roy Cummins, Thomas Partridge and Philip Dawson. Also present were Cliff Cunningham, Exec. Sec'y and Charles Lyons, a guest.

The minutes of the last Board meeting held at the Thunderbird Motel in Portland, Oregon, December 9, 1972 were read. A motion was made, seconded and carried to accept the minutes as read.

The treasurer's interim report was read by Treasurer Hess, and since the final audited report could not be prepared due to the early dates of the convention, the interim report was accepted as read.

There were short reports made by the Chairman, Vice President and Secretary. Mr. Cheshire urged the use of the Hoo-Hoo film, THE FOREST PRODUCTIVE, in our school systems. He has made the film on the Junior High School curriculum in Albuquerque, NM. The Vice President told of his trip to Miami Beach to meet with the Convention Committee, and of his sign which appears in the August 1973 issue of LOG & TALLY. The Secretary told of the surprise he got when he learned of the renaming of the Hoo-Hoo club of Milwaukee. It has been renamed "The Ben F. Springer Hoo-Hoo Club of Milwaukee #35.

Snark Putnam explained the International Office move from the City of Boston to Norwood, Mass. Much nicer quarters and cheaper rent. Then he distributed the new by-laws book which had been updated and reprinted in June, 1973.

The Snark also distributed the brochures "Whence Came Hoo-Hoo" which had also been updated and reprinted in June, 1973.

The Snark also explained that micro-filming of all Hoo-Hoo records had been brought up to date and two copies made. One copy to be kept at the International office, one at the Forest History Society at Santa Cruz, California, and one copy in the safe deposit box of the Needham National Bank (Providence, Highway Branch, Norwood, Mass.)

Earlier in the year Mr. Putnam had appointed Al Kerper L-44255 as Chairman of the Redwood Grove Committee to replace Laurence Owen 47665, deceased. He recommended that the Committee remain intact at least through the 1974 Hoo-Hoo year.

Next it was voted unanimously to increase the Executive Sec'y salary to $15,000 per year and to increase the salary of his assistant to $145 per week ($7,540 per year).

It was recommended to the Exec. Sec'y that he keep account 660 (promotion account) as a separate income item.

Snark Putnam asked for the amount of $150 (maximum) for a plaque to present the DiGiorgio Corp which made it possible for Hoo-Hoo to utilize their movie "The Forest Productive". Unanimous.

It was recommended that the S-9 members attend more of the UNSuccessful club and board meetings rather than spend too much time with the more successful clubs.

It was also recommended that the S-9 members try to create a desire in the membership to become State Deputy Snark, Vicegerent Snark, etc.

A motion was made, seconded and carried: RESOLVED THAT: A special appropriation of Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000.00) be established from which Hoo-Hoo International will reimburse any and all Jurisdictions (with the exception of Jurisdiction IV) for expenditures incurred in conducting Jurisdictional meetings. To be entitled to such reimbursement, the Supreme Nine Representative for the Jurisdiction must submit an approved, detailed accounting of such expenditures to Hoo-Hoo International; it being further understood that each of the eight Jurisdictions shall be limited to a maximum reimbursement of $500.00 each, for any one fiscal year.

There was a short discussion on supplying Past S-9 members a plaque in recognition of their time and efforts for Hoo-Hoo. It was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:09 P.M.

Respectfully Submitted,
Clifford H. Cunningham 71880
Executive Secretary

Report of Committee On Resolution

1. Whereas Hoo-Hoo has suffered the mortality of 82 members, including Ray Saberson Rameses 40 #12075, Cliff Schoerling Rameses 49 #45533 and Larry Owen Rameses 63 #47665, be it resolved that our International Secretary be instructed to transmit to the families of these brothers our sincere sympathy and prayers.

2. Whereas the officers and members of the Supreme Nine have faithfully and effectively fulfilled their duties as the Hoo-Hoo Board of Directors for the past year, be it resolved that the delegates assembled at this 83rd Annual Meeting extend thanks and appreciation of their individual clubs to each member of the Supreme Nine and the other officers. And be it further resolved that all International Officers upon completion of their term in office, be duly recognized with a momento of their service.

3. Whereas Snark of the Universe Leonard Putnam 74489 has completed a very active and successful year of his service to Hoo-Hoo International as Snark, giving of his time, energy, experience and heart to the faithful execution of his widely scattered duties in the true spirit of Hoo-Hoo. Be it resolved, therefore, that the heartfelt thanks and sincere appreciation of Hoo-Hoo be extended through this 83rd Annual Convention to the Snark for an active, inspiring and progressive year of accomplishment.

4. Whereas the hard work, energy, time and efforts of the Miami Hoo Hoo Club #42 has resulted in a most hospitable, worthwhile, friendly and educational convention and whereas the Miami Hoo-Hoo Club #42 has met with the enthusiastic support and approbation of the attending delegates and their wives, be it resolved that the cordial thanks and sincere appreciation of all be extended to our Hosts Paul and Gail Renuart, Al and Jean Colletti, Everette and Connie Cupit and Mike and Ginger McVay for a highly successful Convention. Also to the Degree Team, we wish to express commendations and praise for the fine Concat.

5. Whereas many regional, national and international press and lumber trade pages have given valuable support and publicity to the various national and local Hoo-Hoo programs and have furthered the aims and objectives of Hoo-Hoo in their editorial columns, be it resolved that our recognition and appreciation be therefore tendered for these fine efforts which have done much to achieve and maintain the position Hoo-Hoo enjoys today as spokesman for the industry.

Be it further resolved that through the efforts of our Snark Leonard Putnam and the Di-Giorgio Corp., we have one of the finest industry films with which to tell our story in the communities where we live and work.

6. Whereas the established procedure calls for the awarding of the "Wood Promotion Trophy" for the recognition of outstanding Club programs in behalf of wood promotion, and whereas the Trophy is now in possession of Hoo-Hoo to be so awarded annually, the success of the program depends on participation by all Clubs, now, therefore be it resolved that each member of the Supreme Nine encourage the Clubs in their Jurisdictions to enter the competition for the Wood Promotion Trophy.

7. Whereas our International Secretary, Ben F. Springer 34265 Rameses 37 Seer of the House of Ancients with his attendance and his long-standing efforts during the past years has, and is, most appreciated. Further, we extend our best wishes for continued health, happiness, and long life and attendance at future conventions.

8. Whereas Cliff Cunningham 71880, International Executive Secretary, has done an excellent job during the past year, be it resolved that the Board of Directors and other Officers extend to Cliff Cunningham the sincere thanks of ALL Hoo-Hoo for a job well done.

9. Whereas the Detroit Hoo Hoo Club #28 has graciously consented to Host the 84th Annual Hoo-Hoo Convention in 1974, be it resolved that the Order's LOG & TALLY Magazine take the necessary steps to publicize the much anticipated Convention in Detroit, Michigan.

Letters to the Editor

.....About my visit to Sydney, Australia this Summer. I really enjoyed it and was certainly royally received and treated by Al Gardner, VG Snark of Australia, and Brother Mechlem, VG Snark of New South Wales. They, along with their very nice wives, entertained me with a marvelous dinner at the Summit Restaurant situated on the 47th floor in the well known Australia Square in downtown Sydney. Our table revolved around a moving circular floor so that we enjoyed a splendid view of all sides of Sydney.

I told them of my most fervent hopes of re-establishing the Manila Hoo-Hoo Club #141 which, along with some fine Hoo-Hoo friends, I was able to establish back in 1951. This club had a very auspicious beginning and was well supported by some very prominent lumbermen including Carlos Fernandez, head of the very prominent and successful Nasipit Lumber Company, and particularly so by Florencio Tamesis who at that time was Director of Forestry of the Philippines. Mr. Tamesis is now one of the top executives of the Nasipit Lumber Company. He indicated to me when I talked with him of my intense desire to get the Manila Club re-organized, that if we could get the younger generation involved he would be very glad to help in any way he could. The Australian Clubs would also like to assist in any way possible although they are a long distance from Manila.....

I really have my heart set on seeing the Manila Club re-form before I pass along and hope you will do everything you can to attain this goal.

Fraternally,

Dear Cliff:
I just returned yesterday from my assignment on the Staff of Boy Scout Jamboree West at Faragut, Idaho. I had worked VIP reception for the National Boy Scout office and made many new and good friends. One of the men whom I liked very much borrowed my car for an errand the last day. When he came back, he said he noted the registration of the car (company car) and decided I must be in the lumber business and further asked me if I had ever heard of Hoo-Hoo.

The man was Robert F. Stoesel who then proceeded to tell me that he is Ben Springer's nephew and that Ben had brought him up as a son from the time he was two years old. Needless to say we were both delighted and almost did not have this realization except for his borrowing my car.

It is a small world but very fine world and I am glad to be a part of it.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,
Hoo-Hoo Club of Spokane, No. 16

In paying her husband's dues for the new Hoo-Hoo year, Mrs. Ernest Greene of Tucson, Arizona writes that her husband Ernest 66917, has been bedridden for over three years. A stroke with resultant inoperable head injury—and he has NEVER complained of his suffering!

We will have been married 52 years on October 15, 1973.

It is interesting to note that Ernest Greene joined Hoo-Hoo in Tucson, Arizona March 21, 1957. He is 76 years old.

Dear Cliff
Julia and I enjoyed our day and evening at the Miami Convention. We met a number of old friends and, indeed, some new ones too.....

Does Your Club Want a Project?

Gene Zanck, Supreme Nine for Jurisdiction III, advises that the U.S. Forest Service has about 1,000 packets of fir and pine seed available at no cost. These packets were made up for use by the Boy Scouts at their jamboree last summer in Idaho, but the hiking trails were closed due to the fire hazard and the scouts were not able to sow the seeds in the woods as planned.

Each packet contains a mixture of a dozen or so seeds. This could turn out to be a good wood promotion project if the clubs see fit to use it.

Interested clubs or individuals could send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Mr. Maurice Vogel, 176 U.S. Court House, Spokane, Washington 99201.

Canokalan Club #233 Omak, Washington

The Canokalan Club's first golf tournament was a huge success with entries from both Oregon and Washington.

Low gross was won by Harry Stuchell, Everett, Washington; low handicap by Dale Johnson of Omak. Other winners were from Madras, Kinzua, Portland, Oregon and Yakima, Washington.

We're looking for even a bigger and better tournament next year.

G-P Continues Record Pace For Nine-Months

The best nine-month and third-quarter sales and earnings in company history were reported today by Georgia-Pacific Corp. in a continuation of record gains made in the first half.

Sales reached $1.67 billion for the first time in any nine-month period and compared with $1.27 billion for the same period in 1972, a gain of 31.1 per cent. Net income of $124.76 million, also a record, compared with $71.39 million, up 74.8 per cent, and fully diluted earnings per share rose to $2.22 compared with $1.30 in the first nine months a year ago.

Growing strength in both domestic and export markets for pulp, paper and chemicals overshadowed a drop in softwood plywood and some lumber prices. New manufacturing and distribution facilities already completed in an ahead-of-schedule $1 billion capital expansion program also added to continuing gains, according to R.B. Pamplin, chairman and president.

This year's twenty additional manufacturing plants, several still under construction, plus more than 200,000 acres of additional timberlands with trees growing on a sustained annual basis will have a further beneficial impact on future operational results, he predicted.

Current expansions, all to be in operation by year-end, include 400 tons of new pulp capacity, a new paper operation to expand corrugating medium capacity, and increases in hardwood and softwood lumber and plywood, particleboard, panelboard, gypsum joint systems and chemical production and sales facilities.

"However, sales continue to outstrip production," Pamplin added. "More than a dozen additional plants, mainly lumber and chemicals including PVC, already are under construction for 1974 completion to help meet demand."
